Which We Call Genius. The word "genius" has taken on a new meaning in the last few years. It is no longer reserved for the few who are born with a special gift. and perfect, never-fail baking!

It's real quality at a saving! Why Mrs. K. Hill, 111, says: "I've never had a baking failure with Calumet's." Why does Calumet give such "luck"? Why is it different from other baking powders? Calumet combines two distinct leavening systems. A quick one for the rising "kick" and a slower one for the "set" of the dough. The Double-Action is no perfectly balanced mixture. Calumet is a perfect balance of acids and alkalis. It's the only baking powder that's perfect.

Miss Alice Nell Richards of New Willard and Van Morgan of the Republic Oil company will be married the night of the 28th at the church in her home town. Alice Nell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richards who is well known in this county.

Finishing the Livingston high school, Miss Richards graduated with honors and from the scholarship offered she chose one from Baylor University and majored in music. A year later she went to Europe and spent a year under a London instructor, at the same time getting acquainted with her father's family who reside there. Upon her return to the States at the U. S. A. is often alluded to in that country.

Miss Richards taught a large music class in Livingston. The past two years she has been teaching in Daisetta where she met Mr. Morgan. Her sister, Mrs. Charles Towrey of Beaumont entertained some three weeks ago in honor, announcing the coming nuptials. Last Saturday Mesdames Jack Cruss, Jack O'Neal, Wm. Chessier, Bert Turner and S. S. Barnett entertained in her honor at the New Willard club house with a miscellaneous shower. The road from Houston was flooded so many friends were kept away, but with the terrible or in spite of the terrible weather more than 70 ladies gathered from New Willard and nearby towns to lay gifts of love at the feet of this girl who is loved by all who know her, old and young, black or white. The club room was lovely with holly and poinsettias and the white satin brides' book which carried the Christmas merriment was presided over by Miss Hazel Turner. Mrs. John Williams, assisted by Mrs. Mary Frances Cruse, presented a program of music, readings and dancing. The "Old Santa" representative, Mrs. Rogers was allowed to enter after she explained that old Santa had sent her a message to represent him as he was so terribly busy just at this time of the year. We suspect he loaned her one of his suits to wear! Asking Alice Nell if she had been a good girl this year she then explained that the great pile of gifts at the foot of the tree were for her and she need not wait until Christmas to open them. Of course, viewing the lovely gifts was great fun, and Alice Nell was delighted with them and told her friends so. The hostesses, assisted by the little Misses Sarah, Lee and Edna Sue O'Neal served a delectable salad course and coffee.

Friends of Mrs. A. L. Tucker of Jasper will be glad to know that her son, Billy, 14 years of age was one of seven who received a perfect grade in the junior memory contest of the State B. T. U. convention which was held in Dallas last month.

Dallas Young returned Saturday from a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Hobson in Mexico. He reports that it rained almost every day while he was there so he was confined to the house most of his stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swinney of east of town are happy over the arrival of a baby daughter on Monday.

Mrs. Webster Dove and children of Port Arthur spent Sunday with Miss Eriean Butler in the Mrs. I. R. Gray home.

Gene Marlin is in Houston today to get a new oil truck for the Gulf County agent, T. C. Book.

The Tyler County Commissioners are busy just now filling up warrants on roads and replacing a few small damaged bridges and approaches. The heavy rains have taken their toll.

Tyler County seems to banker to get in the swim and like some other places pur over local opinion. All the nice promises the vets made have gone haywire, now different things will be tried to control. Perhaps it might save building large jail accommodations.

TYLER HARDIN CO. MEDICIS TO MEET HERE

The annual banquet of the Tyler County Medical association was held Thursday night at the Edson hotel with about 40 physicians and their wives in attendance.

Dr. E. C. Ferguson of Beaumont was guestmaster of the dinner. The arrangement in charge of Dale Ferguson, assisted by special nurse Misses Edna and Gertrude Williams.
