What My Home Town Should Do To Celebrate Texas Centennial in 1936

By Miss Virgie Hutton, Junior, Class of '35, Woodville High School

The Chamber of Commerce of Woodville, my home town, is sponsoring a general program of civic improvement. This program is being carried out by committees, whose plans are extensive but practical. They plan in every way possible to beautify Woodville and make it attractive.

In addition to this a beautification committee is busy. They have already planted radish, dogwood and hedges and other means of encouragement they plan for vacant lots to be cleaned up and beautified for lawns to be terraced, and other things which add artistic charm to our homes to be perfected.

After we have done everything in our power to make our town and the approach to it beautiful, we plan to give the various items of direct relief to our town to pay for it, and to see for the future that Woodville is a place where there will be a place sign boards on the outskirts of Livingston, Beaumont, Jasper and Lufkin to direct people to various places of interest near Woodville. Some of these are the Rockland Dam, Indian Village, Ft. Tyrant and the place where the Alabama Indians once resided.

The 1935 Junior Senior Banquet

For many years the Junior Senior banquet has been cramped for room and it was a real task to plan decorations and table appointments for the event. This year no such worry was felt and the Juniors, led by Prof. and Mrs. J. Webb Miller looked over the great gym and vision grove of palms, shaded lights and methinks they even imagined the room of the ocean waves on Miami's beaches. They got busy and on Friday night as the doors swung open and the Seniors and Juniors with their families and representatives of the press entered they felt they had been set down in the Blue Room of Coral Gables. Great palm trees stood some 12 feet apart around the great room, a small table, spilling four under the shadow of each tree.

Small tables just back against the wall holding shaded lights, tall Yuccas with their white waxy leaves nearly opened near by. A great chandelier of gold hung from the ceiling in the center of the room and at each end a tower of greenery with 76 in large letters were seen.

Prof. Monroe Tolal gave a frank and only for this lovely banquet but for the splendid young people of Tyler county and the teachers who had taken of their time and talent to make the school one of the best in Texas.

As announced in last week's issue, the Schoolmasters' Club with its membership in this part of Texas, is holding its 45th annual convention here Sunday at the Grammar school auditorium. A good average attendance was reported, but the attendance was cut down by poor road conditions in many localities owing to flooded conditions that have been prevalent the past two weeks.

However, nearly 100 were present. The meeting was called to order by the president, who spoke on the importance of this meeting. The response was made by Judge J. E. Wheat, who put over one of his best talks of the year.

This was followed by the introduction of the first speaker, Dr. Baldwin of the Texas University, who in turn was followed by Roy Bedebek, who spoke on the question of the new age limit of participants in the State-wide interscholastic league. In fact, this age limit was the key-note question of interest and importance. Various resolutions were read and it was decided that the proposed change in the age limit would be followed by either war or some other great American catastrophe.

It seemed, however, that the P. T. A. must have sensed the seriousness of the question under fire and saved the day by announcing dinner.

In spite of the fact there may be certain football teams and basketball teams that are under fire, there are still a number of some great debate teams and those who specialize in declamation may take serious and long contemplated exceptions and still a revision of the laws and the program of the league for all participants in all interscholastic leagues will be a great advance.

The question of some boys on the football team all of and under 17 years of age, have they in interscholastic league, or in any other league, should be permitted to play football in any league.

The development of interscholastic football has been a tremendous thing in the last few years, and it is hoped that the interscholastic football league will be a great success.

One of the most interesting features of the convention was the presentation of the trophy to the winner of the interscholastic football league.

The interscholastic football league is a great success and it is hoped that it will be a great success in the future.

Woodville Tailbreaker

The close relation says the Beaumont Enterprise, between chain letter and a chain gang was shown here when Marion Stanley, jail breaker and under indictment for robbery, was arrested when he could not resist taking a flier at the chain letter racket.

T. A. Nicholson, sheriff, received one of the letters, and in glancing over it, discovered the name and address of Stanley, something he had been hunting for since 1931.

The fugitive was arrested in Denver, Colo., at the request of the sheriff's department. With his brother, Steve Stanley, he is charged with having held up S. P. Dean, a Rockland merchant, on June 4, of 1931, robbing him of $70.

The two men were arrested, but Marlon broke jail here just before the indictment was returned against him. His brother escaped a short time ago.
