RED CROSS WARNS AGAINST CHRISTMAS FIRES

Santa Claus was cautioned by the American Red Cross to keep candle flames, cigarettes and other inflammables away from his whiskers.

In a Christmas safety statement, the Red Cross warned householders that they "cannot light their plum pudding and have it, too, if the table is cluttered with inflammable favors and decorations."

Pointing out that more deaths and injuries occur from burns during December than in any other month, largely because of Christmas celebrations, the Red Cross warned parents to mix safety with sentiment during the holiday season.

The following precautions were advised:

"Christmas trees kept in homes more than a week dry out and will catch fire easily. Cotton and cellophane are both highly inflammable. When using as tree decorations, take care!

"Insulation which has worn off Christmas tree lighting sets should be replaced, since a short-circuit may start a fire."

"Children receiving electric toys should be trained to pull out plugs before leaving the room."

"In the excitement of holiday time, take special care in the kitchen. Keep knives out of reach of children, make sure that hot liquids from the stove are well back from the front edge, and in reaching for things on top shelves use a step-ladder, not a chair or pile of boxes."

"If snow and ice are on the ground, sprinkle steps and walk with salt or ashes to make walking more safe.

"Keep floors free of small objects that may be swallowed by babies."

"All public holiday gatherings should be held in buildings which have been patrolled for fire hazards. Exits should be kept clear and dangerous overcrowding should not be permitted."

"Welcome Santa," the Red Cross concludes, "but insure against fire at the time by having chimneys and flues cleaned now."

ORIGIN OF CHRISTMAS TREE

The origin of the Christmas tree custom is obscure. In a collection of charming legends Dr. Donald Bond, instructor in English at the University of Chicago, quotes authorities who claim its source for France, Scandinavia, Egypt, England and Germany.

Only one legend connects the Christ child with the Christmas tree. The story goes back to the manger at Bethlehem. Trees arrived from all over the world to do homage to the divine Child. These included small fir, which attracted little attention. But suddenly, says the legend, star after star fell upon the fir until it shone with the brilliancy of 1,000 heavenly lights.

Germany is commonly believed to have introduced the decorated Christmas tree, since German emigrants brought the custom to America in 1843.

But whether its origin be pagan or Christian, the Christmas tree custom has developed a business of large proportions. About 111,000,000 electric Christmas tree bulbs are sold in America every year.

WHY?

What means all this running up and down? Why are all the streets and highways thronged with people carrying boxes and bundles? Why do people crowd the stores and spend their money so freely?

And why do those who promote charitable institutions make their appeals for support at this season? Why are so many people thinking about their less fortunate neighbors and planning that all children shall have Christmas dinners and gifts? It is because Jesus has implanted in the hearts of men, and women the spirit of the sermon on the mount—words spoken by Him 2,000 years ago—words that abide with and influence us even unto this day.

GILDING IS SUGGESTED

If the usual red and green Christmas colors look dangerous at your interior decorations, don't be downcast—try gilding or silvering with radiator paint pine cones, greenery, gourds, and nuts, and make festoons. These can be a part of the design of the room, yet contribute their own bit of seasonal brilliance, too.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him; and when they had opened their treasures, they presented him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. St. Matthew 2:9-11.

SEASONAL HINTS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD

The alert housewife may find these hints helpful in preparing for the holidays:

A cluster of pine cones, enameled red or blue, silver or gilded, make attractive decorations. Tiny ones colored and strung on bright cord are pretty to drape on the Christmas tree.

A simple decoration is a long strip of tissue paper or transparent wrapping, 3/8-inch wide, clamped with the fingers like an accordion pleat.

If you are sending gifts to Eastern friends, include a few small sprigs of mistletoe! It doesn't grow very far North.

Bands one-inch wide, cut from colored magazine pages, the ends glued together, are attractive to slip around packages.

A bright seal glued in the upper left-hand corner of your stationery gives a festive appearance.

Use red-mesh onion bags to fill with green sweet-scented pine cones and tie with green needles. Onion bags are useful for putting up pecans or other nuts and may be covered with red transparent wrappings for colorful packages.

Use a wreath made on an 8x10-inch base for the center of the Christmas table. Within the wreath place a tall, fat, red candle and then fill the center with silver Christmas tree balls. This arrangement may be varied by the use of white and red balls or balls of the china.

For home-made Christmas stockings, silks are easy to make and enjoyed by children old enough to use them. Pair two tin cans that have been cut with a smooth finish, placing two holes in the sides of the cans near the bottom and running gay cord through them. They are turned upside down with the out edge on the bottom. Wrap the cord with adhesive tape where it runs through the holes in the can to keep it from wearing out too easily.

After the last bit of painting is finished, do not put paint brushes away with paint on them. Cleanse brushes thoroughly with kerosene, gasoline or turpentine. After removing the last of the paint or varnish, wipe dry with a cloth and then wrap in newspaper. Where brushes are to be used often keep them in a container with the bristles submerged in liquid to remove paint or varnish.

HOLIDAY GOODIES

At no time of the year does the housewife's art of cooking stand a greater test than during the holidays. Every cook, be she good, bad, or just fair, casts about for new dishes to serve her family or her guests.

I have assembled a variety of temptingly different dishes for the Christmas season.

The following dishes are suggested for snacks after out-of-door games such as hunts, ball games, rope-skipping, hay rides, etc.:

Pineapple Cream Cheese Sandwiches
Take two cakes of Philadelphia cream cheese, 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, a little salt, mash all together with fork. Prepare bread same as for open sandwiches (toasted preferred). Alternate with maraschino cherries in center.

Rolled Sardine Sandwiches
Drain sardines from oil, remove skin and bones. Add 2 tablespoons butter and mash to a paste. Season with 1/2 tablespoon onion juice, few grains cayenne and 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley. Add the yolk of 1 hard boiled egg. Moisten with mayonnaise. Remove crust from very thin slices of white bread, spread lightly with mixture and roll at once like jelly roll. Each roll should be 3 inches long; fasten with toothpick to keep in shape. When ready to serve sprinkle with paprika.

English Plum Pudding
1 cup chopped suet
1 cup flour
1 cup sugar
1 cup currants
1 cup raisins
1 cup bread crumbs
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon allspice
1 cup chopped apples
2 eggs
Enough milk to mix it. Tie in a cloth and boil 4 hours. Serve with hard sauce.

Red Currant and Raspberry Tapioca
1 1/2 cups prepared red currants
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup quick-cooking tapioca
2 cups water
1/2 cup red raspberries
1/2 teaspoon salt
Stem and wash fresh currants, add by cup sugar, cover, and heat slowly until sugar is dissolved and currants burst open; add raspberries and cook. Place water in top of double boiler and bring to a boil over direct heat. Combine tapioca, remaining 1/2 cup sugar and salt; add gradually to water and bring to a brisk boil, stirring constantly. Place immediately over rapid boiling water and cook 8 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool—mixture clears and thickens as it cools. When slightly cool, fold in fruit. Chill. Serve in sherbet glasses with plain or whipped cream. Serves 8.

Raised Bran Rolls
2 cups milk, scalded
1 cake compressed yeast
1 tablespoon salt
2 cups whole bran bread
2 cups sifted flour (about) Melted butter.
1/2 cup shortening
Cool milk to lukewarm; add crumbled yeast cake, salt, sugar, and 2 cups flour; add milk thoroughly with wooden spoon. Add shortening and egg, stirring well. Add bran and remaining flour and beat well; cover and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk; cut dough down. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full, dipping spoon each time in warm water before dipping into dough. Brush tops with butter, cover, and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Makes about 20 muffins.

Raised Date Nut Muffins
Add 1/2 cup chopped walnuts and 1/2 cup cut dates to 1/2 of dough (above). Follow directions given, sprinkling sugar over buttered tops.

Raised Currant Muffins
Add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind and 1/2 cup currants to 1/2 of dough (above). Follow directions given, brushing melted butter over tops.

Raised Vanilla Muffins
Add 1/2 cup chopped walnuts and 1/2 cup sliced citron to 1/2 of dough (above). Follow directions given, sprinkling sugar over buttered tops.

These muffins may be made in about 4 hours.

Parma Dinner Dainties
The following recipe can be used with assurance that they will be correct at a formal gathering and taste well:

Frozen Cheese Salad
3 cream cheeses
1/2 cup chopped dates
1 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup raisins
Green the cheese, add lemon juice and salt. Whip the cream, fold in cheese and dates. Pack in mold and freeze until firm. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Ginger Ale Salad
2 tablespoons gelatine (soak in 2 tablespoons water 5 minutes)
1/2 cup diced apples
1/2 cup hot water
1 cup ginger ale
1/2 cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
Pour into mold and chill. Serve on crisp lettuce.

Home Dinner Tempters
The accessories with the holiday meals are just as important as the main dishes, the prudent cook knows full well. Here is an array of such dishes which you know she will find popular.

Persimmon Cocktail
Select very ripe fruit of a bright color and chill perfectly by embedding in cracked ice. When ready to serve cut a slice from the top of each, fit into the outer part of a double fruit cocktail glass

The Probut Cured Hams Is in the Gastery

REMEMBER it is the cure that determines the quality of the finished meat. It costs money to raise good hogs—and whether you get good meat depends on how you cure it.

Here's How to Cure the Finest Quality Meat

First, pump hams and shoulders next to the bone with a curing pickle made with Morton's Tender-Quick mixed with water. Then cure from the outside with Morton's Sugar-Curing Smoke Salt. This improved method of curing is the surest way to eliminating under-cured or over-cured hams. You cure from out and from the outside at the same time, which gives you a uniform cure—a yet a thorough cure. This method strikes in the cure at the bone, helps prevent bone-aint, gives you meat that is worth a premium.

The Cost Is Small

At a curing cost of only 1 1/2 cents a pound you can pump with Morton's Tender-Quick and cure with Morton's Smoke Salt. Don't take chances on running out of meat this year. Cure enough to have plenty. Ask your local dealer for Morton's Smoke Salt, Morton's Tender-Quick, Morton's Sugar-Curing Seasoning, and a Morton Meat Pump. Have them on hand when you butcher. Why not use the best and at the same time make the entire job of curing and salting easier, quicker, and safer?

WINDOW SHADE DESIGN

Stars in blue on white rubber-cemented on window shades are pleasing from inside and when the room lights are on, silhouette their Christmas greeting to all who pass. A big, dielectric with sprigs of holly around its base is another design that's appropriate. This window shade decoration is on dark shades, used with snow-flakes.

Want Ad

Many years ago and long before I had ever thought of writing "Evangelites" in my trambles through Philadelphia I passed the almshouse of the Friends and was deeply impressed by its quiet and seclusion. When I wrote the poem the image of the place came back to me and I selected it for the closing theme. The story was not connected with it by any tradition. The expulsion of the Acadians is historic, the details imaginary. But as many of these unhappy exiles sought refuge in your city, it seemed proper to me that the tale should end there.

I did not have the pleasure of reading Mr. Meredith's article, but can only answer the "how come" with "Philadelphia has not taken advantage of Evangelites because this historic city has so many of the authentic incidents which history has immortalized for her; she naturally rests complacently while others reap her purely "manufactured" traditions.

Baptist Church News

J. C. Boyd, Pastor

The Sunday morning services of the Baptist church will be held between the hours of 10 and 11. The evening services will be held between the hours of 6 and 7. Let everyone take note.

This writer greatly enjoyed the vesper service held at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 5 o'clock.

The Sunday School and B. T. U. both ran high attendance last Sunday. There were 169 reported in the Sunday school and 109 in the B. T. U.

The special service of the evening rendered by Mrs. Nail and her junior choir was especially enjoyable. The house was filled to overflowing and many nice things were said in praise and commendation of the service.

Our sincerest greetings and best wishes are extended to our church people and many friends of Woodville at this another Christmas time.

Mrs. Morris Bailey of Lufkin plan to spend the holidays with the parents, Mrs. W. Z. Parsons.

MARRIED
Harry F. Jennings and Miss Lillian Mosley of Fort Worth, were married by Rev. J. C. Marshall Saturday night.

THE METHODIST CHURCH
J. C. Marshall, Pastor
Preaching at Colmesneal at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. next Sunday.

Woodville Locals
Miss Joanna Rock, drove to Austin Sunday and enjoyed a class reunion of which Miss Frances that night. They both arrived home yesterday for the holidays.

Mrs. P. Little visited Woodville friends Friday.

Mrs. A. L. David returned to Beaumont Tuesday after a few days visit with Mrs. J. H. Williams.

Madames Avert and Ward Duster with Rev. and Mrs. Tom Mynard attended the bazaar and dinner with the Christian church ladies held Friday.

Mrs. H. Reid, Jr., of Lubbock, will arrive Saturday to spend Christmas day with Mrs. S. H. Reid.

COMMUNICATION

When in the course of life we slowly follow the trail over the hills of age we ultimately come to the parting of the trail then our minds by nature are called back to our childhood days.

We then meditate upon our old home where we were born and raised and upon the many friends we knew. When away from our old home thirty-eight years we thought of it as the day we left.

In the way of nature there are many changes when we return, but in the way of kind nature this is perhaps best but it seems cruel that it is not as it was in the days of our youth.

The lofty pine trees are gone but the Magnolia stands in its grandeur whispering gently each morning to you through the sunbeams that glitter from the dewdrops that fall from its foliage.

Many are the days and many are the nights we have thought of the friends back there who we loved.

While many have crossed over the Stygian river and are sleeping in death beneath the crest of rain, the silver cord upon bent knees beneath the sword of Damocles.

When we think of life we sometimes think of you, though not alone as a misguided excursion into the alluring but little know realm of the future.

In the days of our youth we were unaware of it all. When we pass over the hill out yonder into the valley of the setting sun of age we then call to mind the happy days of youth.

ROBERT GEORGE
Fredonia, Tex., Dec. 10, 1938.
