FERGUSON'S FORUM BOOSTS FOR ALLRED

Austin, August 13.—The Ferguson Forum, James E. Ferguson's weekly paper today editorially endorsed the candidacy of attorney general James V. Allred of Wichita Falls opposing Robert Lee Bobbitt. The editorial said that Bobbitt had gone "out of his way to abuse the Ferguson administration under instructions from Dan Moody."

Attend Houston Meeting

The Texas Louisiana Power & Southeast Division, hold a general business meeting in the Buccancer Hotel at Galveston, Texas, on Aug. 9th.

Officials from the general office, and managers, commercial sections, and representatives from the women's department from each of the six district offices, attended the meeting.

Representatives of the General Electric Company, Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company and Gerry bar Electric Co., all had a very elaborate display of the very latest electric appliances.

Those attending from the Woodville

district were District Manager R. L. Carlton and wife, also Miss Mary Elba Wiest, representative of woman's committee.

It was reported as being an impressive as well as an instructive meeting, bringing about a better unity among the officials of the company and instructing them on the new electrical appliances to be handled during the coming seasons.

Dist. Attorney C. E. Smith, who was seriously hurt about two weeks ago in an automobile accident, near Voth while enroute to Beaumont, is doing extremely well and was brought home Tuesday night. He was reported as resting well Wednesday with the exception of severe soreness caused by the trip home. Everyone hopes to soon see him out again.

Mrs. E. F. Hughes and little daughter, Mary Louise are spending three or four weeks at Bryan, Texas the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Kline. Both Mrs. Hughes and Mary Louise are to undergo treatment while there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Hawkins spent Sunday at Huntington with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hawkins and was accompanied home by Mrs. G. M. Hawkins, who will spend some time here with her son and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Nollus and children, Martin Jr. and Lucy Jane, spent this week at Farmerville as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bob Best.

LAIRD OUTLINES HIS POLICY

To the Voters of Tyler County:

I wish to thank all of you who supported me in the first primary, and would appreciate the help of all in the second primary.

In view of Tyler county's misfortune I believe that it is entitled to liberal help from the state in building its roads. My experience in the Legislature and especially on the highways Committee should enable me to be of real service to Tyler county in solving her road problem.

I was able to get the law changed so that the cattle owner would not have to dip his cows every fourteen days. I shall try to keep the law just as it is now.

I believe in the preservation of our game and birds, but I do not believe that they should be permitted to destroy the farmer's property. I consider it an out-rage to get a man to get a permit from Austin to protect his own property.

I am opposed to moving the penitentiary to Austin.

I was on the Education Committee and supported every measure for the advancement of education and the betterment of society.

I believe that we need more men in office who by their own experience are familiar with the needs of farmers and labor. I shall do all that I can to better their condition.

I have the endorsement and support of every voter in the community where I have lived all my life except for the time I spent in the army in France during the world war.

I shall always stand for your support in the past and if you give that my experience and my service in the Legislature would enable me to make you a good Representative. I shall greatly appreciate your help in the second primary August 23.

Yours for Service,
John W. Laird

WHOOPEE, BANG, YEOW!

Optimist has hoped that the things alleged against the Ferguson's were mere "politics," but the exposures, coming officially and under oath, by the Secretary of State from the records, show up worse than we have ever heard, destructive to civil government and a stinking disgrace to what we want to believe is Grand Old Texas.

Please excuse us, and, O Lord, deliver us. With the Ferguson's in control the only edicts we may expect is Al Capone and his racketeers to keep our own god men company and make Texas one long, continuous yell—worse than the Red man's war whoop in the days of yore.

If we want a thrill we will read pioneer tales, and sob, but from right here on out we would like to see real advances in our life, a greater respect FOR THE LAWS AND BETTER MEN IN COMMAND OF AUTHORITY

Hold your Nose, Read it and Weep!

AUSTIN, August 12th.—Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, Secretary of State, in a speech prepared for delivery here tonight, in behalf of the candidacy of Ross Sterling of Houston, seeking the governorship, presented a recital which she said regarding the parole record during the long days of the administration of Mrs. William A. Ferguson as governor.

"Practically all state papers," she said, "have spent Jim Ferguson's promise in case of his wife's election, to release immediately 2,000 convicts. In this connection and as my conclusions I have reserved heretofore undivulged facts; they have not been divulged before because they were compiled only this week.

"These are indisputable, sworn to the fact that at the request of the secretary of State's wife ... without ...

Mrs. McCallum then read from the sworn certificate as follows:

"During William Ferguson's last 22 days in office she granted full, unconditional pardons to 121 robbers, 127 liquor law violators, 123 murderers, and 23 rapists. During her last three days in office, from January 16, 1927, through January 17, 1927, she granted clemency in 150 cases, including full pardons to 30 violators of liquor laws, 40 robbers, 22 murderers and 10 rapists."

"Not a disgrace," she said, "that I do not hear some of our boys and girls talking and they are questioning the very foundation of our government—democracy. They are questioning whether truth and honor pay."

SCHOOL OPENING

Supt. P. L. Hunter authorizes the statement that the Woonville schools will begin Monday September 8th, and an official announcement of the faculty can be made in a few days.

Supt. Hunter is also pleased to state that he has received from the State Dept. of Education, at Austin, that the 4th credit in Latin has been granted to the Kirby High School. A very complimentary report was made on the examination of the Latin material submitted.

Miss Ethelyn Collier, who spent the summer at Van Buren, Ark., the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Watson, has returned home, while away she took a special course in music so her trip was both profitable and pleasant.

Miss Jewell Phillips, who was operated on for appendicitis about three weeks ago at Beaumont, was able to be brought home last Sunday, and her many friends will be glad to know of her improvement.

Mrs. W. A. Lindsey left several days ago for to spend two or three weeks at Jasper with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey.

A FEW WORDS, A BIG GUN AND A BURSTED LUNG

Rather exciting event in colored quarter of Donette Saturday night, when Olivia Owens, about 38, a out her husband, Allen, through the right lung, the trouble said to be over another female in the closet on pay-day," and a little quarrel.

Olivia is in jail here and Allen is making some progress in growing another lung.

Rev. A. T. Stace of Four Lake spent Tuesday afternoon in Woodville mingling with friends.

Reciprocity

Many leading Tyler county people reason the Governor's race from this viewpoint: Granting that all things are equal between the two candidates, Tyler county should give Mr. Sterling a good vote and substantial lead in the second primary because of Mr. Sterling's interest in road improvement in Tyler county long before the campaign came up, as appreciation and reciprocity, and as a method of co-operation in the road building program now under way, of which Mr. Sterling is the head.

Of course, it can be argued that if the Ferguson's are elected, we will not need any good roads to aid handily in getting away.

Mrs. R. L. Carlton and children James, Morie B. and David Earl returned last Wednesday from a three weeks visit with relatives at Lankin in Comanche county.

Misses Mary Elba and Gloria Wheat are spending a few days at Mexia with their sister, Mrs. G. W. Hopson.

NEAL NEWS

Neal, Aug. 12.—Miss Lu Weatherford of Kountze was a social visitor in our community Sunday.

Mrs. David H. Neal and little daughter, Bernice, accompanied by the former's sister, Miss Mamie Lee Knight of Livingston, are visiting here.

Miss Bertha Lee Freeman of the Warren section was the guest of relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Pitts of Kountze spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rhodes and children, Clifford and Marjorie of Port Arthur were guests of relatives for a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Durham of Port Arthur spent last week end in the W. H. Durham home.

11-CENT COTTON AND 40-CENT MEAT

By MRS. S. C. FORD, Pecos, Texas

Eleven cent cotton and forty-cent meat,
How in the world can a poor man eat?
Pick up high—cotton down low,
How in the world can we raise the dough?
The cotton is out—shoots run down
Old folks with a hick in the crown,
The new folks broken-fingers all sore,
The cotton is down to rise no more.

Eleven-cent cotton and ten dollar pants—
Who in the world has got a chance?
We can't buy clothes—we can't buy meat,
Get down on cotton and nothing to eat.
We've got no homes—got no wealth,
Losing our credit—ruining our health,
Can't help each other. What shall we do?
I can't solve the problem, so it's up to you.

Eleven cent cotton and a carload of tax—
The load's too heavy for our poor backs,
We're good set of farmers—we all know well,
But there's something wrong as sure as—well.
We all worked hard—we groaned and sweat,
Now we are ruined—we are a blowed-up set,
No use talking, any man's beat
With eleven-cent cotton and forty-cent meat.

Lon Morris College Leads In East Texas

If advanced reservations are any indications, the present record at Lon Morris College indicate another successful session for 1930-31. With the closing of the summer school this week there remains places for only thirty more young men and eighteen young ladies in the four dormitories on the campus.

The enrollment at Lon Morris is limited to 300, counting both boarding and day students. When this limit is reached no other student will be registered. The boarding department lacks only forty-eight more places of reaching its capacity, and there are still approximately three weeks remaining before the opening in September.

The Fifty-seventh session of Lon Morris College will open the second week of September. Entrance examinations for those desiring them will be given on September 8. All new students register on September 9. Former students register on September 10. Thursday morning, September 11, will mark the opening exercises of the term.

Communications concerning reservations ought to be mailed immediately to Mr. D. E. Hawk, Business Manager, Lon Morris College, Jacksonville, Texas. The College invites correspondence and additional information can be secured on request. A few scholarships are still available to worthy students.

MEDICAL WHISKY USE ON DECLINE

Leading medical authorities agree that whisky is going out of fashion as a medicine, and their claims are supported by the fact that the number of doctors' prescriptions for medical whisky is steadily decreasing.

One of the foremost opponents of the use of whisky as medicine is Dr. George D. Bevan of Chicago, one of the foremost American medical men, former president of the American Medical Association and a member of the faculty of the Presbyterian General Hospital in Chicago, one of the largest institutions in the world.

"The prohibition movement does not prohibit the use of whisky as a medicine for his patients, but it has now limited it to a few cases," said Dr. Bevan. "To be strictly no whisky ever prescribed 400 years ago to his patients in a medicinal form."

Dr. Bevan's opinion is supported by the fact that the number of prescriptions for medicinal whisky has declined 50 per cent in the past few years. This is due to the fact that the use of whisky as a medicine is now considered a relic of the past.

His Thought and Care for Posterity

Crude Verse by Unknown Author Conveying a Beautiful Thought

WHY

An old man going along highway
Came at the evening, cold and gray
To a chasm vast and deep and wide
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
But the sullen stream had no fear for him,
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.
"Old Man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength with building here
Your journey will end with the ending day
You never again will pass this way
You've crossed this chasm deep and wide—
Why build you this bridge at evening tide?"
The builder lifted his old gray head
"Good friend, in the path I've come," he said,
"There followeth after me today,
A youth whose feet must pass this way
This chasm that has been as naught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim—
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him."

"Home Again" After Forty Long Years

Mrs. Ettie Barnes of Yuma, Arizona spent last week here with her girlhood friend Mrs. Ettie Corson, this being her first trip to Woodville in 40 years. Of course many changes have occurred and friends have come and gone, but Mrs. Barnes made a number of friends during her short visit here. She is now visiting relatives the Barnes family at Chester and plans to return to Arizona about Sept. 14th.

During her girlhood days Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Corson were known as the two Miss Ettie's in Woodville.

Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.
BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!
