

Tyler County Booster

WOODVILLE, TYLER COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1938

EAST BROADSIDS BEFORE RUNOFF

TO MY FRIENDS AND VOTERS OF TYLER COUNTY

I am taking this means of asking you as a personal favor to vote for my friend, Walter Woodul, for attorney general.

Some of the reasons why Mr. Woodul deserves the support of the people of Tyler county are as follows:

1. He is a gentleman of the highest ethical and moral type.
2. He has successfully practiced law in the courts of Harris county since he returned from the World War in the spring of 1919, and has made an outstanding record as a trial lawyer.
3. He has made an outstanding record in public affairs.
4. He has unqualified endorsement of Hon. W. Lee O'Daniel, the governor-nominee.
5. He has the unqualified endorsement of Tom C. Mann of Laredo, Texas, in whose office Mr. Woodul began his career as law clerk some 26 years ago.
6. He can be trusted to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office as Chief counsel to the State's six million people, and as the legal advisor to all of the state departments.

Tom Mann is not only supporting Mr. Woodul but is very much interested in seeing him elected. He has made the following comments:

"Mr. Woodul was in my office as law clerk in Laredo some 26 years ago and I found him efficient, of good habits and in every way satisfactory. From Laredo he went to Austin and studied law, and while in school worked in a law office to pay his way through school. I have known him intimately since he worked in my office, and feel he will render the people of Texas valuable service if elected to the office he now seeks as he has the experience and ability which qualifies him for the duties of that high office."

"My long experience with him and his family convinces me that he is conscientious and courageous, and one that can be relied upon to do his duty wherever he is placed."

Some of the reasons why Gerald C. Mann is not qualified to be Attorney General are as follows:

1. He has practiced law only about 18 months since he obtained his license in December, 1933.
2. He has never tried a case in a district court except in connection with one divorce suit in which an agreed judgment was entered.
3. He has never had a case in the appellate courts of this State.
4. He could not impartially discharge the duties of that office as is shown by a letter written by his Campaign Financial Agent, E. G. Moseley to J. C. Paterbaugh, dated May 7, 1938, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.
5. The letter written by Moseley shows that:
 1. Moseley is carrying the money big in the Mann campaign.
 2. That the big oil companies are against Walter Woodul.
 3. That individual contributions reaching $20,000.00 were made to Mann's campaign prior to May 7, 1938.
 4. That Gerald C. Mann has promised E. G. Moseley a job as Assistant Attorney General.
 5. That Gerald Mann could not take the oath of office as Attorney General by reason of having

Harvest Irish Spudsin November

In the southern portion of the state it is usually possible to grow a fall crop of Irish potatoes for harvest in late November. The Bliss Triumph variety will mature in 70 to 80 days and where plantings are made during September the crop can be expected to mature before frost," states J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist, of the Texas A&M College Extension service.

All weeds and grass on the plot to be planted should be cut and raked off, for if this material is turned under it will heat and dry out the soil. The plot should be plowed to a depth of 4 to 5 inches, Rosborough said, and fertilized with 6-12-6 commercial fertilizer at the rate of 3 to 4 lbs. per 100 feet of row.

If the soil is dry it is best to withhold the fertilizer until after a rain, when side dressing with the fertilizer will give good results.

Rosborough said potatoes held over for planting from the spring crop could be made to sprout by spreading them in the shade of a tree and covering them with wet sacks of straw. Potatoes of less than one inch in diameter should be planted whole, and others cut and planted immediately.

A solution of one pint of ethylene chlorhydrin in four gallons of water may be used to stimulate sprouting and early growth when large plantings are made. The procedure, according to Rosborough, is to cut the potatoes, place them in the solution, and allow them to stay in until they are thoroughly wet. Even the small potatoes should be cut on one side. As soon as the spuds are removed from the solution, they should be planted.

TO THE VOTERS OF TYLER COUNTY

Friends, I am again asking you for your vote and influence in the second Primary, Aug. 27. It has been impossible for me to see each of you personally this time, because the time was too short. So if I failed to see you please don't hold it against me, for I need your help.

When you go to the polls next Saturday, August 27, vote for me and help a young man who is trying to help himself. Just give me a chance, friends.

Yours very truly,
CROSS DANIELS.

Your Life Insurance Do You Have It?

"Some morning, says tired father, "When I have no thores to bother, I will buy life insurance so that my beloved wife, Mirahay, will have some boodle handy. So hungry wolves won't scare her. And misfortune will not vex."

Poor tired father's kind intention is too excellent to mention. But an auto climbs his person; he gives three whoops and dies; And his wife and kiddies wonder, O'er his coffin, how in thunder They'll buy next season's swatter. When it's time to swat the flies.

The above may sound like nonsense, but just the same think it over and I think you will find that it is just another way of stating a fact. R. KICKER.

CHILD'S CLINIC DATES CHANGED

The following letter was received by The Booster after last week's issue was in the postoffice:

"We have just learned that it will be impossible to hold the Crippled Children's Clinic on Sept. 1st, 1938, and it is postponed until Wednesday, September 7th, 1938. This will make it possible to have other physicians present who could not make the first announced date.

Quiet and Peaceful This Texas Year

Washington, Aug. 14.—The senate neglected to give a vacation this summer to Senator Shepard of Texas, the oldest man in point of service in congress.

The 63-year-old chairman of the campaign expenditures committee is one of the few members of congress who have to remain in Washington since adjournment. There is no vacation in sight for him, the Texas says, until after the general elections next fall.

His summer entertainment so far has consisted of one over-night trip with his family to a Virginia resort, and a couple of golf games, played on a public course. He isn't worried, incidentally, about lack of practice spoiling his game. He says with a wry smile: "I'm just a dub."

DID YOU LISTEN IN ON KRBA, LUFKIN?

Thursday, today, a large delegation of supporters of Claude H. Caskey of Chester went to Lufkin to attend a big booster meeting for the candidacy of Caskey for representative, 12th District. KRBA is a Lufkin radio station operated only in the day time. On Friday at 12:15 to 12:30 Mr. Caskey will broadcast to his many friends the issues of the race in which he is interested.

TRUE IN 1942; AND STILL TRUE TODAY

We have received a facsimile reproduction of the Daily News of Galveston, Texas, of April 19, 1942. This came to us from G. B. Dealey, president of the Dallas News. The editor of that little paper in 1942, George B. French, knew how to build up his circulation. He asked an old friend what subject was best calculated to forward the interests of a paper in a community like Dallas and was told that the most popular subject that he could take hold of was the ladies. "Prize them, they deserve to be praised," he was told. "Praise them, above everything in creation and your success is certain." Mr. French went on to say, "Now this advice so accords with our own feeling that we have no hesitation in adopting it." He then goes on to pay in true Texas fashion, a glowing tribute to the women. Unless our own powers of observation have failed us we can clearly see that the same is true in 1942 is still true today. The Shining Lines, Mergenthaler Linotype Company.

Well, Did Wm. Allen White Tell 'Em?

WITH GREAT LOVE FOR HIS PARTY, WHITE PRONOUNCES THE DOXOLOGY AS FOLLOWS

When William Allen White, vice president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, a few months ago, by acclamation, he was elected as "beyond any question the most influential man in his profession." Note disputation in the laudatory praise that appeared in all of the GOP press for the famed Sage of Emporia has devoted his life to unremitting toil for the welfare of the Republican party.

An inkling as to the enormity of his task is disclosed in an editorial in his Emporia Gazette wherein he discussed the enactment of the last session of "the strongest Democratic Congress" of a law which puts control of gas pipelines under the Federal Government. "Naturally," he says, "open-minded citizens will be grateful to the Roosevelt Administration for this check on the rapacity of the gas monopolists," and then he indicts his own party with fifteen years ago, when natural gas began to assume considerable importance," he points out, "the leaders of the Republican party would not recognize the common sense of putting natural gas, under interstate commodity. They were practical, hard-headed business men. You couldn't tell them anything about how to control their business. So today, because of this Republican neglect, because, again for instance, of the neglect to control the stock exchange, also to control the sale of securities; incidentally the neglect to give labor laws which would protect its bargaining power and finally the neglect of the American farmer—because of all these sins of omission—the Republican party, which represents today the Bourbons who learn nothing and forget nothing, have Franklin Roosevelt on their necks and with his class-consciousness proletarian!

"And it was so unnecessary! In these 15 years, inside the Republican party an intelligent, militant liberal minority has been clamoring for all of these reforms which now are making Franklin Roosevelt solid.

"The progressive group has told the reactionary leaders in Congress, in platform committees of the party in the newspapers and on the hustings, that they were riding for a fall.

"But the Elephant seemed so solid that they mistook him for the hand of God.

"Pride," says the Good Book, goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall.

"Of all the consummate jackasses who ever yielded the sceptre of power in this country, commend us to the staunch, unbending, regular, unswerving, purblind and plum-laced leaders of the GOP—from McKinley's day down to the last tick in the stock."

Signed: "William Allen White," whose assertion that there had been no change in the philosophy of the Old Guard leadership in 40 years renders difficult the task of Dr. Glenn Frank's Interpretive Committee.

KEEPING HUNTING RECORDS

Austin, Aug. 2.—Dove hunters of Texas will not be subjected to a series of conflicting regulations such as confused them last year, the game department announced.

Compared to those of last year, the 1938 regulations are "fairly uniform." Combined state and federal laws governing both mourning and white-winged doves provide the following open seasons:

From Sept. 1 to Oct. 31 in the counties of Youkum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Collin, and Hunt and all counties north thereof, and the counties of Parker, Tarrant, Dallas, Rockwall, Kaufman, Johnson, Hopkins, Delta, and Franklin.

In the remainder of the state the open season on both species is from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15. Below the Texas-Mexican Railway in the Rio Grande Valley, however, only four days of shooting each week during the open season will be allowed—on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays—but this exception is not applicable to Webb and Zapata counties.

The hours of shooting mourning doves and white-winged doves during the open season are from 7 a. m. to sunset.

Neither species may be shot with a weapon other than a shot gun, and it shall not be larger than 10 gage. If it is a repeating or automatic shotgun it must be permanently plugged to a three-shell capacity.

The daily bag limit is 15 in the aggregate of both mourning doves and white-winged doves. The possession limit also is 15 in the aggregate of both species.

Balling of doves of either species is prohibited by federal regulations.

Under new federal migratory waterfowl regulations announced recently Texas duck hunters will have a 45-day open season this year compared to a 30-day open season of 1937; and in addition may shoot a limited number of species hitherto protected.

The open season on ducks and geese, Wilson's snipe or jack-snipe, and coot, is from Nov. 15 to Dec. 29.

The open season on rails and gallinules, except coot, is from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30.

Not only has the open season on ducks and geese been lengthened, but the possession limits have been doubled.

The bag limit on ducks, except the wood duck, is 10 in the aggregate of all kinds, the same as last season, but the possession limit has been doubled to 20 in the aggregate.

This season hunters may take three canvasbacks, redheads, buff-breasts or ruddy ducks in their daily bag, or an aggregate of three birds of the different species. The possession limit for these ducks is six of any single species, or six in the aggregate.

The daily bag limit on geese and brant is five in the aggregate of all kinds and the possession limit has been increased to 10 in the aggregate.

The daily limit on rails and gallinules, except sora and coot, is continued at 15 in the aggregate of all kinds. The possession limit is the same.

Bag limits for some of the other migratory game birds are: Sora, 15; coot, 25; Wilson's snipe or jack-snipe, 15. In each case the possession limit may not exceed the daily bag limit. A new federal regulation added this year forbids the rallying of coot for hunting.

F. A. BOYS RETURN FROM INTEREST

F. B. Sullivan and his boys returned home last week. They made a 150-mile round-trip, observing the agriculture, industrial development of the Rio Grande valley; Laredo, San Antonio and Austin. This trip was an education in its self at least four distinct and different kinds of country which easily might be of that of many states.

You have an opportunity at this time to elect a home county man, one who has had many years of business experience and training.

He has a practical knowledge of the problems that confront you today, having lived and worked with the people of this district for many years.

Let's elect a man that will do his utmost to help the home people.

He stands for rigid government.

He favors the old age pension as voted by the people.

He is opposed to any further appropriations for tick eradication.

He favors adequate support of the public school system in Texas.

He favors an increase in the load limit on motor trucks.

He favors good highways and farms to market roads.

He believes in the democratic principle of majority rule.

He believes there should be more business in government and less government in business.

Go to the polls next Saturday and vote for Claude H. Caskey, Tyler County Man.

As was the case last year, waterfowl and coot may be hunted from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m. Not more than two days' bag limit is lawfully taken and lawfully possessed ducks and geese may be transported in one calendar week. Transportation last season was limited to one day's bag.

Chief restrictions in this year's federal regulations that have been continued from last year are:

Balling waterfowl and doves and the use of live duck and geese decoys in hunting waterfowl, are not authorized regardless of distance between the bait decoys and the shooter.

Three three-shell limit on repeating or automatic shotguns in effect the last three seasons is continued. Hunters may shoot waterfowl with shot guns not larger than No. 10 gauge.

Ross' geese, wood ducks and swans are still protected.

Know Best

The best way to judge the character, ability and qualifications of candidates for high judicial office is to compare the vote each receives in his home county in the first primary. A man's neighbors and associates are in a better position to know about him than any one else.

CAN YOU REMEMBER YOUR FIRST TRAIN RIDE?
This reporter remembers her first train trip, when she was thirteen years of age. That was in the horse and buggy days and no long trips were often enjoyed. That was back in 1886. It seems now that cars are used and so another generation does not know what a railroad trip means. A number of children took their first ride Monday night from Woodville to Colmesneil and were met there by cars. Wednesday night of next week a crowd is planning on a railroad trip to Rockland and will meet there by auto. The Monday night trip was made by Mrs. Ezra Eaves and family, Mrs. Lanelle Griffith and son, Mrs. D. C. Bracken and son, Mrs. Anna Lee Gordon and Miss Avis Hamil. Mr. Bracken met them with his car at Colmesneil.
