days we have an opportunity to get better acquainted with some of the fine youngfolks of the area. It is remarkable how concerned these teen-agers ar 🖖 about Tyler County and what it is and isn't doing for the youth. One thing that many of them have talked with me about is the need for a Tyler County Youth Center. We are always anxious to talk about the teenage problems yet slow to do anything about them. We aren't be-littleing the youth programs of our churches and feel they are doing a marvelous job, vet a vouth center. properly supervised, can offer a lot of wholesome recreation to the youth of this area. You might give this a thought or or two, and any of you teenagers that would like to voice your opinion, just write ole . Booster Bits a letter and we'll sure run it for you.

Speaking of our youths of Ty-ler County, we sure enjoyed our little interview on KVLL with Jeanette McClure, our present Dogwood queen, reign-

RESOLUTION BY NEW BETHEL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Executive Board of the New Bethel Baptist Association composed of the 32 cooperating Southern Baptist Churches in Tyler County in monthly session meeting at Chester Baptist Church March 19, 1968 unanimously passed the following resolution: "Whereas the people of Texas will be faced with the May 4 referendum proposal on part-mutuel betting and impor by the drink, be it resolved that we go on record as opposing both issues and that we urge all voters to go to the polisi These proposals should disturb every citizen of Texas because we know that such activities which feed upon legalized gambling provide the greatest source of revenue, and therefore, the greatest source of power for the forces of organized crime. We further know that where legalized gambling, especially pari-mutiel gambling, goes, organized crime most surely follows. As honest and earnest citizens we cannot stand by and see the future of our state underminded, and we wish to make this abundantly clear to those who make our laws." NEW BETHEL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION Charles Justis, Moderator Meredith Hair, Clerk

My fishing partner was Jack Tanzer, an art dealer by profession. bass angler by choice. Jack is the first to admit that a creel full of bass brings him as much satisfaction as uncovering a nasterplece at an art auction. It was Jack's idea to journey to he large TVA impoundment where five and six-pound smallmouths are landed regularly each season.

The flight from Kennedy airport took us into weather that northern states wouldn't enjoy for another month. Temperatures.

limbed into the 60s at mid-day, warming the chilled waters and revitalizing fish that spent a semi-dormant winter .It was Jack's theory that spring appetites add fight to an already game fish. "If you think they battle in July," he said, "wait until one hits your line today." We wasted no time in putting his I favored a baitcasting outfit choosing the Ambassadeur 50000 reel with 15-pound Bonnyl monofilament, and a Conolon 2529 rod hat has enough backbone to:

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF HARDIN AND TYLER COUNTIES ...

You Should RE-ELECT JUDGE H. A. COE Of Hardin County, To Preside Over Your District Court.

He is experienced for the job: 63 years of age, 17 years experience in courts as practicing attorney. beiore becoming District Judge: 16 additional years experience serving as District Judge - 33 years legal experience. Dignified and with a judicial temperament.

He is Dependable, Fair and Impartial: is doing a good job as our Judge; Many jury and non-jury cases tried; has been, in the past, threatened with personal violence and had personal and political pressure exerted upon him but his decisions in court were not influenced or affected in the least by such tactics. Already proven to be Fair, Impartial and Honest under any kind of pressure.

He is mature, stable and qualified by experience to preside over the many responsibilities of the office of District Judge. He has the courage to follow his path of office and the Law in making decisions on highly controversial issues. He will rule on the Issue of Law before the court instead of the man

Independent of and not obligated to any person or persons, nor to any political pressure groups; if you have a case in court you can be sure his decisions on the issues in the case will be decided on the facts proven during the trial and the Laws controlling the case, as is required by our Law.

He will continue to preserve the Honor, Dignity, and Respect of your District Court by handling all of the business coming before the court, with dispatch and with equal justice, under the Law, to all If you are interested in your District Court and its future progress, then vote for and support the best qualified and most experienced candidate for the office.

Your Vote and Support is Humble Solicited and Will Be Gratefully Appreciated. (This Pol. Adv. Sponsored by Tyler County Supporters of Judge Coe and Pald for by Judge H. A. Coe)

Than weakly, uncomplainingly to bend my back Beneath such blows, and tread the beaten track.

For having ears to hear and eyes to see,
And heart to feel and reasoning mind to think,
I will not let my spirit meekly sink
Beneath the cares and burdens of this life.

I'll hew my way and if I stumble on the road I'll count each jagged rock a goad To spur me on, nor shall I once look back

And weep to see my footprints bloody track. But with my mind fixed on my heart's desire.
