Uncle CHARLEY'S Epigrams

"Way some fellers dish it out, they ought to get panned. You! Same bridegroom meals are only burnt offerings. It takes a lot of pluck for a woman to keep her eyebrows in shape. Many a shining example gets a lot of glaring looks. Plant suspicious and you'll reap regrets. These movie stars who say they are happiest when in their kitchens, will be about other things too. These days a murderer as crazy if he doesn't plead insanity. REV CHARLES GRANT Hea Nidot thinks, "Ideals and raw deals are twins."

When a queen loses her heart she usually gets a diamond.
You sash, a good user, is a winner.
You sash, a feller can't go on with a wife with a hip-doll.
Many a low brow whose hair is gone, has a high brow.
It's a grave mistake to bury your talents.
Many a big stiff acts grave and is kind of dead.

Woodville Residents in Denver

In Denver for the 1966 convention of the Rotary International were Woodville residents who attended the annual convention of the Texas State Chiropractic Association, in Texas, June 9-11. Reports that the main speaker at the convention was Texas House Speaker Ben Barnes of Doleen who talked on the operation of the State government in the fields of education, attracting tourists and industry, water utilization and conservation and organization. Attending the luncheon at which he spoke were two State Senators, 15 representatives, Attorney General Waggoner Carr and Secretary of State John Hill.

Colonel Richmond Graduates

Colonel Richmond was graduated from the University of Maryland, College Park, in 1960 and the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, in 1964. Each year, division of the U.S. Army, Fort Belvoir, Ill., sends a contingent of about 100 officers and their families to the U.S. Army War College at Carlisle, Pa., for a 10-month course. Colonel Richmond was prepared for top level command and staff positions in the Armed Services and various Federal agencies.

Hillister Notes

Mrs. Mary Cook and Mrs. Meg Bessie Buggins, Mrs. M. and Mrs. S. E. Light of Houston, and Mrs. M. and Mrs. P. Arthur were here Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Hillister. Mrs. Hillister was accompanied by Mrs. M. and Mrs. S. E. Light of Houston, and Mrs. M. and Mrs. P. Arthur. Mrs. Hillister was accompanied by Mrs. M. and Mrs. S. E. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Every election year since President Truman, each Democratic President has proposed a plan to finance medical care for the aged through Social Security. Now that it has passed in the time-honored manner of the United States Congress, it is being set in stone by the administration of Lyndon B. Johnson.
