WOODVILLE CAMP GETS CCC HONOR

For the fifth time in two years Camp Leonard Wood has received the honor of being judged the best camp in the east Texas district of 31 CCC camps, according to a bulletin issued last night by Major Marvin W. Marsh, district commander. This award was based on the last quarter's record. The judging was done on the basis of the following points: Administration, discipline, safety record (loss of time because of accidents), health, recreation, welfare program, care of clothing and equipment, care of motor transportation, general camp cleanliness and general camp appearance.

Lieut. R. P. Lively has been the commander of Camp Leonard Wood for slightly more than two years. Lieut. Y. R. Weaver is his adjutant, and Louis A. Parr is educational adviser. Major T. J. Strong is camp surgeon and W. A. Hodges, superintendent.

Seventy-eight new boys arrived here Tuesday. 36 of these will be Tyler county boys and the other 42 will be from Houston. All preparations are being made to take care of these new enrollees who will take the places of 45 men whose enlistment periods ended recently. Louis A. Parr went to Dufkin to get clothing for the new men.

WEEK OF PRAYER

A spirited program is preparing in the shape of a mission play entitled "State Missions Against Texas Baptists" will be given at the Baptist church next Monday afternoon at 2:30. This is the week of prayer program, and the offering goes for Home Missions. Mrs. J. M. Hester is chairman in charge of the program and urges all at all interested to be present.

CARRIED OUT

The editor called Luddy and the office boy entered. "Here and there" and a number of photographs from outsiders telling me over in top this paper. See that every line is carried out. The office boy gathered them all up in a large wastebasket and hid it in the washroom. Glad.

CHESTER SCHOOL NEWS

The Queen's race has had the spotlight here for the past few nights. There will be no band in the race, which will be held at 10 p. m. The Seniors running Miss Lillian Collins of Camden with $35.05. The Freshmen running Miss Susie Evelyn Kurtzmann came out second with $33.00. The Sophomores came out third with $29.01 for their candidate, Miss Thelma Baker, while the Juniors, running Miss Hazel Mahaffey came out last but with a valuable contribution of $12.25. There was no football game this week. It was generally supposed that the game would be held that night, but the Centennial Martin Dies will speak. After this game the band and pep squad will be with the boys all night, families, reasonable distance. The band has 20.50 in the last year's group. Soon we ought to have a supply of musicians and have a regular 30 or pep squad with them as that is a big night here at the fair, Oct. 14 to 18. Meet your friends here at the fair.
