FBI Crime Report For 1963 Shows Overall Increases

Particulars in the United States registered a 10 percent increase in 1963, according to the FBI's annual Uniform Crime Report. Figures showed that the sharp rise in crime was due primarily to an increase in property crimes which had an overall 11 percent rise. Larceny, 120 and Auto Theft, 12 percent, and Robbery, 10 percent, were the major contributors to the increase. The report also showed that the number of persons arrested for crime in 1963 was 1,300,000, an increase of 10 percent over 1962.

The FBI figures also show that during 1963, 1,300,000 persons were arrested for crime, an increase of 10 percent over 1962. The report also shows that the number of persons arrested for crime in 1963 was 1,300,000, an increase of 10 percent over 1962.

When considered in relation to our population increase, the FBI Director pointed out that the crime rate in 1963 was 2.5 times as high as in 1950. The National Population Council reported that the population of the United States in 1963 was 175,000,000, an increase of 10 percent over 1950.

It's the Law

It is necessary for a lawyer to "think the books" to find a case or decision which governs the particular principle involved. This is sometimes a long and arduous task, especially when the facts of the case are unusual or the law is new.

The lawyer must be able to find the law that applies to the facts of the case. This is a task that requires a lot of research and a good knowledge of the law.

It is a lot with a friend, with witness present, a valid contract upon which you can collect in court. Can you force a person to pay off a bet that he made with you?

Jim was the town's most loyal supporter of the Maryville baseball team, even though the team was having a disappointing season. Tom, a supporter of Johnstown, a rival team, offered to bet Jim a sizeable sum of money that Johnstown would beat Maryville.
