

Tyler County Booster

WOODVILLE, TYLER COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1938

Court House Gang Majority Re-Elected
The run-off election this year has undoubtedly presented the greatest totals of recent years—If not of all time. Tyler County records.

Defeated Candidate's Picture "On" Every Telegraph Poll!
I like to drive on the highways and look at the horses and cows.

Getting An (?) Even Break
An editor friend tells in the following true incident: For years the editor had given a certain organization—a liberal amount of space for club news, announcements and items of similar nature.

Eyes of Texas Upon Washington, D. C.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—The poll tax fight is on in seven southern states in addition to Texas, the spearhead of attack against this so-called unconstitutional method of controlling elections being in Arkansas.

19 WPA Projects Approved for Texas
Of the 19 projects of the WPA approved in the state of Texas in Washington, D. C., one was statewide in scope and sponsored by the University of Texas.

County Officers Getting Wise
It is reported that most of the county officials are to attend the Texas government institute to be held in Nacogdoches the last of this week, which is being sponsored by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

South's Tallest Highway Bridge
A delegation of Regional Public Works Administration officials headed by Geo. M. Bull, Regional director, will attend the opening celebration of the South's tallest highway bridge over the Neches River at Port Arthur, Sept. 7-8.

Opening of School Days Right
The Booster will have the opening of school days special feature. It is a fact that the public do a huge business with merchants whose amount are made in The Booster.

This is the complete list to be voted on for county offices in November, thus finishing up the primaries for 1938.

So take down your signs and your big cardboard.

MOOCHERS AND GRAFTERS
Newport, Ark., Aug. 27.—Circuit Court Clerk W. H. Reid, unsuccessful candidate for Probate Judge, filed his campaign expense report showing a total expenditure of $180.

Glenn Cunningham, famous mile runner who received his Ph. D. degree last spring will return to day, Sept. 1, to his alma mater, Kansas university, to join the faculty.

THE BOOSTER GUESSED ONE STEERING WHEEL NONE
We are a bit better off than the Steering Wheel editor, anyway. Just before the election (runoff) he named those he thought would be elected. He failed all the way.

WORK TO START ON NEW TRINITY SPAN
Livingston, Aug. 27.—Highway engineers said early this week that work on the Trinity river bridge on Highway 45 west of Blanchard is expected to start immediately.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE COUNTY
I take this method of expressing to those of you, who supported me in the July and August primaries, my sincere thanks and appreciation and to assure those of you who did not see fit to support me, that I have no feelings of enmity towards you.

MARTIN DIES HAVING A MID-TERM PICNIC
The daily press comes out day by day telling the world thus and so as regards the investigation now going on in Washington as relating to the un-American ways and practices and ethics, etc.

Woodville Locals
Mrs. T. C. Rock and daughter Miss Frances were in Beaumont Thursday to meet Miss Madge Rock who arrived from Houston where she was visiting her mother.
