WHILE THE WAR IS RAGING ON

There's no time to waste in sighing While the war is raging on Time is flying, men are dying While the war is raging on There are souls that we can do Still throughout creation's land Atoms for the Victory stand While the war is raging on Let us gather up the rubber Seek to help the flying brother While the war is raging on There is much that we can do While the Axis they pursue And it's up to me and you While the war is raging on

What will be the news tomorrow? While the war is raging on? Let us comfort those in sorrow While the war is raging on Far across that wide expand There are gallant boys that stand Up against that tyrant band While the war is raging on

In a world so full of weeping While the war is raging on Christian souls their watch are keeping While the war is raging on Praying that world peace will come For that is soon to come While the war is raging on

Let us not forget Pearl Harbor While our tanks are rolling on And to keep our planes a flying As we sing our Victory song That the Germans soon may know We are bound to win the show For we are buying bonds, you know While the boys are fighting on Composed by J. W. Gelsinger, Woodville, Texas.
