BENNING

Monday was a beautiful day and the Gillespie and Riley families from over Texas gathered at the State Highway Park on highway 100 and happy greetings were exchanged. The families, who arrived yesterday, promptly presented and received a new bridegroom, who produced to the in-laws, couples met for the first time in a few instances and faces were bright with happiness.

For a few especially those from the east end of the county a cloud of sorrow hung over them because of the accident early that day at the Town Bluff ferry.

Another of the older heads of East Texas was present and there was more than enough and to spare when the more than a hundred people gathered all they could see in the afternoon. Attorney C. E. Smith spoke and brought back to mind many scenes of years gone by. He paid high tribute to the man who took a father's place to him when but a small boy, and who was the father of his beloved half sister, Ruth Gillespie Rigby. He also mentioned others who had passed on who had meant much in his life. He also paid tribute to those older men and women present whom he honored and who had helped him keep his ideals of goodness, honor and citizenship. Among those present were noted:

J. H. Jackson, Elton Jackson, Mrs. J. E. Jackson, Martha Riley and Gene Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Drew Gillespie and Mary Catherine, T. M. and Charley Brand, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Woodley, Bela B.
