WOODVILLE, TYLER COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1940

Mass Meeting Called For Thursday, Jan. 25, At 8 O'Clock

THINK BOBBIES

It appears from advice from headquarters the county is about to have a new automobile dealer elsewhere.

We'd enjoy watching the chief who stole a leather bag from a parked car in St. Petersburg, Fla. There were two raters, alive, in the bag, and, well, you finish this little story.

It appears Philadelphia is a good place to be from. A law suit decided for the city on the legality of taxing wages. It is estimated $18,000,000 a year would be added to the city's strong box.

With that 25 to 40 below zero weather on the Finland border, isn't it a fine thing to be living in Texas, where only severe chills are known followed the next day by the gulf breezes. Wonder if Memphis has anything on Texas for balmy weather.

Page members of the last legislature—the January pension checks average $8.91. We notice some papers are telling their readers Gov. Lee O'Daniel is to blame. Oh, Yeah! How come? The governor presented a bill to raise the money for old age pensions, and said: "If you don't like my bill, write one of your own." And it is a fact that the legislature knows that is one of the reasons the legislature is to blame.

Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Tenn., recently produced a 32-page paper. Oh, well, when the Tyler county oil field pops in and out all over the landscape and we have a spouting well on back lot, we expect to start the oil field and the balance of the world—just telling how it happened. Who knows, perhaps, but why theorize? The big fellows are not going to let the Tyler county field produce until they get good and ready. Right now they do not need any new wells.

The Booster tells the world where 11 billions of the coin of the realm, under President Roosevelt's regime landed in a statistical story carrying a Washington, D. C., date line. Oh, yes, Texas and Minnesota, two of this writer's home states, were in on the receiving end. And watch us for several centuries attempting to pay. It looks as though it can't be done, even try as we shall HAVE to try. The tax collectors for your Uncle Sam will see to it that we appear to be trying, at least.

Remember, back yonder when you undertake some old nester on the road and inquired about the distance to the next town? Well, when you go from New Orleans to the mouth of the Mississippi river you are on the boat eight hours. The old nester would say: "Well, stranger, its just about three smokes and four minutes if you're in a right big hurry." The captain of a boat in the river may tell you its about seven and

The Governor Can Take It

It was just a year ago, in Jan. 19, 1939, that Gov. O'Daniel sent his first message to the Legislature, and in view of some of the things that have happened since and some things that have been omitted recently, I think it highly appropriate to reprint a few pertinent paragraphs from the message, says F. M. Molyneux in his Texas Weekly.

"Whatever obligation the State has to pay old-age pensions," said Gov. O'Daniel in that message, "is not an obligation which I have created. The amendment to provide for the payment of old-age pensions was written into the Constitution of this State long before I had any part in public life. In my campaign for Governor, at every opportunity, I expressed the belief that this obligation of the State should be met, and I determined to do everything in my power to see that this obligation is met in full."

Gov. O'Daniel then outlined a proposal to raise the necessary revenue by means of a transaction tax, but he made it clear that he was willing to accept any other practicable plan that the Legislature might work out. And he said some other things in that message which are worth recalling.

"I believe," he said, "that all thoughtful citizens realize that any governmental process which results in paying to any particular class of our citizens money out of the State Treasury is surrounded by many dangers and is subject to many abuses. The demagogues seek in Texas, as they have sought in other states, to provide unreasonable and lavish expenditures on the fallacy that the money they pay pensions will all be collected from some particular class. In my opinion, in levying the tax to meet these obligations it is essential that the tax be most widely distributed, to the end that all citizens of Texas will be required to pay a part of this tax and that they will know they are paying it."

"When you are paying money out of the Treasury of the State, no matter how meritorious your cause may be, there are always those who seek to make a political racket out of it. And I think we must remember that there is a great difference between urging the state to meet honestly, fairly, its obligation in the field of social security, as I am recommending in this message, and the other program which the State might face in the future of allowing these things to simply degenerate into political rackets, where a Governor, a member of the Legislature, or other public official's competency for office would be judged solely by the liberality of his promises to pay old age pensions, provide for teacher retirement, or provide aid for destitute children."

"I, for one, am for meeting every one of these obligations promptly and fully and providing the money to pay the bill. I would not be in a position to do three quarter hours to the river's mouth. It kind of depends on the weather and the direction of the wind."

Progressive Woodvillians, Attend

At the meeting of the Town Forum it was voted to call a mass meeting to be held at the courthouse on Thursday evening, January 25, 1940, at 8:00 p. m. for the purpose of discussing the affairs of the "City of Woodville."

We urge every citizen of Woodville to attend this meeting. It will be your meeting and every one should come prepared to take part, because the subject to be discussed is one that vitally affects every man, woman and child who lives within the city limits of Woodville.

Some citizens of the town believe that the incorporation should be dissolved, and some believe that we should maintain the corporation. A petition is being circulated to call an election to determine this issue. Before this election is ordered, we should come together and frankly discuss the subject and every person should be present to hear and take part in this discussion. Let the "City" officials present at this meeting a complete statement of the financial condition of the City, showing the amount of money received and the amount expended and to whom it was paid and for what it was paid. Also showing the amount of delinquent taxes due by the citizens of the town, and the amount of the indebtedness due by the City of Woodville, and the valuation of the property owned by the City of Woodville.

After a free discussion by those who have signed the petition as well as those who have not, we will all be better informed and can then better determine our future course.

V. F. W.

The Robert M. Pate Post 233 started 1940 with a good crowd Monday night of last week. A dozen members have already paid their 1940 dues and several others are to see Quartermaster Hill C. Durham this week. Post Com. W. H. Gilchrist suggested a contest to boost membership and attendance over last year, the teams to be Highway 106, Chester into Woodville and 45 on east to the Neches river teams known as the North and South. Of the 80 former members only 39 paid up last year and it is hoped to add at least 60 more to this year's total membership. The losers in the contest will furnish a feed for the V. F. W.'s and Auxiliary ladies. There will be a district encampment in Lufkin in April and State encampment in Galveston in June.

Woodville is known over Texas as the largest little post in the state. All eligible veterans are invited to the Post and regular meeting nights are the 2nd and 4th Tuesday nights in each month. This membership contest will close March 12.

'Woodville Locals'

W. N. Dabney, sanitarian with the Hardin-Tyler bi-county health unit has been working on a survey of the sanitary conditions in the rural schools of San Augustine and Polk counties. Also assisted the city of Corrigan in the process of holding an election to vote bonds for the construction of water and sewerage system. When need arises he does work on rodent control also.

DON'T LET HITLER READ THIS

Storrs, Conn., Jan. 11.—Milton J. Foster of the University of Connecticut faculty offers one reason why a professor should never stick out his tongue in a bacteriology class. One student, he said, was handling a hypodermic syringe filled with a pure extract of one of the deadliest poisons known to mankind when some of the liquid splashed out and struck Dr. Foster just above the Adam's apple. "By way of explaining what might have happened if some of the clostridium botulinum had landed on his tongue," Dr. Foster told the students that 84 ten-millionths of a grain if taken orally would kill in ten minutes, and that a pint would dissolve all the arteries in the body.

Circle-Three-of-which Mrs. C. A. Wellborn is chairman, met with Mrs. Joe Anderson Monday with 12 members present. Devotional was led by Mrs. Sam McAllister and Mrs. Wellborn conducted the business session, in which Mrs. Anderson was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Roy Pate as secretary treasurer. Mrs. J. E. Shivers gave the year book report. Delicious refreshments were served. The circle will meet next week with Mrs. J. W. Harrison.

TEXAS PRODUCED $1,484 REPUBLICAN VOTES

The vote for President in Texas in 1892 was as follows: Cleveland 100,191; McKinley 100,191; Tamm 100,191.

Getting On A Cash Basis

Way back yonder, 1934, the city found it necessary to do considerable improvement work, and an agreement was made with capitalists to finance the work and warrants were issued to cover the work.

One day last week the last of this indebtedness was paid off with the presentation of the last $391.00 and city superintendent, S. P. Sims, is highly elated.

There is another little chore, however that is hanging fire and causing several headaches among folks who do a bit of financial worrying, and that is the payment of the fire hose that, as a matter of fact were declared useless at the last fire, the Williams home.

Folks are wondering what about the rotting away of the city fire hose. Was the selection poor? Didn't the city purchase hose of any durable quality, or, maybe, perhaps this 2000 feet, more or less, of hose was not properly taken care of.

Anyway, the bill has not been paid.

Anyways, also, Woodville should have a couple of thousand feet of hose that will stand the slight pressure from the water tower.

Of course, the water and sewer bonds are still outstanding, but since Supt. Sims took up the white man's burden, there's been a great change in the city's financial status.

A raft load of water meters have been installed, and many sewer connections have been perfected. Collections have been made by Mr. Sims and only last December, the 19th, to be accurate, the genial superintendent received a letter of commendation from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on the improvement made in the city finances, the collection of water and sewer accounts as well as the number of new subscribers.

Five thousand dollars on the bond issue has been made. There's still a little matter of $15,000 due the water and sewerage disposal system, water tower, etc.

One of these days this system will be enlarged to serve new localities since the system was installed in 1934.

J. C. BOYD, JR.

J. C. Boyd, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd of Woodville, has been transferred from the service of the Texas Motor Transport Association to the position of Assistant Transportation manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls. Prior to entering the employment of the Transportation Association Mr. Boyd was in the employment of the Texas Railroad Commission where he served as an expert statistician in the field of transportation. He was also before entering railroad commission in the employment of the Interstate Commerce Commission, being located in Washington, D. C., and New York City. In that connection he served on a research staff and assisted in compiling vital information pertaining to railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and all public utilities. In the volume giving the results of the findings which was published by the National Government, Mr. Boyd is cited in the introduction of the business volume as having been "responsible for the discovery of

Advisory Council of Town Forum

The Town Forum met at the Court House last Tuesday evening and moved a step further in the perfection of its organization by electing an Advisory Council. As you know, the Advisory Council composed of fifteen members, together with the President, Vice-President, and Secretary and Treasurer, form the Executive Board, and the board determines the policies of the organization.

A nominating committee, appointed by the president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, made its report to the meeting recommending the following citizens to serve on the first Advisory Council: P. H. Powell, M. S. Hyde, J. H. Willard, Lee Hensley, C. E. Smith, E. W. Tubbs, D. Hawkins, Rev. J. C. Boyd, Mrs. F. B. Sullivan, Mrs. T. C. Rock, Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Evans, Mrs. J. E. Wheat, Mrs. John C. Davis and Mrs. J. B. Reid, all of whom were unanimously elected.

President E. W. Tubbs expressed his thanks to the people for their faith and confidence in electing him to head this most important organization, but advised the people that due to other matters that demanded his attention, he could not accept the responsibility. His resignation was regretfully accepted, and the Forum proceeded to the election of a new president, which resulted in the unanimous election of Jay Kelley. Mr. Kelley was elevated from the office of vice-president and to fill the vacancy in this office, John A. Reid was elected without opposition.

In the future the regular meetings of the Town Forum will be held at the Courthouse on the First Monday in each month at 7:30 p. m. during the winter and 8:00 p. m. during the summer months.

Plans are now being made for the organization of study groups in every section of the town. These groups can meet as often as they desire during the month and be prepared to present their ideas and ideals at the general meeting of the Forum. To accomplish something worthwhile, each citizen should do his part and enthusiastically enter into the spirit of this organization, always remembering that the Town Forum is a democratic organization composed of every citizen, who become members merely by signifying their desire, and they remain members without the payment of any dues.

The Town Forum is absolutely non-political, and it is so provided in the charter.

The purpose of the Town Forum is well stated in the Constitution, as follows:

"Section 1, Article 2: The purpose of this organization shall be to improve our town socially, economically, and governmentally, through the study of our common problems and through encouragement by participation in our town life."

This purpose can be accomplished if we will arouse ourselves and take an active interest in the affairs of our town government, and be willing to make sacrifices for it.

CUB PACK COMMITTEE

Last week the Cub Pack Committee met and appointed Supt. Lee Hensley as chairman. The Committee members are Messrs. Hensley, J. E. Wheat, O. A. Riley, Geo. Boyd and R. E. Pennington. L. M. Feagin is Cub master. Some 20 boys have signed up and all boys the ages of 9-10-11 years are invited to join. Ralph Sims will be in Woodville Friday, Jan. 26 and will hold classes for the parents, teachers or friends who are interested in this Cub Scout work. Be at the high school at 3:45 when school closes. Again at 7:30 that night for those who could not attend in the day time. On Saturday, the 27th, he and Mr. Gunn with a number of Beaumonters will meet with us and show some of the work done. At that time Den mothers will be selected and the organization perfected. Those who are interested in this worth while work see Messrs. Hensley or Feagin about dues and plans. Mothers of boys should be anxious and happy to help in this work and feel gratitude that others are helping give boys of that age an incentive to live right and form the right ideals.

Washington, D. C., in the study of transportation. He received a masters degree from that institution and was awarded a classification as an expert statistician. He had previously graduated from Texas Christian University being one of the youngest to have ever graduated from the school.

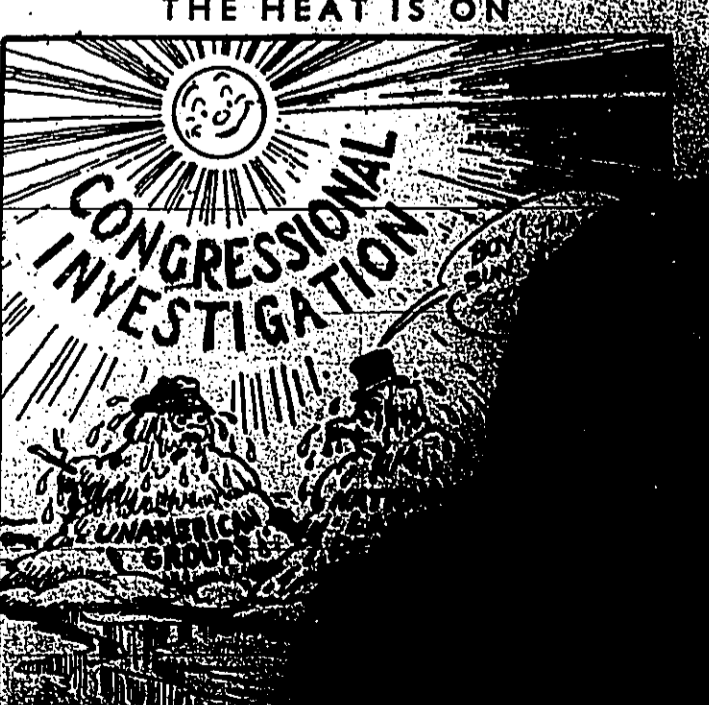

While Mr. Boyd is yet under 30 years of age he has attained and established a reputation as an expert in the field of transportation. His friends are predicting for him great success in this special line of work.

Mrs. Joe Ashy of Jasper visited the T. C. and D. P. Rock families Sunday afternoon.

JESSE P. COLLIER

Another of the early pioneers of this section of East Texas left us when Jesse P. Collier passed away Friday night at his home in the Pope Mill community.
 Mr. Collier, son of Joe and Julia Perry Collier, was born August 29, 1860 in Arlington, Early Co., Georgia.
 Like many others of that day his dreams were to come west, and at the age of 21 years he came to Texas and settled at Town Bluff, then the thriving metropolis and boat landing of Tyler County.
 Three years later he married Miss Mattie Pope and they started the new home at Popes Mill.
 Some twelve years later they moved to Silsbee where they lived seven years, going from there to Saratoga for a few years and then back to the home at Popes Mill, where the remaining years of his life were spent.
 He has been in poor health for about four years but the past two months had been confined to his bed and suffered greatly.
 He was a member of the Silsbee Masonic Lodge, a faithful member of the Baptist Church for over forty years, a kindly, loving father and husband and a good neighbor.
 Rev. J. C. Boyd was in charge of the funeral services Sunday morning, assisted by Rev. J. G. Ratcliff, Rev. D. D. Swearingen and Rev. Ronald Pope, the latter a brother-in-law, but also a neighbor and pastor.
 Interment was in the Woodville Magnolia Cemetery.
 The sorrowing wife, and the bereaved children, J. E. of Armistead, La., Louelle, Mrs. C. A. Hamil of Jasper, Mrs. W. F. Teel, P. C., and Esca of Hillister, Ronald and Mrs. H. B. Paggi of Port Arthur, Selma of Silsbee, Mesdames D. C. Bracken and D. T. Giddens of Woodville, have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends.
 He is also survived by three sisters and one brother in Georgia. Also fifteen grand children and four great grandchildren.

NOTICE

I've been notified that Wm. B. Prescott, who passed away last week, has not lived alone near the Ernest Tatum home for fifty years or been confined to his bed. We are sincerely sorry we made a mistake but as no correction was given, we can not publish herein I was wrong.

THE STORY OF A USED CAR

Unless a person stops to consider the fact that one half of all the money collected in the county as well as half of the dime sent directly to the president from this county, will be returned here for county use.

The Boy Scout Leaders of the county, co-operating with their Scouts, have agreed to take part in this campaign. It has been suggested that the scouts make a thorough canvass of their immediate vicinity on Saturday, January 27. This may possibly be done, so if some scout comes to you, please have your dime ready for him. You will be given a little badge showing you have started your dime marching for a most worthy cause.

Mr. Stryker wishes to stress the fact that one half of all the money collected in the county as well as half of the dime sent directly to the president from this county, will be returned here for county use.

There are also coin collectors out in several of the business houses in each of the towns in Tyler County. Any change you drop in will go with the rest in helping win this fight.

Also in the banks of Tyler County you will find Birthday greeting cards to the president, with a special flap for holding dimes, if you wish to send your contribution directly to the president.

Last year, as a result of the March of Dimes campaign, two places in Texas received good sized grants for their use here in the state. One being the gift of $2,500 to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Austin, Texas. The other a gift of $10,000 to the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas. Both sums to be used for the benefit of children in our own state.

Of interest to all will be the Eddie Cantor March of Dimes radio broadcast on January 20 at 10:00 p. m. This program features stars of radio, stage and screen, all doing their bit to forward the program of the association. Be sure to listen in for this program promises to be an interesting one.

The annual President's Ball is to be held in Colmesneil, January 27. Good music has been secured, so come and enjoy an evening dancing. Plans are on foot to make this an outstanding dance, so don't miss it.
