WHAT DOES TYLER COUNTY NEED THE MOST

The Tyler County Booster discovered in a series of "Bonanza" columns that the good people of Tyler County were very capable of some fine constructive thinking on their own, and many expressed themselves ireely through the columns of this per. OF THE WORLD

By ETHEL OSBORN HILL

Could meet and clasp each other's hand.

Mothers strong in their youthful prime,

Mothers bent with the weight of time,

Each with the self-same cause to plead

Mothers, just Mothers from sea to sea.

What a wonderful pageant the Angels would see

Then all the sorrows spoken aloud

And all the tears laid each to each

Would darken the Earth like a fearful cloud,

(Was it for this that they each had birth?)

A stream to the great White Throne would reach,

And the sound of their sobs would shake the Earth.

What a tragic pageant the Angels would see,

Though each a different tongue might speak;

As one they would kneel and pray for Peace,

What a weapon for peace that pageant would be,

A world-wide peace that would never cease.

Mothers weeping from sea to sea.

Mothers, praying from sea to sea.

Stood heart to heart and hand to hand,

And the their faiths were strong or weak,

The State of Texas recognizes both a debt of gratitude to and an obligation for its Senior Citizens. Older Texans in great numbers continue to spend active and useful lives in activities that through their youth, middle age to now have made their citizenship an asset to the commonwealth. Others in their older years face physical and/or financial difficulties that limit activity.

Texas of today exists on the foundations laid by these surviving Texans of yesterday. Their work, their efforts, their very lives stand as an enduring challenge to the future. If we are to enjoy the full productive capacities of our resources, we must continue to utilize the skills and knowledge of our older citizens in all civic and community endeavors.
