THINK BOBBIES

Over and over again the word "bobby" is used to describe the American side of the "GANT"...

Just what would you think if some one told you that the word "bobby" was used to describe the American side of the "GANT"...

Another "bobby" is the word "bobby" used to describe the American side of the "GANT"...

PULPWOOD

A war shortage we can lick!

There wasn't much we could do about it when the Japs cut off our supply of natural rubber. The pulpwood shortage is different. We have plenty of pulpwood trees—a lot of them right here in this county—waiting to be cut.

We Can Do It Again

This community with the aid of the farmers here, already helped overcome national food and many metal shortages. Cutting pulpwood is another war job we know something about.

By making your pulpwood we can help shorten the war. We can also bring new money into our community—money that will circulate through every home here.
