THINK'MBOBBIES

● Ever stop to think that the word American ends with I CAN?

●

● With four quarters playing after this season there will be more players of woods type than there will be Notre Dames.

●

● The Angelina County News came out last week with A 12-page edition. It was a Golden Jubilee for the boys over yonder.

●

● As the Milwaukee Journal puts it, "Gone with the wind" continues to be a big seller, but leaving the Axis out of it, would she be a lot longer.

●

● When our boys come home from the war they should all be entitled to a pension of $50 a month for the rest of their lives. Read Mark Twain's "What is Man?"

●

● About the most interesting thing about the outcome of the Texas-Texas A&M game was the fact that Beal Dale started in the game. Beal was injured in the Texas game on Sept. 27. The Dale Way is a wonderful thing.

●

● Sizing up the various candidates for the presidency, it looks like a choice between a Dewey and a Truman.

THE WAR CHEST CAMPAIGN

Below you will find tabulated the standing of each unit in Region No. 3, ending with the 23rd day of the campaign.

County	Amount Asked
Angelina	$ 96,000.00
Chambers	13,800.00
Hardin	9,000.00
Jasper	75,000.00
Liberty	51,000.00
Newton	18,000.00
Polk	45,000.00
Sabine	9,000.00
San Jacinto	9,000.00
San Augustine	12,000.00
Trinity	9,000.00
Tyler	18,000.00
TOTAL	$ 365,800.00

There are 10 Regions in the War Chest Campaign in the State. Week before last Region No. 3 was in 9th place. Last week we moved up to 7th. We only need ten points to put us in 6th. Let's see if we can't do it this week and better that. Let's get on the top. Let's get busy, work and work and work.

Carnival A Success

The Carnival Friday night was well worth making the trip to Woodville to see. The only thing lacking was a band. John Hall drew a house on furlough led the parade with the flag, riding a very fine white horse, a number of other ladies were with him. We would not care to mention that each of the ones in the parade did not look their best, but they were all there. The prizes were given as follows: Wilburn Fowler, horseback rider, $1. In pre-school group: Joe Riley Pool and brother John Charles, $1 to each. Pool. Margarite Shepherd 5th. Elementary school 4th grade, $1, and 5th, $2. High school, sophomores, $1 juniors, $2. Organizations leading club $2.50; Commercial Western Auto Assn. $2.50, and comic, Roy Pate, $1. As we go to press the bills are not settled, and a few concessions not reported, but a rough estimate of gross receipts, is more than $485. It is hoped there will be a net profit of $400. The show that night netted nearly a hundred dollars. Those who had charge, deserve credit, for it was a very enjoyable affair, and the crowd felt it had really received its money's worth. This month came in on Wednesday, yesterday, or next week, on Wednesday afternoon at regular P-TA meeting. Try and be there. Everyone who had any part in the carnival should be appreciated especially the few ladies who worked into the wee hours of the morning making candy.

A MESSAGE FROM T. O. SUTTON COUNTY CHAIRMAN

The War Fund quota is not yet reached, but Mr. Sutton wants to thank each and every one who has helped by soliciting or giving. He states that the drive will continue until the full amount of $4,000.00 is in. We are some $700 short to-date.

Sizing Up the Various Would-be Presidents

Franklin D. Roosevelt's advanced age, the circumstances under which he has served for 12 years and the possibility that he will be incapacitated by illness or death during the next four years, make it more than usually important that the voters in the coming election choose wisely between the presidential candidates. Under the circumstances, it is the duty of every citizen to inform himself as to the qualifications of each candidate. Should Roosevelt be elected and die during his term, Harry S. Truman would succeed him. Should Roosevelt be elected and become incapacitated, Truman would act as president. The latter would succeed to the office of president in case of the death of both Roosevelt and Truman. Whether intentionally or not, the issue presented by the campaign is largely a personal one. The issue was presented by Wendell Willkie in 1940 when he made the campaign largely a personal one. Willkie failed to realize that the people were not interested in his personality, but in the principles for which he stood. Roosevelt had promised if elected a Democratic form and by Democratic methods to continue to do certain things. Willkie failed to point out wherein Roosevelt had failed to keep his promises. Willkie's campaign was largely a personal one. He failed to point out wherein Roosevelt had failed to keep his promises. Willkie's campaign was largely a personal one.

Roosevelt had a hundred thousand majority in the popular vote in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1940. He also won a majority in Kansas City in 1936. Roosevelt carried Missouri in 1940 by 50,000 votes. Truman was elected senator by only 40,745 votes in a year in which the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, by a team of statisticians, estimated that 85,000 ghost votes were cast in Kansas City and St. Louis, while other estimates indicated that an additional 31,000 votes were cast for the opponent and counted for Truman.

In the Senate Mr. Truman has been a member of that body's committee that has done much work in investigating war profiteering and in saving money for taxpayers. But this should not cause us to overlook the danger in placing a dictatorship, who delegates his political functions to one of the most corrupt machines, next to the senate in the world, in a dictatorship and has had no experience in public administration.

In contrast the Republican nominee, Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, who spoke in Dallas last Wednesday evening, has an enviable record as a member of his state's Public Utilities Commission, as Attorney General for three terms. As Governor, he wiped out a forty million dollar deficit, discovered three thousand unnecessary employees who were not replaced, put the state on a pay as you go basis and enabled the treasury to accumulate a surplus of seventy-four million dollars.

Governor Bricker was reared on a farm and had to work his way through college. He understands farm problems and can see industrial problems from the point of view of the workingman. He has proved himself a capable administrator, and he knows how to make and keep friends. His majority in the 1942 election was the largest ever given an Ohio Governor. He is pledged to driving the crackpots out of Federal jobs and restoring control of the government to the people.—Dallas News.

CARELESSNESS

It would be an excellent thing if every Utahn who ever drives through our mountain canyons could visit the area in Parley's canyon which was burned over.

The fire destroyed to a very considerable degree the work of 20 years of development.

Fire fighting officials said the blaze was started by a cigarette flipped out of a car. One cigarette carelessly discarded—and 20 years of patient effort destroyed. It is appalling to think what damage one bit of carelessness can cause.—Salt Lake Tribune.

T. S., and here in Tyler county the forest fires are already traveling through the woods. Sunday night coming back from Pump Station the smoke was so thick the paving in front of the car could not be seen. Only by looking directly [illegible]

Dies Scores New Deal

U. S. Rep. Martin Dies told a fair-sized crowd last night that America is at the cross roads. He said that the New Deal policies lead to bankruptcy, dictatorship and loss of American freedom. He urged the people at home to organize their domestic forces. Dies said that Americans on the battle fronts recognize that enemies by their uniforms and other evidences but we at home are to be educated to the enemy within.

"Our country is in great peril. If you go to any ballot box this time and vote for Dillmon, Browder, Frankfurter, Ickes, Rosenman, Hopkins and Marbon Perkins another four years in power, you will have no right to complain when the day of reckoning comes.

"Our New Deal will never rule the American soul with the spirit of autocracy and totalitarianism of European lands. As for me you can count on they I have exposed the facts to you without bias or exaggeration. What you do with the report is a matter of your conscience."

BIDS ON POSTOFFICE

The government issued on the local postoffice to end Nov. 20th and bids are in order for the coming 5 or 10 years. Get your bid in early to Jackson I. H. Stephens, Shreveport, La. Tuesday Nov. 20th.

WHEW!

Latest check-up of government agencies gives the following:

There are 316 Smaller War Plants Corp offices, 110 WPB offices, 102 district and regional OPA offices (not counting 5,500 ration boards), 42 Regional War Labor Boards, 150 Wage Stabilization offices, 12 regional, 48 state and 122 area War Manpower Commission offices plus 1,600 U. S. Employment Service offices and 26 Dept. of Commerce regional offices.

Which are supposed to be able to answer all the questions about all the others—all of a 100-pound file room's office.

DO NOT WANT SOCIALIZED MEDICINE

Doctors and dentists in Texas are definitely opposed to the New Deal attempt to socialize medicine. They are expressing themselves daily in floods of letters come in asking that they be allowed to help in defeating the New Deal in Texas. Might see your doctor. He is for us and will make a point speak in putting your county in the Dewey-Bricker column.

HUNTERS ASKED TO BE CAREFUL ABOUT FIRE

With more hunters in the field this season than there have been in the last two years and with the East Texas piney woods in a highly inflammable condition, extreme care must be exerted to prevent forest fires, Director W. E. White of the Texas Forest Service, A&M said one day last week. He pointed out that hunters may unintentionally start fires by careless smoking, by negligence with camp fires and by using fire to bring out game hidden in the woods.

Forest fires are detrimental to bird and animal life. If hunters don't stop to think of the damage they are likely to burn, the fact that they may destroy some of the game which gives them the pleasure of hunting should be a good reason for fire prevention.

Eagles Had to Go Out Of Class for Defeat

The Livingston A team gave the Eagles their first defeat last Thursday night, when they beat them 20-14. The Eagles started the game off determined to keep their unbeaten record by scoring in the first three minutes of the game. The score was made from a Livingston fumble recovered by Wayne Miller, an Eagle, point giving the Eagles a lead of 7-0 and Joe Barraque kicked the extra point. At the end of the first quarter, At the beginning of the second quarter the Lions scored a touchdown and an extra point tying the score. Before the half ended both teams had scored again but the Eagles made the extra point giving them a lead of 14-13 at the end of the half. The Lions came back in the third quarter with a tremendous offense that brought them another score and extra point. This gave them a 20-14 lead over the Eagles. The hard driving offense brought the Lions within scoring positions several more times but they failed to make the score. At the beginning of the fourth quarter things looked bad for the Eagles as there seemed to be no hope for a victory, but to prove that anything can happen, at position in a football game, Calvyn Mitchell intercepted a pass on the Eagles five yard line, and ran it down the field to Livingston ten-yard line. Although they tried hard, the Eagles were unable to make the score. The ball changed hands when the Lions covered an Eagle fumble on the 20 yard line. This splendid run made by Mitchell was undoubtedly the outstanding play of the game. Mitchell is also a sophomore letterman with still a year to play. The game ended 20-14 in Lion's favor.

The Eagles were represented by a large crowd of boosters. Their presence was greatly appreciated.

We would like to call your attention to the fact that our open date of Nov. 3 has been filled. We will play Corrigan here on that date. The game is called for 8 p. m.

Vigorous Campaign

A vigorous campaign to defeat ratification by the U. S. Senate of an Anglo-American petroleum treaty has been launched by a group of independent Texas oil operators, headed by Grady Vaughn of Dallas, Hallman and Glenn H. McCarthy of Houston, co-chairmen. The treaty, which would place the American petroleum industry in an international oil cartel, is now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Resolutions opposing ratification of the treaty have been adopted by practically every organization of oil men in the country, by individual members of the Texas Railroad Commission, by the State Board of Education and by numerous civic groups and business men.

There are two great dangers lurking in the ratification of the Anglo-American Petroleum Treaty, according to Vaughn and McCarthy. The first danger is that the American oil industry will be made a part and parcel of an international oil cartel. The danger is that the federal government can seize control of the oil industry, taking it out of the hands of the men who have developed it and states which now regulate and control the production, marketing and use of petroleum products.

The State Board of Education has adopted a resolution opposing ratification of the treaty. The Board feared a sharp drop in school revenues if the Texas oil industry is made part and parcel of an international oil combine, a combine that would set Texas production, the price at which Texas oil could be sold, and the amount of Texas oil which could be sold.

Texans in every section of the State are joining the campaign and both Vaughn and McCarthy believe that when the time comes to take the battle to the floor of the U. S. Senate, the entire State of Texas will be behind their efforts to keep the Texas oil industry out of the hands of foreign oil manipulators.

New Patterns In America Not Wanted By Soldiers

Hon. Earl C. Michener, of Michigan in the House of Representatives Monday, March 17, 1944.

Mr. Michener: Mr. Speaker, the Parma (Mich.) News carries an editorial to which is included a letter written by a man in the military service. The letter evidences sound reasoning on the part of our soldiers and is well worth reading. It is as follows:

"New Patterns for America?

A soldier writes: 'What do they mean, fussing around about what kind of an America we servicemen want when we get home? Do they value America as something that can be changed with the seasons the same as women's hats and clothes?

'We can't escape the notion here that some people back home are trying to fashion new patterns for America, running around with tape measure, shears, chalk, and things, and quarreling among themselves as to what style of a tailor-made country will suit us after the war.

'You tell these self-appointed designers to let Uncle Sam alone. When we get back, we want to see his swallow-tail coat still there, and his boot-straps, tall hat, and everything else that's familiar. His way of dressing has been all right for a long time. It's what we're fighting to keep all right for a long time to come. Leave him be. Just have him there to say: Hello' when we return dressed the way we know him.

'It's swell that our first few months in civvies are getting some forethought instead of afterthought or no thought of the last time.

'When that period it over all that we want is to be free to work at what we can do best—with an employer who is free to expand—all of us managed by someone who knows how to weld us into a going business to the end that our work and risk in a fair, open market, will bring reasonable returns that we'll be free to use for building family and country into a still wondrous future.'

Doesn't it make sense?

Mr. Speaker, it does make sense.

METHODIST AND CHRISTIAN CHURCH LADIES MEET

Monday afternoon the 6th Monday, the Methodist ladies gave a program at the home of Mrs. Walt Barclay. Mrs. J. Wood Pate led the devotional and Mrs. Sam McAlister presented the subject, very neat to all boards, which covered India, Burma and sections of China, presenting a word picture with scenes and photos of work done by missionaries. This work has made friends and christians of the natives, who have in so large a measure been a bulwark between our boys and the enemies. It would be mighty difficult for anyone to be anti-missionary after seeing the result of that work which has meant so much in this war, as presented by Mrs. McAlister. Her report was authentic. Not a talk made up of just hopes and what might be done, but what has been done and is being done. Mesdames Barclay and Clyde Waters as co-hostesses served a very lovely plate of rolled sandwiches, individual cherry pies and coffee. Tomorrow, Friday afternoon the ladies will meet at 2:30 o'clock in the dining room of the Christian church for the World Community Program which is to be held in every town, village, community and city in the U.S.A. on that day, with a program on "Price of Enduring Peace," and members of all churches are invited to attend.

THE HUMBLE BROADCASTS

Humble's program of three football broadcasts this Saturday afternoon inaugurates the start of the second half of the football season.

Two conference games take the air at 2:20. The Texas Longhorns—S. M. U. game, with Kern Tips and Bill Michaels announcing, will be heard at this time over stations KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; WFAA, Dallas; KXYZ, Austin.

The other game to start at 2:20 is the Texas A.&M.—Arkansas game. This game will be aired over stations KTHT, Houston; KRLD, Dallas; KADC, San Antonio, and WTAW, College Station. Ves Box and Dave Russell will be play-by-play and color announcer, respectively.

At 3:50 the last game of the day starts, the Rice—Texas Tech, Mit Charlie Jordan will announce play-by-play with Fred Nahas relieving for color headlights. Stations KXYZ Houston; KTSA, San Antonio; KAKO, Dallas-Fort Worth and KRIS Corpus Christi, will carry the game.

AN APPRECIATION

We very much appreciate the kindness and help of our neighbors and friends during the illness and death of our dear son. The flowers were lovely and brought comfort to us.—Mrs. W. A. Wall and family.

Reports of the War Loan Drive As Is

As we go to press this list comes in to us. No word has come from Warren, Spurger, Fred, Woolsey Mill, Bethany or Camp Ground. These are donations paid to W. E. Suter, Woodville chairman. A. R. Ogden, $10; J. L. Dunn, $10; Bob Bridges, $10; Wm. Sloan, $10; J. C. Lee, $10; H. O. Head, $5; J. A. Williams, $5; J. W. Myers, $5; V. D. Hall, $5; Mod. Dry Cleaners, $5; R. E. Wingate, $5; Mrs. A. This brings the county's total up to $3,906.69. Still short $483.31. Woodville is still behind on its quota $313.00.

Mailed As Birthday

Pearl Harbor: Who Is It Not Made For?

Admiral Kimmel has asked for a court of inquiry to clear his name of blame for the Pearl Harbor disaster. Admiral Kimmel and General Short have been indicted before the bar of public opinion by the Roberts report. Admiral Kimmel had no authority to try them, so they have they had their day in court.

Is their case to become the Dreyfus case of American history, as you recall, was the French officer who was split France in two for 12 years. The charge was made that he was sold to the imprisonment on Devil's Island to protect the higher-ups on the general staff.

Questions after Pearl Harbor there was a legitimate reason for not relieving Kimmel and Short. That reason was national defense. The trial might have brought forth facts of military value to the Japs. But the Japs have begun to ebb two years ago. It now flows fast before the tremendous pressure of American men and material. It is hard to conceive any reason for further postponing the trial except that it might be politically embarrassing to their supporters. If two men had stolen a few stamps from a post office they would be entitled to a "speedy and public trial and to be confronted with the witnesses against them." The Bill of Rights so provides. This provision does not apply to military law, but it states the spirit of our institutions.

Three years without a trial indicts those who prevent its being held.

Time will add to some reputations and tarnish others. The shocking lack of military preparedness, not only at Pearl Harbor, but all down the line, is a fact of which we will hear more. It is to the credit of Governor Dewey that a year and a half before Pearl Harbor he had joined with Admiral Byrd and a few other unmuzzled men in letting the public see holes in our armor. Only 14 days after Churchill's "blood, sweat, toil and tears," Mr Dewey, speaking at Dallas, on May 27, 1940, pointed out that after "letting sixty billion dollars run through their fingers" the Administration did not have a "single complete mobile division of infantry and artillery (15,000) which could be rushed to a point of attack."

Our Army Air Force had only 800 combat planes—a week's loss in war. Gen. Arnold of the Army Air Corps had already gone on record that only "a half dozen" of the Army's planes—only 14% of anti-craft guns. No tanks."

We had only 2% of Army requirements for anti-aircraft ammunition. It was stated that industrial mobilization had not provided modern rifles for one soldier in six. We had 1% of requirements for light tanks, 7% for medium tanks. We [illegible] ocean navy. The Battleship [illegible] the previous autumn of 1921 [illegible] been suppressed—and it is to this [illegible] retary of Commerce, Harry Hopkins [illegible] sation would be in the hands of [illegible] retary and Commerce, Harry Hopkins [illegible] —a man who had never produced as much as a safety pin and who carried on a seven year war [illegible] American industry and its leaders.

Conservative Americanism will preserve Democracy. This is the slogan of the Texas Press Association.

ABOUT THE only thing we can hear about these days is Japanese gas. That's good. When one burns butane it is a foregone conclusion the head of the house is not chopping cord wood.

TEXAS WEATHER never does things in a moderate fashion. It is either too wet or too dry. Right now the air is full of dust, and no relief has been scheduled as The Booster goes to press.

ANOTHER GREAT task has been performed and the school carnival pulled off a most successful exhibit. Everybody, almost, attended and 11-16ths of the attendants returned to their homes well satisfied.

FROM REPORTS, the Village Mills oil well blew out has brought production somewhat greater to this part of the county. One of these days the Rockland field may prove up. In the dim future a well may be brought in near enough to the Woodville school district to garner a few thin dimes via the taxation route.

DIDN'T USE the short, ugly word when publisher Frank Gannett, head of the Gannett newspapers, says Pres. Roosevelt was guilty of "gross misrepresentation," in calling the Gannett newspapers, "isolationist." Mr. Gannett's assertion was contained in a telegram to the Chief Executive. "In calling the Gannett newspapers isolationist, you are guilty of a gross misrepresentation which I resent," read Mr. Gannett's telegram. "Not one of these papers could by any stretch of imagination be correctly characterized as isolationist. The implication that I, as head of this group of newspapers, am an isolationist is likewise unjust and utterly false."

STRANGE AS it may seem and in spite of the fact the Eagles have not been scored on or even tied, the Beaumont newspapers have not carried a line in the morning and evening papers that have reached The Booster. It is true the Eagles got out of their class and were defeated one day last week by the Livingston Lions, but it will be remembered the Livingston so-called B team failed to count here on our home grounds. Had the Woodville Eagles been defeated by Chester, Kirbyville, Newton, etc., the news would have been spread abroad to an expectant public. The next scheduled game is with Jasper, Nov. 17. The two dates Nov. 10 and 17 have been advertised as open on the year's advertising football layout.

HOW WOULD it be to sell out entirely to the several factions who wish to control all of American industry. Right now a vigorous campaign to defeat ratification by the U.S. Senate of an Anglo-American treaty that has been backed by a group of independent Texas oil operators, headed by Grady Vaughn of Dallas, and others. The Live Stock Show, Nov. 18th

This reporter was much interested Saturday morning to learn by the Beaumont Enterprise that the Live Stock show was scheduled for Nov. 18th and above all that she (if you are to judge by the way he listed as chairman of a publicity committee) remember last year that people all over the county wondered why The Booster did not in this or that, but it was difficult to inform everyone that there is a lifetime job to keep up with the county news. That we are physically unable to attend all gatherings of the town and county, and I will say right here that we get mighty little help from the county people in selling out a paper that they should be proud of and help. JUST A LITTLE, by telling us what they know of interest to make it a good paper. I might just as well get this out of my system right now. If the smoothing iron being enough. If I was to die tomorrow, I have no doubt most of the town people would pass by the casket and some of them say something like about me, some never say anything like about anyone, and no doubt there would be a few flowers sent, but God knows I need a little help and a few flowers NOW while I can enjoy them. They will not do me a bit of good AFTER I'm dead.

Now to get back to the stock show, and of course The Booster will boost for it as it always does for the things that build up Woodville, leaving out the disgraces of killings, fightings, women chasing, and you'd be surprised how to Houston and Beaumont what wives as well as husbands step out often, but because of common decency, and pity for your families we withhold such news. Though we know many people in the county want just that kind of trash. A newspaper was at first designed for an outlet for crime in and publish a tabloid of just court house news, people were so anxious to know the dirt of the county. Who were divorced, and why and what scandal. The Booster would be ashamed to have read in the Booster as it goes into nearly every state in the U. S. A.

As it is people who have read The Booster, think East Texas the garden spot of the world, and a most wonderful place in which to live.

Live Stock Show Set for Nov. 18

The fourth annual Tyler County Livestock Show will be held November 18 at the Woodville auction ring, according to J. T. Stryker, chairman of the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the affair. The shows have created much interest in past years and the 1941 show promises to be even better, he said.

Anyone living in Tyler county is eligible to enter cattle, hogs and horses in the event. Entries must be in place by 9:30 o'clock on the morning of the show and will remain until 5 o'clock p. m. Substantial prizes will be offered in the various classes. The sum of $100 has been given by the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce to settle the expenses of the show.

A new feature of the show will be judging contests that will be open to the 4-H club and FFA boys and girls of adults. Hogs and calves owned by the Future Farmers and 4-H Club boys will be auctioned off during the day with an out-of-county auctioneer. Judging will be by qualifying men from College Station.

Special committees appointed to put over the event include the following: Publicity, Mrs. J. H. Willard, Mrs. F. B. Sullivan, Mrs. Fayne S. Tungate S. I. Cruse, E. W. Tubb, and Jack Jordan; entries and sifting committee, Leon Hughes, Leon Hatton, F. B. Sullivan, and H. D. Fortenberry; classification, M. S. Hyde and all of the vocational agriculture teachers in the county; arrangements, E. O. Sutton, Lester Cruse, B. Phillips, J. H. Paul, J. L. Veal, W. H. Gilchrist, J. E. Wheat, R. L. Reid, J. H. Powell and Bill Breazeale.—Beaumont Enterprise, Oct. 21.

BANK COINS

Rare American coins and foreign pieces of currency, bank notes, and medals have been given to the University of Texas by the late Mrs. Patricia Howell Campbell of Houston. They will be displayed in the Texas Memorial Museum after they are catalogued, C. D. Simmons, Comptroller, reported last week.

The collection was the hobby of Mrs. Campbell's first husband, E. E. Howell, farmer and dealer in Houston, who died in 1924. Mrs. Campbell died in 1943, and bequeathed the collection, said to be worth several thousand dollars, to the university.

Included in the collection are 427 coins and 30 gold pieces, 46 medals, and 3,866 items in currency. Rare among the American coins are two-cent pieces dated in 1864, half dimes of 1840, and half-pennies of 1851.

The Campbell collection is the second large one to be given to the University. The first was the Swenson collection of coins and medals, presented to the University in 1891, by W. M. Swenson, native of Sweden, who became a famous West Texas rancher.

LEROY ROBERTSON

A little pain racked body is at rest, a little boy is happy now after six years staying in a world of sickness, tiredness and tears an dthis reporter, while feeling sincere sympathy for the parents, Mrms H. O. Robinson, who have spent so many sleepless nights with agonizing over the beloved little son, we are happy that the little one is at rest, and is young enough that we know that he is in a better country where there is nothing but happines, joy and good health. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Zion church with Rev. W. P. Bond in charge of the services. The uncle and aunt, Mrms E. H. Robertson of Chester were there with them when he passed away Monday night.

I AM ON RECORD as predicting this event. But it was hard to convince my readers that it could happen here. Now that it has happened, what are the 60,000,000 Americans who have insured their lives for the benefit of their wives and children going to do about it?

If the states had made a holy mess in preserving the solvency of insurance, Federal control might be the only alternative. But, did anything you own come through the depression of the past 10 years with a better record than insurance?

The great virtue of leaving power in state hands is that if a State fails under the control of reckless, radical men, or taxes its people to death, or competes with them, they can move to more conservative states. But when a Radical Federal Government takes over, there is no escape.

That is why they take over.

This decision comes immediately after the Conference of State Governors, Republican and Democrat alike, unanimously voted to fight the further destruction of the American States.

It is high time. The European section of America has gone for these past 10 years. The greatest asset on people possesses — INSURANCE. Now falls under the control of a Government which has failed to pay its bills a single year for 14 years.

This spendthrift government is reaching out for more and more people to tax in order to put more billsecurets on the pay rolls.

It has already invaded the security of your savings. It has increased its tax on what you leave your widow, and has reduced the amount of insurance she gets tax free.

Yes, you can do something about it. You can elect an American congress this year that will stop robbing you to provide jobs for bureaucrats.

You can write the officers of your insurance company. Quote them what a former President of the American Bankers' Association, Orval W. Adams, of Salt Lake City, has just said:

"Is it not the duty of bankers and insurance executives who are the custodians of the savings of millions of thrifty citizens to disseminate education dealing with (Government) solvency? Unquestionably—yes! Emphatically so!

Also write the Governor of your State to protest to your delegation in Congress. Thirty-five States urged the wrecking crew of the Supreme Court to leave insurance alone.

Congress can cancel this decision.

Have You Been Too Busy To REMEMBER EYESTRAIN?

The war has changed our lives. We all have new duties—extra responsibilities. And too often we forget some of the important rules of everyday living. Eyestrain, for example. Children whose precious eyes are endangered by improper habits of reading or studying. We forget that one school child of every five has defective eyesight.

Until the war is over—let's at least remember these four rules for conserving eyesight.

1 Do all reading, studying, sewing or game playing where it is a good light source preferably a modern reading lamp.

2 Avoid glare from bare bulbs. Don't sit facing the light. Glare strains eyes.

3 Avoid shadows. Make sure you have good light directly on your work or book. Shadows strain eyes.

4 Have your eyes examined regularly by a competent eye physician.

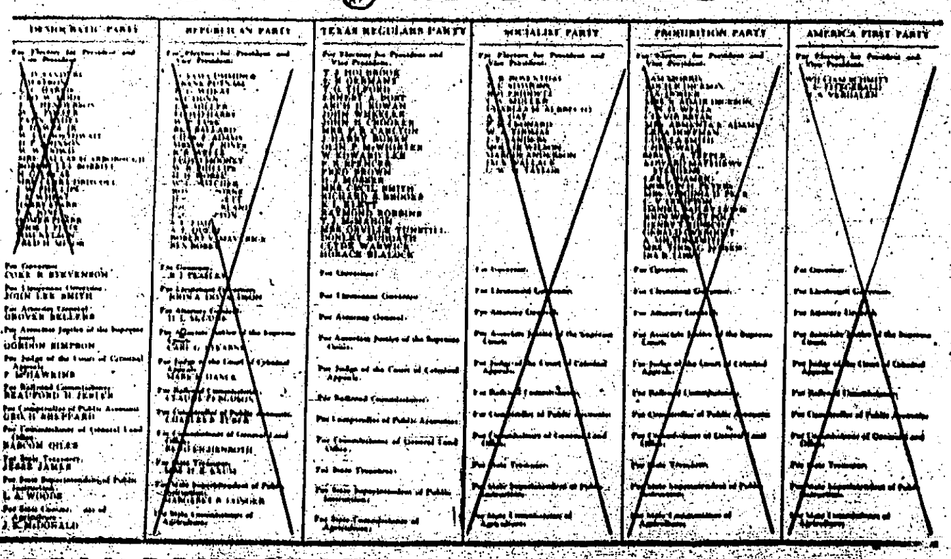
TEXANS! MARK IT LIKE THIS!

OFFICIAL BALLOT



REAL DEMOCRATS...GOOD REPUBLICANS... LET'S FIGHT THE NEW DEAL TOGETHER!

Here's the way to do it! Cross out the New Deal electors on the Democratic ticket. Cross out the other parties. But leave the Texas Regulars!

Loyal Democrats—here's the way to stay Democrats—and vote the New Deal OUT! Good Southern Republicans, and all you loyal Texans who have no party flag—we invite you to rally under the banner of the Texas Regulars—rally to the ticket that will win!

It's time for a change! Time to forget you're a Republican or a Democrat. Time only to remember that you are a Texan. An American. That you love your country and want it to stay just like it is.

Texans! Do you want to see the New Deal continue to run the future of our country? Can it be free Texans believe one man should stay in power for 16 years? Can Texans, Democrats, believe our great Party should be run by alien-born Sidney Hillman, by Communist ex-convict Browder, by the big city political bosses who would sell out the South for the Harlem negro vote?

But we must stick together! Remember, we vote by states—unless we WIN in Texas—every last vote we cast is LOST!

Join with us, you good Republicans! Join with us, you loyal Democrats, in a great crusade [illegible]
