The Great American Bar Association Tells Of Compulsory Sickness Insurance

THINK-MBOBBIES
 Ever stop to think that the word "American ends with I CAN?"
 The American Bar Association has issued a report on compulsory sickness insurance. It is a report that should be read by every citizen who is interested in the health and well-being of his fellow citizens.
 The report is a study of the American Bar Association's views on compulsory sickness insurance. It is a study that is well worth the time and effort that it takes to read it.

From the report of a special committee named by the American Bar Association to study the Wagner-Murray-Diess bill, now in Congress. Report published by the Christian Science Monitor.
 The American Bar Association is a national organization of lawyers. It is a organization that is well known and respected throughout the United States.

Silver Tea Nets $1276.10 On New Church Build. Fund

The ladies of the Methodist church feel well repaid for the work done to put over the Silver Tea held Friday at the apartment house of Mrs. Wall Havelock. Mrs. Havelock's mother was carried off in deathly illness, a large amount was the guest book presented over by Mrs. J. W. Harrison, with two lovely young ladies, the Misses Shirley Joe Hunter and Ann Harrison. The net proceeds of the evening were $1276.10, which will be used for the building fund of the church.

WDTTCIWSBY A PATRIOTIC SUGGESTION
 The cash register in a hardware store which occasionally patronized had an odd-looking sign above it. Upon a white placard bordered with narrow strips of red, white and blue, was this strange word:
 WDTTCIWSBY
 Puzzled and mystified, like the practically every customer — asked the cashier what the word meant. Rightly he replied: "Why Don't You Take Your Change in War Savings Stamps?"
 I did and according to him, practically everyone who asked him the meaning of the word did the same.
 Friends were glad to have Mrs. Brown, the former Mrs. Marjorie Anderson, of Zwolle, La., there also Mrs. C. C. Ferguson of New York, who arrived the night before to visit her daughter, Mrs. Nain Field. We understand that all offerings are not in as yet but the afternoon sale of plates, paper and books total at $1,276.10. This is aside from any pledge made by members of the building fund.

Mrs. J. L. Murphy Finds Brother in Real

One night last week in the west real Mrs. J. L. Murphy, a pilot getting into a plane was rescued and returned to the earth. She had been flying over the mountains and had become lost. She was rescued by a pilot who was flying in the same direction. She was taken to a hospital and is now recovering from her injuries.
 The Willards have viewed the picture once and would not place it in appearance here for anything. Only sickness could keep us away.

MORE ELECTRIC POWER HERE . . .

MEANS MORE FIGHTING POWER HERE

One Kilowatt-hour Out of Every Two We Deliver Helps Back the Attack

DEFLECTING the stepped-up production tempo of a nation geared for war, 25% of all the electricity distributed by this company goes to industrial plants in the war effort and to military establishments.

Since June, 1940, when the national defense program for increasing our industrial power plants have more than doubled. Today we are supplying almost as much electricity for war-time industrial and military use as we supplied for all purposes at recently as 1918.

And although this tremendous increase in the use of electricity for war purposes has been piled on top of record residential consumption, the demand has been met with a minimum use of steel and materials for additional facilities and installation of heavy-duty skilled employees to the armaments industry. There has been no loss of production by industry or our loss due to shortage of electricity, and there has been no curtailment of essential electric service on the home front.
