Washington, Feb. 8.—Admiral Carey T. Grayson, retiring, was named Friday by President Roosevelt to be chairman of the American Red Cross succeeding the late John Barton Payne.

HIGHWAY NO. 45 NOW A FEDERAL HIGHWAY

Highway No. 45 has been designated as a federal highway being U. S. Highway 190, according to a letter received from Judge J. J. Morphy, attorney at law, Livingston, stating that he had just been advised of this important step, which is one of the major accomplishments sought by the Highway No. 45 Association.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. T. C. Rock was hostess and leader of the Study Club Tuesday afternoon and a very interesting program of the life of Julius Caesar was made.

Mrs. Frank Fain was hostess to the Junior Bridge Club Tuesday night with Miss Edith Miller as the honored guest.

Mrs. Dave Mann was hostess last week to the Friday Bridge Club at three tables. Spring flowers were much in evidence and a Valentine motif carried out in table appointments and refreshments of a salad course and punch.

The Thursday Bridge Club was entertained last week by Mrs. Marlin Sandlin at two tables. The season's motif was carried out with a heart-shaped, arrow shot, and coffee was lovely as well as delicious.

Mrs. R. E. Pennington had a week end guest, Mrs. Hans Richards, nee Miss Jessie Dickens of Sabinal. On Saturday afternoon a number of old friends met with her and played bridge.

The girls basketball tournament will be at the Fred Wynn Gymnasium Feb. 18th beginning at 10:30 a. m. All schools are invited.

Woodville Locals

We notice by the Corrigan Press that Miss Dorothy Drey of Silsbee and Herbert Jones of Sour Lake were married Jan. 20th at Leesville.

Mrs. Will Jacks and children spent the week end in Rockland and her mother, Mrs. Dora Duncanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Duncanson with her.

Word came to Mesdames Mattie Mosget and M. E. Bussey last Thursday that the brother, J. F. Graham of Houston was in a hospital and had just undergone an operation for acute appendicitis.

Friends of Fletcher Beardley will remember that he died in the home of Mrs. J. A. Silsbee, Rockland, on Friday, Jan. 12th.

THE EAGLES CAN GET IN ON THIS

Colmesnell holds another gold medal tournament limited strictly to amateur teams. Eight teams must engage in this play which proved so entirely satisfactory in the past year.

The grand medal together with team and individual medals are very fine and those who win them will have a souvenir of the event that will be lasting throughout the year.

Medals will be awarded to each player on the first team, second place team, five gold medals for first all tournament team, gold sportsman's medal for each player, gold medal for tournament high point player, ten beautiful gold merit medals for tournament players.

Medals will be awarded to each player on third place team to receive bronze ball, a famous award for each tournament, four beautiful medals for second all tournament team, beautiful gold medal for winning team manager, gold medal for game high point player, each player on fourth place team to receive a medal.

Committee on medals: D. A. Watts, Warren, E. Seaman, Chester, C. Daniels, Rockland, Coch Woodland, Woodville, W. H. Gilchrist, Colmesnell, Manrique, Courtney, Colmesnell, M. L. Shiner, Colmesnell. Referee to be selected at meeting. Referee to be selected at meeting.

Notice: Mrs. Mahel Hanna, Port Arthur, Deputy Matron of Eastern Star of this district makes her official visit here Friday night. Members are urged to be there.
