THINK 'BOBBIES'

State meet of the U. F. W. will be June 16, 17, 18, 19, Galveston. A good attendance is expected to aid in the election of new officers.

And, too, read "Prepare," by Gen. John J. Pershing, in which he says: "The Life of the Republic Depends Upon a State of thorough Preparation."

Next Saturday, May 25, is Poppy day. Last year we alluded to Poppy day after it had passed and stated we did not witness its passing, or in fact such a day had been celebrated. We've already been informed we're not going to be missed this year, ah, and how!

More and more, as we read the papers and recent magazines, we find thinking men and women do not believe a nation and its people can exist without God. Russia, Japan, Germany are glaring examples of what heathenism leads to. What a reckoning there'll be when the "Roll is called up yonder."

Whether America enters the war or not, we've got the war debt, and, too, without the war. The debt is two-thirds what it has cost to run the government since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. And, too, this debt assumed since the New Deal became popular or unpopular, as the case may be, is a peace time debt.

We'll say Woodville is doing things these days, and going places, too. Last week was, by the mayor's proclamation, Clyde Smith day. As we sat in the window Saturday we saw a truck being lettered "For R. R. Commissioner Clyde E. Smith, etc." Other communities out over the state are boosting their candidates, but the backers of Smith say there's nothing to it but Smith.

The National Educational Association reads: "Provision should be made to receive ALL persons into citizenship with suitable ceremony." The United States Constitution includes as citizens: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof." Citizenship should be attractive to and for EVERY foreign-born adult to desire the same. At this time it would be good to deport ALL ALIENS who are not citizens. How about it?

Well, after all these years, we find we were right. It has been our contention the social and business world needs only the rudiments of arithmetic, and in the Texas Outlook for May, a writer, J. E. Roach, Waxahatchie, says about as we think. Strange, but this teacher of algebra, etc., gives us a thrill when he does not believe geometry, algebra, etc., are necessary in order for a man to be a good flour, potato, or Clubber Girl salesman, or, we think he should have added, even a newspaperman.

Woodville and Tyler county in particular is surely getting modern. Be it more generally known, Tyler now has a Home Demonstration agent. The booster welcomes Miss Maurine Johnson and her mother who will aid in preparing a home. It has taken a long time. Some years back we carried many stories in connection with procuring a demonstration agent. We failed to get a rise. Those who knew said it couldn't happen. Well, we took 'em at their word, we are ashamed to say, gave up the ghost. Evidently other forces did not quit.

Secretary of the Navy, Edison, said this is no penny-anti 10-cent sense—oh, making Americans actually defensive. Well, we've a right to admit the New Deal, for a few years past could not be labeled as fitting in a 10-cent anti-10-cent game of either politics or national game of poker, etc. If you please, but as a live movement, and even if Hitler cleans up Europe, America cannot count on the protection. Can you imagine a safety place every time an alarm is heard? Edison is right.

Statement on the Jocko-Battle of Kirby

"PREPARE" Says Gen. Pershing

Washington, May 15.—Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces during the World War, declared the United States faces the same conditions, practically, now as in 1917 and must immediately step up its defense program.

"The 79-year-old general said in a statement that 'none of us can tell when we may become involved in the struggle now raging with such tremendous fury in Europe."

"In my opinion, the very life of this republic depends on the energy and determination with which our people undertake a task of placing the United States in a state of thorough preparation in both men and equipment," he said.

Pershing came here by train today from Hot Springs, Ark., where he underwent a physical checkup at the Army and Navy hospital.

"The energy in this country should be devoted to the idea of putting the United States in a condition of thorough preparedness against the possibility of war," he said.

Whether America enters the war or not, we've got the war debt, and, too, without the war. The debt is two-thirds what it has cost to run the government since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. And, too, this debt assumed since the New Deal became popular or unpopular, as the case may be, is a peace time debt.

St. Louis, Mo.—The 3,700 Red Cross Chapters throughout the nation this week set into motion machinery to raise $10,000,000 European war relief fund to lessen distress among Europe's war sufferers. William M. Baxter, Jr., of St. Louis, Red Cross midwestern area manager, said that early indications point to a gratifying response on all sides.

The Red Cross already has caled $200,000 to Belgium and the Netherlands for emergency relief work, and this week placed new orders for 150 ambulances, 100 auxiliary hospital trucks and other equipment, such as field hospitals and surgical supplies.

Invasion of the low countries has multiplied the requirements for additional American Red Cross assistance in the war zones, reports Mr. Baxter. Before the latest invasion into Western Europe, the Red Cross had spent $1,500,000 for aid in Europe since the outbreak of hostilities last September. Most of this was to provide for innocent refugees. The present campaign was not launched until the organization was convinced of the need for a greatly enlarged relief program.

Since the opening of the war fund appeal was announced, the National Red Cross has been assured of fullest co-operation by many organizations. A number of chapters, Baxter related, already have "gone over the top" on their quotas. High government executives, including President Roosevelt, were this week lending their support and cause.

"We must send relief, and not too late," the Red Cross official emphasized. "We have had many requests for clothing, bedding, ambulances, medications and surgical supplies. We have absolute faith that the American people will heed this call. Through the Red Cross they will be mobilized for action that gives life, hope and courage. A minimum of $10,000,000 is needed at once."

A large portion of the $1,500,000 already spent by the American Red Cross has gone into Poland and Finland for relief of civilian war sufferers, Baxter explained. Ten American Red Cross ambulances formerly used in Finland are now in use in other war zones. American Red Cross chapters have turned out approximately 300,000 garments for European war civilians since last September. Contributions to the present fund appeal should be made through local chapters.

Rep. Price Daniel Before Graduates

The Advantages to Youth of Living in America were discussed by Rep. Price Daniel of Liberty to the senior class of the Woodville high at the annual commencement exercises of Friday night. Jack Pool, honor graduate, gave the salutatory address while Miss Pearl Wisenbaker, highest honor graduate, gave the valedictory. The Rev. J. C. Boyd offered the invocation and Rev. J. W. Rhodes pronounced the benediction. Diplomas were issued to the class of 38 by Judge J. E. Wheat, president of the school board.

Supl. Lee Hensley awarded the scholarships to the honor graduates and made awards to Pearl Wisenbaker and Allen Willis, the best all-around girl and boy, and to Wayne Parker for 11 years of the best attendance. Co-captains of the Woodville Eagles on the gridiron last fall, Parker has participated in all athletics at the school.

He also announced awards for Pearl Wisenbaker, Allen Willis, Billie Slocum, Leon Hollomon, and John Marshall, who were the local representatives in the high school Who's Who. Other students in the high school were announced as having had perfect attendance.

Miss Maurice Pedigo wins honors as twirler

Miss Maurice Pedigo, drum major of the Woodville school band, entered in the twirling competition at the bad convention in Waco and although the band rates in Class B, she entered in Class A division. She rated as third which is getting mighty close to the top in a State contest. As usual Woodville pupils are getting a shore of honors.

"WE'RE IN ON NO 10-CENT ANTI GAME," SAYS EDISON

East Orange, N. J., May 15.—"We are in no 10-cent anti game, we must play this game with all blue chips," Navy Secretary Edison said Wednesday in a speech to a citizens' luncheon.

Expressing hope congress would provide enough funds for a national defense program, Edison said "I mean big money—to defend what we have."

All of East Texas Plans To "Ride With Clyde"

Hundreds of friends from over East Texas and State were in Woodville Saturday afternoon and night to start Clyde Smith off in his campaign as Railroad Commissioner. Open house was held at the Eden hotel through the afternoon and well wisher from far and wide called pledging their support to his candidacy. The elements also seemed to want to applaud and soon after the High School band started the musical program at six o'clock, the skies darkened, trees bowed and waved and the crowd just had time to get into the court house when the heavens opened and a pouring rain fell. During the radio broadcast the Booster family with many others were marooned on the north side of the main drag with a river running between the curbs.

The District court room was packed as Judge J. E. Wheat, master of ceremonies presented Judge Daniel Walker of Beaumont, who introduced Mr. Smith over the radio. You will find Mr. Smith's speech in this weeks paper.

per. Mayor Watt Barclay read his proclamation of that day as Clyde Smith day.

Before the broadcast Judge Thos. B. Coe made a short talk, speaking of his association with Mr. Smith through the eight years Mr. Smith was district attorney.

Judge R. C. Muehlewhite and the Hon. John W. Laird of Lufkin were both present but urged that the day be used by Clyde Smith day, and that they would stay in the background. Both these splendid candidates are candidates for State Senator. Rep. Otis E. Locke was also here greeting friends and boosting for Smith. Judge and Mrs. R. M. Briggs and Attorney and Mrs. G. C. Bracken of Silsbee were present. All the county candidates were here boosting for Clyde. Attorney Guynes and Attorney Geo. Kirkpatrick of Houston. Many others present will be found in our local columns.

It would seem from appearances that all of East Texas plans to "Ride With Clyde."

THE BOOSTER APPRECIATED

Houston, May 14.—Dear Mr. Willard: I have gone over The Tyler County Booster carefully and like it very much. I think you and Mrs. Willard are doing a good job.

I think your heads make the best possible use of space. The heads are not too big and you do not use decks, which seems to be helpful. It is a very good use of space.

I particularly like the intimate neighborly style in which it is written and am not surprised at seeing it that it enjoys the popularity it does.

As yet I have not had a chance to have a copy made of my speech but I will send you a copy as I promised as soon as one is made.

With kindest personal regards to you and Mrs. Willard, I am Sincerely yours, Mrs. W. P. Hobby.

IT IS a fact, if a legislature will not do things, no one can blame a governor for an uncompleted program. We'd suggest this fact to most of the daily papers who seem ignorant of this particular fact, when writing about his honor, Gov. O'Daniel.

WE'VE BEEN reading in the daily papers about the autos in American killing more each year than were sacrificed during the World War. Any way, writers cannot further complain now, since Hitler's gang has the auto fatality completely faked. We'll have to go some just so we can catch up.

AGAIN THE big fellows attempt to work the country press for free publicity. This is notice we are not in the least bit interested in the 1940 Hollywood electrical Motion Picture Pageant that is to be held somewhere in Houston sometime. We received a letter one day last week which ends "We will appreciate your running this story in part or in whole." Fact of the matter is just this: We are sorry we've taken the joy out of the life of one Chell Thorpe, chairman of publicity. No, there was no request for advertising rates, not even a season card of admission.

DO ANY base ball sports imagine for a minute the New York Giants are right close to the bottom of the list because of their inability to win? Those wise owners saw the handwriting on the wall—that is was not good for the game to keep on smearing every team in the league with such regularity. Those uneven contests were becoming tiresome. For the good of the sport, the Yank team should be busted and spread over the entire membership teams of the American League. Lovers of the sport have a right to see their Yank team have a fighting chance to win, at least consistently. With the Yanks going right no team in the league has a chance to win three games out of four.

DID ANYBODY hear Kate Smith last Saturday in her radio broadcast? She ended her audition with a wonderful talk and followed it with the song she introduced last year: "God Bless America." Kate believes in the power of prayer, and speaking about the war she said there is one thing everybody in the world can do about it—that was a plea to God Almighty to end the war. Kate believes in answer to prayer. Why shouldn't she? The promise is given in the Bible. Why should not the President of the United States of America, and the heads of all countries appoint a day and hour, when everybody be requested to make a prayer for peace? Of course, it won't happen that way. Governments and nations and their leaders are not thinking of peace, but of the war and out and out murder now raging.

WHAT A heck of a time our women folks would have were they to go on a shopping tour and found out they could no longer purchase eggs by the dozen, sugar in sacks of any desired weight, ditto bread, mustard greens or the makings for hot biscuit. And how our American women would swell up if an alarm at the front door proved to be one of Hitler's inspector who'd proceed to go over the family supply of cats on hand. Well, if this government goes "hog-wild" and actually starts manufacturing guns, ammunition, air planes, all kinds of mechanized vehicles of travel, don't growl, but be thanking God we did not wait as did England. It is a fact, Germany, Italy, Russia and Japan are not going to wait for us to manufacture improved implements of war before attacking. Before you quack, stop and think.

REMEMBER BACK you in the World War upset the apple cart, including the arrangements all over the country.

to conduct public hearings on these matters. It will be in keeping with the dignity and the office of the public hearing. The presence in the practice of law, for the past 21 years will enable me to properly construe the statutes of Texas and the decisions of the courts affecting the oil industry.

It will be my purpose at all times to enter orders in keeping with legal and competent evidence introduced at a public hearing after notice to all parties concerned.

My plan is to simply call the roll on the date set for the public hearing. Take up each field and permit hearings or requests for hearings involving that particular field. Notify each operator or interested party in advance that they will be expected to introduce their evidence at this hearing, and if they are not present, it will be assumed that hearing is necessary so far as they are concerned. ATTORNEY AT LAW
WOODVILLE, TEXAS

I think the spoils system should be eliminated in Texas and national strife and bitterness should not exist between the several departments of our government. They must necessarily work together in harmony and union having at all times the welfare of Texas and its constituent interests and development uppermost in their minds and hearts. This is especially true in regard to the three Railroad Commissioners. If they do not co-operate, the best results cannot be obtained and the people are going to suffer.

The men on the Railroad Commission should forget sectionalism and remember the welfare of the servants of the people of all sections of Texas. Every man's problem should look alike regardless of where he is from, and regardless of whether he is rich or poor. Another thing, there will be people who have business before the Railroad Commission who are not able to employ counsel. I want you to know that you shall receive the same fair and impartial consideration and your rights will be protected just as the people are going to suffer.

In 1934 it was my pleasure to make the race for Attorney General of Texas. At that time I was practically unknown outside of Southeast Texas. My friends were a wonder help to me in that race. With limited means but with a determined heart they told the people about me. Judge Daniel Walker, Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, the distinguished Jurist who presented me this evening, was my loyal friend then as he is today. In that election, the counties in southeast Texas gave me a tremendous majority over two very formidable candidates. Two hundred and eight thousand people of Texas cast their vote for me. I was eliminated in the first primary. Both of my opponents told the people of Texas before the first primary and after that I was a good man and a good lawyer, but that I did not have a chance because I did not know anybody and no one out side of East Texas knew me. Today that story is different. I am happy to know that my friends of six years ago are my friends today. They assure me that they are going to carry the banner for Clyde Smith again with renewed determination and vigor. Many friends have pledged their active support all throughout this campaign. Young men and women, old men and women, boys and girls have written me letters and messages saying that they are contacting their friends all over Texas. That they are still taking them to see me with Clyde to the office of Railroad Commissioner of Texas. During the campaign of 1934, it was my pleasure to make many lasting friends over Texas. Today I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted with people in every county in Texas. I have traveled over Texas several times since 1934 and during that time I have studied Texas and the needs of the people in the various sections of this great commonwealth. I am not going to claim that great throngs urged me to run for this office, because it just does not happen that way. I have not hired friends to get out and circulate petitions urging me to run for this office.

Not a single petition has been presented to me asking me to run. I have received a good many letters and messages since my announcement. Many people have told me since they learned of my plans that they had no doubt but that I would lead the ticket in the first primary.

I am appealing now to my friends over Texas to actively support me if you still believe in my cause. If you believe Clyde Smith is the right man to fill our neighbors and friends about me. Drop me a penny postcard telling me how you feel. If you desire literature, it will be sent out. We hope you will organize Clyde Smith clubs in ever section of Texas.

To the radio audience, I want to say that my time is now about up. If you could see these wonderful friends here in Woodville this evening and observe the spirit of enthusiasm, they are manifesting in my race. No doubt you will be hearing from me again. You will surely be hearing from me again. We are going to push out from East Texas and make the campaign to elect Clyde Smith. We will be here in Woodville for a short time.

THE FORD WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

The Ford Motor Company was founded by a working-man for working-men. Its present officers began as employees of the Company. It was the first company to pay a minimum wage, beginning in 1914, at the then astounding figure of $5 a day. That was double the prevailing wage of the time. The Ford minimum is now $6 a day for all employees engaged in production work. And from that, the wages rise to $10.80 a day, with the average wage $7.25, exclusive of salaried employees.

The Ford Motor Company was the first large company to establish the 8-hour day—also in 1914. And the 40-hour week was inaugurated by the Ford Motor Company in 1926, years before any such laws existed.

The Ford Motor Company employs men without regard to race, creed or color. It is common knowledge that working conditions in the Ford shops are the best that science and constant care can make them. A square deal, a just wage and stabilized employment for a large proportion of our employees—and as fully stabilized for all as conditions will permit—enable our men to retain their personal independence.

In consequence of these policies the Ford Motor Company has one of the finest bodies of employees in the world. The larger proportion are mature men of long service with the Company—sober, decent family men. Hundreds of them have been with the Company for more than 25 years—thousands for more than 15 years. Their health record, home ownership and citizenship records are good.

All this is reflected in Ford products, whether cars, trucks or tractors. The work is honestly done. Materials are the best that can be made or procured. Less profit to the Company and more value to the customer is known throughout the motoring world as "Ford's way of doing business."

Ford Motor Company was the first to make a motor car within the means of the average family—quitting the manufacture of what was then the largest selling model in the world to do so. Its chosen field in all the 30 years since that time has been the average American family—for which it has consistently provided car facilities, which formerly only the wealthy could buy.

It is the policy of the Ford Motor Company to share the benefits of advanced methods and management with workers and public alike. Increased wages and employment over a period of many years have resulted in a 300 per cent increase in the built-in value of the Ford car and a 75 per cent reduction in its price.

Miss Susan Blackwell of College Station and district extension service agent was here Friday with some 50 people from over the county and outlined a program of mattress making for families with $400 or less income per year. The work will be sponsored by Miss Maurine Johnson, County Home Demonstration agent.

WOODVILLE NEWS

The graduates with Supt. Lee Henley, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Marshall and Mrs. Evelyn Kencerson left early Monday for the educational tour to Carlsbad, New Mexico and many places of historical note enroute going and returning.

A big crowd enjoyed the home coming Sunday at the Baptist church when Rev. Jeff Rhodes was honored with the service and basket dinner on his 55th anniversary of his ministry.

We notice in the news from Kirbyville that Joe Wickline has been nominated as president of the Lions club of that city.

Aubrey Mann of SFA Nacogdoches spent the week end with his parents, Mrs. Otis Mann at Gulf Station.

Snake bite are reported each year in Texas during the summer and early fall; however, few of them result fatally.

Most of the bites occur on the hands and feet, which indicates that stepping or falling in the immediate vicinity of an unseen snake or picking up objects under similar conditions are the hazards of contracting snake bite. The pain following the injection of poison is most intense. Other symptoms are: swelling, giddiness, difficult breathing, hemorrhage, weak pulse and vomiting.

If one is bitten by a poisonous snake, such as the rattlesnake, the following first aid measures should be carried out:

After making proper incisions at the site of the wound, apply suction and continue for at least half an hour.

Apply a tourniquet above the site of the wound, releasing same every ten or fifteen minutes at a time.

Secure the services of a physician at the earliest possible moment.

Do not run or get overheated and do not take any alcoholic stimulants, because circulation is increased by alcohol or exercise serves to distribute the poison much more rapidly through the body.

Do not injure the tissues by injecting permanganate of potash, which is known to be of no value as an antidote.

Do not depend upon home remedies or so-called snake-bite cures, but call a physician immediately.

RESTRICTION OF FOREIGN TRAVEL IS THE DIFFERENCE

Restriction of foreign travel by conditions abroad is exerting a noticeable effect on the vacation plans of thousands of Americans, and through them, upon the market for automobiles.

Eugene Martin of the Sutton Pains Chevrolet Co., Chevrolet dealers, today cited car and truck sales figure as partial proof of this statement. It is further borne out by talks with many of the persons who have bought cars in recent weeks. Most of our information about motorists' vacation plans comes from used car buyers, said Mr. Martin. This is to be expected, because of the fact that a new automobile naturally assumes that it will be equal to any trip he may undertake.

A great many of those who have purchased used cars from us in the last few weeks, however, have been careful to choose vehicles which they can depend on for long trips this summer. There is much more emphasis on the travel idea than in any other year of recall. And used car sales, like new car sales, have been very great.

This may be due partly to the fact that our range of selection has been greater than ever before. There are more different makes and models in our used car stock, and a wider spread of prices. Many of the cars now being offered at used car prices are less than a year old—their original stores of unused transportation is almost intact.

But trouble-free vacation trips are by no means limited to owners of late-model cars. The age of the car, as a matter of fact, is of a great deal less importance than the reliability of the dealer from whom it is bought. Under the used car procedure followed at our dealership, every trade-in is carefully checked.

Reconditioning work is done by factory-trained experts using factory-approved equipment. The buyer has the assurance that it is as represented, and he safeguards that owner's satisfaction with his own future welfare in mind, as a means of cementing relations which will last throughout the years.

THE FALLING LEAF

"And then," said the man in the box, "my wife hit me with an oak leaf." "Well, that couldn't do much damage," remarked the magistrate. "Oh, yes, it did, sir; it was from the center of our dining-room table."

Appreciation

Whereas, an accredited course in The Bible has been offered for the past two years by the Woodville high school, and, whereas, this course has been chosen by an unusually large number of students, thereby proving the desirability of such a course;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Methodist church of Woodville, that we extend to the Board of Education our appreciation for offering the course, and invite a continuance of the same.

Be it further resolved, that we express our sincere appreciation to Rev. J. C. Boyd pastor of the Baptist church, for his faithful and efficient service in teaching the course, thus rendering a very valuable contribution to our community, and that without pay.

We also appreciate the courtesy of the Baptist Church for making it possible for their pastor to render this fine service.

Resolved further, that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Church secretary, that copies be given to the Board of Education, to Rev. J. C. Boyd, and to the press. The above was adopted by unanimous vote, this 19th day of May, 1940.

The death of his twin brother, Clyde A. McKnight, who passed away at the Woodville hospital on Friday with interment in the Mt. Zion cemetery near Chester, Saturday afternoon. Mr. McKnight was brought from the hospital to the Oakley-Metcalf Funeral Home where many friends and relatives came to pay their love and respect to a good friend and neighbor. Mr. McKnight was born in Northern Oklahoma, but with his father, R. B. McKnight, (his mother passed away when he was a small boy) and brother Carl had been in this county seven years. He is also survived by a sister in California and one in Oregon, who could not be present at the funeral. The young people of Chester and community are bereaved for they have indeed lost a friend. He had organized and was manager of the girls soft ball club, which became very popular last year. Rev. J. R. Nutt, pastor of the Lufkin Baptist church held the services at the cemetery.

MIDDLE-AGED VETERANS OF THE WORLD WAR TO HELP UNCLE SAM

Middle-aged veterans of the World War pricked up their ears last week and scanned the skies to help Uncle Sam perfect a system to balk an aerial blitzkrieg such as Poland suffered.

Throughout five southern states members of the American Legion who volunteered for the task, helped the United States army test its aircraft warning service which was put into effect May 17.

IT HAPPENED IN OKLAHOMA STATE

True stories do happen in Oklahoma City and here is one that will be appreciated.

A friend of ours has a chicken farm on the edge of the city and the other night he thought he heard a noise out in the hen house. Getting ready for bed, yet still having on his long underwear, he slipped on his house shoes, got his shotgun and flashlight and went out to investigate. He threw open the hen house door, kindly squatted, pointed the gun and flash light, peered into the hen abode. Well you know the rest: construction of long drawers, they kinda gap and about the time, his old round dog came to see what was going on, touched our friend with his cold nose on the rear, and our friend killed 15 chickens.

MAY FOREST FIRES

B. D. Hawkins reports fires for May as follows: Patrolman H. E. Caraway, Dist. No. 2, 75 acres burned; A. M. Riley, Dist. 3, 16 acres burned; Noah Platt, 1 acre burned.

The CCC Camp spent a total of 17 man days and traveled 61 miles assisting the Texas Forest Service personnel in suppressing these fires.

The plan was the most extensive aircraft warning service ever organized in the history of the nation, and provides a hint of the use the United States is case of war might make of the millions of World War veterans, most of them now too old for active combat but adaptable to non-combatant tasks such as this.

The service proper operates while the 45,000 streamlined mechanized forces of the Blue army move up into position to repel Red forces. The program calls for at least one trained observer in every 16 square miles of the vast territory over which enemy aircraft will operate. They are

GOSH, IS THAT IT?
Tucson, Ariz.—Some folks call burro weed "aplopappus coronopifolius" or "bigelovii hartwegii." They, too, are likely to call blue palo verde "conidium torreyanum."

But Lyman Benson of the University of Arizona studied burro weed and examined a photograph of the palo verde in the herbarium of Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland. He found that burro weed actually was "haplopappus tenuisectus" and the blue palo verde "ceceridium floridanum."

Ah, we had a lingering suspicion about that all the time. We just didn't mention it for fear somebody would think we were kidding 'em.

A STORY IN SILVER
We don't see many silver dollars any more. They used to have a good comforting touch to the palm of the hand, and a handful of silver was a fine thing to have. But silver dollars were kind of unwieldy, and by common consent they just dropped out of fashion. The other day, though, a Midwestern company brought silver dollars back into circulation for a brief day of glory. It paid its whole payroll in silver dollars, in order to watch the way the industrial payroll circulated all through the community.

The results were enlightening for all concerned. As silver dollars passed across store counters, from hand to hand and pocketbook to pocketbook, the community gained an entirely new conception of the important part that the industrial dollar plays in bringing prosperity and general well-being into a town where a factory is located. Whether the plant's wages are paid in silver or paper money, the money circulates widely and does a lot of good. And when the example of a single town is repeated and multiplied all over the country, a new concept arises and a basic truth is emphasized: In the community or the nation as a whole, when industry prospers everyone prospers.

Guests of Miss Faye Mott last week were her mother and sister, Mrs. H. M. Mott of Zavalla and Mrs. J. C. Fortenberry of Port Arthur, also Miss Margie Lock of Zavalla.
