Booster Bits

By WILEY POSTON

Old friend, Bob Belt dropped in the office to tell us about the Campfire Girls fund drive getting underway. We sincerely hope everyone will contribute generously to this worthy cause. Bob also brought up the fact that Scouting in this area was second to none and this was encouraging news too. We whoop and holler about juvenile delinquency and yet we often pass up an opportunity to do something about it by not supporting programs that will help mold our youngsters into solid citizens for tomorrow. The responsibility of our young people rest with the parents, schools, churches, law enforcement officials and a morally right community that will stand behind projects that will guide our children in the way they should be guided. You can do your part by contributing to the Campfire Girls fund raising drive that is underway.

Booster Bits is very alarmed at the great number of Tyler County folks that are going out of town to do their Christmas shopping. There are only TWO reasons for this: Number one is that Tyler County folks are finding the "Christmas glitter" more enticing in other towns, or they have lost their sense of pride toward building a greater Tyler County. Second reason: Tyler County merchants are not fighting to keep the business at home by decorating, advertising, and telling the World that we have everything anyone else has and the folks can save money by spending their money here. . . money that they will get a part of back in the long run.

People we saw department: Dick Roberts and personnel of Dogwood Motor Hotel getting mighty excited about the Santa Claus breakfast slated for December 16. Cuz Ernest Pedigo with his usual cheerful greeting. Whitton Fufinture's Mr. and Mrs. Whitton happy; that E. J. is feeling some better. Globe-Mann Insurance's Tom McGuire with a great big huddy on his way to the Post Office. Ole Pal Burl Carter looking forward to the country's biggest singing convention to be held in Woodville come January '68. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Harris getting all set up in their new State Farm Insurance office at 106 West Holly. These are nice people. H. H. Hannah from Spurger dropping in Booster office. Booster's Sharon Wright busy as a bee building ads and writing news all at the same time. Harold Davis from Vanhook Lakes paying the Booster a visit. And last but not least, David Mann of Mann's Furniture all covered up at his desk with advertising matter that will make Christmas shopping mighty easy for a lot of folks.

DOGWOOD FESTIVAL DIRECTORS SET DATES FOR 1968 ACTIVITIES

The Tyler County Dogwood Festival will be held on the last Saturday in March, 1968 as in previous years with the exception that the weekend before will be given over to the new Western Days activities, according to Jostiah Wheat, executive director. In 1969 the programs will be one week later in the spring with the coronation of the queen and attendant activities the first week in April. These plans were made officially by the permanent directors of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival in a meeting this past weekend. J. B. Coffman was elected to this body to succeed the late Lee M. Feagin. The operating directors will

Campfire District Fund Campaign Goal Set At $1200

Efforts are being made to raise funds to support the newly organized Dogwood District of Campfire Girls.

Bob Belt, district chairman, said that there are approximately 90 girls and 12 adults from the Woodville area enrolled in the program. The goal for this year's finance drive is $1200, which will go to the Beaumont Council to offset some of their expenses in helping organize and train leaders for the local district.

Jostiah Wheat is finance chairman for the drive and anyone who is not contacted may help in the drive by sending their donation to him. Checks should be made out to Dogwood District Campfire Girls. Mr. Belt said that more adult leaders are needed. In addition to the six group leaders, now serving, he said leaders are needed for sixth grade, fourth grade and third grade groups.

Orangefield, co-champions of District 25-A, placed seven men on the all district team. West Hardin has six and Barbers Hill, co-champion of the district, placed five men. Tarkington, Lumberton and Hardin each placed one man on the all-district team.

Felony Cases On Docket Monday

A number of ordinary felony cases are on the docket of District Court beginning Monday, December 11.

EASTEX EXPANSION TO CREATE NEW JOBS IN SOUTHEAST TEXAS AREA

Completion of a $41-million expansion program by Eastex Incorporated at the company's Evadale mill will create 200 new jobs and will generate "millions of dollars in added payroll which will be spent in the area," the Silsbee-Kidwain Club was told Wednesday.

Eastex Secretary-Treasurer Clyde E. Cole spoke to Kidwain Club members during their meeting in the Bluebonnet Cafe.

In an "Eastex Community Report," illustrated by color slides of Eastex operations, Cole said the expansion program nearing completion "is, in reality, a complete new mill -- another $41 million investment, and another 33 percent increase in capacity."

Cole said Eastex' new facilities, when they go into operation in December, will boost production of paper to 1200 tons per day. "For the first time," he said, "Eastex will offer what we call 'fine paper' for printing and business use."

The Eastex executive noted that "the latest pollution abatement devices available to our industry are as much a part of the new facility as the machinery required to produce paper. We have been working with experts for over two years to utilize everything known to us in this area, and the equipment will be in operation by the end of this year."

The new Eastex facility contributes to reduction of air pollution in the entire East Texas area, Cole noted, because equipment in its process sawdust purchased from East Texas and Western Louisiana mills heretofore burned. He noted that Eastex will spend approximately $2 million annually to purchase sawdust. Tracing the growth of Eastex, Cole said "initially, the mill provided jobs for 350 people who put $2 million in new payroll into circulation."

The company now employs 1000 persons, he said, and purchases wood, chemicals and many other supplies locally. "We are proud of the East Texas area, and we are proud to be citizens here," Cole said. "Our growth has been possible because of the many people in the area who work for us, buy our products and otherwise have a part in our development. We are grateful to this area and all the communities in it."

Court will convene at 9 a.m. Cases on the docket are: The State of Texas vs. Charles Stute, burglary; The State of Texas vs. Charles Allen Pool, forgery and passing; The State of Texas vs. K. C. Glider, D. W. L. second offense; The State of Texas vs. D. W. Young, worthless checks; The State of Texas vs. Phillip Gordon, Assault with intent to murder; The State of Texas vs. Roy Lynn Williams, D. W. L. second offense; The State of Texas vs. Richard B. Hatton, forgery.

Last week one civil suit was heard, taking up most of the week. It was the case of Nola White vs. George Kirkpatrick and the jury found in favor of the defendant.

This week's court was short. While several suits were set on the docket, settlements and continuances held the session to one day.

Civil cases beginning Tuesday, December 26, will end this session of the December term.

"World's Richest Bass Tournament Planned By DETDA

Sam Rayburn Reservoir will be the site for the "World's Richest Bass Tournament" next spring following formal sponsorship of the event by directors of the Deep East Texas Development Association in Newton, Friday. In other business during the busy meeting, the leaders from the eight-county area heard a report from Neal Pickett of the Deep East Texas Economic Development District and appointment of two committees for the coming year by Association president Troy Mitchell of Kirbyville.

First Annual Texas Open Invitational Bass Fishing Tournament featuring cash awards of $10,000 to the top bass fishermen of the nation, will be held on Sam Rayburn Reservoir in late March or early April, directors learned from tournament chairman Sam Malone of San Augustine. To secure the "world's biggest" in tournaments the DETDA directors agreed to underwrite the venture for $5,000 with the proceeds to Cont. on Page 8

Woodville merchants this week are urging Tyler Countians to complete their Christmas shopping early and at home.

Lasting hundreds of bargains in all areas of gift-giving from personal items to articles for the home, local merchants are calling to the attention of local residents the fact that they can find a wide selection of merchandise at prices as low as even lower than they will find in the larger cities.

The Christmas shopping season has been here for several weeks, and local merchants are still full with a large number of buyers purchasing gift items before the Thanksgiving holidays.

Local stores are well-stocked and most merchants say a good supply of gifts will be available right up to Christmas. However, for the best selections they urge people to buy now and avoid the last-minute rush and the risk of being unable to find just what they are looking for in certain gifts.

Pretty weather for the final 15 days available to shop before Christmas will make this one of the best Christmas seasons in several years. The early shoppers have been buying larger gifts for the home and better quality merchandise for personal gifts.

"Shop at home first," local merchants urge. "Stores here have fine quality name brands and stand behind everything they sell."

Many of the local merchants have ads in this issue with a number of gift suggestions and call attention to the fact that these are only a small part of the hundreds of items in stock here.

Much Enthusiasm Shown At Chamber Of Commerce Meet

The Tyler County Chamber of Commerce met at the Dogwood Motor Hotel for the regular December meeting. About 30 members were present and many items of importance were discussed. President Major Alford informed the group that meetings were being set up by the road planning committee with interested parties from Jasper to discuss more direct roads to Bayburn. Also discussed was future plans for a Tyler County basketball tournament.

Major Alford reported that about eight members contacted had increased their dues with an average of about 104 percent increase. Plans for publicizing Woodville during the coming Hemlock next year were discussed.

A highlight of the meeting was concerning the singing convention to be held in Woodville January 26-27. Between 5,000 to 7,000 people are expected here for this and will give Woodville a lot of publicity since it is being advertised in 28 States and Canada.

The board of directors and committee chairman were meeting Tuesday just as the Booster was going to press so a report on these meetings will be forthcoming.

THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH (PART II)

Continuing our study of the N. T. Church we come to a vital question, "IS THE CHURCH AND KINGDOM DIFFERENT?" Some have a false concept of the Kingdom. They teach an earthly kingdom was expected, the Jews rejected Christ, as their Messiah, Christ witheld the kingdom and established the church as a substitute. Their teach the kingdom is yet to come! This false concept has produced the theory of premillennialism (man's life - at Christ's coming, He will establish an earthly kingdom and reign 1000 years).

The absorption of the glycerine can be facilitated by crushing the end of the more woody stems before placing them in the solution.
