WPB Curtains Civilian Goods; Army Needs More

In Other Words— TAKE CARE OF THE THINGS YOU HAVE

Following of civilian production cannot mean you'll probably have to wait longer for those new electric appliances you want so don't neglect your present equipment. Give it the continued good care it needs to make it last.

Follow These Tips on Appliance Care

- Oil motors regularly according to manufacturer's directions. (Some motors are enclosed in hermetically sealed units and need no oiling.)
- Keep appliances clean. Wipe carefully after each using. Dirt, dust, food, crumbs can cause trouble.
- Tighten nuts, bolts and screws at the first sign of loosening.
- Watch out for loose connections. If appliance sparks or motor stalls, disconnect instantly and have checked.
- Never immerse an appliance in water. It may result to a short circuit, damaged appliance or both.
- Don't drop appliances and don't knock them around. Treat them with care.
- Don't smoker. Unless you know exactly what you're doing, have an expert serviceman handle your repairs.
- Treat cords carefully. Don't kink, knot or allow to rub on sharp edges. Keep away from oil, moisture and appliances. Don't yank or disconnect.

Better—or Just as Good?

MOST of us aren't satisfied with buying—or growing—our manufacturing—something that's just as good?

We want something better. And, in most cases, that something better comes through competition.

For competition—real competition—is something better than two people making, or offering for sale, the same goods or services. It involves a lot more. And anybody who serves the public prospers because he has something better to offer—whether it's quality, prices, service, or just a clean appearance and a pleasant smile.

Real competition doesn't come from passive taxes, or subsidies, or any other sort of horse-race handicapping to make everybody in business start even. For it isn't equity that's needed, it's the competition that sets the true measure of progress.

Real competition is the kind that encourages the manufacturer, the farmer, or business man to get his quality up, his costs down, and to develop new things his customers want. It's this kind of competition that produces something better rather than something just as good—that invites to the public a steady increase in the value it gets for its money.
