Football Season Takes All Unawares

Football season began Sept. 5 at 3 p. m. Candidates are to report at the high school where improvements have been made in the dressing rooms and on the field. These improvements have been made to care for the heavy schedule to be played on the local field this fall. The new sod on the field is in good condition and should prove very beneficial in presenting better football to the fans this fall. Four letter men will return to the squad around which the team will be built. Henry Hendrix, Captain, and the only back returning from the 37 squad will team with Co-captain Red Pitts a reserve back from the 37 team to carry the burden of the Eagle backfield. Neither of the lads have had any experience at signal calling or punting or passing, which is the greatest weakness of the present team. Young, Kirkland and Cobb are the other lettermen returning. Young and Kirkland are guards and Cobb tackle. The line will be built around these three, however Young will not see any service with the Eagles for several weeks because of the recent fracture of his right fore finger. Young and Kirkland are both two year men and expected to give a good fight for a district berth. About 35 other inexperienced boys are expected to report for the workouts.

The outlook for the team is not so bright, but with some help from the new boys, the four letter men should hold their own in most of the district play. The contenders for the district seem to be Silsbee, Buna, and Jasper. If the Eagles can hold their own with at least two of these teams they may show up again this fall in the district running.

Six games will be played on the home field with a seventh added if any of the teams in the district should drop from the league. The 38 schedule is:

- Sept. 23, Corrigan at Woodville.
- Sept. 30, Burkeville at Burkeville.
- Oct. 7, Trinity at Woodville.
- Oct. 14, San Augustine there.
- Oct. 21, Open date.
- Oct. 28, Silsbee at Woodville.
- Nov. 4, Kirbyville at Woodville.
- Nov. 11, Chester at Chester.
- Nov. 18, Buna at Woodville.
- Nov. 23, Jasper at Woodville.

All games will be night games except San Augustine and Burkeville games.

GRASSHOPPERS ESCAPE PLACE ON COOK'S MENU

The plans of John Kinella, Jr., local restaurant owner in Trinidad, Colo., to serve a la fresca iced grasshoppers to his customers is off because the grasshoppers would not freeze. Kinella planned the rare epicurean treat and put a lot of grasshoppers on ice for 12 hours. The plan missed fire because the grasshoppers can stand more cold than Kinella's refrigerator can generate.

When Kinella took the apparently frozen hoppers off ice and prepared to cook them they came to life and hopped right out of the restaurant and off the menu.

The Texas Securities Act

When some oily tongued salesman calls on you in an attempt to sell you a small block of bonds, securities and all such like, bring him up short and tell him you're very much interested in his line, but ask him for his identification card. Investors should beware of the bold front, oily tongued stranger. Each licensed party carries with him an identification card bearing the seal of Texas and the Commissioner's signature. The investor should always ask to see this card. Wire collect to the Securities Commissioner, Austin, the name and description of any unlicensed securities salesman making his appearance in your community. Let us pool our efforts to rid the state of the unconscionable swindler as well as pooling capital to make money to put labor to work to build our state's commercial enterprises. For further information regarding the requirements or administration of the Texas Securities Act, write to D. Leon Harp, State Securities Commissioner, Secretary of State's office, Austin, Tex.

Failing to produce his identification call to son Bill to turn loose your bull dog and then get your six-shooter.

J. L. LAZENBY

Many Tyler County friends and relatives attended the funeral of J. L. Lazenby in Kirbyville Tuesday. Mr. Lazenby was born in Muskegon, Ala., in 1846, coming to Texas in a covered wagon at the age of 7 years where his parents settled in the Emitee community. His wife was Miss Mary Barlow of the community just south, who preceded him in death some years ago. For more than fifty years a member of the Baptist church, the funeral was held at the Kirbyville Baptist church with Rev. O. B. Hess, pastor. He is survived by two sons, Dr. Lazenby and J. B. Lazenby, both of Kirbyville; three daughters, Miss Mabel Lazenby of Beaumont, Mrs. J. E. Hignett of El Paso and Mrs. J. A. Lewis of Buna; eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren, and one brother, G. Z. Lazenby again.

Fatalities Struck 8,618 Texas Babies in 1937

In Texas during 1937, 8,618 mothers lost their lives through childbirth and associated conditions. Fatality struck 8,618 babies under one year of age and 3,972 infants were stillborn. These facts become particularly distressing when it is realized that at least two-thirds of this motherhood mortality could have been avoided, states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State health officer.

Tyler county had 243 total live births, of which 192 were white, 49 negro and 2 Mexican; 131 of the total infants were male and 112 female. Physicians attended the births of 155 midwives, attended 80 and 6 were unattended, 13 of the total births were in hospitals and 234 were at home; 10 children were stillborn, giving the county a rate of 6.6 per 100 live births; 11 children died under one year of age, a rate of 45.3 per 100 live births and one mother died in childbirth, a rate of 41.2 per cent per 10,000 live births.

TO DO AWAY WITH UNANIMOUS VERDICTS

At a recent meeting of the Sheriff's Association of Texas, it was voted by the association to urge the legislature to pass laws doing away with the unanimous jury verdict in felony trials and substituting a 9 to 3 verdict, the same as is used by grand juries in voting bills of indictment.

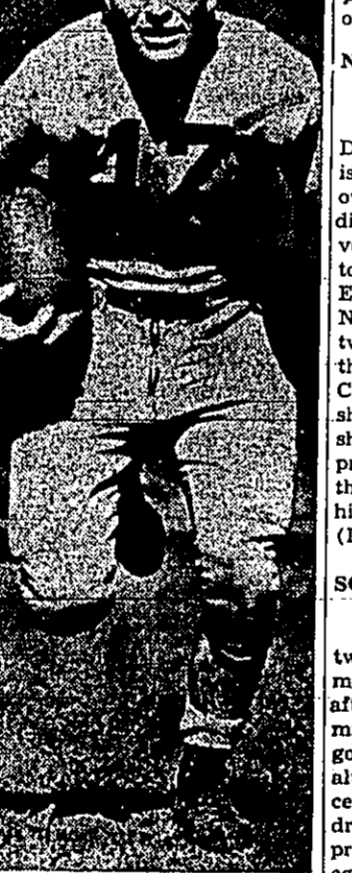

The association voted to ask the legislature to make jail breaking a felony, to provide a four-year term for sheriffs, and change court procedure to allow the district attorney and trial judge to comment on any defendant's failure to take the stand in felony trials.

Football Time!

Crashing his way into the headlines once again comes football, king of autumn sports. Local interest in the game will reach a peak during the next few weeks. Pictured here is Capt. Joe Kilgore of last year's Alabama championship team, who was picked on several all-American teams.

Juggling the Gold $ Content

An interesting angle over the gold content of the dollar arose in Kansas City recently. It is a question as to whether a dry goods firm must pay in old-fashioned dollars or new styled cash. Here is what the Kansas City Star said of the matter recently:

The controversy between the Emery Bird, Thayer Dry Goods company and the Boston Ground Rent trust over the interpretation of a rental contract, stated in terms of "grains of gold" instead of dollars, has now produced three conflicting judicial opinions.

An old lease under which the company was renting its store site from the trust called for the payment of 139,320 grains of gold each year. At the existing legal value of gold in dollars this represented an annual rental of $24,000. Then on 1932 Congress set a new and higher value on gold and at the same time forbade the settlement of private debts in that metal. Suit was brought, to determine the status of the Emery, Bird, Thayer contract.

Judge Merrill E. Otis of the U. S. District court ruled that the lease was still valid but that since payment in grains of gold was no longer physically possible, the ob-

Only 25 Years Ago When Discovered

Old timers ought to remember back only 25 years ago when Albert B. Cummings, senator of Iowa, made a great discovery—probably the first man to find it out and make it public—and attacked the stock exchange as a den of iniquity and demanded a 10% tax on short sales.

However, if we remember correctly Cummings did not get far as a reformer—even so now: If Cummings was alive today and should make the same acquisitions, he'd be listed as a crank and no one would believe him—even knowing and actually believing in their own hearts he was correct.

Ah, 25 years hence, 'twill be just the same, and how!

The 1939 Houston Fat Stock Show

An intensive campaign calculated to make the 1939 Houston Fat Stock show and Live Stock Exposition by far eclipses the one held last February and March has been launched by Texas cattlemen. Invitations to participate in the show are extended to stockmen of five states. Attendance at the 1939 exposition exceeded 100,000 persons and entries were representative of a goodly slice of the nation.

J. W. Sartwell, Houston packer, has been re-elected president of the exposition. He announced that the 1939 show would open Feb. 26, continuing through March 5. The last show began one day later. Though the dates are six months hence, plans for the event are well under way, the result of frequent conferences of executives. Houston's $2,000,000 coliseum, wherein was held the last exposition, will house the next one. Though this building is literally large enough for a three ring circus, the stock show was cramped for quarters, result of which a $100,000 auxiliary building was rushed to completion. Greater space will be utilized next year.

Julian A. Wesslow is first V. P. of the exposition, J. H. Ward, 2nd V. P.; Henry W. Dew, 3rd V. P.; George W. Strake, Treas. All are well known in live stock circles. W. O. Cox, manager of the agricultural department of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, has been reappointed exposition secretary and manager. Jack T. McCully was again named director of exploitation. Both Mr. Cox and Mr. McCully maintain headquarters at the Houston C. of C.

GEORGE B. McALLISTER

The community was horrified Sunday night when a well known man, George McAllister, was struck by an on-coming car as he stepped out on the street to cross from between the parked cars. Messrs. Dick Smith and Bunker Pete, who were driving the death car, carried him immediately to the local hospital where he passed away early Monday.

Mr. McAllister was 58 years of age, one the day he was hurt. Born in the home which the Dr. J. B. Cruse family now own and live, he has been a musical genius all his life, and was noted for his music in the popular old fiddler's contests.

Joining in playing by ear the music small girl practicing and playing the piano, or when songs were being sung Mr. McAllister would sit on his front porch and after listening a minute or two would be with them. He has never married.

A well known figure about town he had a host of friends who grieve for him and the way joyed good health for years; they he died, but as he has not enjoyed about Mr. Beckworth's home on a farm between Glimmer and Gladewater and when he takes the oath of office he will become the baby member of congress in this district of eight counties. He led the other four candidates who worked his way through the party and feeling that he needed legislative training he had accepted the race for Representative from Upshur county district. He won. During his term he was his bar examination. He is other Texan who with Supt. McAllister will make a big place in affairs for he is making up the stuff that produces strong Ambitious, high ideals, no smoking or drinking, and not only himself but others expect him to get his education in 25 years of age he has the time to accomplish much.

Beware of the Hot Check Dame

State police issued a warning last week to rooming house operators against the "hot-check" operations of a woman who has gleaned a small fortune in Texas towns. The woman, about 35 years old, usually applies for a room for herself and husband and presents a check for one or two month's rent. The checks range from $20 to $35. She secures the landlady's endorsement on the check while her husband waits for her in an automobile, sometimes with a child. After the check is cashed at a bank or business place the couple leaves town.

Officers, who have investigated nearly 50 such complaints, said the woman always calls her victims that she and her husband plan to build a tourist camp or open a beauty parlor in the town.

How Come (?) Baker's Dozen

According to Brewer's Handbook for Readers and Writers, the term, meaning 13 for 12, originated in the practice of bakers (when a severe penalty was inflicted for short weight) to give a surplus number of loaves called "inbread" (extra bread). Thus the bakers avoided risk of incurring the fine. The thirteenth was known as the "vantage loaf."

Mr. Beckworth's home is on a farm between Glimmer and Gladewater and when he takes the oath of office he will become the baby member of congress in this district of eight counties. He led the other four candidates who worked his way through the party and feeling that he needed legislative training he had accepted the race for Representative from Upshur county district. He won. During his term he was his bar examination. He is other Texan who with Supt. GROCEER LEARNS HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS

Denver, Colo., Aug. 26.—Newman, grocer, complained many friends shunned him on recent visit to Akron, Ohio, he once ran a store.

Fuzzled, he recalled former customers owed him $100. So he advertised all accounts were cancelled.

"Then everybody was happy," he said. "Everybody is my friend of Jasper."

THE BUNGLING HUNTER EXPLAINS

Just About Bottles—Another True Story

Gegan Wyche, the county auditor, wanted a story. I promised him one. And even though he has promised me something that I did not receive I have tried to keep my promise to him. I searched high and low for a good yarn for him and visited one hot spot after another in my quest for good material until I came at last to a place I'll call Kate's Place.

The place was barren of both merchandise and customers. Kate sat in a corner half drunk with a fat away look in her eyes. She glared at me as I sat at the stool and ordered beer. She gave me the beer and set down again in her chair in the corner. I continued to sit on the stool when I saw two bottles which had been filled with booze which would have been sold for a good price.

"Yeah," said Bottle Number Two. "I saw that dame lay down here and she was well all right."

One. "She had a good husband but she thought more of me than she did of him until now he is divorcing her. I don't know how many of my brothers she has taken with her today but I'm 100% proof and she swallowed my contents like water. She was drunk when she first got me and when she left me here she was so drunk that she could hardly walk. She just staggered out and got in the car with some man and the last I saw of her was her make was 'IT'S A SPORT. LET'S GET A QUART. I guess the guy got a quart all right, but I'm partly to blame for ruining a fine girl and breaking up a fine home."

"Yeah," said Bottle Number Two. "I saw that dame lay down here and she was well all right."

But It's True

I've ruined more than one life and killed many. It shouldn't matter to me... but it does. I hate to ruin lives, break up homes and kill folks. I hate to hear folks say bad things about me, but they're true. When they tell me again the same things will happen in the future that have happened in the past. I can't stand it. I won't stand it. They won't all me again.

"You're right they won't all me again either," said Bottle Number One.

"I was awakened from my thoughts by a crash. And there it was, the bottle broken by a million pieces on the concrete counter."

The LONG ROAD

The long stretches of Texas highways are an example of the special problems posed by driving conditions in the State. These problems, insofar as motor fuels, motor oils and lubricants are concerned, are best solved by an organization with a thorough experience in the needs of Texas motorists.

Humble motor fuels, motor oils and lubricants are manufactured in Texas from Texas crude oils produced by Texans. The people who guide these manufacturing processes are themselves operators of Texas automobiles. They know, from first-hand experience, what the average Texas motorist must have for dependable performance, and they leave no stone unturned to give him products which he can depend on in every day hard use. Perhaps that's one reason why so many Texans regularly stop for motor fuels and motor oils where they see the Humble sign.

Try Humble products yourself. The next time you need gasoline, stop at a Humble Service Station or dealer's and fill up with a Humble motor fuel, a Humble motor oil. Performance in your car will convince you of the exceptional suitability to your own kind of driving. (Don't come back for more.)
