Various State and City Elections Give Clues to Both Parties—Greece Votes for Restoration of King George II.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

REPUBLICANS showed today that the victory of their party in the New York state election was a foretaste of the victory of the party in the Presidential election.

CHINA has suddenly abandoned the small-scale economic standard, adopted in 1927, and has declared a new economic system.

THE AMERICAN people are interested in the Greek election because it marks the end of the Greek republic.

FOR SUPPLYING THE NEWS either 'em not or will not distinguish between news and free publicity. They think in terms of putting over an idea instead of providing interesting information.

Anyone worth his salt around a newspaper office knows the readers soon tire of this stuff. A few who are particularly interested in a certain organization or undertaking may read it, but 99 per cent of the subscribers hardly give it a glance.

When the editor tries to do something about it, he takes a chance by putting it up with a few persons. They are likely to think the paper wants more news and that it is worth reading.

How to Vary Meat Dishes

New Hints for Housewife Who Must Consider Time Involved

The question of variation in the menu always puzzles the busy housewife who must choose the meals in reference to the time involved in the preparation. She must usually depend on what she can do and what she can do for her family. All of which can be broiled or pan-broiled in a short time. There are among the more expensive meats and for this reason she prefers them with the well-known hamburger steak, which may be very good, but very poor depending upon the way it is prepared and cooked. Nothing is more unpalatable than dry, poorly seasoned ribs of beef, that are not with seasoning.
