VOLUME XXII — WOODVILLE, TYLER COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1941 — Number 46

THINK'MBOBBIES

● General Taylor never surrenders!—Crittenden

● He loves his county best who strives to make it best.—Ingersoll.

● There is always a way. There was a way in, and there is a way out.

● To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace.—George Washington.

● The tongue of a fool is a dull razor. It cuts and skins, but is of little real service.

● Nov. 20 and 27 are Texas Thanksgiving days by proclamation of Messrs. Roosevelt and Stevenson.

● Who was it said "Speech is silver, silence is golden?" Why, man, I know a score of things that weren't said.—Edison, after he invented a new storage battery.

● We wonder what would have been the result if the editors of last week's Booster had not omitted the names of pages 3 and 4. Those pages contained the weekly correspondence and there was a lot of it.

● A float used to move a huge rock off an English road broke away and caused a delay and to explode without damage. This story should have ended the following Monday when Tommy (Boy) makes good.

● The best study for a barber in Scotland is of how to make a living to tidy up the hair of a shipwrecked sailor, says Bob Burns to other "We Marines" after bad blitzes certain must have got the war didn't bug.

● Remember back yonder in the days of the silent movies when you had to see the wedding ring to get the story of the play. Nobody should have gotten by without reading thusly: "Will the lady with the beautiful hat please rise before the gentleman behind her stretches his neck out of joint."

● A person who wasn't present could be prowling around Woodville on Armistice day, stated he found no American flags displayed. The Booster plumb forgot. But one of our good friends did assisted in purchasing a flag and we've just overlooked buying another. Accusation flag.

● We are still wondering where this J. H. Willard, agent, original agent in Zavala County, Texas originated, and where his father before him came from. If we ever agent in Zavala County, Texas him up. We know a little about the Willard family tree. If never we have not ever possessed the Willard genealogy which was published along about 1883.

CERTIFICATE OF TITLE MUST BE SECURED BEFORE REGISTRATION

A lot of owners of trucks all throughout the State are going to find themselves left out in the cold when it comes to purchasing license plates next year, if they fail to obtain their certificates of title by January 1, tax assessors and collectors throughout the state are warning.

Observing that many motorists and truckers fail to realize the importance of applying for their certificates of title, many collectors have issued notices to all owners.

Sec. 63 of the Certificates of Title Act provides that, after January 1, 1942, it shall be a violation of the law for any person to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of the State of Texas without first having secured a Certificate of Title on said vehicle.

"This section further states that no motor vehicle may be registered after that date unless Certificate of Title has been secured and is presented at the time of registration.

"If you have not already done so, you should apply at once for your Certificate of Title, since several weeks may be required after your application is filed before the title is issued.

"Applications are filed in the tax assessor-Collector's office, and should be filed without delay."

SEVEN MEN TO HOUSTON MONDAY

James Clarence Willey of Spurger, Fletcher Jack Mullens of Warren, Elray Thos. Ayers of Doucette, John Raegin Grammer of Oakland, Gene Frank Rhodes, Hillister, G. Tucker and Woodrow Lee of the Woodville community have been called by the selective service board for the November quota and will go to Houston Monday, the 17th for examination for Uncle Sam's service.

Q I cannot find the word "Defense" anywhere on the Defense Savings Stamps I have bought. Are they merely Postal Savings Stamps or does my money invested in these Stamps go into the Defense Program?

A The money you use to purchase these Stamps goes definitely into the Defense Program. The Stamps bear the words "America is Ours" which indicates that they are an integral part of the Defense Program.

Q What is the Treasury's purpose in putting Defense Savings Stamps on sale in retail stores all throughout the Nation?

A To make it as easy as possible for Americans everywhere to buy these Stamps which, as every one knows, may be exchanged at many post offices and banks for Defense Savings Bonds.

MAY SET NEW RECORD

According to R. D. Hawkins, district ranger of the Texas Forest Service, Tyler county has suffered forest fires in ten years of existence a record of the lowest number of acres of forest land as compared with any single year.

During the year of this year Tyler County has lost only 6.[illegible] acres of forest land through forest fires out of a total of 496,[illegible] acres protected area. For the year 1935 the best record of the last decade was set with a loss of [illegible] acres burned. The worst year of the decade was 1939, when Tyler county lost 15,347 acres.

Mr. Hawkins pointed out that Tyler county may well be proud of the low number of acres of forest land burned over. The Texas Forest Service stated, will do its utmost in assisting the county to keep the number of fires occurring this year at a minimum. The service has in Tyler county 7 lookout towers and 175 miles of telephone lines. Also 6 engines, 3 trucks, 17 guards, 5 fire wardens and 5 [illegible] fire wardens. In addition there are 253 volunteer fire guards citizens who have agreed to help suppress fires in their communities. The aid of these men has been extremely valuable.

The biggest matters in preventing fires is urgently requested. Every year in burning season [illegible] fires in the number of fires caused by camp fires and [illegible] fires.

The average damage caused by fire is about a dollar an acre. Just remember, Mr. Hawkins stated, that with timber assuming the importance to be that it is in our national program, every acre we keep from burning is another dollar added for national defense.

CRUSE - OWENS

Friends are extending congratulations to Carey Lee Cruse, son of Mrs. Clyde Cruse of the Dees community on his marriage with Miss Faye Owens of Athens. Mr. Cruse completed his course at Marshall College after graduation from high school and secured his degree at Baylor. He has a position in the local bank. The bride came here nearly two years ago to become a member of the school faculty and has made many friends who, with The Booster, hope for her the best the world has to offer in happiness and contentment. They are starting the new home in the Eaves apartments. The marriage took place Saturday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage with the Rev. M. J. C. Boyd officiating.

CULBERSON SAYS GAS FIGHT HAS JUST BEGUN

Railroad Commissioner Ohn Culberson declared that he "had just begun to fight for the cause of fair and reasonable gas rates in Texas."

In a speech prepared for delivery at a recent birthday dinner in his honor, the commissioner who made gas rate reductions one of his demands in his campaign last year said: "My head is bloody but unbowed and I rededicate myself to lower rates—monopolies, lobbists and the supreme court (state) not withstanding."

The Call America Heeds

THE MOTORIST PAYS THE BILL

It is estimated the motorists of the United States will pay 60 per cent of the $3,600,000,000 which the treasury proposes to raise to finance the defense effort. Every thing used by the motorist will be taxed. New cars and used cars will be taxed. The expense of operating an automobile will be increased, because the cost of new parts will be hiked, as well as the wages of mechanics. Taxes on gasoline and oil will be boosted. And it has been suggested that a flat $5 per vehicle use tax be enacted.

All these taxes will be in addition to those the motorist already pays, such license fees, state, county and city taxes.

From this it will be seen that the motorist will be made to pay a major portion of the defense bill, as he has been made to pay a major portion of other governmental costs in the past. Since the majority of our people are now car owners this means that the average person will be far more heavily taxed than in the past. And that, of course, is to be expected.

The car owner pays, and has always paid, a disproportionate share of taxes, first, because the government officials still look upon an automobile as something of a luxury, and, second because motorists are most easy to catch up with and it is difficult to tax some types of citizens, but it is no trouble to all to stick a new levy on an automobile or the products used by car owners. So the motorist pays and pays and then pays some more. And, in the vernacular of the street, he "hasn't seen anything yet!"—Austin Tribune.

Allegiance to the Flag Taught Youth

Every morning at the school-opening of the Carl Schurtz public ward school of New Braunfels, Texas, two hundred and fifty or more pupils and teachers march from the building to the grounds where, in group formations, a very impressive Flag-raising Ceremony is held. Usually a Boy Scout is placed in command, who, with the assistance of three or more buglers and the Safety Patrol, take position near the flag pole. Facing the Flag the group is brought to attention and salute while the Flag is raised, followed by the recitation of the "Allegiance to the Flag" in unison, and the "Star Spangled Banner" by the buglars. Ofter a patriotic reading is given by someone during this program. Four members of Comal Post No. 179, New Braunfels, who are stationed in pairs at both sides of the flag pole.

AN APRECIATION

Ponce, P. R., Tyler County Booster—Mrms Willard. In regard to The Tyler County Booster, which I have received since last July, I wish to express my sincere appreciation. I enjoy reading the Booster and most of all, I like to see what all my friends at home are doing.

I have been in Puerto Rico for the past ten months, and I like it fine. With the exception of a little warm weather, the Island is quite pleasant.

It is quite a few miles from Puerto Rico to Woodville, and it seems funny to be so far away from home, which makes the paper more welcome.

I would like very much to see the Booster come out daily. Gratefully yours, Billie M. Wiggins, 63rd Material, Sqd. Losey Field, Ponce, Puerto Rico.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Time is flying and helpers are needed to knit and make Red Cross garments. The response has been wonderful but still about 20 sweaters for children are not out yet. If you knit, please come and take a part in this. It is so important to get these garments in the December shipment. The garments you are now working on, please get them finished and turned in just as soon as possible. Perhaps your neighbor doesn't receive The Booster. Ask her if she knits or sews; tell her how badly her help is needed. Phone or see Mesdames T. C. Rock, A. P. Little, C. C. Hightower.

Methodist Church
Rev. W. W. Hardt, Pastor

On next Sunday, Nov. 16, the Methodist church begins its new conference year. The pastor, Rev. W. W. Hardt, has been assigned to this church for another year by Bishop A. Frank Smith, and with his family is happily located in the comfortable Methodist parsonage.

Definite progress has been made, and at this time announcement is made of a forward step that the church is taking in that the pastor will devote his full time to the Woodville church. Services will be held every Sunday morning and evening to which everyone is graciously invited.

The services for next Sunday are as follows:

Sunday school	10 a. m.
Morning Worship	11 a. m.
Youth meeting	6:30 p. m.
Evening service	7:30 p. m.

Arrangements are being made for special music at both morning and evening services. Come and learn what the Lord's word may be for you in these days.

You are always welcome.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES FREE OF FEDERAL TAX

The treasury has ruled that tickets of admission or other costs of attendance religious services are exempt from the federal admissions tax.

The new tax law which became effective Oct. 1 removed the former exemption on admissions to functions sponsored by religious and educational organizations.

In its ruling, treasury indicated that the new law means that church socials or bazars or other similar functions are subject to the tab, but not religious services.

A TIP TO "ANNOYANCE" DEPARTMENT FOR HITLER

We've hatched another one of our brilliant ideas. This one is constructive, no matter which way you look at it.

Let's assemble a thousand or so of the woodpeckers that regularly do their rat-a-tat signaling on our our roofs about daybreak.

Train 'em to follow the Morse code, three dots and a dash—the "V" signal, for Victory? Like this . . . — !

Then turn 'em loose over Germany.

It ought to drive Goebbels nuts.—Des Moines Register.

BAZAAR AND CHICKEN SPAGHETTI

Just three weeks from tomorrow, Friday night, Dec. 12th, the ladies of the Christian Church will serve Chili supper at the church. Plan to eat your evening meal with them. You need not cook the next day either for from 11 o'clock A. M. on they will serve Chicken Spaghetti plate with coffee, pie or cake. Candy will be on sale and the annual Bazaar will be held that day, Saturday, December 13th so look over these hand-made articles and select some of your Christmas gifts from among them.

FIRST TO RAISE QUOTA

We were happily surprised Tuesday to receive word that one part of the county was so interested in Red Cross Roll Call that it went in its quota, before the drive really started. L. M. Feagin, roll call chairman phoned us. Fairview community had sent in quota of $51 and $3 extra. This looks as though Tyler county planned to go over the top.

America's Answer

Never let it be said that our leaders let America go down to defeat without talking valiantly.

It occurs to us that our good representatives in Washington are laboring under the impression that Hitler is going to be licked with nice, shining words—and in some cases with loud growls—instead of ships, planes, tanks, and guns.

So far 11 United States ships have been sunk by the Nazis. The Bodies of American men who manned those ships lie quietly somewhere in the great Atlantic.

These men are dead, not because of some terrible [illegible] not because the identity of their craft was [illegible] the Stars and Stripes and while [illegible] the background of their flag looked like a Union Jack [illegible] and Sickle to some near-sighted Nazi [illegible] there was no mistake. What reason, then, for these attacks?

So many wide-eyed gentlemen [illegible] asking that question. In [illegible] with a carefully prepared mixture of [illegible] lousness the wide-eyed ones are [illegible] doing this to us?"

If the question were a sincere one [illegible] for all the oratory which invariably [illegible] it is asked.

But perhaps we are unfair. [illegible] lemen in Washington [illegible] to the American seamen who [illegible] VICTIMS OF HITLER'S WAR [illegible] STATES.

DO NOT fail to read "American's Answer." This is a story of what America thinks in regard to its preservation of this nation. This "American Answer" is short and to the point. It is over. Hitler must not be only whipped but, for all time, complete and elimination in place means dead.

IT BEATS all how time does start and how they travel. We have been informed Woodville is in line for a political upheaval that will be terrible to behold, awful to experience and disheartened to the higher ups and the rumor came to us we were to be prayed for from three to five years. The Booster has been unable to find out whether the upheaval is in county or local government. It's great to be perched upon the side lines and not to have to become embroiled and at the same time be independent. When we get intoxicated, the right to walk and vote and believe it's great to be one is an American citizen the upheaval.

LABOR RACKETEERING must cease. It is not believed that the laborers themselves are responsible for all of the evils in strikes, lockouts and sabotaging the shades of which are reported in the daily press every day. Folks, American folks, are the same kind of folks as you, your sons and your daughters. They are being controlled, misled by the men they have elected as their leaders, presidents, or call 'em what you will. This editor believes there is only one labor president of the two unions, the American Federation of Labor and the CIO. His name is William R. Green. He is doing his best he can, but the Labor Racketeers are impossible. A president man's work for the national defense is not done when the war ends blows, not in these days. He must also work for the national defense when he attends a convention meeting and chooses his leaders. For only under the leadership of honest men and same men can organized labor defend either its present position, or its future prosperity, or the independence of the United States.

SOME OF our readers wonder why this Great Family Journal did not have descriptive stories about the Eagle-Chester foot ball game played here last Friday evening, and also the Book Review of "Keys to the Kingdom" to be put over by Miss Frances Dameron, which was presented Wednesday evening at the Christian church auditorium. Fact of the matter we were promised a story on the book review, and so did not have it down on our weekly memory pad, and it got past us. In regard to the football announcement. We expected a bit of publicity from some of the school officials, for instance the coach, one of the teachers, or, mayhap, some enthusiastic member of the squad. Nothing came to us. We could not have had an apprehensive story without the line up for the Eagles, and, we ask you, wouldn't a lineup prepared by the Booster have been a pipin? We did, however, have a four-line local item on the lookout page, seventh column and tenth from the bottom. We managed to survive the pretermission, and the attendance at the game was about all that could have been desired. However, we might add that The Booster was interesting last week. Everything actually produced on the linotype machine there were by count, on just one page, fifteen. This is stated as a matter of fact achievement just to show we were not idle during the season time of preparing The Booster.

Patrolman Tharp R. Jordan of the Texas Forest Service located at Spurger reports a slash pine plantation planted in February, 1940, and now averaging 2½ feet in height.

The plantation belongs to W. P. Jordan and is located three miles west of Spurger. Mr. Jordan planted 2½ acres of slash pine and 1 acre of longleaf pine under the AAA special soil building allotment, and received $15 which he could not have earned in any other way. His trees cost him $2.00 per thousand, or $7.00 for the Indian Mound Nursery at Alto. Patrolman Jordan states that he will be glad to show anyone the plantation, and give any assistance he can in helping others to establish similar plantations.

R. D. Hawkins states that slash pine, long leaf, loblolly, shortleaf pine, black walnut, black locust, red mulberry, Chinese elm, and Russian Olive are all hardy in this section, and that he or any one of his patrolman will help anyone who wants to order and set out trees. They do not have the time to do the work but will direct and show how it should be done.

WHY WE HELP RUSSIA

Nothing is to be gained on behalf of the common cause of beat Hitlerism, by any attempt to gloss over or excuse those things in the Russian system which are as repugnant to American ideals today as they ever were. Such attempts merely confuse the real issue. We are not sending or promising to send billions of dollars in supplies and munitions to Russia because we love Russia or because we should have discovered sudden admirable traits in a system of government which is just as dangerous as Hitlerism. The whole motive in aid to Russia is to defeat Hitler. There is nothing to be ashamed of in admitting that policy and sticking to it.—Washington Star (Ind. Rep.)

WHY FIGHT ABOUT LIGHT?

A home with only one or two good reading lamps is a battleground for many a fight over light. Why let the first person to claim "the chair by the good lamp" have a corner on light? Give the whole family a break by having enough lamps so everyone can use his eyes in comfort. And be sure they're I.E.S. Lamps — especially designed by scientists for safe, easy seeing. You'll recognize them by the I.E.S. Tag and by the white glass diffusing bowl which filters out harmful glare and provides generous "conditioned" light.

ONE ANCHOR NOT ENOUGH!

UNCLE JAKE SEZ

Copyright 1927 by Orwin K. King

Sum wimmen don't give four whoops in Helsinki what friend husband thinks 'bout it but whin it cums t' th' neighbors they git terribly worried like.

Help yer home town by patronizin' yer local merchants.

FOOTBALL fans all over th' country air still talkin' 'bout them Baylor Bears playin' th' great Longhorn herd from Texas University t' a tie in Waco. It wus no doubt th' greatest upset what has ever occurred in these parts—greater then th' Texas defeet o' th' Aggies last season.

— o o o o o —

Miny reasons has bin gived fer th' Longhorns' downfall an' t' my way o' thinkin' they is several reasons. But, one stands out an' that's th' fine coachin' job Frank Kimbrough dune fer this one gaim. Jim Crow, his veteran scout, watched Texas play Rice an' S. M. U. an' brought back th' dope t' Kimbrough an' he got th' job dune.

— o o o o o —

Kimbrough played Texas different frum th' way inny coach has played 'em this season. He used a seven-man line on defense with sum fue variashuns an' it 'peered this confused th' Longhorns all afternoon. He pulled sum clever offensive plays an' I wud say th' one big reason why th' Bears held 'em t' a tie wus th' great coachin' o' Kimbrough.

— o o o o o —

Coach Bible down at Austin and Baylor wus reddy an' th' Longhorns wusn't. I don't figger that's much o' a excuse. Th' Texas fellers had jist as much chance t' git reddy as th' Bears. No doubt th' absence o' Layden an' Kutner did hurt Texas' chances sum but Baylor suffered jist as much with Jack Wilson out o' th' line up. Wilson, t' my way o' thinkin' means more t' th' Baylor team then both Layden an' Kutner does t' Texas.

— o o o o o —

They pay Bible $15,000 an' other rasslemashuns down at' Texas t' see that his team is reddy. I doubt if Kimbrough gits half that much. If ya can't git a team reddy for $15,000 a yeer or $1,500 fer each gaim played durin' th' season it's jist plain tuff.

— o o o o o —

With Fordham knocked out by Pitt an' Texas tied th' bowl bizniss is in a terrible mess. Th' Texas Aggies, Minnesota an' Duke is th' big three what's undefeeted an' untied an' if th' Aggies kin beat Texas Thanksgiving an' remain undefeated they has a fine chance o' gittin' a Rose Bowl bid what they missed by one gaim last yeer.

— o o o o o —

That will be sum battle days there at College Station on Turkey Day. Th' Aggies has proved they is jist as good as th' Longhorns. Coach Norton oter learned a lot frum Baylor th' way Kimbrough played th' boys fruh Austin. No doubt Bible will figger out a change in attack especially fer th' Farmers. At inny rate Bible has plinty o' time t' git reddy.

— o o o o o —

Th' Texas-Baylor gaim proved that a champion in sports can't never let down or fail t' be reddy an' if he wants t' keep bein' a champion. Th' Yankees air always reddy fer a baisball gaim. Joe Louis is always reddy whin he steps int' ring. Th' great Chicago Bears is always reddy whin they step on the gridiron.

— o o o o o —

They is only one thing what will stop a champion even if he does keep fit an' reddy an' that's Father Time. He pushes th' greatest o' th' great aside jist as he will day he'll push Joe Louis aside an' th' stars what now walk with the Yankees an' Bears.

— o o o o o —

So, while ya is gittin' up a lot o' hot t' kill heaps here is the gaims this week-end what I'm picking:—S. M. U. t' beat Arkansas, Texas t' take T. C. U., A. & M. t' beat Rice an' Baylor t' beat Texas.

Dinner tables in other states made a big haul on Texas poultry yards in February, taking 62 cars of chickens and turkeys, the University of Texas Bureau of research discovery. This total shipment was more than a third higher than in February 1940, when 45 cars were exported. The February 1941 movement was made up of two cars of live chickens, one of live turkeys, 55 cars of dressed chickens and six of dressed turkeys.

Egg shipments more than doubled from 41 to 105 carloads.

Honoring Two Famous Pan-Americans

Statue of Simon Bolivar in Central Park, New York City

Statue of Henry Clay in Caracas, Venezuela.

We will publish additional authentic feature articles dealing with the significant personalities and fundamental institutions of Latin American countries whose newspaper publishers are cooperating with Publishers' Reciprocal Program (Inter-Americas) by printing in their newspapers feature articles backgrounding and interpretative of current news of life in the United States. Emma

By EDWARD C. JOHNSTON

A few years ago there was unveiled in Caracas, the capital of the South American republic of Venezuela a statue of a great Pan-American. The inscription on it, written in Spanish, reads: "Henry Clay, 1777-1852. Apostle of fraternity between the countries of America and valiant defender of their independence. The United States of America presents to the United States of Venezuela this statue of its illustrious statesman, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Senator and Secretary of State."

The statue given in return for one of General Simon Bolivar, the South American champion of independence and Pan-Americanism which was unveiled in Central Park in New York city in 1921, was formally dedicated by a distinguished delegation from the United States and the statue was received by the President of the Republic of Venezuela.

This ceremony, which honored the man who, in the United States, has been called "The First Pan-American" and "The Father of Pan Americanism," was a significant one in the history of the nations of the New World. It was a gesture of friendship on the part of the most powerful of those nations to a smaller nation which has reason to feel grateful to an older sister in the Pan-American family. For to the Venezuelans the statue, erected in the square in their capital to which they have given the name of Plaza Henry Clay, means more than a mere moment of a great man. To them Henry Clay was a friend, not only a friend in words, but a friend in deeds as well, and the monument will stand as a constant reminder of that fact and of the international good will which prompted the presentation of it to their country.

As early as 1816 Henry Clay began his support of the colonies of Spain, then in revolt. Clay in his capacity as Speaker of the House of Representatives, reasoning that the United States might have openly "to take part with the patriots of South America," opposed the reduction of taxes incident to the War of 1812, and a year later likewise opposed a bill intended to stop the fitting out of war vessels in United States ports, maintaining that such a bill might be detrimental to the interests of South Americans who were still struggling for their freedom.

In 1817 he offered a proposal to authorize a salary for a minister to the provinces of the Rio de la Plata. In March, 1818, Clay made the speech which is still gratefully remembered by South Americans. Like all of Clay's oratorical efforts, this speech gained for the United States generally and Henry Clay in particular many friends among the South American countries who were destined to increase when, in 1820, Clay introduced a motion into the Congress to inaugurate diplomatic intercourse with any of the governments of South America which have established and are maintaining their independence of Spain. The next year, as the result of a resolution he supported, President Monroe sent a special message to congress and a resolution to establish intercourse with the South American nations.

When Clay became secretary of state in 1825 he took a promising friendship between the republics of North and South America became apparent almost immediately. He has been hailed as "The Father of Pan Americanism" in the United States because of the steps which he took to encourage the success of the congress at Panama in 1826, which convened at the call of Simon Bolivar. The United States was not on the first list of countries but at Clay's suggestion this country later was included. The invitation gave Clay an opportunity to prepare instructions to the United States delegation which in every feature seems to accord with the principles which have governed the Pan-American movement and the Good Neighbor policy of recent years.

One of the facts about Clay's influence upon the international policy of the United States which is not commonly known to most North Americans is in regard to the so-called "Monroe Doctrine." The principles enunciated in that famous document Clay forecast in July, 1821. He had been pleading the cause of the South American patriots with brilliance and fervor in the Congress, which was more or less indifferent to it. Slowly, however, public opinion was won over and when finally in 1822 the purchase of Florida was ratified, President Monroe began to recognize the new republics. The next year the President uttered the words which have been famous as the "Monroe Doctrine," although they might more justly be called the "Clay Doctrine," for had not Henry Clay prepared the way for them and contributed ideas to the formulation of the doctrine, they might never have been uttered. Clay's last great Pan-American work as Secretary of State in 1825, was to organize European influence, particularly that of Russia, to prevail upon Spain to discontinue the war against her former colonies.

The story of this man who was so signally honored in the Venezuelan capital as a figure of in-

SIX FOOT TALL SAME AS ABE LINCOLN

A spectator at Baylor civic theatre's rehearsal of Abe Lincoln in Illinois complained to Director Paul Baker that Glen Marlin, cast as Abe, was not tall enough.

He's six-foot same height as Lincoln, Baker replied.

"He isn't more than a couple of inches taller than others on the stage," the critic countered.

So Baker checked up. The average height of his 125-member cast is six feet, one inch.

AN EMBODIED TRUTH

When William S. Knudsen, defense production director, was before the House Foreign Affairs Committee last Saturday, Representative Luther Johnson of Texas asked him why he had left a $150,555 a year position in private industry in order to accept the post in the Defense Commission with no salary at all.

"I don't want to sound sentimental," Mr. Knudsen replied. "But I had been working in this country for more than 40 years. It had been pretty good to me. I was in a position to work for the [illegible], and I felt that if I could do something for the country, I would like to do it. That's all."

The audience and the committee, including members on both sides, broke into applause. Mr. Knudsen's face reddened and he appeared quite embarrassed.

That applause was not merely for Mr. Knudsen or for his simple and direct statement of the plain truth. It was for something bigger than that. It was for what Mr. Knudsen embodies in his person. For he is a living example of one of the fundamental things that democracy exists in all of America.

SLOGAN

Remember Davy Crockett's famous "be sure you're right" slogan. Well, we would have followed it implicitly . . . for you can't go wrong.

Practically every one of our products, written out and signed by the best of the Alcohol Brand Chemists given to the University of Texas Library in Austin. Proves the way it goes, exactly as Crockett worded it.

I leave this to others, when I'm dead.

Mr. Telephone will wear plastic to save metal for Uncle Sam

We're ready with a wartime telephone in which plastic and steel replace the more vital defense metals zinc, aluminum, magnesium. It's not a makeshift telephone. It's a good telephone.

In the months ahead, however, you may find it hard to get one. Where all lines in our cables are taken up we can't add new customers quickly, because nearly all the additional cable we can get is required for vital defense construction.

We're making every substitution, salvaging every bit of usable equipment to keep up with orders as well as we can.

We hope that our record over more than 60 years is evidence that we will always be doing our best to keep your service as good as conditions permit.
