

TYLER COUNTY BOOSTER

Published Weekly at Woodville, Texas, under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1919.

Member TEXAS GULF COAST Press Association

Subscription Rates table with columns for One Year, Six Months, Three Months and Payable in Advance.

Display Advertising rates made known on application at the office.

Classified Advertisements take the following rate: 2 cents a word for the first insertion...

J. H. WILLARD, Editor-Owne MRS J. H. WILLARD, Adv. Mgr.

IF GOV. O'Daniel... the matter of the anti-strike law...

TEXAS RANKS... the matter of the matter of the matter...

WE STILL... the difference between a soldier and a mechanic...

Can you imagine a driver... license fee of 50 cents...

THE PRACTICE... of some city folk in picking flowers...

WOULD YOU... have a man to regulate your business...

BACK IN 1934... when NRA was first brought into being...

IT IS A fact... if the price fixing bill dubbed the Fair Trade Act...

KENNEDY'S State Ob... Timmy Pipkin, Tex...

Warren Chief

News of Warren School activities, community happenings and other incidents of interest and information...

The Warren grammar school will present a two-part program in the high school auditorium...

Bad News. The annual concert of the band is scheduled for the second week in May...

Junior-Senior Banquet. The Junior-Senior banquet was...

ANOTHER CHANCE TO BECOME A FARM OWNER.

Tenant farmers of Tyler county have another chance to become farm owners...

METHODIST W.S.C.S.

The Methodist Women's Society Service held their weekly meeting with Mrs. C. V. Phillips...

UP ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP.

The highest elevation of a Masonic Lodge room is said to be that of Lodge 1094...

WHAT WE NEED.

We don't need more material development; we need spiritual development. We do not need more intellectual power; we need more moral power.

REORGANIZATION NEEDED BY THE STATE.

State Government costs can be cut and new taxes can be avoided, in the opinion of the San Antonio Express...

MAN HONORED.

Mrs. Paul Powell represented the Woodville Methodist church at the Nacogdoches district conference...

WOODVILLE NEWS.

Judge J. E. Wheat was in Beaumont Tuesday night to attend the banquet honoring Judge Daniel Walker...

WARRIOR COMMON FLY

Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly...

The members of the club as well as the faculty was pleased with the success of their first attempt to raise funds since reorganization...

HARMONY

Mrs. S. A. Jordan was glad to have Mr. Jordan's father, son, his brother and his wife in their home over the week end...

READING CLUB

The Women's Reading club had its regular meeting with Miss Julia Belle Cruse Tuesday last week...

WHY NOT?

A comical aptar rode into Hyde Park and after leaning his bicycle against the railing...

SUNNY DELL

Mary Blanche Mann of Warren visited her parents, Mrs. B. Mann over the week end...

SO SAY WE ALL

A Texas senator last week expressed his idea of where to deposit Harry Bridges, CIO maritime labor leader...

WOODVILLE NEWS

Judge J. E. Wheat was in Beaumont Tuesday night to attend the banquet honoring Judge Daniel Walker...

WOODVILLE NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Lazenby are the parents of a baby son born on Easter Sunday...

Christian Church

Mrs. John Sturrock and G. W. and Lon Willis, Lee and Moody Martin attended the Saturday night...

Christian Church

Mrs. Uenia McMurtry, Lois Gibson, Mrs. Barney Sturrock and daughters, Luene Hughes and Mrs. Claude Crews visited...

OAKLEY-METCALF FUNERAL HOME

UNEXCELLED SALES AND SERVICE "Dignified But Not Costly" PHONE EMERGENCY PHONE 1 3 1 AMBULANCE SERVICE 1 3 1

The World's News Seen Through

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR An International Daily Newspaper is Truthful—Constructive—Unbiased—Free from Sensationalism...

WANTED: Half-Sick, Weak, Tired, Ailing People To Try THE NEW, IMPROVED SARGON

This Good, General Tonic with IBEROL fortified with VITAMIN B1 may help you what you need if you are suffering from loss of appetite, weight and energy...

AMERICA'S Greatest VACATION VALUE

Combine benefits of the world-famous thermal baths (the U. S. Govt. supervised bathhouse) with a glorious setting...

Shepherd's Cleaners and Launderers

Woodville Service Wednesday and Saturday Phone 49 Young's Pharmacy Fresh Drug Stock

James E. Wheat

ATTORNEY AT LAW WOODVILLE, TEXAS DR. R. B. BARKER DENTIST

Advertisement for GMC cars: Come in and DRIVE A GMC! with BALL-BEARING STEERING. A 5 minute ride in our Special Courtesy Truck will prove easier handling than most passenger cars.

Advertisement for Hotel Majestic and Baths: Hotel MAJESTIC AND BATHS. FRANK W. STUBBS, Manager. HOT SPRINGS NATIONAL WATER CURE.

Pay Cash. Pay Less!

H & H CASH SYSTEM

WOODVILLE, TEXAS

EXTRA SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY, SATURDAY AND MONDAY, APRIL 25, 26, AND 28, 1941

Nice Size Apples—Fresh Green 4 lbs
Apples 15c Cabbage 10c

New Potatoes, 6 pounds 19c

Catsup 8c Milk 29c

Rice, Whole Grain, 4 pounds 20c

Peaches, 1 doz 19c	Butter, 1 lb 15c
Tall cans, 4 lbs 17c	Crackers, 1 doz 15c
Pineapple, Crushed, 2 lbs 25c	Spiced Sausage Links, 1 doz 9c
Tomatoes, No. 2 cans, 2 lbs 25c	Sardines, 1 doz 9c
Tuna, Fish, Canned, 1 lb 15c	W.M. Paragon, 1 doz 25c
Vanilla Extract, 1 bottle 9c	W.M. Paragon, 1 doz 25c

MARKET DEPARTMENT

Stew Meat 25c	Roast 18c
Deckers, Wagon 18c	25c
Sheet Bacon 17c	39c

Fruits & Vegetables	FLOUR AND FEED
Strawberries, 2 doz 25c	100 lb $1.45
Small Apples, 3 lbs 10c	78c
1 doz 12c	$1.35
1 doz 9c	73c
1 doz 5c	$1.39
1 doz 25c	$1.85
1 doz 17c	$1.69

WOODVILLE NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

WOODVILLE NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

The HONORABLE UNCLE LIMPY

By ETHEL HUESTON

W.M.U. SERVICE
 Copyright, Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"Do you realize," began Olympia, half-choking, "that Limpy is—a perfect—infant? A mere child?"

"To a man of my age and—general experience," he said gently, "there is nothing in the world so beautiful as a brave, glowing little boy just blossoming out."

Aunt Olympia got up and walked straight out of the room. She had to. She was afraid if she remained she would choke him with her bare hands and that would end the campaign in a hurry.

"I'll probably end up by my doing it anyhow," she told the Senator savagely. "But I'm making every effort to wait till after the election."

"You can't really blame him, my dear, for liking the child's looks," he argued mildly. "Everybody likes her looks. You know, Olly, to tell the truth," he continued testily, "I like her looks better than Adele's myself."

Olympia groaned. That was the gall and wormwood of it. She did, too.

Her distress was so great that the Senator decided to speak to Cecil himself, without telling her anything about it; for the Senator was devoted to Olympia and would humiliate himself to almost any depth in spare her distress. He had Cecil sent up to his library and closed the door.

"See here, Cecil," he began, matter-of-factly; "I want you to stop flirting with Limpy."

"Cecil rose right up out of his chair to answer that. "Flirting with Limpy, sir? I'm not flirting with Limpy."

"You're not? You're not flirting with Limpy? . . . Well, what do you call it?"

"I don't call it anything, sir. But I know it isn't flirting. I'm crazy about Limpy."

"Well, stop it! Her aunt and I will positively not permit anybody to be crazy about Limpy until after the election."

"I wouldn't dream of flirting with Limpy," said Cecil, aggressively. "Any time. The election has nothing to do with it."

"Well, you've got her aunt all upset about it and we can't carry about Limpy and win an election at the same time."

"But what have I done, Senator? I've been very careful. . . I only gave her that pin—and everybody wears Slippy pins. . . And Mrs. Slippy asked me to be nice to the girls."

"To the girls, yes. Not to Limpy. Just to Helen and Adele. They're as good as married anyhow. Not Limpy."

"You know, Senator," Cecil confessed shyly, "I could get married myself if—was the sold old woman's political experience in this campaign I'm sure to land a good job somewhere. And I've got money enough to take care of a w—woman. I could do a lot better for a girl than Len Hardesty."

"You've got to stop looking at her," said the Senator firmly.

"But Senator, you must realize—there's no place else to look when Limpy's there," remonstrated Cecil desperately.

"I'm sorry, Cecil, but you've got to stop it. Pay attention to your work. And when you are discussing the campaign with us, you needn't address your remarks to Limpy. She's not running for office and am."

"I'll try, Senator," he said unhappily. "I don't want to upset Mrs. Slippy and I do want the campaign to go through all right. But Senator, you must see how impossible it is to look at anybody else when Limpy's in the room."

"I'll keep her out of the room as much as I can," promised the Senator kindly. "You keep your eyes glued to Mrs. Slippy. Discretion is the best policy—at your age. When you get to be my age, a glance or two at Limpy won't hurt you. I'll even let you see her a little. But for old, Hank, you'd better not look at her."

ing it anyhow," she told the Senator savagely. "But I'm making every effort to wait till after the election."

"You can't really blame him, my dear, for liking the child's looks," he argued mildly. "Everybody likes her looks. You know, Olly, to tell the truth," he continued testily, "I like her looks better than Adele's myself."

Olympia groaned. That was the gall and wormwood of it. She did, too.

Her distress was so great that the Senator decided to speak to Cecil himself, without telling her anything about it; for the Senator was devoted to Olympia and would humiliate himself to almost any depth in spare her distress. He had Cecil sent up to his library and closed the door.

"See here, Cecil," he began, matter-of-factly; "I want you to stop flirting with Limpy."

"Cecil rose right up out of his chair to answer that. "Flirting with Limpy, sir? I'm not flirting with Limpy."

"You're not? You're not flirting with Limpy? . . . Well, what do you call it?"

"I don't call it anything, sir. But I know it isn't flirting. I'm crazy about Limpy."

"Well, stop it! Her aunt and I will positively not permit anybody to be crazy about Limpy until after the election."

"I wouldn't dream of flirting with Limpy," said Cecil, aggressively. "Any time. The election has nothing to do with it."

"Well, you've got her aunt all upset about it and we can't carry about Limpy and win an election at the same time."

"But what have I done, Senator? I've been very careful. . . I only gave her that pin—and everybody wears Slippy pins. . . And Mrs. Slippy asked me to be nice to the girls."

"To the girls, yes. Not to Limpy. Just to Helen and Adele. They're as good as married anyhow. Not Limpy."

"You know, Senator," Cecil confessed shyly, "I could get married myself if—was the sold old woman's political experience in this campaign I'm sure to land a good job somewhere. And I've got money enough to take care of a w—woman. I could do a lot better for a girl than Len Hardesty."

"You've got to stop looking at her," said the Senator firmly.

"But Senator, you must realize—there's no place else to look when Limpy's there," remonstrated Cecil desperately.

"I'm sorry, Cecil, but you've got to stop it. Pay attention to your work. And when you are discussing the campaign with us, you needn't address your remarks to Limpy. She's not running for office and am."

"I'll try, Senator," he said unhappily. "I don't want to upset Mrs. Slippy and I do want the campaign to go through all right. But Senator, you must see how impossible it is to look at anybody else when Limpy's in the room."

"I'll keep her out of the room as much as I can," promised the Senator kindly. "You keep your eyes glued to Mrs. Slippy. Discretion is the best policy—at your age. When you get to be my age, a glance or two at Limpy won't hurt you. I'll even let you see her a little. But for old, Hank, you'd better not look at her."

ing it anyhow," she told the Senator savagely. "But I'm making every effort to wait till after the election."

"You can't really blame him, my dear, for liking the child's looks," he argued mildly. "Everybody likes her looks. You know, Olly, to tell the truth," he continued testily, "I like her looks better than Adele's myself."

Olympia groaned. That was the gall and wormwood of it. She did, too.

Her distress was so great that the Senator decided to speak to Cecil himself, without telling her anything about it; for the Senator was devoted to Olympia and would humiliate himself to almost any depth in spare her distress. He had Cecil sent up to his library and closed the door.

"See here, Cecil," he began, matter-of-factly; "I want you to stop flirting with Limpy."

"Cecil rose right up out of his chair to answer that. "Flirting with Limpy, sir? I'm not flirting with Limpy."

"You're not? You're not flirting with Limpy? . . . Well, what do you call it?"

"I don't call it anything, sir. But I know it isn't flirting. I'm crazy about Limpy."

"Well, stop it! Her aunt and I will positively not permit anybody to be crazy about Limpy until after the election."

"I wouldn't dream of flirting with Limpy," said Cecil, aggressively. "Any time. The election has nothing to do with it."

"Well, you've got her aunt all upset about it and we can't carry about Limpy and win an election at the same time."

"But what have I done, Senator? I've been very careful. . . I only gave her that pin—and everybody wears Slippy pins. . . And Mrs. Slippy asked me to be nice to the girls."

"To the girls, yes. Not to Limpy. Just to Helen and Adele. They're as good as married anyhow. Not Limpy."

"You know, Senator," Cecil confessed shyly, "I could get married myself if—was the sold old woman's political experience in this campaign I'm sure to land a good job somewhere. And I've got money enough to take care of a w—woman. I could do a lot better for a girl than Len Hardesty."

"You've got to stop looking at her," said the Senator firmly.

"But Senator, you must realize—there's no place else to look when Limpy's there," remonstrated Cecil desperately.

"I'm sorry, Cecil, but you've got to stop it. Pay attention to your work. And when you are discussing the campaign with us, you needn't address your remarks to Limpy. She's not running for office and am."

"I'll try, Senator," he said unhappily. "I don't want to upset Mrs. Slippy and I do want the campaign to go through all right. But Senator, you must see how impossible it is to look at anybody else when Limpy's in the room."

"I'll keep her out of the room as much as I can," promised the Senator kindly. "You keep your eyes glued to Mrs. Slippy. Discretion is the best policy—at your age. When you get to be my age, a glance or two at Limpy won't hurt you. I'll even let you see her a little. But for old, Hank, you'd better not look at her."

ing it anyhow," she told the Senator savagely. "But I'm making every effort to wait till after the election."

"You can't really blame him, my dear, for liking the child's looks," he argued mildly. "Everybody likes her looks. You know, Olly, to tell the truth," he continued testily, "I like her looks better than Adele's myself."

Olympia groaned. That was the gall and wormwood of it. She did, too.

Her distress was so great that the Senator decided to speak to Cecil himself, without telling her anything about it; for the Senator was devoted to Olympia and would humiliate himself to almost any depth in spare her distress. He had Cecil sent up to his library and closed the door.

"See here, Cecil," he began, matter-of-factly; "I want you to stop flirting with Limpy."

"Cecil rose right up out of his chair to answer that. "Flirting with Limpy, sir? I'm not flirting with Limpy."

"You're not? You're not flirting with Limpy? . . . Well, what do you call it?"

"I don't call it anything, sir. But I know it isn't flirting. I'm crazy about Limpy."

"Well, stop it! Her aunt and I will positively not permit anybody to be crazy about Limpy until after the election."

"I wouldn't dream of flirting with Limpy," said Cecil, aggressively. "Any time. The election has nothing to do with it."

"Well, you've got her aunt all upset about it and we can't carry about Limpy and win an election at the same time."

"But what have I done, Senator? I've been very careful. . . I only gave her that pin—and everybody wears Slippy pins. . . And Mrs. Slippy asked me to be nice to the girls."

"To the girls, yes. Not to Limpy. Just to Helen and Adele. They're as good as married anyhow. Not Limpy."

"You know, Senator," Cecil confessed shyly, "I could get married myself if—was the sold old woman's political experience in this campaign I'm sure to land a good job somewhere. And I've got money enough to take care of a w—woman. I could do a lot better for a girl than Len Hardesty."

"You've got to stop looking at her," said the Senator firmly.

"But Senator, you must realize—there's no place else to look when Limpy's there," remonstrated Cecil desperately.

"I'm sorry, Cecil, but you've got to stop it. Pay attention to your work. And when you are discussing the campaign with us, you needn't address your remarks to Limpy. She's not running for office and am."

"I'll try, Senator," he said unhappily. "I don't want to upset Mrs. Slippy and I do want the campaign to go through all right. But Senator, you must see how impossible it is to look at anybody else when Limpy's in the room."

"I'll keep her out of the room as much as I can," promised the Senator kindly. "You keep your eyes glued to Mrs. Slippy. Discretion is the best policy—at your age. When you get to be my age, a glance or two at Limpy won't hurt you. I'll even let you see her a little. But for old, Hank, you'd better not look at her."

WOODVILLE NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

WOODVILLE NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

Mrs. J. W. Wickline of Kirby, Okla., who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is expected to be discharged today. She has been in the hospital since she was taken there by a horse-drawn wagon on her way to the store. She is now in a private home and is recovering well.

Nearly 100 people attended the church social at the home of Mrs. E. H. Jones, which was held last night. The social was a great success and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church.

The official yearbook of the school is now being prepared by the National Yearbook Company. It is expected to be published in a few weeks and will contain a wealth of interesting information about the school and its students.

MADE TO ORDER PRICED TO FIT

All 3 Humble Gasolines are CONTINUOUSLY IMPROVED

THRIFTANE, a good gasoline—it gives you uniform, loaded quality at thirty miles.

HUMBLE, a better gasoline—designed to meet the requirements of today's automobiles.

ESSO EXTRA, the best gasoline—delivers all the performance built into your car.

So—whatever the car you drive, whatever the price you are accustomed to pay for gasoline, you are invited to try Thriftane—Humble—Esso Extra.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY
 A Texas Institution manned by Texans

LOOK... BEFORE YOU BUY

Look at the Beauty!
 Look at the Extras!
 Look at the Price!

WHY pay for extras and not have them? This big S-6 Kelvinator gives you everything you want and need in an electric refrigerator at a price made possible only by Kelvinator's new and less expensive way of doing business. Sparkling new beauty . . . easy-to-clean stainless steel Cold Ban . . . oversize Cripple . . . big Vegetable Bin . . . exclusive new Magic Shelf . . . Polar Light non-glass interior illumination . . . economical Polarsphere sealed unit . . . these are only a few of the features that make this S-6 Kelvinator a marvel of convenience.

Remember, it pays to look before you buy. So come in and see the new Kelvinators soon. Look at the beauty . . . look at the extras . . . look at the price . . . and you'll agree that Kelvinator gives you more for your money.

MODEL S-6 KELVINATOR COMPLETELY EQUIPPED $144.95*

*Additional with 2 Year Protection Plan. Door rising cover; polar vegetable compartment; extra shelves.

Remember, it pays to look before you buy. So come in and see the new Kelvinators soon. Look at the beauty . . . look at the extras . . . look at the price . . . and you'll agree that Kelvinator gives you more for your money.

KELVINATOR

THE ONE STOP FOOD MARKET Yellow Front FOOD MARKET CASH & CARRY WOODVILLE, TEXAS

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY, SATURDAY, MONDAY APRIL 25, 26, AND 28 1941

Table listing various food items and their prices, including Grape Fruit Juice, Cigarettes, Pinto Beans, Tomatoes, Malt Ploerzout, etc.

Spuds 15c 4 lbs 39c SALAD OIL, Gallon Jug 79c

MARKET and FLOUR AND FEED price lists. MARKET includes items like Veal, Pork, Beef, etc. FLOUR AND FEED includes items like Bobwhite Flour, White Soft Flour, etc.

Pure Lard $4.45 Sweet Feed $1.05 Bring Us Your Eggs and Chickens—Fresh Cat Fish

SPURGER HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB WOODVILLE NEWS. The Spurger Home Demonstration Club held its 17th regular meeting on April 17...

16 1/2 ACRES FOR SALE COLMESNEIL. Adjoining High School. GEORGE STURROCK Anahuac, Texas SPURGER 4-H CLUB. The members of the Spurger 4-H club met Wednesday, April 16...

Whose Booster do You ? ? BORROW ? ? NEAL COMMUNITY. The farmers in this vicinity are very much pleased over the damp weather which is at present prevailing...

FAIN

TODAY THURSDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT AND FRIDAY 'LIL' ABNER' IN PERSON SATURDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT GOLDEN TRAIL WITH Tex Ritter

TUESDAY WEDNESDAY BARGAIN NIGHTS ERBE BLONDE AND 21 WITH Yvonne Bart THURSDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT WITH Lynn Bari

WOODVILLE NEWS. The E. W. Walker family visit to the E. W. Walker home at Lufkin Saturday...

NUMBER TWO. No. 2, continued from Page 1. Mrs. J. W. Williams, mother of the late J. W. Williams, died at her home in Lufkin...

MARY LOUISE NOFERI

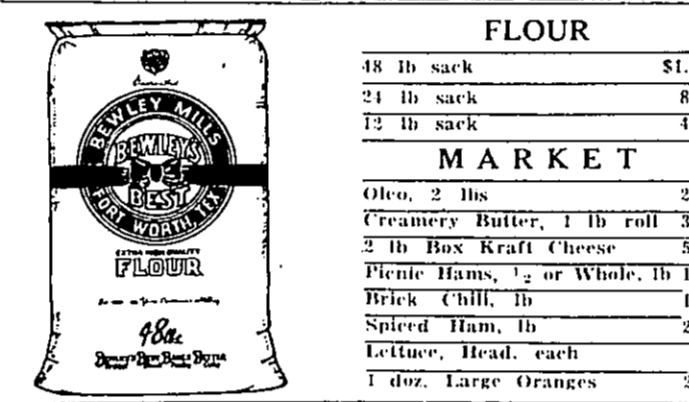

College at Jacksonville and at the North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, with accompanying honors. She, too, is an accomplished musician...

NEWS PAPER Advertising HAS STOOD THE TEST OF TIME. The Spurger 4-H club met Wednesday, April 16 in the school gym...

PATE & DAVIS MARKET - GROCERIES AND FEED WOODVILLE, TEXAS

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY, SATURDAY, MONDAY APRIL 25, 26, AND 28 1941

Table listing various food items and their prices, including Spuds, Libbys Fruit, COCKTAIL, etc.

Turn on Your Radio Friday Noon and hear Bewleys Chuck Wagon Gang... Then on Saturday, come to our store...

WOODVILLE NEWS

Woodville people are delighted that this will be headquarters for the Woodville Depot Bridge crew. Mrs. R. F. Jordan and her family...

COLMESNEIL

Mrs. J. P. Mann and Mrs. L. O. Riley visited in Huntington Sunday. Guests in the Meadows home during the week end were Mrs. Ross Baxter and Clarence Meadows...

WARREN

Mrs. Dora Glaze of San Antonio has been visiting her nephews, Allen and C. Coats. Miss Jennie Boyd is confined to her home with flu. Mrs. Allen Coats is up after a week's illness...

HILLISTER

Mrs. J. P. Tolar and J. J. Bullock were in Trinity Sunday to see Mr. Bullock's uncle who is ill. Mrs. H. A. Norton were in Beaumont Monday, where Mrs. Norton had dental work done...

WOODVILLE NEWS

George Sturrock of Anahuac was in Woodville Tuesday en route to Colmesneil on business. Mrs. P. L. Majors drove to Beaumont Sunday with the daughter, Miss Peggy, who will study at the Jefferson business college...

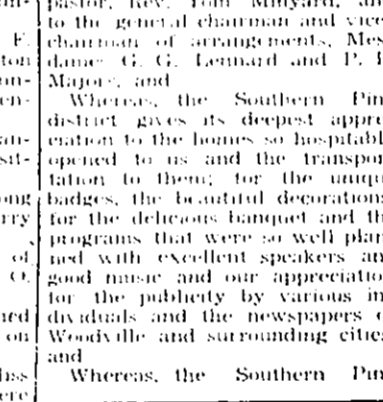

Ray Cornelius surprised his friends here early this month by bringing a bride with him after a week end visit at his home in Jacksonville. They are making their home at the Rammy hotel. Capt. and Mrs. Soderstrom of Port Arthur were guests of Mrs. Charles Parker early last week...

DR. PEPPER FOUNDER IS TAKEN BY DEATH IN HIS DALLAS HOME. Robert Sherman Lazenby, 74, eminent chemist founder of the formula for the carbonated drink, Dr. Pepper, and for nearly 40 years president of the Dr. Pepper company, died Thursday at his Dallas home...

DOUCETTE W.K.C.S. The Women's Society of Christian Service met at the church at 4 o'clock p. m. The Fourth chapter of the Bible study 'Rahab Hero' was given by Mrs. W. W. Hardt...

NUMBER ONE. No. 1, continued from Page 1. 'To Pray' accompanied by Miss Charles Saxon, Beaumont. For the closing session in the afternoon, State President J. Short Pearce spoke on 'The Christ Who Lives in Me is a Man of Love'...

Finer than skill alone can do... Telephone men and women combine training and experience to handle calls, connect wires, build or rebuild circuits.

Finer than skill alone can do...

STATE

Timber Sale

On State School Land in Several East Texas Counties, May 1, 1941. Write BASCOM GILES, Commissioner Of The General Land Office Austin, Texas For Description and Location. Apr. 3-17-24. No. 17-19-20 '41.

Want ADS OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS HERE

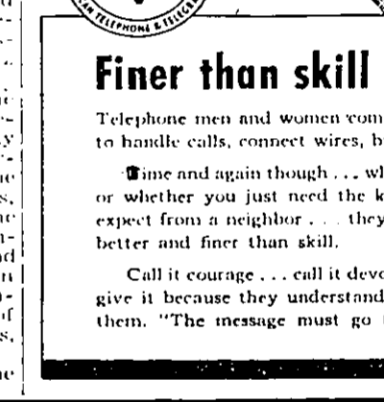

FOR SALE—TWO MULES, 4 years old in May, gentle, hand raised. Also some fine Jersey milk cows, fresh. J. M. Miller, Colmesneil. *17-8-9-20

BABY CHICKS—THE KIND

more people buy, Steel's U. S. Approved. All leading breeds and lowest prices. Leave your orders with Pate & Davis, Woodville, Texas. 181f

SEE ME FOR COLONIAL

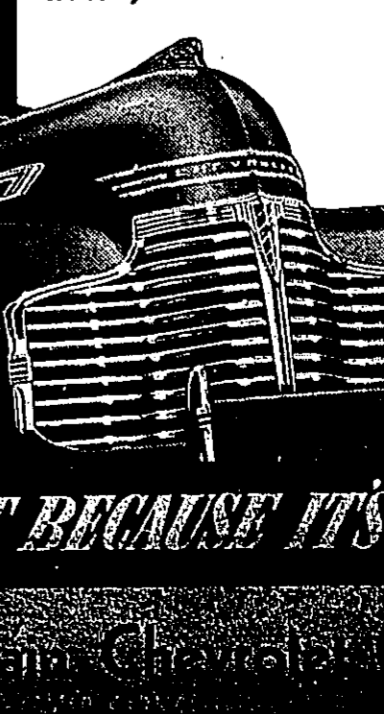

Chicks the kind more people buy than any others! Play safe and buy U. S. Approved Colonial Chicks. Save money. All leading breeds at lowest prices. Replacement offer on best grades. G. G. Leonard, Phone 32, Woodville, Texas. 181f

Finer than skill alone can do...

NEW CHEVROLET

Why Pay More? Why Accept Less? The new Chevrolet for '41 is the only lowest-priced car with an ultra-luxurious body by Fisher of the same type and size featured on higher-priced cars.

You'll be FIRST BECAUSE IT'S FINEST