Judge Sturrock Cited to Appear at Austin on Four-way Project Appeal

In a recent letter to the State Highway Commission Judge Sturrock asked for a hearing designating four projects he wanted to discuss with the officials. The reply from the secretary of the Highway Commission has set him down for hearing Monday, February 29, and at the same time complimenting him upon a definite program, stating many committees took up their time with practically nothing to do but visit.

The first project Mr. Sturrock mentioned in his letter was for the graveling of Highway No. 106 from Woodville to the Polk County line. As a result of this Engineer Kendall received a letter from the department requesting an estimate be made up on the cost of graveling this piece of highway to a depth of at least eight inches of gravel.

The Judge is also going to request an immediate appropriation for a connecting road between the Rockland bridge and Rockland, the grading and graveling thereof to be done also by the maintenance department and with home labor wherever possible.

Representative Martin Dies Greets Constituency With Farm Loan Facts

The following letter for publication from Representative Martin Dies, was given to the booster for publication. It is with pleasure the booster presents the story, as it will have a most wholesome effect on clarifying the local atmosphere as regards the several conditions under which it is possible to secure loans for seed, fuel, etc. The letter follows:

This project also calls for considerable grading work and Mr. Sturrock is going to request that this work be started at the earliest possible time. He is going to also request that the department call for bids at the next letting time for that piece of highway near Rockland to Colmesneil.

So far Mr. Sturrock has been very successful in his recommendations with the Austin Officials and the county has been splendidly represented in its road work, even though there are some who think the work has been dragging to a very considerable extent.

Kirby High Now in New Foot Ball Conference-Joy for All

Coach D. M. Telford received a letter the first of the week that will be good news to those who have been rather dissatisfied with the school conference in which Woodville was placed some few years ago.

Heretofore Woodville has been obliged to play with teams originating in or representing much larger cities and it could not be expected that the local grid iron warriors could do much more than make a good showing. As a general proposition a team representing a city from three to five times larger has a greater class of candidates from which to select a team. As a result, if there are 25 to 30 men from which to build a team, that team has about a six to one chance to win over a smaller city where the coach has to make a team from the material which presents. The odds in more cases than not are against the small town.

The letter received by Coach Telford was from Supt. J. F. Parnell of the Jasper school system. It gives the new district for next year's football activities.

The Greatest of All Mystery Plays

The mystery picture, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," to be presented at the Crescent Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is supposed to have a rival in "Frankenstein." We say, supposedly, because it is advertised as terrible, horrible, etc., etc. The daily papers carrying advertising for "Frankenstein" are playing to the interest of an up-to-now public by inserting "no boy or girl under 18 years admitted unless accompanied by an adult." It may be that is just one of the lures of advertising to get the crowds. In Woodville, however, there are several people who have seen both of the famous mystery pictures, and they state in no unmistakable terms that "Frankenstein" is positively no rival of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and the greater crowds have turned out to see the latter mentioned picture.

The picture, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was shown in Jasper last week and the crowds actually couldn't get inside the show house and were obliged to wait the second and third shows. And, too, this picture does not have to carry any notices about children being excluded, etc. Do not fail to see the picture which was made famous by the great writer, Robert Louis Stevenson. However, those who have read the story will lose none of the interesting features, in fact, the picture is a most faithful reproduction of the famous story.

Next Friday evening at the Grammar school auditorium "Soap Box Minstrel" will be presented by the Junior and Senior boys under the direction of Miss Theresa Lovell. In another column will be found an advertisement giving the cast of characters, etc. The boys are working hard to put over this program in a pleasing manner, and the report is out that "Soap Box Minstrel" is highly interesting and will please all who see it. The admission has been placed at 15c to all. Remember the date, Friday, Feb. 26; curtain at 7:45; at Grammar School Auditorium.

Last Saturday's Tomato Meeting

A very good attendance was registered at the truck grower's meeting last Saturday, more especially so when one considers the weather conditions. The report from some ten or twelve radish growers show that they will be ready to commence moving this week. The opinion seemed to prevail that a carload would be ready for shipment Wednesday or Thursday.

Tomatoes are going into cold frames all over the county and it looks now as if our tomato acreage would reach around 150 acres that will be shipped from Woodville. Do not neglect getting your tomatoes into the cold frames at the earliest possible moment. J. W. GETSINGER, Secy.

Men's Bible Class Will Furnish Garden Seed

At the Men's Bible class Sunday a motion prevailed to furnish free garden seed to those who are financially unable to purchase same. In these good times, however, it does seem hardly believable that the need for such help should prevail. But when the subject was discussed it was shown that there are a number of people who have the ground under their control who can not find the where-with-all to go to any of the Woodville dealers and plunk down the cash for what they need to make a garden.

After some discussion a motion was presented by Paul Powell which was readily seconded that the class stand back of those who need seed with which to make their gardens. This is just another one of the little acts of Christian charity that comes up occasionally at assembly time, and there is always a hearty response among those who can always be found in attendance.

County Health Nurse Doing a Great Work in the Co. Schools

The Public Health Nurse, Miss Sue Nickerson, inspected the children in the Woodville and Spurger schools and is planning to visit the Warren, Doucette, Hillister and Colmesneil schools this week. The latest schools to request the nurse's visit are Emilee, Fred, Fairview and Mt. Carmel.

Scholastic Census to Begin Tuesday

The scholastic census taking for the county will begin next Tuesday, Mar. 1st, and all census reports must be returned to the County Superintendent's office by April 1, 1932. Census enumerators have been appointed for each district except the large independent districts, which appoint their own census enumerators. All census enumerators will receive a fee of four cents per pupil for the actual number of scholars enrolled, but the money to pay for this service will not be available before next October.

Krazy Kat Came Near Losing One of Its Nine Lives at Crescent Theatre

One-day last week John Hunter and his big police dog arrived at the Crescent Theatre door—and as John wanted in to talk to the motion picture operator, he left the dog outside the door.

When the door was opened it popped the dog's nose called "Krazy" (the real name of the dog's name is Ed) and he ran in and hid under the seats.

form. As the dog struck the steps they collapsed and down came his majesty, the dog, and spilled all over the floor.

Lettie Rainey knew what it was all about, and he says he got there just about as quick as did the dog when he first spotted the Kat—in two jumps. Before the dog knew just what it was all about Lettie had him firmly and safely under his control.

Cure Potatoes in Log Houses

Thirty Bowie county farmers built sweet potato curing houses out of logs last fall at a cost of from $6.40 to $30 apiece, not including labor, and now have 19,600 bushels of potatoes in perfect condition in storage. Potatoes worth 35 cents per bushel when going into storage in October were worth 75 cents per bushel January 1, indicating a saving of $7,840 to owners.

The log curing houses were built under the direction of W. R. Holsey, county agent, and are 18 feet wide, 20 feet long and 10 feet high. Each is daubed with mud inside and out, have two 30-inch doors near the bottom at each side, and a 3x6 foot opening in the ceiling. Each one has a brick or metal flue and is kept dry by the use of a stove of some kind.

Four Boys Pass Examination

Monday night the Woodville Boy Scouts met in their regular meeting and three men and 21 scouts were present. Two new members, Ralph Wilson and James Donaldson were admitted. On Friday night the Board of Review met in regular session at the Court House, and four more scouts, Sam Tubb, Jas. Edward Wheat, S. B. Sims, Jr., and Clyde Earl Smith passed the examination and now rank as first class scouts. A remark was made that "the boys were all pepped up now that the men were taking an interest in them." A splendid idea seems to strike me. You men of the town should go to their scout meetings occasionally and by your presence show the boys that you are interested. Every boy and girl has some man or woman as an ideal. They may be unconscious of it, but its there and maybe you are the one. A real responsibility rests on the shoulders of every man and woman in Woodville. Take stock of yourself, and live in such a way that it is safe for the youngsters to follow in your footsteps.

FINAL COUNT OF POLL TAX

Everyone is interested this year in the final poll tax count, which is 1932. This means that the Tyler County vote this year will be around 1800, taking into consideration the voters that are over 60 years of age and do not have to pay tax, and the voters who reached the age of 21 and are not taxed for 1931.

TELEGRAPHER WHO SAVED LINCOLN'S LIFE IS KILLED

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 23.—William W. Shock, 89, credited by friends with having been the telegrapher who flashed the message that prevented the assassination of Abraham Lincoln in Baltimore, died in a hospital Monday of injuries suffered when he was struck by an automobile. Harold A. Case, driver of the automobile, was held on an open charge. Shock was the original telegrapher who notified the Union Army at Washington of the assassination.

JOHN H. KIRBY LOSES PURSE AND $1,000.00

Editorial Notes

FARMERS IN Polk County are now contending with an additional pest—the sweet potato weevil. So far none of the bugs have been discovered in Tyler County.

LET'S SEE what that old fellow meant when he thundered in February, 1918, that the American people would never again be deceived by the politicians who had deceived them so often.

IN HARRIS County there is a group of men who are working with a stock law. Well, I don't know if they will have any more success in Tyler County than they had in Harris.

THE NEWSPAPER industry of all Texas extend to Brother Henry C. Fuller and his wife profound sympathy in the death of their son, Bryan, who passed on at Brimley, Mo.

THE THOUGHT of how far we would travel in the art of war if we could only emulate the American in war with the other nations, now at each other's throat, is an American idea. It is not a new idea, but it is a new one.

THAT LAME DUCK amendment that they tell us in the daily press of the county shall be known as the twentieth amendment, is not likely to have as hard a sledding in after years as did the 18th amendment.

DESTROYING FOOD in these good days of Hoover prosperity should be punished in the good old fashion—about 70 stripes on the bare back. What the daily papers are reporting about milk troubles in the second greatest city of the south, in these times when poor people's children are actually suffering for milk, makes the average red blooded man want to put his gun and declaring in one breath on the milk trucking men of Texas.

AND NOW THE state is another new sleight. Over ten in hundreds of the "backbone" of the state are being accepted a check for services rendered with the figures one thousand dollars too great. He is up for a couple of more years, and the commission's court elected the sheriff's wife to the position of sheriff while the old man is in duressville.

AND THEN on Friday the daily press of Texas told the world the news about the three-Federal Judge decision in regard to martial law in the East Texas oil field. Of course, Governor Sterling is not going to let the matter rest there. He stated he should immediately appeal the case to the highest courts of the land.

two firemen lost their lives and 100,000 bushels of wheat belonging to the farm board were destroyed makes a lot of people wonder if it wouldn't have been a splendid idea to have released this wheat to the needy poor and the unemployed to be found in any of the greater community centers. But, no, that farm board and the stock exchanges and the big interests want nothing better than to hold these millions of bushels of wheat against a possible raise in prices which might in some way benefit the agricultural interests of America. Just like the cotton carry over, when everybody who knows anything about this cotton carry over knows more than half of it is not saleable at any price because of its poor grade.

AND ANOTHER thing these fellows down at Washington could not do at this time before politics and the game of diplomats is let in connection with the grave war shadows, orientating at Japan, and in China absorb the unwarrior, is a little subject the American Legion has been working on since the close of the World War. TAKE THE PROFITS OUT OF WAR! There is an opportunity for these legislators of both houses to put over such a measure.

on the market, the little independents out of business, and the major companies piling up so much wealth they'll not know how to spend their earnings. The price of gasoline will not come down any so that a fellow in Tyler county will be able to discover it, and the oil industry eventually will own all the territory now leased by the independents. Oil will be selling at 5c and 6c a barrel. The owners of the land will find their farms ruined and they'll not get a cent a barrel royalty, and now this all will please the two-by-four newspaper men in the East Texas oil fields who have not been able to see where the Governor of Texas was right in one of his official acts. One of the most noticeable things about the squaking editors who have been pouring it on all over Governor Sterling because he proclaimed martial law, is the fact they cannot offer even a hint of what might remedy the situation of oil selling at 5c a barrel. Their heads are as empty as a last year's birds nest, when it comes to any sort of legislation that might assist the landowners. We remember a few words of a certain editorial. It was something like this: "Let 'em drill! Let the whole field come in. We don't care if it sells at 10c a barrel. Well, we hope the writer is satisfied. At the time martial law was put into effect, oil jumped from 5, 6, and 7c a barrel to 85c and remained there!

STOCK KILLED BY LIGHTNING AT KILLEEN Killeen, Tex., Feb. 18.—Another story was added here this morning to the queer tricks that lightning plays. It happened this morning at 8 a. m. during an unusual February electrical display. A bolt of lightning struck the barn of Albert Massengale, who lives two miles west of Killeen. When it hit smoke boiled up from the loft of the barn and Mr. Massengale turned in a fire alarm. But it wasn't a fire department that was needed. The lightning tore its way through the roof and through a big pile of hay that was in the loft, but nothing was set afire. However, four mules which were in the lot below lay dead and one horse was dying. Lightning took its toll in life instead of property. Mr. Massengale and two of his sons had been in the lot only a few minutes before the lightning hit.

STOCK KILLED BY LIGHTNING AT KILLEEN Killeen, Tex., Feb. 18.—Another story was added here this morning to the queer tricks that lightning plays. It happened this morning at 8 a. m. during an unusual February electrical display. A bolt of lightning struck the barn of Albert Massengale, who lives two miles west of Killeen. When it hit smoke boiled up from the loft of the barn and Mr. Massengale turned in a fire alarm. But it wasn't a fire department that was needed. The lightning tore its way through the roof and through a big pile of hay that was in the loft, but nothing was set afire. However, four mules which were in the lot below lay dead and one horse was dying. Lightning took its toll in life instead of property. Mr. Massengale and two of his sons had been in the lot only a few minutes before the lightning hit.

HOUSE TO VOTE ON SHORT SALES

Washington, Feb. 20.—The house heard that it will have a chance shortly to vote on measures to regulate short selling to both commodity and stock exchanges. Representative Sabath, democrat, Illinois, author of such a bill, cited the recent action of the New York stock exchange restricting short sales activities. He recalled that Richard Whitney, president of the exchange, was a guest of the White House shortly before the new orders went into effect. Then he said: "If I had been president of the United States I would have told Mr. Whitney—to go back to New York and absolutely stop all short selling." Sabath said the bill now before the judiciary committee to regulate short sales would be reported soon. Representative Glover, democrat, Arkansas, made a similar prediction about the measure being considered by the agriculture committee, of which he is a member, which would give the secretary of agriculture authority to suspend short-selling privileges. This bill, he asserted, "would give the government the power to step in and stop it, putting an end to this business of a few men putting the country in a hole for their own personal profit." A practice un-American from any light it could possibly be viewed.

If I were to improve the school room, I would fix the cracks in the walls. Then I would give the walls another coat of paint. I would secure one new window shade and a new map of Europe. I would buy one or two extra chairs for visitors.

I would also purchase about two new pictures and have our large George Washington picture framed. If any more new pupils come in, I would also buy several new desks.

Texas, pleased enough with the prominence of one of its most outstanding and admired citizens, is elated with the surprisingly rapid growth of a national position.

In taking this position, Texas does not abate in any measure its admiration and favor for another "favorite son." Texas feeling that the best interests of the Nation would be well served by the drafting of Melvin A. Traylor of Chicago, also a Texan, has not lessened.
