

THINK 'BOBBIES

Why stop to think that the world American ends with I CAN'T?

Note: this is the 114th week since Pearl Harbor.

A woman, confined to bed as well as to her bed, died yesterday.

The citizen who can grin at his bed, breaks it in a coalition to grab at every opportunity.

Oh, I just said what father does when you boss him to all kinds of things, you've made 'em the little girls, never told me what to do if they did that.

Wallace, V. J., declares for fourth term for Roosevelt. Well, possibly the country can stagger through, but with Wallace as V. J. vanishes the thought.

American workers pocketed a record $100,000,000 in salaries and wages last year, nearly $21,000,000,000 more than in 1928 and $40,000,000 more than in 1929.

The greatest need in our land today is that the citizens of our country recognize the purpose for which our country was built, discovered and developed and then for us to live in accordance with those high purposes.

It happened a few years ago at the Mayo Brothers' clinic. A prominent millionaire invited us to lunch. Will Mayo asked: "Are you the head doctor here?" "Yes," replied the Mayo doctor. "My brother is the head doctor. In only the body doctor."

The doctor got mixed for about the tenth time for some cents by that infernal new one-cent piece. Last week we did a bit of shopping. This time at the postoffice and later we found in our pocket that was cent piece that looks like a dime and is also cents also.

They do say the "incomplete" equipment of becoming a Texas (if you're a celebrity) is to be passed through the state. Our hat's off to the professor who allowed General Hines to be called a Presidentialist. This Texas still goes on and on, all in the name of progress.

A certain Texas politician received the answer when the question of a dear old grandchild was "Back, you're a young man, but the he would, but himself if I would not marry him." "Oh, how wonderful," exclaimed the girl, and did her. The grandmother replied: "He did but 30 years later."

Out here the newspaper does well only through its friends and loved ones. It does not have any friends here in Houston, enough, without counting himself by voting his bugles. Each of us years for the day when this will be over and we can return to our people. In our hearts there is an eye-opening, heart-breaking, bitter hatred against the enemy who has come to us to shoot ourselves from the peace we once know and the people of our "old-fashioned" Texas.

About five people out of every 203 Americans spend $200 a year for medical attention, and yet the Wagner bill will tax every American $200 a year for medical attention, and when you are ill, do not call your family physician, your friend, you might have an order for a physician supplied by the government as prescribed by the Wagner, non-profit, get busy. Write your senators, your representative and ask them to bid in permanently withdrawing this great human plan.

The Austin Statesman has a story about the need for overhauling of mid-ways and presents, as an illustration, on each law, which made it a misdeed for a Texas to carry a pair of pants, because when hauled to court, it was tried as a pair of pants and skills rusted. It seems to me the paper missed the big point, he should have been tried for putting the Texas around a tract of land, where some other attempted to procure title on the plain of the Texas, and what else is there to the squatter law.

What Does It Mean for Sick People, the Doctors, the Hospitals, the Great American Public?

DAD KNEW THE ANSWER

The little girl had returned from her father's doctor. "Dad," she said, "I took care of the first time I was sick. It was a cold. You never told me what to do if they did that."

"Oh, I just said what father does when you boss him to all kinds of things, you've made 'em the little girls, never told me what to do if they did that."
