● Ever stop to think that the word American ends with I CAN

●

● As we predicted Will Rogers Airport in Oklahoma City is now Tinker Field, short distance.

●

● The Navy has a new gun that is designed to shoot a rope over a burning ship and pull the crew to safety. Maybe it could be used to get Congress out of Washington.

●

● The Army Weekly reports that the patched airplane tire cannot be mended any more. Well, maybe there'll be a great suffering in some of the great cities in America for want of a good spread last week that the foreign capitals would need more than 1,000,000 tons of coal to keep heat and soul together during the winter.

WOODVILLE MOURNS

(Very deep sorrow, the tragedy of war and needless groundless hate made the American people mourn under the chilling Nazist dictatorship here last week with the announcement that Pvt. Jack Hamilton Hall, 20, had been killed in action in Germany. Jack was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall of Woodville. He was born and reared here and was a graduate of the Woodville High School. He was a member of the Methodist church and was loved by all who knew him. He was a member of the Woodville Rifles and was inducted into the army in February, 1941. He received his basic training at Camp Wolters, Texas, and was then transferred to Camp Hood, Texas, where he was assigned to the 8th Infantry Division. He was sent overseas in October, 1942, and was in the battle of Africa, Sicily and Italy. He was wounded in Italy and was sent to a hospital in England where he remained for several months. He returned to his outfit in time to participate in the invasion of France on June 6, 1944. He was killed in action in Germany on November 16, 1944. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall of Woodville, one brother, Pvt. Billy Hall, who is in the army in France, and one sister, Mrs. Ruth Hall Hamilton of Woodville. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Woodville on Sunday afternoon, November 26, at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Bob Hall, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Woodville cemetery with the Masonic lodge in charge of the graveside services. Pallbearers were Jack Hall, Jr., Jack Hall, Sr., Billy Hall, Jr., Billy Hall, Sr., Jack Hall, Jr., and Jack Hall, Sr.)

WHO AM I

I am your constant companion. I am your greatest helper or heaviest burden. I will make you or break you. You may be sure of me. I am always with you. I have no use for indecision, no time for slothfulness. I do not wait. I am ready now. Habit with me is fixed. I am the servant of all great men and women. Without me they could not succeed. Those who have achieved greatness have employed me. I am not cheap. I am expensive. I charge everyone the same price. I never give credit. I collect my debts. I am the builder of civilization. I am the sculptor of character. I am the key to success. I am the opportunity you seek. I am the servant of all who will use me. I am the habit you have formed. I am the habit you are forming. I am the habit you will form. I am the habit you cannot break. I am the habit you cannot form. I am the habit you cannot break. I am the habit you cannot form. I am the habit you cannot break. Mrs. George Jones received the husband's medals, the Purple Heart for wounds received and Oak Leaves Mail with Clusters, Private George L. Lyons, 34052306, for heroic action against the enemy at Pforzheim, Germany, on March 24, 1945. The citation and the medal reader placed their unit CP in an exposed position in front of the most forward positions so as better to fire at enemy tanks. They were attacked by four enemy tanks and in the resulting battle Private Lyons and his sergeant destroyed two of them and routed the other two. Their courageous stand against enemy armor was in keeping with the highest standards of military conduct. Prior to military service from Missouri by Commander of Major Gen. Miley. He is very proud.
