County Youth Corp Granted $185,000

Youths May Apply Now

Tyler County Judge Jeff R. Mooney announced early this week that the county will receive $185,000 grant from the Federal Government for its Neighborhood Youth Corp. With this official sanction by the government, the judge said that he is ready to start taking applications in his office immediately. Any boy or girl between the ages of 16-21 inclusive may participate in the program, but before they can become eligible, they must have a social security card.

will come out of goods and services furnished by the county, rather than actual cash expenditures.

Approximately 315 students and school dropouts are expected to enroll in the program. These students or school dropouts will work on non-profit programs only, such as county or city roads and streets, cemeteries, parks and playgrounds, churches, and other such non-profit benefits.

The Neighborhood Youth Corp is a division of President Johnson's anti-poverty program and is financed on a 90% Federal and 10% local basis. The county's share in this program is $28,000; however, according to Judge Mooney, the county's 10%

Cobb Mill Gets City Water

COMPLETION IN TWO WEEKS

Work on the water supply to the Cobb Mill area residents began early this week with the water line initially tying in at Highway 69.

According to Rois L. Brockman, City Secretary, the city will have an 8" line from Highway 69 along the Cobb Mill Road to Beech St. and down Beech Street to Highway 190. Also a 6" line will connect at Cobb Mill Road and Pecan St. and tie in at the Scott High School connection point.

The water lines are expected to be completed in approximately two weeks, weather permitting, at a cost of $30,000 to the city. No bonds were required to furnish this water, the funds came from surplus in the city treasury.

Immediately after completion of the water lines, gas mains will be put into the Cobb Mill area. These mains will be a new plastic material and manholes will have to be dug instead of placing them along the same route of the water lines. The cost of the gas mains will be approximately $12,000.

Knights Of Columbus 'Declare War' On Smutty Literature

Social Security Representatives Will Assist Here

The incoming head of 33,000 Texas Knights of Columbus is declaring war on peddlers of smut, salacious publications and pornographic magazines.

and an authority on this matter, has pointed out the problem is not Catholic nor Protestant, but a moral problem which may be too big for any one organization. But Texas Knights will put their shoulders to the wheel with other groups, or start co-operative 'decency campaigns' to wipe out this sickening phenomenon of our age.

Dr. Murphy, a radiologist who has a long record of service in state and local posts of the Knights of Columbus, declared: "We passed a resolution at our state meeting calling for a crusade against these forces of evil—and we are charged with assuming civic and moral responsibility for taking appropriate steps to protect our youth and the family life of our communities from this lecherous business."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

YOUTH CORP

This week comes the announcement that the Federal Government has granted to our county some $185,000 to be used to help put the youth of our county to work. That is an awful lot of money and I should think that we can expect a lot more out of it than teaching students a trade and getting school dropouts back on the right path, although these two objectives are certainly worthwhile.

I take this means to charge our County Judge, the County Commissioners, the Mayor and his Council, and leaders throughout each community in the county associated with the project, with the responsibility of some very visible and very worthwhile results from this massive undertaking for which they have labored so long and hard.

I must admit that I will become very cynical about the advisability of such a program in the future if we don't see these results.

It's been a while now since I just sat down and wrote about nothing in particular. Many of these articles have been of a political nature, others patriotic.

When I first got back to Woodville, one of the citizens here told me, "Well, since you are back in Woodville, it won't be long before you find out who your friends really are, especially since you are in a business. And even more especially because of the business you're in."

He was right about one thing. It didn't take me long to find out and I am here to tell you that after nearly four months back in my hometown, I can count everyone I have come in contact with as my friend.

Carol Hill

My wife, having lived in large cities all of her life, naturally had some reservations about how much she could find to do in a town as small as Woodville. She couldn't imagine what people did. Well, she found out alright, and hasn't stopped going since she got here. She too, loves Woodville, and Tyler County, and has even caught her first fish here. The other night I had a letter she had written for her parents, and one paragraph read as follows: "Well, I caught three more fish the other day." She was so matter of fact about it, that I couldn't help remarking what an old pro she had become, almost overnight. One of these days I'll let Fatty Wright tell her about some of the fish he has caught and maybe that'll reduce her swollen head. In the meantime, I'll keep on trying to catch one myself. So far, I haven't caught any!

Arts And Crafts Show To Be Held In July

The Tyler County Friends of Libraries will hold their Annual Arts and Crafts Show in the Allan Shivers Library and Museum from July 12th through 17th. Anyone may enter an exhibit. Circle this date on your calendar.

This will be a policy of the library to honor the people with artistic talent and also to make our library more beautiful. Mrs. Ruth White now has samples of her weaving in the glass case. Everyone is invited to come by, visit and look.

The friends are conducting a membership drive, with dues going to buy books for the library. Anyone selling $5.00 dues will have a book placed in their honor in the library. The dues are $1.00 per person, $5.00 per family regardless of size, $10.00 for business firms.

Wildcat Well Brought In West Of Woodville

Early last week Humble completed a rank and deep wildcat discovery in Tyler County at the Number 1 C.A. Howell, 4 1/2 miles west of Woodville. On initial tests, it flowed between 2 million and 3 million cubic feet of gas daily, plus 80 barrels of condensate per million feet.

Production is from the 13, 200-foot interval. The well was drilled to a total depth of 20, 448 feet.

Justice Of Peace Holds Two Jury Trials

Justice of the Peace, Joe H. Loggins has recently presided over two trials by jury that were brought before him.

A plea of not guilty was entered on a charge of overwidth and a six man jury found the defendant guilty, whereupon, Loggins levied a fine of $200 plus $27.50 in costs. Jurors were Max Brodnax, W.A. Parker, Jeff Ratcliff, Mrs. Howard Carter, Rae Trammel, and Woodrow Davis.

In other action, a plea of not guilty was entered to the charge of assault and battery. A six man jury reversed the plea and Loggins fined the defendant $5.00 plus $32.50 in court costs. Jurors in this action were E. M. Pitts, Sr., Kirby Pope, Mrs. Linda Richter, Emory Mahan, J. W. Knight, and Luther Owens.

Experimental Teal Season Sept. 4th Thru 12th

Texas hunters desiring to participate in the nine-day experimental teal season from September 4th to 12th may get the necessary special permit by requesting same from the Parks & Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin.

The number of permits issued will be unlimited, and must be in possession along with the regular hunting license and federal duck stamp.

Applications will be accepted during the period June 28th until August 2nd, but may not be accepted after the latter date. Since the teal normally migrates earlier than most ducks and before the regular duck season, the experimental season will be conducted to determine if teal can stand the added hunting pressure, to study the effects of the shoot on other ducks and to collect information concerning the hunter's ability to identify various waterfowl.

Woodville Independent School District Meeting

The following local people attended the meeting: J. H. Coffman and R. F. Davis of the Woodville School Tax Office and A. L. Thornton of the Tyler County Tax Office. Mr. R. F. Dick, President of the Piney Woods Chapter, presided at the meeting.

Teal Zeal Sparks '65 Test Hunt

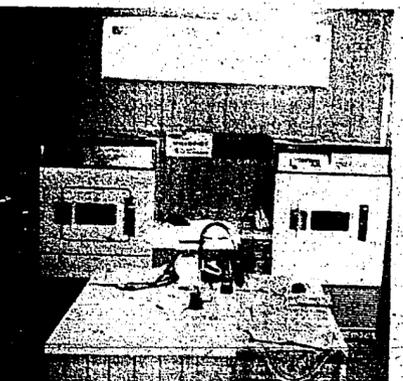

Possibility of an early duck dinner is inspiring "a pretty good response" to the first "pre-season" experimental teal season September 4th through 12th, according to Al Springs, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department staffer handling details.

The early shoot was authorized by the Parks and Wildlife Commission to evaluate the effects of an increased harvest on teal which ordinarily fly through Texas and on to southern wintering areas before the regular waterfowl season opens, usually in late October or early November.

Springs said "ten to fifteen applications are being received daily."

Qualified hunters must obtain a special "teal hunting

NEW BUSINESS IN WOODVILLE

A new and different service has come to Woodville in the past week. It is a coin-operated dry cleaning plant and has been installed here by Leroy Tolar, who has been engaged in the Laundromat business for some years now.

The new plant, located in the Laundrette on South Magnolia, features a pre-spacer for hard to clean stains, and the machines are RCA Whirlpool. The machines can handle 8 pound loads, two of them, and will clean that amount for $2.00 a load.

Tolar is holding his grand opening this weekend, and will give away a silver dollar for each load that is cleaned on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Oops, We Goofed!

In the June 3rd Edition of the Tyler County Booster, we ran a feature story on the release of quail in the County by 4-H and FFA boys. Part of the story read as follows: "This harvesting can be accomplished by either shooting the birds as game, or capturing them for the market."

According to area Game Warden Gene Samford, this bird cannot be trapped for sale on the market. It is against the law to do so!

We apologize for this misleading statement, and would like to reiterate: IT IS AGAINST THE LAW TO TRAP QUAIL AND SELL THEM.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

A total of 33 interim study committees were created during the recent legislative session. Meetings of these committees will bring most of the legislators back to Austin during the next 18 months. Studies will cover a wide area, ranging from state and local tax policy to such subjects as livestock auctions and operations of State's Anna's Justice flag.

But three of the legislators who are appointed to the interim panels will be able to draw travel expenses to and from meetings. In addition, some study panels are furnished staff funds.

Some committees will develop election laws, juvenile corrections, persons charged with crime, liquor laws, the nursing profession, problems of farmers and ranchers, development of a Pleasure Island State Park, public education, facilities for the criminally insane, and need for modernizing state facilities.

NEIGHBOR VETOES SPENDING. John Connally recently vetoed $2,500,000 of what he called "unnecessary" projects for summer employment at $1 per hour.

Projects will employ 1,866 youngsters in schools, parks, homes and hospitals in El Paso Independent School District, School District of Caldwell, Texas, Comanche County Board of Education, Taylor County Schools, Stone Wall County and San Patricio County.

Connally also approved five additional Project Head Start grants from Office of Economic Opportunity for summer programs for underprivileged preschool children. Authorized grants total $150.

Latest projects approved are in Amarillo, Hale Center, Paint Rock, Pecos, and Van Alstyne. Pecos and Van Alstyne are for water system improvements. Hale Center is for carrying a hemophylaxis teaching tick which carries the dread disease, as well as typhus fever.

Dr. S. K. Harris, acting veterinarian in charge of the Animal Inspection and Quarantine Division, also reports real progress being made in the back-tagging program for locating cattle with brucellosis.

During 1965, back tags were applied to 86,294 animals. Information by which brucellosis can be traced back to the farm where the cattle originated.

Setting at auction markets reached 22,217 head of cattle of which 888 were from slaughter establishments found 730 readers among 24,080 back-tagged animals which reached the federal, municipal and state inspected establishments.

Quarterly Tax Reports Due For Quarter

Employers in the Austin District of Internal Revenue will receive through the mail on or about June 30, pre-addressed Forms 941, "Employers Quarterly Federal Tax Return," for use in reporting income taxes withheld and social security taxes for the calendar quarter ending June 30, 1965. District Director R. L. Phinney pointed out today.

The use of these pre-addressed forms, which also carry the correct employer identification number, will insure the prompt and proper credit to taxpayer accounts when these quarterly returns are processed through the ADR system at the regional service center. Phinney said also that blank forms are available in the District and local offices for new employers who have been assigned identification numbers to ensure the number entered on the tax form is correct. Employers without identification numbers should attach application Form SS-4 to the return for a number when filing.

Coast Guard To Watch For Boat Regulation Violators

The Coast Guard has put out notice that it is going to keep a closer watch on boating regulations in the nation's waters this summer season. Roving safety patrols will be on the lookout for violators of boating safety regulations.

A statement from the Coast Guard said the patrols will visit high-density boating areas to detect excessive speed, overloading, improper loading, operations in swimming areas or posted dangerous waters, erratic operation, or failure to carry safety equipment.

A Coast Guard safety unit visited Dam B Reservoir last year, but in the statement, which applies nationwide, no specific waters were mentioned.

The statement said that flagrant or repeating offenders will be hit with heavy penalties and have little opportunity for easing them.

Up to now most of the boating safety education has been conducted by the Coast Guard Auxiliary, an organization of volunteer boatmen without enforcement powers. The auxiliary inspects motorboats, patrols regattas, saves lives and shows marine safety films.

However, the Coast Guard said it has analyzed recent accident reports and found skydiving and reckless operation are increasing as the cause of boating mishaps. And it has found that the typical offenders are not youngsters but adults between 26 and 50 years old.

LEAGUERS ASK FOR PARK FOR PONY LEAGUE GAMES

Woodville's two Pony League teams need land for a park on which a Pony League diamond can be laid out.

The league would like to have the use of a lease on land close enough in so that fans could reach it without driving too far.

In Jasper, a full youth baseball program from Pee Wee through Little League and Pony League to Babe Ruth League have adjacent fields for their games.

Anyone having land suitable is asked to phone Mrs. Book Conner at BU 3-3865 or write her at Box 715, Woodville.

If houses could talk, a 114-year old log cabin nestled in the pineywoods near Lufkin might solve one of the state's oldest mysteries.

Owned today by a Houston man who uses it as a hunting lodge, the house was built in the 1800s by John Delaney Gann, an early settler who served as Angellina County's first district clerk from 1847 to 1850. It was Gann's death that created the mystery.

His body was found one morning hanging from a dogwood tree on nearby Jack Creek. He had been shot once through the head.

The killer was never found and, in 1870, the house that probably witnessed the slaying was sold by Gann's heirs. In 1957, the Texas Historic Foundation cited it for its "architectural importance".

CARD OF THANKS

We would like this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to the many wonderful people who were so kind during the illness and death of our loved one.

We would like to thank the Odd Fellows, ministers, and everyone else who sat up and visited. Also we want to mention the hospital staff for their loyal and devoted manner in which they cared for our beloved father and husband.

We shall never forget all the kindnesses that have been shown to us by the many cards, food and words of all the prayers and most of all the prayers and words of encouragement.

The Amazing American

(The following is copied from the Kirbyville Banner, which copied it from an unnamed source):

The amazing American whips enemy nations, then gives them the shirt off his back. He yells for speed laws that will stop fast driving, but won't buy a car if it won't do a hundred.

The amazing American gets scared half to death if we vote one billion dollars for education, but he's cool as the center seed of a cucumber about spending three billion dollars a year for smoking tobacco.

He gripes about the high prices of the things he has to buy. He gripes about the low prices of the things he has to sell. He knows the line-up of every baseball team in the American and National leagues, but doesn't know half the words in the Star Spangled Banner.

An American will get mad at his wife for not running their home with the efficiency of a hotel, and mad at a hotel for not being homelike. He'll spend half a day looking for vitamin pills to make him live longer, then drive 90 miles an hour on slick pavement to make up for the time he lost.

The amazing American will complain about his wife's cooking. Yet, on a camping trip, he'll eat half-fried potatoes, burnt fish, and coffee made with gritty creek water in a rusty bucket and think it's wonderful.

The amazing American will work hard on a farm so he can move to town so he can make more money so he can move back to the farm. In his office he likes to talk about baseball, football, fishing, out at the game or on the creek bank, he talks business.

He is the only guy in the world who will pay fifty cents to park his car while he eats a twenty-five cent sandwich. An American likes to cuss his government, but he'll fight any foreigner who does. He has more food to eat than anybody and more diet fads to keep him from eating it.

His is the most civilized, most Christianized nation on earth, but he dares not deliver a payroll without an armored car.

In America we have more experts on marriage than any country in the world--and more divorces.

The amazing American allows enemies of his country to hide behind the Constitution while they seek to set fire to it. He's likely to fight them in Laos and tolerate them in Cuba.

He would not steal money from his neighbor, but he'll pay tax collectors to steal it for him. He irrigates a desert to make farmland, then puts the extra acres in a soil bank.

He spent 280 million dollars this year on tranquilizers and an equal sum on pep pills. He tosses beer cans out the car window, drops gum wrappers in the gutter, plants auto graveyards along the highways, hides a mountain or meadow with a billboard selling laxatives, then stands up at his civic club meeting and, with a lump in his throat, sings "America the Beautiful".

Yet, for all of that, the amazing American is still a pretty nice guy. Despite all that he is not... calling anybody "a real American" is still the highest compliment you can pay.

COLMESNEIL 4-H BOYS MET

The Colmesneil 4-H boys met at the home of Roger and Jackie Ogden on Thursday night, June 16. Jackie called the meeting to order and Jerry Lamb read the minutes and called the roll. Steve Pittman reported his purchase of a nice pig to care for and trail in order to enter in the South Texas State Fair in October. Good luck to Steve on this project. Rodney Bendy was also present along with their leader, Gordon Schandorff and several visitors. Plans were made to start work on record books soon. The meeting was closed with refreshments and recreation.

Mrs. Jewel Hamerly, who has visited for two weeks in New Boston with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Huston and daughters, was accompanied home by the Hustons last weekend and they went to Nederland to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Hamerly and family before returning to New Boston.

GARDENING NOTES

from Cruse's Nursery

One of the things no home gardener or lover of flowers should be without is a propagating box or bed. This can be a very simple device and any one can make. An old discarded wash tub makes a really good one. One with the bottom removed is good or if the bottom is still in good condition be sure to put enough holes in it for good drainage. Select a location with shade but where there is still plenty of light. A good spot would be under the shade of a tree. Dig a hole deep enough so that about six inches of the tub is above ground level. Put about six inches of garden soil or leaf mold in tub then add about four or five inches of coarse builders sand. The depth of soil in tub will depend on how deep tub is. You will want at least four inches of sand or enough to allow enough sand to insert cuttings in. You will also want four to six inches of space left at top of tub after soil and sand has been added, so depth of tub will depend on how much soil to add. After soil and sand has been added and smoothed off you are then ready to add your cuttings. Some plants that are easy to propagate from cuttings are coleus, sultana, lantana, geraniums, begonia and chrysanthemum. Take cuttings about four inches in length and cut on a joint at rooting end if possible. Insert cuttings about two inches in sand being sure not to crowd cuttings too much. After cuttings are inserted in sand be sure to water good with a fine mist so as to not beat cuttings down. Apply enough water to wet sand and soil the entire depth in tub then apply water as needed being sure to not get soil too wet. Usually just a fine mist applied two or three times daily will be enough. It helps to put a thin piece of clear plastic over the tub for the first few days, being sure to leave plastic open or raised a little on one side for air. After a few days this can be removed. Usually cuttings are rooted in about two weeks depending on plants the cuttings are taken from. If in doubt gently remove a cutting from sand and examine for root development. Cuttings should develop a good root system before being removed from sand. If pots are available I think it best to put cuttings in two or three inch pots for about two weeks before putting them out in yard. Use a good garden soil for a potting mixture. The above process may seem a little complicated to some but with a little experience anyone can get good results from a propagating bed and can have many more plants to add beauty to their yard.
