FLETCHER M. BARTLEY
Some six weeks ago, in a hospital struck Fletcher Bartley, a well-known Woodville physician, with a severe attack of pneumonia. He was confined to his bed for several weeks, and his condition was so serious that his friends were despondent. However, after a few days of rest and treatment, he began to improve, and in a few more days he was able to get up and walk. He is now in good health and is able to resume his professional duties.

HYATT
Mrs. Hyatt, of Woodville, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. She was confined to her bed for several weeks, but is now able to get up and walk. Her condition is improving, and she is expected to be discharged from the hospital in a few days.

CREROKEE DIES
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watts of Port Arthur are visiting Mrs. and Mrs. C. Knight. Friends and relatives of Mrs. Watts are gathered at her home in Woodville. Mrs. Watts is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. She was confined to her bed for several weeks, but is now able to get up and walk. Her condition is improving, and she is expected to be discharged from the hospital in a few days.

JOE STANLEY
After many months suffering with cancer of the stomach, Joe Stanley passed away Tuesday at his home, north west of Woodville. This is another home that is having a tragic loss. For the last three weeks the mother had a siege of flu and measles to fight, with three of the children ill at the same time, as well as the worry and care of Mr. Stanley. The neighbors have stood by her loyally and helped all that they possibly could, even during the funeral services. Mr. Stanley was a native of Louisiana and was 59 years of age. He was a well-known citizen of Woodville and was highly respected by all who knew him.

COLMESNEIL
The Home Economics girls are thrilled over getting to move in to their new H. E. cottage last Monday. They are doing some interior decorating this week. Miss Betty Enloe, Hallie Mae Butler, Mary Blanche Mann, and Eva Fortenberry were Woodville visitors Friday afternoon of last week. Andrew Smith returned home last Sunday from the hospital in Beaumont where he has been for some time with a rather serious case of pneumonia and is improving nicely. Miss Terri Elyss White has returned here to her position of teaching English after a few weeks illness at home in Galveston. Mrs. and Mrs. R. P. Marshall of Ft. Worth visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Flowers during the week end. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bandy are the proud parents of a fine baby girl which arrived Tuesday of this week and was given the pretty name of Frances. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Conner and daughters, Idell and Dorphy, made a trip to Beaumont last Friday. Mrs. W. B. Rome of Ft. Worth is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. L. Bradshaw here. Mrs. A. L. Bandy is here with the mother, Mrs. A. Kuebler. Grandmother Quinn of Alto is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Miles. Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Stahl are new residents of Rockland and are living in the new W. G. Baker home. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Loter and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Skinner attended a show in Galveston Saturday night. J. B. Dean visited in Colmesneil Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Stahl spent the week end in Fort Worth and attended the Fat Stock show. Clifford Hall is now employed in Houston. Mrs. Lawrence Loter who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Luther Harvey in Arkansas, returned home last week. Mrs. Glover Minton and Monte Dunkin were shopping in Woodville last Thursday. Phone on the sick list: Mrs. Grace McGuffin, Rev. Brockman Grandmother Clark. All are glad to have the Ralph Dean family here who have moved here from Mount Carmel. All were very sorry to hear of the death of Doc Dunkin who was drowned in the Neches river last Friday. Mrs. Dunkin has the sympathy of her many friends. W. Marshall is recuperating after a very bad attack of flu.
