The Woodville Red Cross Four Eagle and One Silver Quota Was $4000.00; We Went Over $154.77 to Date

THINK 'MOBBIES'

Ever stop to think that the world American ends with I CAN'T. The Germans filed an affidavit on the 10th of April, stating that they had passed the quota and had the full amount in hand. Will anybody believe that difference between the quota and the amount.

There is only one possible way in which we can get over the quota. It is to get the quota. The quota is $4000.00. We have $154.77 to date. We need $3845.23 more.

OUR DADS

American people need many goods, which are being produced by our war-time industry. These goods will be available to business buyers. With this hope in mind, the U. S. Department of Commerce issued a book last week called "Marketing After the War". To help the Committee on Economic Development measure the public's post-war needs. Some of the items mentioned in the book are: new homes, new cars, new clothing, new furniture, new appliances, new toys, new books, new records, new records, new records.

BUY WAR BONDS NOW!

Look ahead to the future and plan wisely. It is more important today than ever. With the longer hours and harder work the war has brought, your equipment in wearing out pretty fast. Few replacement parts are available. But the day is coming when full lines of everything will be on the market again—and then you're going to need a lot. Nobody else will have the money to meet these future needs. It's up to you to do it yourself.

On farms and ranches all over the country, owners and tenants are eating down their dollars in the War Bonds which will mean so much to their post-war prosperity. It's the safest and easiest way to save. Uncle Sam stands behind them. You can buy them in large or small denominations, to suit yourself, and you can get them at bank or post-office or Production Credit Association. Between tips to town you can buy by mail, or ask your local mail carrier to get them for you. The wisest, fastest plan is to keep right on buying them.

Save your money for your boy, too. It's great money, wherever he's fighting. It's so get home as quickly as possible. The best you can do now, is to buy the War Bonds that help provide his fighting equipment. But when the war is over, then the money you've lent to the Government will come back to you—and you and the boy can use it together. The loan will mean more to him than it ever has, and he'll be proud of you for the way you've stood behind him and provided ahead for future needs. War Bonds are your duty to your country, to your boy and to yourself.

YOU NEVER GET LESS THAN YOU LEND! And you can get 4% more than you invest. When held to year, Series B or B-1 bonds yield 2 1/2% interest compounded semi-annually. You get back $4 for every $3.
Of course, you may should check a Road unless he's not in line for a long time. Along Uncle Sam will return these to you as full purchase price—plus the interest you've paid them for. BUY WAR BONDS!

HELP ME GET READY FOR BUSY DAYS AHEAD

Now's the Time to Prepare Your Refrigerator for Summer Service

This coming of warmer weather means extra duty for your electric refrigerator. To give it the care and attention it needs to operate at peak efficiency. If an open unit model, see that it is properly lubricated. Check condition of coil and door gaskets. Keep unit compartment clean. And if you have reason to suspect mechanical trouble, have your refrigerator checked over by a competent service man NOW. Repairs take longer these days, and if you wait until the rush season you may find yourself temporarily without refrigeration just when you need it most.
