We have a copy of a preliminary study by the Fort Worth office of the Corps of Engineers of the economic base of the Sabine River basin. It shows the population projection of counties in the area, which shows that more and more people will move into the area.

The study shows the 1960 census figures and projects the anticipated population of the various counties from 1960 through 2020. The finding is that most of the counties will have tremendous population explosions with the exception of Tyler, Newton and San Jacinto.

Tyler County, for instance, had 10,686 residents in 1960. This does not include people who live here part time for recreation or second weekend homes. In 1980 the study indicates that the county's population will be an even 11,000. In the year 2000 it will be 11,200 and in 2020 it will have increased to only 11,400.

This is the smallest population increase project for any county in the area, and we hope that the Corps of Engineers have made a great error in the anticipated population. Of course, this is a preliminary study and it may be changed—in fact, it has not as yet been released for publication.

However, it is cause for all of us to take stock and determine just what the county needs to grow as fast, at least, as Newton County or Polk County. The study shows Polk County jumping from 13,861 in 1960 to 20,400 in 1980, and on to 30,000 in 2000. Its projected population in the year 2020 is set at 43,600.

Census figures of Tyler County show that it first reached its present level in 1880 with 10,877 persons counted. This was a jump from 5,825 in 1880. In the 1900 census, the county had 11,899, but in 1910 it dropped back to 10,250. In 1920 it was up to only 10,415 while in the next three census years it went up again—to 11,448 in 1930, a peak of 11,948 in 1940 and down to 11,292 in 1950. And in 1960, of course, it went back in the lower figure to 10,666.

Our own prediction for 1970 has been around 15,000—and we hope we are closer to the actual figure than the Corps of Engineers estimates.

We do have many new families in the county. Many of these still have their main place of residence in the coastal areas, and they are counted as living there when the census is taken.

It looks as if we will have to roll up our sleeves and get to work or become the smallest county in Southeast Texas. Frankly, we don't think that will happen.

Congratulations to our band on once more earning a 1st Division rating in the marching competition. This time the competition was held in Nederland Saturday. This is the 11th straight year that the Kirby High School band has been given a first division rating, and should set some kind of record.

Looking back on the 1966 football season, we all will have to admit that the games the Kirby High School Eagles lost were to pretty good teams. The Eagles lost to Jasper, and the Bulldogs wound up near the top in their Triple-A district. Hardin-Jefferson won their district title and have advanced to the regional playoffs. Buna won their district title and Dayton won theirs.

Rusk in the Eagles' own District 21-AA were held scoreless by KHS in the first half, and following the game most Rusk supporters said Kirby High was the hardest team to beat they had encountered. So—we will have to admit that the Eagles had a rough schedule of top-rated teams except for three games, which they won. The boys and coaches shouldn't feel too badly about losing to the top teams in the area. Everyone likes to win, of course, but there is nothing to be ashamed of when you play a good game against tough opposition.

Three To Attend Historical Society Convention Dec. 1

Tyler County will be represented at the 1966 Annual Meeting of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, and its private affiliate, Texas Historical Foundation, December 1, 2, 3 at Fort Worth at the Green Oaks Inn.

W. H. Risinger of Woodville said these members of the Tyler County Historical Survey Committee will attend the meeting: Morris Clemmons, Jr., J.B. Coffman, and Mrs. Ethel O. Hill. Mrs. Allyne Schorlemmer is an alternate delegate.

TSHSC President John Ben Sheppard of Odessa has announced that keynote speaker for the meeting will be Stewart I. Udall, secretary of the U.S. Department of the Interior. Udall will give an address on December 2 at the annual RAMPS Banquet. (RAMPS is the Texas State Historical Survey Committee 5-year program, Record, Appreciate, Mark, Preserve and Survey Texas history.)

Risinger said that during the meeting awards will be presented to outstanding county historical survey committees throughout Texas, new committees oriented, a 1966 work reviewed, and plans discussed for 1967's work programs.

Workshops will be conducted on the Development of History as a Tourist Attraction; Historical Markers; History Appreciation; Preservation; Archives; Written and Living History; Historic Buildings and Sites; Beautification; Methods to Acquire the Texas Public with Texas Heritage; and Cooperation with Commissioners Courts, Chambers of Commerce and civic organizations.

Other events will include a preview program of the proposed Texas State Parkway Project by the Park Administration Department of Texas Technological University; a program about San Antonio's HemisFair plans; a barbeque catered by Walter Jett, President Johnson's favorite caterer; and historical and scenic tours through Fort Worth, Weatherford and Fort Richardson at Jacksboro.

This Sign Means What It Says

Motorists may not pay a great deal of attention to the "Watch For Deer" signs along some East Texas highways until they have a collision with a deer. The signs are put up with motorists that deer may cross the highway in front of their autos, and that there has been an average of about one car-deer collision per day. Usually when a car hits a deer, there is considerable damage to the car. So far this year, there have been 10 serious accidents caused by deer but it could happen—so drivers are warned to look what the signs say—watch for deer. (See story at right).

Deer, Autos Collide On County Roads

Several motorists, an average of about one a day, have found that the signs erected by the highway department reading "Watch For Deer" were put up as a safety warning.

Deer have been hit by cars on nearly every main road in the county so far this season. Many times, there is no damage to the car but often it can amount to several hundred dollars.

One car which hit a deer this past weekend ended up in the garage with about $700 damage to the front end.

During the hunting season, deer often hit low during the daytime and move about at night. Many of them cross the highways, often at the same time a car is coming along. At night they seem to become confused by the car's headlights and may dart right in front of the car before the driver even sees the deer.

However, deer crossing highways is not confined to nighttime. Sunday one driver narrowly missed a deer on a Farm Road as it ran across in front of his car. Many times the deer is started running by hunters with dogs. Motorists on highways through the area should keep a sharp lookout for deer beside the road and slow if possible. Deer are extremely fleet of foot, as any deer hunter will confirm, and can run into the front of a car or even into the side of one.

Of course, deer often run onto the road so fast that a driver has little chance to miss it. He will have a better chance if he is not driving too fast. As the highway signs say, watch for deer. Running over a deer with a car is sometimes an expensive way to lose a buck. And it can be dangerous—it could cause a serious accident.

TALE OF THE 3 HUNTERS

When a hunter stalks deer around here, he may come back with a 11-point buck—or he may come back with something else, as the pictures below show.

This Hunter Got a Buck . . .

David Stowers, 14-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tolbert of Doucette, poses with the 11 point buck he killed Saturday morning northwest of Woodville. The fine looking buck had a good set of antlers, and is one of the largest killed so far in the area. David was using a shotgun loaded with buckshot and fired three times before finally bringing the buck down. He brought it to the used car lot operated by his uncle, Doug Tolbert, where the picture was made.

This One A Rattlesnake . . .

If deer hunters have been tramping through the woods with the notion that the big rattlers are in hibernation, this picture should dispel that notion in a hurry. W. H. Risinger killed this six foot specimen Saturday just before dusk on Horsepen Creek west of Woodville. He ran across it while deer hunting and shot it through the head. The snake had 18 rattles and buttons, and in the picture really looks longer than six feet, which is Mr. Risinger's height. Until cold weather arrives, hunters should watch for the big rattlers, which come out on warm days.

And This One a Bobcat

Here's another deer hunter who came back to town with an unexpected trophy—a 51 inch female bobcat. Paul Thomas killed the varmint west of Woodville while deer hunting this week. He shot it with a 30-30 rifle. Bobcats are found throughout the big thicket area and are not too dangerous to humans unless cornered or, in the case of a female, unless she has young ones close by.

INDIAN RESERVATION OPEN WEEKENDS; TO CLOSE FOR SEASON DECEMBER 18

In the Spring of 1965, the only Indian Reservation in Texas opened a picturesque and modern building containing a Museum, Arts and Crafts Shop, and Dining Room. Authentic Indian Dance Square was added where Tribal Dancers perform each week-end. Also Big Thicket Tours are being conducted by trained Indian guides. To date in 1966 the project has had 60,000 visitors. The story behind this move by the Indian people is as interesting as their history and culture.

As far back as 1957 when a new Indian Agent was appointed it was realized that the Indian people needed to have an aggressive Tribal Council to share the administrative load and work toward making the Reservation self-sufficient.

It was decided by the Tribe, that since so many people were interested in the past culture of the Indians, the best way to create jobs and produce the needed revenue was to develop the Tourist Business. Some of the other members of the Tribe objected at first as they felt the public would invade their privacy and interrupt community life, however this

GSU To Sponsor One Half Of Kaye Show-November 30

One-half hour of the award-winning Danny Kaye Show will be featured in this area on Wednesday night, November 30, under the sponsorship of Gulf States Utilities Company according to Wyatt Field, local GSU superintendent.

The network television show, entering its fifth season, will be shown over Channel 4 at 9 p.m. The local GSU official said his company is sponsoring one-half hour of the show once a month through its national association with the Electric Companies Advertising Program.

As in its past three seasons, the show is continuing to highlight the amazing versatility of its international star, Danny Kaye. The fast-paced hour will spotlight Kaye as singer, dancer and all-around master comedian whose artistry ranges from waltz to slapstick to drill satire to the kind of touching humor that makes audiences weep.

Vocational Nursing Training To Begin At County Hospital

It is suggested that parents urge their bicycle riders to be present. The VFW has been successful in presenting this program in many schools of Houston and surrounding communities according to vice-commander of District 4, P. H. Burke.

THANKSGIVING 1966

In many homes across the nation today, there's a vacant seat at the dinner table. It seems like yesterday, when the high chair was put up in the attic, and he sat down at the table for the first time.

And as George Washington proposed in his Thanksgiving Day proclamation in 1789, thanks for contributions of the world may become servants and not masters of the people.

Should Texans Go Hunting?

Deer hunters are bringing home trophies, big bucks, and from the areas where deer populations are being managed.

We would have nothing, and quite probably lose much wildlife if we reduced the hunting population.

To exist, specific species must have specific habitat. To allow a large population to deplete the food supply in that habitat could only result in the starvation of all.

Service Office To Remain Open All Day December 5-9

The Tyler County Service Office will be open December 5 through December 9 all day so that veterans and dependents may fill out the income questionnaires that will be returned along with the December checks.

Some will receive cards that have not received them before, Pitts said. Bring the envelopes sent by Veterans Administration as these cards will be returned to different offices.

Texas Ebony Tree Largest In Nation

The big Texas ebony tree on the Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge is the largest of its kind in the nation, according to the Texas Forest Service, a part of the Texas A&M University system.

The Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge is famous for the many species of birds found there. Thousands of bird-lovers make the trip to the refuge in Hidalgo county in south Texas each year.

Santa Paula, Calif. Chronicle: "Constant efforts have to be made to protect freedom of the press and people. This year a milestone was reached in the passage by Congress, and the President's signing, of the Federal open records law."

The tree is easily reached by a good all-weather road on the east side of the refuge, near the banks of the Rio Grande. Refuge officials stated that no living person can tell the age of the tree.

The price of various feed grains usually determines which is best to use in a fattening ration for feedlot cattle.

Corn, sorghum, and milo are the most common feed grains used in feedlot rations. The price of these grains varies from $1.00 to $1.50 per bushel.

When the price of corn is high, sorghum and milo are more economical. When the price of sorghum and milo is high, corn is more economical.

The price of feed grains also determines the type of feed supplement that should be used. If the price of feed grains is high, a high concentration of feed supplement is more economical. If the price of feed grains is low, a low concentration of feed supplement is more economical.

There are tips on starting lawns on feed, based on Texas A&M University research. County Agricultural Agent Clinton R. Currie.

When you have a crop of feed grains, you should start in spring on a 20 percent non-nitrogenous fertilizer. Increase the rate to 15 to 20 percent and increase the nitrogen to 10 percent. This will give you a mixture of 40 percent non-nitrogenous fertilizer, 20 percent nitrogenous fertilizer, and 40 percent phosphate.

There's More To The Game Than Winning

(Editor's Note: The following article is from the first draft of a book being written by a Livingston man, Bill Bailey, and is taken from the Folk County Enterprise. After reading this, sports fans will realize that in the long run there is no such thing as a losing season—the dedicated football player gains much more than a few lost ball games can take away from him.)

Fall is in the air. The crisp brightness of the sun gives the days a tinge of frosty warmth. The days ahead are the cheeks with a hint of winter. This is the time for color. The leaves in all forest take on the most beautiful shades of red and yellow and brown. New autumn clothes are colorful in all patterns, checks, plaids and stripes. And football camps bring their color to the field of the fall.

Nothing is quite like the football game as a still and starting night. The stadium, standing bright and empty, all week, begins to hum with the excitement of the game. The players are lined up, ready to put their skills and energy to work. The hours of practice are about to come in mighty handy.

After the game is over the excitement is now a memory. They'll remember a few outstanding plays, a few outstanding players, a few outstanding moments. A student player will remember something to talk about for a while. The most interesting newspaper stories are about the night before. The game was a success. The night before, the game was a success. The night before, the game was a success.

meeting pignskin is the sign for the crowd to turn its cheers into roars. The ball sails high and seems to hang suspended while the halfbacks wait an eternity for it to come down. It does, and the batter-fliers are suddenly gone. There is a task at hand, a job must be done. Each player is prepared and ready to put his skills and energy to work. His long hours of practice are about to come in mighty handy.

Rusk Advances To Regional By Defeating Buna

The Rusk Eagles advanced to the state regional playoffs Saturday night by defeating the Buna Cougars 18 to 13 at Jasper.

Rusk will meet Hardin-Jefferson of District 23-AA. They won over the Dayton Broncos on penaltions, 2 to 1, after winding up in an 8-8 tie on the scoreboard.

The game will be played Saturday night at 8 p.m. in Lufkin. The game was seen by the line and six players later Ray Penn plunged through from one yard out. The attempted conversion was wide to the left as 59 seconds showed on the clock.

The Eagles scored in the second quarter on a 27 yard pass from the quarterback to Johnnie Emerson. The scoring drive covered 48 yards and 11:15 to go in the period. The PAT was blocked.

Buna took the second half opening kickoff and moved 50 yards in 12 plays for the Cougars' 25-yard stripe. The Cougars quarterback tossed a 25 yarder to Van Currie for the touchdown. PAT was good by Touchdown.

Rusk, however, was not thorough for the night as it moved the pignskin to the Cougars' 41-yard line. Then, he will not feel he has given up anything when, after a hard game, a strange hand pat him roughly on the shoulder and an unfamiliar voice says, "Good game, fellow, good game!"

Walter Earl Hyde, student at Lamar Tech in Beaumont and son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hyde of Woodville, killed this 8-point buck Saturday morning, November 12, the opening day of the deer season in Tyler county.
