Connally On Excess Cotton Stored

U. S. Senator Tom Connally of Texas, gave immediate attention to his arrival in Washington for the opening of congress to a plan for reduction of cotton surplus.

"The accumulation of the vast surplus of cotton on account of government loans is a constant load that is keeping down the price of cotton," Senator Connally asserted, adding, "This surplus must be reduced. The government now has on hand more than eleven million bales of loan cotton and by August first will possibly have two additional million bales."

Continuing, Senator Connally said:

"I propose that the government turn over to the Commodity Credit Corporation and the WPA three million bales of this cotton with directions that the same shall be manufactured into cotton mattresses and other cotton articles for home consumption and be distributed to families on relief and to indigent persons who can make a showing as to need, for same."

Stressing this feature of the plan, Senator Connally observed:

"Many persons who spend their lives raising cotton are in need of many simple home necessities which could be supplied by the utilization of cotton. Of course, the WPA or other distributing agent would establish a standard as to applicants who may be worthy so as not to disturb the market now supplied by manufacturers and dealers. To give a mattress to one who is not able to purchase one would not in any way interfere with such a market. The tremendous cotton surplus must be reduced. The government already has on hand this cotton for which it has paid. We are spending many hundreds of millions for relief purposes. Why not spend some of this cotton and serve the double purpose of affording relief and also reduce the cotton surplus."

"This surplus must be reduced if we are to have any success with the cotton program," Senator Connally concluded.

Senator Connally's action was based on information and advice received from many sources while spending the last several months in Texas giving attention to various problems coming before congress with special reference to agriculture. He traveled over 14,000 miles, going into every section of the state and contacting thousands of people in an effort to be of aid.

His Kin on Trial

Mrs. Anita Tafaya, sister of the defendant, Dennis Chavez, who went on trial Monday at Albuquerque, N. M., charged with conspiracy to violate the WPA code. Although indictments do not touch Senator Chavez, his secretary, Joe Martinez, is another defendant.

To Put Wings On 20,000 Collegiat

College student of America thoroughly approve President Roosevelt's plan to put wings on 20,000 collegiat as part of his $500,000,000 defense program. The current poll of Student Opinion Surveys revealed in Austin recently.

Results from 82 colleges, measured from the University of Texas, showed that only three out of every ten college students opposed the program that would spend $10,000,000 for training young aviators at aerially strategic campuses over the nation.

As a trial balloon, aviation would become a vital part of the training for 300 volunteers in the university of Washington, Alabama, Minnesota, and at Purdue University, Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, Georgia Technology and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. If successful, the program would be expanded to include other colleges and universities, it was pointed out.

The course would include six months training in solo and dual flying calculated to build a reserve of 100,000 American pilots with fifty of more flying hours, the surveys stated.

Collegiat voted 71.8 to 28.2 per cent to "approve President Roosevelt's plan to train an air reserve corp of 20,000 men now in college."

In an earlier poll, the college students voted 62 per cent to 38 per cent in favor of the President's huge rearmament program.

"Don't start reducing until after Susanna class party, Friday night, Feb. 17th," John Henry Kirby of Houston is looking after firm affairs at his home at Peach Tree Village this week.

O'Daniel Living Up To All Campaign Pledges

Whatever else Governor O'Daniel may do during his administration he is certainly carrying out one of his pledges to the people in appointing business men to office.

The people who have been clamoring for business men in office should be satisfied with Carr P. Collins as chairman of the Highway Commission. He is a splendid example of a country boy who has succeeded in the field of business. He was born in Tyler of typical East Texas parents, who possessed little of this world's goods, but were endowed with honesty, frugality and high ideals. His father, V. A. Collins, is now practicing attorney at Livingston.

Carr, although comparatively a very young man, has for many years been the head of one of the largest and most successful insurance businesses of the State. There can be no doubt as to his honesty, industry and business ability.

He has many friends and relatives in Tyler county, and in this entire section of the State for that matter, who rejoice in his success and who wish to congratulate him, as well as the State of Texas at large upon his being given this opportunity to render a great public service.

If there is a post in Texas calling for men like Carr Collins, it is the position to which he has been appointed where many millions of dollars are spent annually, and where the future welfare of the State depends upon the manner in which it is spent.

While he lives in Dallas where his business has called him, he is a real East Texan of whom all Texans may be proud. The Booster congratulates Collins, the Governor and the State on this appointment.

Meeting of the Local Eastern Star

The Woodville chapter of Eastern Star, No. 100, met at home and the chapter room was a delight to the eye with its new walls, lights, and decorations for the official visit of the District Grand Worthy Matron, Mrs. C. E. Smith. Mrs. M. C. Tatum was not able to be present because of illness, and because of the invitation of Dr. Watt Barclay some shifting around of officers was made, but could not be noticed as the work was put over in a splendid way. Mrs. Chloe Barclay, Worthy Matron, can well be proud of her corp of officers. A social hour was enjoyed and coffee, sandwiches and cakes served. Among the guests from other chapters were Mesdames Ruthell Barclay, Mary Seale Pedigo of Hull, Bolivia, Taylor of Livingston, Edna Miller, Ida Mae Bertram, Myrtle Barclay, Lucille Skinner, Gladys Barclay, Lucy K. Hill, of Silsbee, Suelia Crosby of Crosby, Eurina Edgington, Mattie Hayes, Mable Harle, Mrs. A. E. Shirley of Port Arthur, Mrs. R. L. Vernon, Mrs. Stratton Riley of Port Neches, Sarah Anderson and Joada Allums of Kountze, Ora Lindsey of Corpus Christi, Sallie Lewis and Frances Maddox of Warren.

Louis vs. Lewis

Heavyweight Champ Joe Louis defended his title last night in a scheduled 15 round bout with John Henry Lewis and was through in 2 minutes and 16 seconds, having knocked his opponent down three times when the referee stopped the fight in favor of Joe Louis. Even the short time was 16 seconds longer than the time it took to finish Max Schmelling.

Amateur Week At Chester

Friday night of this week at 7:30 o'clock another amateur program will be staged. This is just one opportunity for the talented school children of Tyler county to swing out and show what they can do, and much interest is being shown by the schools that have lined up to enter the contest. Only two entries will be allowed from each school and only one will be selected in the preliminaries to enter the final, which will be run off the same night.

Chester, Woodville, Colmesneer and Warren schools are entering the contest and are allowing their contestants to go through a series of rigid drill this week in preparation for the big event at Chester. This really appears to be one of the closest, most thrilling and entertaining amateur contests that has been conducted at Chester or any other place in the county, since this feature or type of entertainment was introduced into the schools of the county. It is to be hoped by those sponsoring such programs, that this kind of work will continue to be of interest to all the people for it is really a great help to youngsters who care to launch out and try a hand with their talents. Prizes will be awarded to fourth places, as follows: first, $8.00; second, $6.00; third, $4.00; fourth, $2.00.

Several special features are being worked out for added entertainment, one of which is the Chester High band concert that will precede the amateur program. The band will be out in their new uniforms, and under the direction of Mr. Lowery, the new band director, Come on and hear it.

Public Health Co-Wide Meeting

NEW WILDCAT LOCATION

J. C. Bonham has staked location for a new wildcat test in northern Tyler county which company and is located 200 feet south of the Neches river. It is the No. 1 Southwestern Lumber company and is located 200 feet south of the north line and 435 feet from the east line of a 47.3-acre tract in the Ben Enloe survey, abstract 729. Material was being shipped in the first of this week.

Rotan Nurseries a Well-Known Concern

Bill Rotan has inquires, also can secure for you any plant you want even though he need get it from foreign nurseries. The Booster has on its desk a communication to "Messrs. Rotan & Son Evergreen Nurseries," from the Canary Islands, now in possession of Spanish rebels, giving prices on 1938 Bermuda colors. He also has a communication from the Chugal Nursery Co., of Yamamoto Kobe, Japan. Why go out of Woodville for shrubs?

Friday Night

Jasper comes to Woodville to meet the Woodville boys in basketball Friday night at 7:15. The Bulldogs bring two boys teams to play the Eagles. The first string games will be played first, with the second string game following.

The CCC Jasper camp is also scheduled to meet the Woodville CCC boys in the third game of the evening.

The contests should prove to be very interesting, also Jasper and Woodville usually offer plenty of opposition for each other.

Jasper vs. Eagles

Time for the All-Tyler County Tournament is getting near and plans are just about finished for the affair. Interest is still rising and by the time for play to start on Feb. 4th the $30-a-man Woodville should offer the best and biggest tournament the county has ever had. Jasper Sturrock, an outstanding official from Beaumont has been contracted to officiate the tournament. Tyler County fans will recall Referee Sturrock in the county playoff last year and the very fine officiating that he did. Woodville is fortunate in having really good officials for their tournament which will further help make the tournament a success.

Ticket sales for the tournament have been good and it is in place to say that those that have not purchased a tournament ticket can save money and get better accommodations at the sessions if they will see a member of the Woodville High School Band and purchase one early.

An All-Tyler County Band composed of all members of the Warren, Chester and Woodville bands will join together in playing a 15-minute program at 8 o'clock in the final session of the basketball tournament on February 4th. The directors of the three bands will alternate in directing the large band and in addition to the concert will give the admission to the final session of the tournament. The date of the event was held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock and followed by the band and cheerleaders. The band will play at 8:00 p. m. and the cheerleaders at 8:15 p. m.

To God in Heaven.... Up in the Sky.... A Child's Prayer

—Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 19.—The clerk sorting mail in the Minneapolis post office stopped short as he picked up a grainy envelope addressed in childish printing, and looked again at the inscription.

"To God. In Heaven. Up in the sky."

Then he laid it aside for postal inspectors to open.

In the envelope they found a single sheet of paper.

"Dear God," it said, "when I go upstairs, please let me see Floydie."

"Bobby."

Reporters dug out the story then.

Bobby is six. Floydie was four. And Bobby was his friend and protector when other children made fun of him because his eyes were crossed. They lived just two doors apart.

Last week Floydie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Highstrom, took him to the hospital for the operation that was to straighten his eyes. "I want Bobby,"

As he went under the anaesthetic, he kept repeating: "I want Bobby. I want Bobby. Floydie didn't recover consciousness. There were, in the grim terms of the hospital charts, "respiratory and cardiac difficulties."

And Saturday Bobby went to his friend's funeral.

He heard Rev. Neuhardt conclude the sermon with a poem: "We know when little children, "In innocence they die, "It is the loving Saviour "Who takes them to the sky." Then he talked to Rev. Neuhardt, who told him Floydie had taken a long journey, to see God. So yesterday Bobby's mother,

And Saturday Bobby went to his friend's funeral.

All Day Singing

1939 Grasshopper Infestation

Texas may expect a 1939 grasshopper infestation estimated at 28 per cent more severe than that of 1938 and one capable of causing 15 million dollars damage to crops in spite of the fact that there will be fewer hoppers in the United States as a whole. This estimate comes from R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension service and state grasshopper control leader, and is based on egg surveys made by federal supervisors and county agricultural agents.

"Most of the damage will come from the migratory species which threatens 23 counties in the Panhandle. In all, 115 Texas counties may expect infestations of varying degrees.

The 1938 infestation caused losses estimated at $1,766,908, while savings estimated at $10,288,958 were effected by the control campaign. About $300,000 of federal funds, administered thru the USDA Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, were expended in Texas in 1938, and local contributions of labor and material were in excess of this amount, Reppert said.

The federal-state-county plan of control in effect in previous years will again be used in 1939 and plans are already being made to combat anticipated infestation.

Houston School Girl Attacked

A light skinned negro, believed to be the same who has assaulted several white women during the past six months was caught Friday at the attack of a 16-year-old high school girl Thursday night.

Connally Warns Against Reviving The Anti-Lynching Bill

Washington.—Senator Connally promised last Friday that the Southern senators would wage a bitter fight against any attempt to revive "the so-called anti-lynching bill.

The Texan interrupted senate debate over confirmation of Harry L. Hopkins to protest a statement by Senators Wagner, D. N. Y., Van Nuys, D., Ind., and Capper, R., Kan., in behalf of the measure.

Recalling how the bill tied up senate business in a knot for weeks last year, Connally shouted, "If these senators want to bring this up, they are going to waste about half this session of congress."

Connally, one of the leaders of a group of senators who talked for days last session to cause eventual sidetracking of the bill, said the group would "fight as long as their legs hold up" and their mental facilities hold out.

"I can't tell you right now, that I'm not going to pass," Connally added, pounding his desk.

Houston Fat Stock Show

The Houston Fat Stock Show and Live Stock Exposition, scheduled to begin February 25 continuing through March 5, will, in all probability have nearly twice the number of exhibits than did the 1938 show, which was aptly described as being by far the greatest ever to be held in the history of the exposition.

Last year it was necessary to construct an auxiliary building costing $50,000 in order to properly house the herds of cattle, swine, sheep, poultry and other such exhibits.

Construction will soon begin on another building, which, Pres. J. W. Sartwell says, also will be packed to capacity if entries continue to come in as they have during the past fortnight.

Blue ribbon exhibits representative of far-flung areas of Texas as well as several adjoining states, have already been entered in the exposition.

National Flower and Garden Show

Amateur flower growers of Houston and vicinity will have an opportunity to take part in the National Flower and Garden show, which opens there Feb. 12.

Approximately 1600 square feet of space has been set aside at Sam Houston coliseum for the garden and club amateur exhibits.

According to plans announced by Mrs. Libbie Masters, chairman of Garden Club exhibits in the show, the amateur displays will be divided into three sections: The larger exhibit of these will be staged by over 46 clubs of Houston and numerous clubs in Greater Houston; the second and third sections will be devoted to out-estate gardens, and the men's club of Houston who have planned a separate exhibit.

At a meeting held this week there in the public library, plans calling for a unit exhibit, constructed jointly by Houston and Greater Houston clubs, were presented for approval to club representatives. The plan calls for a garden and two walls of a house, to be built on a 70x10 and a half foot section. At either end of the garden, walls will be built, the interiors of which will be decorated with flowers and potted furnishings. The general theme of the plan is to show the relationship of the home to the garden. Mrs. Musterson said.

Sen. Sheppard Says Prohibition

This is the nineteenth anniversary of the ratification of the constitution. The author of that amendment was Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The eighteenth amendment was repealed five years ago, but today on the Senate floor Senator Sheppard arose to deliver his annual anniversary speech and to predict again that national prohibition would return.

AN APPRECIATION

We would extend to the friends and neighbors our gratitude for their kindness and help during the illness and death of our dear mother.—The floral offering was also deeply appreciated.

Baptist Church News

J. C. Boyd, Pastor

Our Methodist friends are to be congratulated upon the selection of such a splendid location for their proposed new building program. Just a glimpse at the property in passing convinces one of its desirability for a church location.

The plans of the Methodist people and also those of the Baptist to give to Woodville in the near future a new pastor's home, a new church building and the rebuilding and doubling the capacity of another should be hailed by the community with delight. In these proposed buildings will come to the town some worth while improvements for which the town will be justly proud.

Plans are being developed for the conducting of a Daily Vacation Bible school at the local church to be held the first two weeks in June. A corp of workers is now being trained for the school.

A thorough going Sunday school enlargement program is in the making. It is predicted that the Sunday school attendance will be doubled within the next year.

There were nine from the Woodville church in attendance upon the Sunday school conference held at the local church last week.

TREES PLANTED

Monday afternoon was such a wet one that the tree-planting project of the FFA boys was postponed until Tuesday afternoon. B. F. Billings, Regional Forester, located at Kirbyville came Monday and stayed over for the demonstration, when an acre of seedlings of long leaf and slash pine were planted. The Texas Forest Service furnished the seedlings in a more timely manner than the timber industry. It was the chairman of the FFA boys' committee of the local C. C. of C. who was in charge of the planting.

Judge W. B. Browder of Conroe, judge of the Ninth judicial district, was seriously injured Monday morning when his automobile overturned while rounding a curve between Shepherd and Colmesneer.

Duncan Stanford, a court reporter, who was in the car, was not hurt. Judge Browder was on his way to Livingston, where the Ninth district court is in session.

District Attorney W. C. McCall of Conroe, who was also coming by Livingston, brought Judge Browder to the hospital where he was placed in a room. The doctor there said that the judge would probably recover.

INTERCEPTED LETTER

W. Lee O'Daniel, Governor of State of Texas Austin, Texas.

Dear Lee—

Folks are wishing you the greatest success in your plan of furthering old age pensions payment. Hereabouts many citizens are wondering "all takes as now recognize" were paid by everybody. It's a great amount, seven dollars a month. Some of the old folks are more entitled than some of the young folks.

IN SPITE of pitfalls, propaganda, those who say it can't be done, Woodville keeps on keeping on building, and even now new structures are being erected.

GADGET! All what innumerable crimes have been committed in this name. A fellow in Missouri says it is announced a gadget has been invented to regulate speed of cars from the back seat. But, we'd like to know, what do you mean "Gadget?"

THE TEXAS county having the highest tax value per $100 valuation is Trinity, $1.80; the lowest, Comanche, 40 cents; Tyler county, $1.00; Angellina, $1.00; Jasper, 88 cents; Liberty, $1.04; Crockett, $1.05; San Augustine, 96 cents; Polk, $1.00; San Jacinto, 80 cents.

A MAN who cannot stop yawning is puzzling physicians. Probably the poor fellow has been listening in on some popular radio broadcast, popular address, or something. We say unqualifiedly, the average radio program is a cure for insomnia.

POLITICS KEEP right on offering surprises here, there and yonder. In fact some Austin positions we had imagined would not be changed under the new administration, just showed us how little we actually knew of ANYTHING appertaining to the body politic.

IT APPEARS it is a poor rule that will not work both ways. The average car you pass on a drive most anywhere, is worth exactly $238, according to statistics. This, it may be assumed, is slightly less than the average value of the cars that pass you on the highway.

A LEARNED writer says: We have long felt that dog fanciers were behind the decade. Year after year they offer the same breeds. Why not get some new models. We offer one—the Great Pain (Great Dane-Pekingese). Great for gift possibilities; 10,000 would be sent to Hitler alone.

WHAT A fine and glorious feeling it will be when highway—Woodville to Livingston—actually gets under way. As the matter now stands when the weather is wet one must go round by Corrigan. When the weather is dry, clouds of dust make driving disagreeable. We suppose the moral of all this is—stay at home.

SOME OF you hard boiled old timers, take a moment off, and read "To God . . . in Heaven . . . Up in the Sky . . . A Child's Prayer." If it bring tears to eyes be not ashamed to let some one see. But rather if you can read it, it's on page one, and not shed a tear, you ought to be ashamed. It positively is the greatest little sob story we ever read.

STATISTICS ARE queer—in just reading them from day to day. The latest story says the United States, though it has more doctors per thousand than any other country in the world, still could save over 200,000 lives a year by furnishing adequate medical care for the sick. Proper medical aid would save 20,000 who die of pneumonia; 35,000 who die of tuberculosis; 700 women who die in childbirth; 12,000 who die of diabetes; 24,000 who die of cancer; 40,000 who die of social diseases; and 70,000 children who die before the age of one year.

SOME CIVIC organization in Woodville should get busy and put on a "home grown" musical, for instance, the New Minister, and secure a complete the Marionettes.

MRS. TOM CAMPBELL, wife of Rev. Tom Campbell of Colmesneil, passed away Saturday night at the Texas hospital in Beaumont after days of suffering with pneumonia.

MRS. LORA BINGHAM, wife of T. S. McGrew, died last Sunday at the age of 73 years. She was born on March 1, 1877, and was married to Mr. Campbell Dec. 8, 1898. Four children were born to this union, two preceded her in death.

J. A. TATUM, Tyler county lost another of its splendid pioneers when John Alfred Tatum passed away Tuesday about noon after some ten days fight with pneumonia. Mr. Tatum was born August 26, 1858, in Louisiana and at the age of nine moved to Jasper county with his parents. Later, coming to Tyler County, he married Miss Ida Grimes on Jan. 5, 1880, who with three sons and seven daughters survive him.

M. TACKABERRY, Many recall Mrs. M. Tackaberry in the Wentz-Tackaberry mill purchased from Dan Cobb. Mrs. Tackaberry passed away a couple of years ago at the daughter's home in Commerce and today (Wednesday) we learn that Mr. Tackaberry passed away Tuesday at the home of his son, J. M. in Houston. For many years Mr. Tackaberry was in the lumber business, was for a number of years in Livingston. He was 78 years of age. Burial was beside the beloved wife at Commerce.

CHAPTER II
 There is still a spirit of the old untamed West about Lone Tree, that even electric lights and gasoline filling stations cannot banish. The town itself is but a green patch set in a

 Breck felt a rise of excitement as he pushed through a door and at once became a part of the crowd within the old building. The room was long and wide with high ceiling.
 A stage that filled one end showed its original use as the town theater.

 all. His cheeks felt hot and his few lights. He turned angrily from the grocery counter and found himself scowling into a long mirror of the men's furnishing department.
 What he saw gave him a queer shock.

TO STOP SLAUGHTER OF MIGRATORY BIRDS
 An appeal to children and their parents to stop slaughtering birds in Houston was issued Friday of last week by Pres. Oswald Mueller of the Outdoor-Nature Club.

Mr. Mueller estimated between 300,000 and 400,000 birds, including many migratory birds, are killed in Houston with air rifles in the course of a year.

In the case of migratory birds, the marksmen shooting them are violating three laws—state and federal. Mr. Mueller pointed out there is a city law prohibiting the shooting of guns of any kind in the city limits and in firing on native birds children and grown-ups are violating that ordinance.

"I do not care to be placed in the role of a crusader," Mr. Mueller said, "but something should be done to protect the birds from destruction by hunters."

War Declared On Drunken Drivers

Declaring a relentless war on drunken drivers, representing citizens of southeast Texas and southwest Louisiana drew the initial battles lines last Friday in Beaumont at a traffic safety conference in Hotel Beaumont, sponsored by L. B. Maddox, local chief of police. Temporary organization was completed with a representative named to further the movement in each county and parish of the territory.
 Col. Harve Haines, secretary of the Port Arthur C. of C., sounded the keynote against drunken drivers and the leniency of jurors toward violators of this kind when he said:
 "It is a disgrace to see the wholesale manner in which suspended sentences are given drunken drivers. Try as they may to do their part in arresting these violators, law enforcement officers see their efforts wasted when jurors, sympathetic with the criminal, law, turn him loose or give him a suspended sentence.
 "Too often the kind of men needed on juries are many times composed of men who violate the drunken driver law themselves, just as the person being tried."
 Representatives from 17 counties and parishes of Texas and Louisiana were selected to lead the safety work in their districts. These selections form the temporary organization of a voluntary association. Later these representatives will meet select permanent representatives, and choose officers for the organization. No temporary officers were named except the leaders from the counties and parishes.
 The representatives appointed from the counties of East Texas followed.

Since the repeal of prohibition liquor is consumed everywhere, said the and I was impressed by the hundreds of bottles picked up on the Beaumont-Fort Arthur highway, following the Christmas holidays. Almost all the Christmas holidays liquor consumed by drivers and passengers. I am just wondering how much of it was consumed by jurors coming to duty in Beaumont. Is it a wonder we cannot convict the drivers?
 "When we realize that each year more than one-fifth of the cars in Texas were involved in accidents, when we realize that traffic accidents cost more than all crime and fires combined, we must surely realize that we need scientific prosecution, scientific arrest and above all scientific public opinion regarding driving while intoxicated."
 Clyde Smith of Woodville pleaded for uniformity of traffic policy in all sections and all cities, regardless of their size. He said that procrastination on the part of drivers was one big trouble today. They fidget around about starting anywhere and then have to hurry—if they get there at all. He was high in his praise of the state police patrol. H. H. Boethel, State Highway district sergeant in charge of this district, gave his report on the cause of accidents. Among these were carelessness, parking on the highways, fog, rain, failure to stop on lateral roads, narrow shoulders on roads, livestock on roads, and in a few cases, mechanical defects in the car. He said the degree to which drinking is responsible is hard to determine from reports, but urged enforcement of the law which provides a penalty for driving while intoxicated to any degree. In pointing out a remedy, Mr. Easterling said that officers must tighten up on their proof in such cases. He advocated the passage of a law in such cases prohibiting suspended sentences, leaving the penitentiary sentence for the major offenders and jail confinement and fines for the lesser offenders. Arresting officers should see that the accused man is given a thorough examination and even a doctor's examination, if necessary. We all have jobs to do. My department has resolved to make no more agreements regarding the penalty for any drunk driver. At times in the past we have agreed on suspended sentences or fines when the case was difficult, but in the future all will be prosecuted and it will be the duty of the jury to do the rest.

 E. W. Jackson, superintendent of the Beaumont schools pointed out that textbooks on traffic safety have been adopted by the state and will be put in use in the Beaumont schools in all grades above the sixth immediately. The motion to perfect and organize the area league was made by Mr. Lowery and passed unanimously. A resolution also was passed to ask the State highway department to continue the use of the "Don't Drink and Drive" signs on public highways. Ben Jackson of Beaumont presided over the meeting.
