THINK'MBOBBIES

That old gag "Make the World Safe for Democracy," is hereby changed. "Make Safe From the Rest of the World."

Prepare yourselves for the next big local doings, i. e., the Woodville school carnival. A word to the cautious is sufficient.

We read a commentator wrote the "Open Sky is the Best Roof." And some fellow objected because it leaks so badly. Leaks, you say? How come? Sky in East Texas is waterproof, and fool-proof just now when we're all crying out loud for rain. That commentator must have been writing from England.

Some of the rubber check artists will begin to be more careful how they put out the hot ones. The new bill is now under fire by those who make a specialty of proving law is unconstitutional, to the end they'll have something to present to the court in the near future when they are called upon to defend rubber check writers.

Years ago the government laid down on mileage tickets on railroads and then it was newspaper men got under the broad-plate. Advertising was accepted by newspapers for the railroads and mileage books were issued as payment therefor. If newspaper reports are correct the wise ones are about to attempt to put the same plan into operation on the bus lines.

Wonder what some of the "Here" looking warriors of the college gradious teams will say when they view their pictures as published during the 1939-40 season, as they come charging down the field ready to do more damage to anyone opposing, say about 23 years hence. These pictures of these terrible men, the looks on their faces are a joke and, it is a fact that he is more afraid of the grid iron "monster" that comes down the field with the ball tucked under his arm and wearing a late model 1939 snail.

If there is one thing that makes newspaper men see red it is the geek who has something to sell, orders advertising space, send bill to see and see, he'll pay for it. The paper man carries the ad presents bill some three times over to Beaumont to collect and finds that the "boss" has a P. O. box in Beaumont, but is a resident of a nearby town, that information being obtained in the Beaumont telephone directory. Yes, this fellow who ordered the advertising is still hanging about Woodville, looking up business. This bill is going to paid very soon or the Booster will have a story in this connection that will make interesting reading, but will not be advertising or aiding in any way the Woodville representative.

We are now entering upon a season of foot ball. We read of the Flintious vs Scrub Boards, and can't wonder from whence they come. There appears to be 14 cities, towns and suburbs whose teams are known at home as Panthers, Tigers, Eagles and Bull Dogs. To one not acquainted with each college's team names it is necessary to read all the story to find out whose team was, in fact, playing whose other team. It is a fact, stories of the game would be more interesting, read with greater interest if one could keep resentment out of his mind for the simple reason he is not always sure even after reading the entire account of who's who. A plain statement such as, say for instance, Woodville vs Jasper, would be welcomed.

The Baptist women of the New Bethel Association of Tyler county in their annual associational meeting held at Chester Monday of this week passed a resolution asking that a local option election be called for the purpose of abolishing the beer taverns from Tyler county. The resolution passed is as follows:

"We the resolution committee of the Women's Missionary Union of the New Bethel Association, realizing the importance of protecting the citizenship from the degradation of alcoholic drinks and dangers to the morals of our people by patronizing places where such beverages are sold, hereby voice our disapproval of such establishments within Tyler county and hereby pledge our support in every way possible to rid our county of such dangers."

Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 25.—The Cherry Grove Lutheran church here is 65 years old, yet it has only two members.

It is dusted and used but one Sunday each year. On designated day former members attend a service to renew old ties. Once the church had a flourishing congregation of 200 members, but some died, some moved away, until now there are only two, Mrs. J. S. Miller and her son Albert.

They Shoot 'Em In Germany

August Dickman, of Dinslaken, was shot by a firing squad on

Dont's For the Sharp Shooters

With the dove hunting season in full swing some pertinent DON'TS which may save sportsmen considerable trouble with the state and federal game wardens have been formulated by the Game Department's secretary, as follows:

Don't shoot doves before 7 a. m. nor after official sunset.

Don't shoot from a car or from, or along a public road.

Don't shoot doves with any gun except a shot gun not larger than 10 gauge.

Don't forget to plug your gun to a three-shell capacity.

Don't forget your hunting license if you leave the county.

Don't kill more than 15 doves a day and do not have more than 15 in your possession.

Don't shoot when you cannot see, there might be another hunter behind those trees.

Don't leave gates open and always get permission to hunt on private land.

Don't forget that the quail season does not open until Dec. 1.

POETRY

After a northern jaunt, says the State Observer, over the highways we have nothing except praise for most branches of the highway department's excellent Department of Signs. The slight dispraise falls mainly on the poetry division.

The poetry division, from Austin to the Oklahoma border to our own knowledge, kept trying to rhyme "night" with "lights" and even the highly laudable purpose of keeping down accidents, will not justify any such butchering of the King's English. We can't quote the exact verbiage but one "verse" went like this:

"When you meet a car at night, Don't forget to dim your lights."

While another version, with a commendable lack of originality, reads along these lines:

"The thoughtful motorist dims his lights When he meets a car at night."

And it still doesn't rhyme.

What we'd suggest, if we must have our road signs verified, is a contest, and just to prove it can be done, we submit these in advance:

Gas and Whiskey do not mix. Try it and get in a helluva fix.

(and maybe this one for East Texas and Arkansas.)

Then what drives too fast in a car is worse than which they think they are.

(Then people could sing this) If you simply must ride, sister, Keep on the right side, sister."

"It's lots of fun to drive with verve Slow down on the coming curve."

"Your glaring lights blinded me So turn them down, you SLOB."

"It's great to speed at 60 per, Than to spend the night in stir."

SIGNS

In all seriousness, highway guide signs have become a real art; they do everything but think for you. Our personal nomination for the greatest innovation in the art of marking highways is the reflecting material with with curve-arrows, etc., are marked. They make night driving a real pleasure.

Interesting to this observer were a couple of deviations in our sister state of Oklahoma, Up and around Oklahoma City they seem to be trying out a maximum speed limit for designated areas. For instance, on an arrow denoting an upcoming curve, there will be a sign, "40 MPH," a little further on, a broader curve, "50 MPH." The Oklahoma markers also warn against passing on hills, but go somewhat farther. "No passing zones" have been marked; not only on the grades, but on curves and elsewhere where passing was found to be dangerous. Another Oklahoma innovation was signs warning pedestrians to walk facing the traffic which also seemed like a good idea.

No Postoffice At Hicksbaugh

An order stating the postoffice at Hicksbaugh would be closed effective Sept. 30, was received on Thursday by Postmaster Ogden Johnson of Beaumont from Washington headquarters of the post office.

South Texas State Fair

While the emphasis is on agriculture and livestock at the South Texas State Fair in Beaumont, October 28 to November 4, the fair association has this year incorporated a new exhibit department which should prove of unbounded interest to Texans; a farm chemistry exhibit.

The chemistry exhibit is being shown only twice this year, once at the State Fair in Dallas and the second time at the South Texas State Fair in Beaumont.

In fact the two fair associations, the state fair and the South Texas fair, banded together in their efforts to establish as thorough an exhibit of chemistry as is possible for the purpose of showing Texans at first hand what chemistry actually does mean.

Gilbert C. Wilson of White Oak high school who has developed the dehydration process for sweet potatoes and yams and who is one of Texas working chemurgic scientists will be in full charge of the great exhibit at both fairs.

Elmore R. Torn, agricultural manager-director of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce at Longview, is director of the exhibit. Members of the executive committee in charge of the display are: Victor H. Schoffelmayer of Dallas, Mr. Wilson, P. F. Lawson of Beaumont, Hubert M. Harrison of Longview, Roy Ruppard of Dallas and L. B. Herring, Jr. of Beaumont.

Starch From Yams

The sweet potato starch factory at Laurel, Miss., which handled 165,000 bushels of sweet potatoes and produced 1,850,000 pounds of starch in 1938, expects to grind 350,000 bushels in 1939, and in 1940, through the addition of a dehydration plant that will allow year round operation, may handle up to a million bushels.

The plant is owned and operated by Sweet Potatoes, Inc., a cooperative association of about 1,200 farmers, according to C. E. Boyles, marketing specialist of the Texas A&M Extension service.

Chairman T. J. Stryker of the NFFI received a check yesterday at $22.13 from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which will be used locally as seen fit. The total cleared from the Roosevelt ball last Jan. was $50 which was sent in. The expense for handling the matter at headquarters, $2.87 was charged to us and deducted from our share thus leaving the $22.13.

Yellowjackets, Bees Or Mud Daubers

They do say those on the side lines the other day in a restaurant on Highway 40, Woodville, had a little excitement. A party of four came in for dinner and when seated one of the women began to pull off her shirtwaist, sweater or something, when she discovered she had an audience.

Then she pulled it loose at the bottom, held it away from her body and out flew what looked like a bee. It had stung her on her back, and it wasn't a bee, but rather a yellowjacket.

She was soon laughing about it, but, take it from us, if a yellow jacket had performed on us in that manner, we wouldn't be smiling even yet!

Woodville Locals

Jerome Robertson of Houston visited his brother and wife, Mrs. E. H. Robertson Sunday.

S. P. Sims and Billie Mack Pennington left Tuesday for A&M college.

It was with sympathy and sorrow that we learned that Dean Tevis had lost his mother. It happened after we left for Washington and some how we did not learn of it until we were in Beaumont Saturday. Dean was called to California about the 17th of August, where his parents had gone to spend the winter, by her sudden death. As he and his father brought her back to New Jersey for interment, Mrs. Tevis joined them at Beaumont. We deeply sympathize with him and Mr. Tevis, Sr.

Air Corps Vacancies

In line with the recent increase authorized by Congress for the Air Corps has been commenced throughout the Houston Recruiting district. These recruits are limited to high school graduates or men with journeyman's rating in a mechanical trade. The recruits accepted will receive a taste of flying as soon as enlisted as they will be transported from Houston to Kelly Field near San Antonio in one of the transport planes of the Air Corps.

Applicants for enlistment may be accepted at the Recruiting office in the Jasper County court house, according to Corporal Clifton G. Osborn, in charge. Those men accepted at Jasper will be transported by rail to Houston and after final enlistment will be sent by plane to Kelly Field.

This is a wonderful opportunity for a young man who desires training in aviation and as long as vacancies exist will probably be eagerly sought for.

These Air Corps vacancies are the only ones that exist at present but it is expected that in the near future recruiting for all arms will be commenced, this in line with the recent statement by the president that the size of the Regular Army would be increased.

In addition to the above the following latest order is hereby published in this army notice: "Quotas of fifty for field artillery unassigned Fort San Houston received this date. Resume shipment of applicants."

CLETON G. OSBORN, Corporal, Depl. (R. S.)

Mrs. J. B. Best

This community was shocked and saddened Friday when it became known that Mrs. J. B. Best had suddenly passed away with a heart attack. She was in town during the forenoon and was stricken about noon at the home. She rallied, but an hour later, the heart loved was the daughter of Jas. M. and Martha Nicholson of Polk county, Feb. 11, 1893. She is the granddaughter of Andrew McKee, a beloved pioneer who owned the first stage coach line from Woodville to Livingston or rather from Town Bluff Ferry to Drew's Landing on the Trinity river, not far beyond Livingston. With his home and post office, he was also a physician at Pinkney. The Horse Pen Creek gets its name because of the coach horses penned near it, and teams changed on this their long drive. His son, James M., started the settlement at Kiann, and quite a community was built around his home, post office, cotton gin, and grist mill. The Indians worked on his large farm and Conoco Battise and Cooper Syltine, leaders at the Indian Village were reared by Mrs. McKee. Here is the birthplace of Mrs. Best. On June 8, 1913, she united in marriage with James Britten Best, and the new home was started here in Woodville. She was a consecrated Christian, a faithful member of the M. E. church, and her co-workers in the church feel that her place can not be filled, and she will be greatly missed. As friends and neighbors waited at the cemetery Sunday for the funeral cortege to arrive, one lady was heard saying: "I've known her 21 years and she was always gentle and kind, and I never heard her speak an unkind word of anyone." All deeply sympathize with Mr. Best who has been so ill for a number of months and the daughter and son, Mrs. J. H. Kennesson, Jr., and James. They are indeed bereaved. She is also survived by two brothers and four sisters, Rev. Mr. W. A. McKee of Houston; J. H. McKee of Livingston, Mrs. A. W. Harrison of Woodville and Messames R. E. Galloway, J. N. Young and J. H. David of Livingston. The funeral services were held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the Magnolia cemetery, with Rev. J. C. Marshall and Rev. J. S. Denney in charge. The male quartette opened the service with a verse of song and Mrs. Millard Allen of Henderson sang "In the Garden," as Mrs. Audis Wisenbaker accompanied her with her violin. Fall bearers were beloved nephews, Herman and Arnold Galloway, Albert Ferry, Marlin, John Thomas, James and Welborn McKee and Hobson Young. Many came from Warren, Hillister, Doucette, Colmesneil and Chester and among those from a distance to attend the service were Dr. Wilson Harrison, Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Short and Miss Mary Tucker of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Fox of Alto, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKee, Mrs. J. N. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickens and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. David, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Adams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Young, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKee, Mr. and Mrs. N. P.

IF WHAT everybody says is true, it is a fact, the tax question is becoming rather troublesome to some people's tranquility.

WELL, THIS is good. A brewer in New York City recently contracted with Boake Carter to do a bit of broadcasting, but get this: Before choosing the deal the brewer asked C. I. O. Lewis and William Green if they had any objections. Well, swell up and bust if you want—we almost did.

PEOPLE WHO pay their taxes when due are like the colored mule skinner, who, when asked if the mule ever kicked, Jim replied, "No, Sir, he ain't, but he frequently kicks the place where I recently was." Tax collectors frequently pounce upon some name on the list of citizens imagining there's some easy pickings only to find the owner of that name had recently visited the tax collector's office.

CAUSES ARE often thought to be profound and deep-going, when, as a matter of fact, they are entirely superficial and obvious. It is not at all illogical, therefore, to conclude that Mussolini's acid stomach and Hitler's inferiority complex have profoundly affected the peace of the world. He is just another day appointment as a dictatorship as contrasted to a democracy, for Democracy does not revolve around any one man, and is, sure enough, therefore, immune to the caprice of a single personality.

THE DEMANDS and requests for free space in the Booster are becoming so persistent we have about made up our minds to refuse any and all of them. One local party last week brought in four sheets of letter size typewritten and a fifth sheet upon which was only ten lines of home prepared news. The other pages carried stuff we had already made mention of, and one sheet of "news" was advertising the project in San Marcos. Can you beat it? Good night!

THE STRANGE as it may seem cartoon as published last week was of very special interest to us because of results. We heard of a half-brother we had not seen for over 25 years, and he happens to be located a thousand miles from his starting place. From Honolulu, came Mrs. Hal Martin and two sons, one of whom had clipped the cartoon and placed it in his memory book. It had been printed in a paper published there, and the youngster was interested because he knew he was coming to Woodville to visit his grandparents. Of course, it was news to Booster readers.

WHY SHOULD the State of Texas owe a dollar and why should there not be surplus fund amounting to more, right at this time than the amount in which the State finds itself in the red? One comes to this conclusion as the figures are given out by the Humble Oil company when the statement is made that during the 15 years since Texas has had a gasoline tax, from 1924 to 1938, the total collected by the State approximates 375 millions of dollars, or $58 for each man, woman and child. And in spite of this grand total sum, Texas can hardly pay any portion of the Old Age Assistance pensions to far too many worthy citizens.

THAT MAN W. J. Galbreath of Wharton recently sent the Booster a long communication for publication and pleaded it be printed in The Booster. We did not use it for three reasons: It was too long. It was a knock on Gov. O'Daniel. He wanted us to talk about a couple of "home boys" out the fire. We thought we mixed up in any way.

IF WHAT everybody says is true, it is a fact, the tax question is becoming rather troublesome to some people's tranquility.

WELL, THIS is good. A brewer in New York City recently contracted with Boake Carter to do a bit of broadcasting, but get this: Before choosing the deal the brewer asked C. I. O. Lewis and William Green if they had any objections. Well, swell up and bust if you want—we almost did.

PEOPLE WHO pay their taxes when due are like the colored mule skinner, who, when asked if the mule ever kicked, Jim replied, "No, Sir, he ain't, but he frequently kicks the place where I recently was." Tax collectors frequently pounce upon some name on the list of citizens imagining there's some easy pickings only to find the owner of that name had recently visited the tax collector's office.

CAUSES ARE often thought to be profound and deep-going, when, as a matter of fact, they are entirely superficial and obvious. It is not at all illogical, therefore, to conclude that Mussolini's acid stomach and Hitler's inferiority complex have profoundly affected the peace of the world. He is just another day appointment as a dictatorship as contrasted to a democracy, for Democracy does not revolve around any one man, and is, sure enough, therefore, immune to the caprice of a single personality.

THE DEMANDS and requests for free space in the Booster are becoming so persistent we have about made up our minds to refuse any and all of them. One local party last week brought in four sheets of letter size typewritten and a fifth sheet upon which was only ten lines of home prepared news. The other pages carried stuff we had already made mention of, and one sheet of "news" was advertising the project in San Marcos. Can you beat it? Good night!

THE STRANGE as it may seem cartoon as published last week was of very special interest to us because of results. We heard of a half-brother we had not seen for over 25 years, and he happens to be located a thousand miles from his starting place. From Honolulu, came Mrs. Hal Martin and two sons, one of whom had clipped the cartoon and placed it in his memory book. It had been printed in a paper published there, and the youngster was interested because he knew he was coming to Woodville to visit his grandparents. Of course, it was news to Booster readers.

LOSS OF HUNDREDS OF SCHOOL DAYS

Loss of hundreds of school days during the approaching school year could doubtless be saved with some advance home teaching in connection with prevention of colds and other respiratory infections, according to State Department of Health. A considerable reduction would result in school time lost if parents would instruct children regarding proper use of the handkerchief. School children should be taught to cover the mouth and nose when coughing and sneezing. Both channels must be covered to prevent spread of infectious material.

5,300,000,000 BUSHEL WHEAT

World wheat supplies this year are about 5,300,000,000 bushels as compared with only 3,500,000,000 in 1914, when the first World War broke out. If the United States did not export any wheat this year, it would enter the 1940 crop year with a carry-over in excess of about 300 million bushels, or about three times the normal.

Bund Has Members in Texas

Washington, Aug. 30.—Fritz Kuhn, head of the German-American Bund told the Dies Un-American probe in Washington today that the Bund has three units in Texas, Dallas, San Antonio and also Austin, where Southern cities with units, he said are Albuquerque, N. M., Kansas City and St. Louis. The Bund has 100 units in the U. S. Each state forms a district and the Bund is in every state except Louisiana. Kuhn said a year ago when he heard rumors of a Bund investigation he personally ordered membership lists destroyed. He estimated that the Bund has 20,000 members and three to five times that many "sympathizers" who also pay the $1 initiation fees and 75-cent-a-month dues. Estimates are the Bund collects $800,000 annually. Kuhn said he left Germany in 1923 went to Mexico and entered the U. S. at Laredo, Tex., in 1927.

Must Live on the A. & M. Campus

College Station, Sept. 13.—Back to the dormitories for Texas Aggies. The board of directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas has published an order, until the dormitories and project houses located on the campus are filled, students will not be allowed to live off the campus. With reference to this order F. M. Law, president of the board of directors, has authorized the following statement:

"In order to meet the ever increasing need and popular demand for additional dormitory facilities, the board borrowed $2,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation at Washington, and from the proceeds of the loan 12 new dormitories with 1,000 rooms have been erected. Contract with the R. F. C. provides that this loan must be repaid from rentals received, not from new additions, new rooms but from the old dormitories and other structures on the campus.

State Public Safety Plans

Austin, Sept. 12.—Department of Public Safety officers today prepared to combat pedestrian deaths with renewed activity as schools opened over the state, shipping increased and public gatherings became more numerous.

Recalling that the pedestrian death list rose disastrously to 291 from last September to June while 1,335 others were seriously injured, state police warned that a repetition of that toll is likely unless walking precautions are taken. Seventy-four school age persons were injured fatally when struck down by vehicles in that period. This safety officials point out, shows the need for pedestrian drills among students, more precaution on the part of parents and increased pedestrian and driver vigilance.

Preliminary to its autumn, winter and spring campaign for pedestrian safety state police offered rules for the walking public, violations of which have caused the greatest number of deaths and injuries. The rules are:

Cross only at intersections and then only when the signal light favors you and vehicular traffic has cleared.

Look in all directions while crossing streets and highways.

Discharge passengers at curbs and have them alight from side of the vehicle nearest the curb.

Discharge school children at the curb on school sides of streets so they will not have to cross the streets.

Pedestrians should carry flashlights at night to warn approaching vehicles of their presence.

score years A&M was a dormitory school. Then enrollment zoomed to a figure that no longer could be accommodated. Day students were allowed to live off the campus. A dozen co-operative project houses were erected on the campus and several other were built nearby to alleviate the crowded situation. Other groups of boys clubbed together to share houses and expenses and were called "clubs."

Why Play Up Crime News?

Do news stories of crime inspire other identical crimes? This question is propounded and apparently answered in the affirmative in the August issue of The Commentator.

In an article entitled "Crime and Your Newspaper," several authorities on crime problems are quoted as finding a direct relationship between the newspaper accounts of a crime and the succeeding imitative crimes which so often follow. Edward P. Mulrooney, one-time Commissioner of the New York Police, said, "Every time a murder occurs and is featured in the press... you find a whole string of murders of exactly the same type." Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing once predicted that the publicity given a certain notorious criminal of a few years ago would produce about 300 criminals of the same sort.

It is the primary duty of a newspaper to keep its readers informed. In fulfilling that duty it may be requisite that crime news be reported. This does not mean, however, the inflation of insignificant crimes to front-page prominence for the purpose of selling papers, nor does it mean the unnecessary reporting of sordid and unsavory details. The right sort of crime reporting can awaken public opinion to an awareness of the evils needing elimination.—Christian Science Monitor.

THE HUGHES HAVE REUNION

Louisville, Ky.—William H. Hughes, 75, and Mrs. Carrie Hughes, 78, have remarried after 18 years apart. "Since the day when Will and I failed to see alike," Mrs. Hughes said, he has been married twice. After long correspondence she came here from her home at Laredo and her husband of nearly a half-century ago arranged a wedding for the next day. "People are going to think us silly," said Mrs. Hughes.

From the standpoint of malaria, it is important to stop breeding of mosquitoes within the near city limits and homes. The draining of ditches will help to prevent breeding of the common pestiferous mosquito, and also of the Anopheles species; the latter, however, is more apt to be found in pools and the larger ditches where weeds and plant life give harborage to the mosquitoes. "Chills and fever," which usually occur on other days, are caused by the illness of the mosquito.

PREVALENCE OF MALARIA

Austin, Texas.—Prevalence of malaria in Texas this summer and fall, though less than in the past three years, is sufficient to make malaria control a matter of importance both to communities and the individual citizen.

The effects of the State Department of Health, and individuals, and the prolonged droughts in many sections have curtailed the incidence of malaria in those same areas, according to records of malaria cases as reported to the department.

The summer months saw the greatest prevalence of malaria in Texas, 451 cases being reported in June, 844 in July, and 613 in August, as contrasted to 102 cases reported in January, 132 in February and 275 in May.

Malaria is caused by a microscopic parasite and is spread by several species of Anopheles mosquitoes; these are probably less abundant than usual this season because the decrease in rainfall has dried up pools in which the mosquitoes would normally breed.

IF IT'S WORTH SELLING IT'S WORTH ADVERTISING

That a certain young man is wise beyond his years was proven when he paused before answering a widow who had asked him to guess her age.

"You must have some idea," she said.

"I have several ideas," said the young man, with a smile. "The only trouble is that I hesitate whether to make you ten years younger on account of your looks or ten years older on account of your intelligence."

What You Expect of Your Newspaper

What do you expect from your newspaper? Well, you expect more from your newspaper than you do from any other person or institution to which you may pay the small sum of $2 a year.

You expect your newspaper to give you all the news for 52 weeks. That's what you pay $2 for.

You expect your newspaper to give the lead in advocating changes for the betterment of the community.

You expect your newspaper to expose graft in public affairs, to forestall it by publishing itemized accounts of all public moneys spent.

You expect your newspaper to maintain a high standard of morality, condemning things that are wrong.

You expect your newspaper to boost for every community enterprise, devoting column after column to propaganda supporting the band, the baseball team, Boy Scouts, community celebrations, school activities, home talent plays and dozens of such causes and events.

You expect your newspaper to boost for good roads and protect your community's claim to its share of road improvements.

You expect your newspaper to build up confidence in your home (financial institutions and protect investors from making unwise investments of surplus funds, warding against fake bond salesmen and other financial pirates.

You expect the newspaper to combat the peddler nuisance.

You expect your newspaper to establish friendly contact with the rural dwellers so as to induce them to make your town their town.

You expect your newspaper to give notice of all public meetings, public observances, conventions, etc.

You expect your newspaper to urge support of poor relief benefits, library drives, Red Cross drives, Christmas Seal drives, Legion and Auxiliary drives, poppy sales, for-get-me-not sales, have-a-heart drives, etc.

You expect your newspaper to publish church notices, church programs, club news, Farm Bureau information, demonstration unit news, market news, weather news, etc.

A NEWSPAPERLESS COUNTRY TOWN

We have often tried to imagine what a town would be like which is so blind to community interests as to be indifferent in its support of a local newspaper.

The newspaperless town indicates that it is either too small to be of much business importance, or that its citizens are without business enterprise or civic pride. The very absence of a local newspaper in any town of suitable size indicates that it lacks enterprise, energy, or civic character.

Such a town would advertise to the world that it did not think much of itself and didn't care what others thought of it. The very fact that no one published a newspaper in it would prove conclusively that it did not merit one, and that its business concerns were unprogressive and therefore unworthy of patronage. Every worth-while town has a local newspaper.

The greatest business builder is advertising and the failure to seek business by advertising stamps any concern as lacking in initiative and indifferent to progress.

The lack of subscription support such as would make a newspaper unprofitable shows that either the paper itself lacks reader interest or that the people of the community are incapable of appreciating it.

Either way the result is the same. The newspaperless town passes unnoticed and cannot expect to be known to the world as anything but a backward community and a place where people live, but do not thrive.—Wareham (Mass.), Courier.

SOMETHING NEW

Our old friend Stella as you know— is to be married the seventeenth or so; To make her trousseau more complete. Just mail her anything you wish— A towel, a vase, a pot, or a dish. So that she'll get it on the date September 1st— AND DON'T BE LATE. And we'll not tell her of our plan— Just keep it secret if we can; She'll go to the post-office unaware Of the surprise in store for her there.

Such were the invitations that Frankie Smith wrote and sent on post cards to many of Kate Wille's friends last week. The mail shower idea worked like a charm because Kate was certainly surprised Friday morning when Frankie Smith took her to the postoffice and helped her take home a carload of gifts. Many were at the postoffice to witness Kate's surprise as she received more gifts throughout the day. I might add that she received many beautiful as well as useful gifts.

You expect your newspaper to support every meritorious organization that is for the good of the city.

You expect all this for $2 a year.

No, it can't be done for that. The money you as a subscriber pay for this paper, covers less than one-fourth the cost of publishing the paper. The other three-fourths must be paid by the job printing department.

And you, Mr. Merchant, Banker, Business and Professional Man, don't you think in view of the many services which the newspaper performs, for which the newspaper derives no compensation, but which means more business and more profits to you, the newspaper deserves your printing business? Make your community newspaper a medium and you help build up the community. Send your printing dollar away from home and you do just what you wouldn't want others to whom you look for business to do. It is just as important that the printing dollar remain in the community as it is for the grocery dollar and the clothing dollar and the rest of the community dollars that make a town prosperous, to remain at home.—Bunke, (La.), Record.
