Dear Son -

Here's the check for your college expenses... more money from the Victory Bonds we bought for your education.

Money from some of those other bonds we bought during the war is now being put in the kitchen for Macie and Jerry for the new barn. Certainly is helpful to get back to for my 3rd anniversary. Help us the good point at present.

Affectionately
Dad

Freezing Cooked Foods Solves Homemaker's Problems

Mrs. J. Lathrop (left), Allen county, Indiana, homemaker, says the frozen soup into the cooker well of her electric range for a quick snack. Meals made up of frozen foods give her extra help from the kitchen. Mrs. L. A. Spencer (right), Van Buren county, Michigan, has just unwrapped one of her frozen pies from the freezer. These are the extra help from the kitchen. When baked, these will be a tempting dessert.

cooking frozen foods solves all these problems, according to representative farm homemakers.

Shut out the heat for extra help on the farm are easier to prepare with plenty of baked things in the home freezer. Mrs. Miller points out. Another big advantage is that home freezers make it possible to get the most out of food at the best stage.

COOKING large amounts of food and freezing them at once does for them. It's a time and labor saver for many farm women. As one homemaker put it, "Cooking has to be done some time; with a home freezer, work can be distributed to make the farm woman's life a bit easier."

The approximate lengths of time farm women have kept cooked foods frozen are: 1st lunch, 2 years; pan-fry shells and peas, 1 month; cookies, 6 months; bread 3 weeks; rolls, 2 months; cakes, 3 months; baked beans, 2 months; left-over meats, 2 months; baked ham, 3 or 4 months; (corned) beef, 3 months; soup stock, 3 months; and wheat cereal, 3 months.

FREEZING cooked foods solves many problems for busy farm homemakers, advises John Miller, Rural Home expert of nationally distributed Capper's Farmer.

"Harvest hands want Sunday dinner every night," she writes in the "Farm magazine." "If you're short of help in the kitchen, it's hard feeding them. When farm women find a day freezing you would like to go, let Dad and the youngsters cook for themselves. Every day you wish you could shorten the time spent preparing meals. Freezing took the place of the two and all get into it. From time to time when they were finally dressed and ready to go, and would appreciate a bit of help. Mrs. J. M. Wheat presided and Mrs. J. M. Wheat presided.
