TOP OF THE MORNING

The following "Rules for Newspaper Writers" recently appeared in the bulletin of the Minnesota Newspaper Association:

1. Don't use no double negative.
2. Make each pronoun agree with their antecedent.
3. Join clauses good, like a conjunction should.
4. About them sentence fragments.
5. When dangling, watch your participles.
6. Verbs has to agree with their subjects.
7. Just between you and I, case is important too.
8. Don't write run-on sentences they are hard to read.
9. Don't use commas, which aren't necessary.
10. Try to not ever split infinitives.
11. Its important to use your apostrophe's correctly.
12. Proofread your writing to see if you any words out.
13. Correct spelling is essential.

As the above indicates, newspaper writers usually are guilty of slaughter on the King's grammar. Writing in a great rush is not conducive to the use of proper grammar, and often the proofreaders gloss over such mistakes. But it is remarkable how they stand out after you print the paper.

The annual road blocks for the March of Dimes drive will be manned by young people Saturday, and you are asked to stop and contribute to this worthy cause.

And the Mothers March will be held over the weekend in the county. In Woodville, the march will be from about 6 p.m. until 8 (or it is finished) and you can help the volunteer mothers by leaving your porch light on.

C Of C To Vote On By-Laws

Tickets to the annual membership banquet of the Woodville Chamber of Commerce February 3 are available at the chamber of commerce office in Dogwood Motor Hotel, at the desk in the hotel, at Anderson's Plumbing and Heating, or from any director. They are $3.50 per plate, and all persons are urged to get their ticket in advance. Mrs. Margie Landers, office secretary said.

Speaker at the banquet is Luman W. Holman, well-known Jacksonville business man and East Texas civic and church leader. He is a forceful and entertaining speaker, chamber officials point out, and the local chamber of commerce is fortunate to be able to have him speak here.

The chamber of commerce members will be asked to vote to approve a new set of by-laws, which change the name to Tyler County Chamber of Commerce. The new by-laws are printed below so that members may study them and be prepared to act on them February 3.

Mrs. Landers will also retire as office secretary in order to devote her time in business with her husband, Noel Landers, who has taken over management of Anderson's Plumbing and Heating here. A new secretary will be announced for the chamber by M. F. Alford, the new president, who succeeds George E. Tubbs.

The complete text of the new by-laws are:

Burglars Enter Chester Bank

Burglars try to dig through wall of vault.

Burglars broke into the Chester State Bank Wednesday night of last week, worked hard to get into the vault but failed, and left with empty hands except for three silver certificates and an old 45 calibre revolver.

Sheriff Grady Ray said Tuesday that law enforcement officers had not come up with any clue to the identity of the burglars.

The burglars gained entrance through a back window. They knocked the knob off the vault door, took out one hinge, and decided they weren't going to gain entrance through the door. They moved around to the side of the vault and unsuccessfully tried to gain entrance by chiseling a hole through the bricks, removing three layers of bricks and one brick out of the fourth layer. They evidently ran out of time, were scared away or gave up on gaining entrance.

The burglars had ransacked the tellers section and the desk of the bank's vice president and cashier, George C. Enloe. The tellers section was left in disarray with drawers pulled out and dropped on the floor. Papers were pulled from Mr. Enloe's desk and left in a pile on top of the desk.

The burglary was investigated by Sheriff Grady Ray and Deputy Richard Gole of Woodville, Texas Rangers Dub Clark of San Augustine and Everett Smith of Jasper, Woodville Assistant Chief of Police Ed Summerall, and Carlton Cook, fingerprint expert with the Jasper County sheriff's office.

One Hurt In Three-Car Wreck

A three car accident at Magnolia and Bluff streets Monday about 7:15 resulted in one driver being taken to Tyler County Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises.

She was Mrs. Louis Reid, whose car and a pickup truck collided and hit a third car, which was damaged. Mrs. Reid was taken to the hospital and later released.

OES Chapter Sets Meeting For Initiation

The Woodville chapter of Order of Eastern Star will have a called meeting Monday night for the purpose of initiating a new member, according to Mrs. Lettie Robinson, worthy matron.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m., and all members are urged to be present.

Voters Must Register By Next Tuesday

Tuesday is the final day for qualified persons to register to vote in any elections which may come up in 1967.

According to a ruling by Attorney General Crawford C. Martin, persons over 60 who live in towns under 10,000 population or in rural areas are not required to register to vote in 1967.

But for others who want to be able to cast a ballot in any bond, city or school district, or any special election which may be called, Tuesday is the final day to get a registration slip.

A. L. (Pete) Thornton, tax assessor-collector, urged those who have not registered to do so immediately and avoid a last-minute rush on his office.

Crawford Rules On Registration

Attorney General Crawford C. Martin said today that persons over 60 years old who live in a city of less than 10,000 inhabitants, or in a rural area in any county except Bexar County, will not have to register in order to vote in election held during the year 1967, regardless of the outcome of the pending lawsuit on the constitutional amendment, expressly fixes lawsuit on the constitutional amendment which would require all voters to register. Martin said that House Joint Resolution No. 10, which proposed the constitutional amendment, expressly fixes the effective date of the amendment as February 1, 1968, and consequently it does not apply to elections held before that date.

A Travis County district court ruled last week that the amendment, which appeared on the ballot as Amendment No. 7 at the general election last November, was not validly adopted because the proposition on the ballot did not give notice of the full contents of the amendment. The State is appealing from this decision.

In Bexar County, all voters must register, under an order of the commissioner's court entered last June. The order was adopted pursuant to a provision in the voter registration law which authorizes the commissioner's court in a county of more than 500,000 inhabitants to require all voters to register, regardless of age or place of residence. Bexar County is the only county in which the commissioner's court has exercised this authority.

Johnnie Hickman Named Auditor By Judge Coe

District Judge H. A. Coe Monday named Johnnie Hickman to serve as auditor for Tyler County for a two year term beginning February 1. His salary was set at $6750 annually.

In his order appointing Mr.

Hickman, Judge Coe noted that the Tyler County commissioners court had notified him that county valuations have passed the $15 million mark and under state law an auditor for the county is mandatory. The law also stipulates that his salary shall be the same as that paid the County tax assessor-collector.

Judge Coe said that he had tried to pick the best qualified person for the position from among the applicants, and that he had taken the time to personally interview those meeting the qualifications for the office.

An auditor must have several years bookkeeping experience as well as the education necessary to qualify him for the office.

Mr. Hickman is a native of Woodville and a graduate of

March Of Dimes Drive To End With Mothers March

The 1967 March of Dimes will be completed in Tyler County this weekend with the annual roadblock Saturday and the Mothers March over the weekend.

The road blocks will be set up Saturday on the major streets in Woodville. They are under the direction of the teen co-chairmen, Linda Poindecker and Delbie Mahan, and will be manned by members of the Industrial Cooperative Training class at Kirby High School.

The Mothers March in Tyler County's rural areas will be made over the weekend. In Woodville, the march will be held Monday night from 6 to 8 p.m., according to the chairman, Mrs. Ann Vardeman.

Persons are asked to turn on their porch lights for the Mothers March that night. Saturday night a teen-age dance was held at Dogwood Motor Hotel with all proceeds going to the March of Dimes. The dance was sponsored and the music furnished by the Soul Banders headed by Mike Roberts.

The March of Dimes is held each year to help fight birth defects. Besides assisting local parents with crippled children, the March of Dimes fund helps by supporting a growing nationwide network of 77 birth defects centers for diagnosis and treatment, aids in a scientific research program aimed at finding and methods of preventing birth defects, a professional education program to distribute authoritative information about prenatal care and birth defects treatment.

Nationwide, a million mothers will participate in the annual Mothers March, which is headed by actress Jane Wyatt. Mothers March will be held in all Tyler County communities. Mrs. Vardeman said, with many of them being conducted over the weekend when most people will be at home and volunteers will be able to devote the necessary time to it.

Suggestion Box

I think it would be a good idea to have death notices posted in some business in town so that people may just drive by and see who has died and who is being buried. Many people don't know that someone has died whom they know until they have been buried. If some business could have just a notice posted in the window, then people could just go by and know instantly. These notices could be put up complimentary by some organization or by the business. People won't go by the funeral home to see because they may not be sure, but if they could just go by some business, they could check without any trouble. This has been done in other towns and does work.

What's buggin' you, son, about the progress of Woodville and Tyler County?

Well, the Booster is offering you a chance to get it off your chest and in print. Maybe your idea is just the suggestion that will get some problem solved, or get a movement started to improve the county's business, civic or recreational activities.

Suggestions about improvement of county, city or school administration is not barred as long as the problem is presented objectively without involving personalities.
