CHAMBER HEARS DISCUSSIONS ON SIGNS, LIBRARY

A discussion on starting a program of erecting highway signs directing traffic through Tyler County to Sam Rayburn Lake, Dam B and Lake Texas was one of the principal topics at the monthly meeting of the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce at the Dogwood Motor Hotel Monday night.

Another discussion centered around the county's support of the Allan Silvers Library, and members voted to write a letter to the commissioners court asking that it give as much consideration as possible to continuation of its financial support.

Many suggestions were made by members present on buying or building the highway signs. On a motion by W. H. Ristinger seconded by Mrs. Florence Humphreys, President M. F. Alford will appoint a committee to work on a program to erect signs of the various highways directing traffic to the lakes. It was amended on a motion by Leroy Davis that funds available be spent on these signs rather than on the Welcome to Woodville signs, and Tom McGuire was named to talk to the Tyler County Dogwood Association to ascertain if that group will maintain the Welcome to Woodville signs.

Other matters brought up included the financial report for March, a motion to donate $10 to the East Texas Chamber of Commerce toward the Legislative Breakfast, and the payment of the dues to the East Texas group. Members also voted to buy a half page ad in the Miss Tyler County program for the pageant on June 17.

Gerald Maynard, chairman of the land utilization committee, brought a report on minerals, rock and ore deposits found in the county and how they might benefit the county. President Alford reported that eight new members have joined since the last list was published, and one member re-instated. They are H. L. Rainey, Halston Dairy Bar, Charles W. Smith, Timberlake Development Co., Jimmy Freeman, Aubrey Ralford, Vance Adams, Willis Motel, and Glo M Beauty Salon.

RITEs ARE HELD FOR EZRA EAVES, BUSINESSMAN AND FORMER MAYOR

Funeral services for Ezra Eaves, 72, longtime Woodville businessman and former mayor, were held at 3:00 p.m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church of Woodville, Dr. Billy E. Simmons of Carthage, former pastor of the Woodville church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Weldon Langley, chaplain of the Southeast Texas Baptist Hospital in Beaumont, and C. A. Bevil of Woodville. Burial was in Magnolia cemetery under direction of Edwards Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Jim Mahan, John Hickman, Harold Ogden, Thomas Best, Jeff Giffin, Robert McCombs, and K. A. Jernican, all of Woodville and John D. Browning of Houston.

Mr. Eaves died in Tyler County Hospital at 5:20 p.m. Friday after an illness of three weeks. He was a native of Hillister. He was employed at the Long-Bell Lumber Company mill at Doucette for several years. He moved to Woodville in 1919, and was in business here until 1947 when he closed his store to devote his time to his farm in the Dies community. Later he operated a cafe for several years while continuing to operate his farm.

He served as justice of the peace of precinct one for many years, when he first moved to Woodville. He served four years as mayor of Woodville in the 1890s and again served as mayor from 1954 to 1960.

Origins of Names In County Named By University

Residents of Tyler County were asked this week to help solve the mystery of the origins of several geographical names found on county maps.

The information is needed for a dictionary of Texas place names, including Tyler and the other 251 counties, to be published soon by the East Texas State University press.

Dr. Fred Tarpier, professor of English at the university, submits his final manuscript, he is awaiting to county residents for assistance in contributing information about several names with unexplained origins.

DAM B NEWSNOTES

By Mrs. G. B. Bice

Fairview Baptist Church is to have a revival beginning May 14 and continuing through May 21. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Alvin Tomlinson of Terrell Park Baptist Church will be the choir soloist and E. V. Mills will direct the song services.

Our pastor, Rev. B. B. Reed and all Fairview people send each of you a special invitation to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster May, add ways in Beaumont last weekend on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Finley of Beaumont are spending several days of vacation at their cabin on Oden Bluff. They are doing some gardening and working on a tool room at the place.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smart sold their home on Foster Hill at week end and are out to find a place in the Fairview Community. Sure hope they find one.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fortoris had visitors over the weekend near father, Joe Harper of Kirbyville, the T. R. Leinhardt of Nederland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newman of Kirbyville and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edgar of Sulphur, Louisiana.

Mrs. Maggie Lloyd visited her brother, Perry Move and Mrs. Move Sunday afternoon at Sheffield ferry and brought her brother, adde home with her for a few days.

We were very glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rawls in church Sunday night. This good couple have been in and out of the hospital too much lately for comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Davis and family were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barlow, most of last week. Mr. Davis is on vacation and the usually helps Mr. Barlow with his crop when on vacation which is highly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lupton and baby girl are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barlow, most of last week. Mr. Davis is on vacation and the usually helps Mr. Barlow with his crop when on vacation which is highly appreciated.
