Life has returned to normal. thankfully. The races are over, the last handshake given, the last issue decided, the last ballot counted, at last, Congratulations to the winners, and condolences and a better luck maybe next time to the losers. Had the pleasure of attending the opening of the new youth center last Thursday night, I was very pleased, if not surprised to see the turnout of both youngsters, and adults at the new facility. I must admitthat I was a bit skieptical about the outcome of the venture. I have seen several attempts to take on a project of this sort fall flat, and it seemed that the same thing would occur. However, I admit I was wrong. The enthusiasm of the people involved will, I believe, make the youth center a going thing. There is quite a bit of work yet to be done. Many the ings are needed by the center. Things like chairs, card tables, labor, and money. REPORT FROM DOWDY THE MOVING FORCE

Singing To Be Held Friday At

Community Center The singing school that has been in progress at the Colmesneil community center will close Friday night June 7 with a big singing. Several out of county singers are expected to attend, including the Tinsley Sisters of Beaumont, and the Holley Family of Houston. The school has been held each week night since May 27, and has had an enrollment of 75 and new ones are still coming n. Those who have attended lave shown a very high interest with extra good grades, and will improve the church choirs where they attend. Burl Carter of Woodville has been the teacher and instructor. Everyone is invited to attend the closing singing Friday night. There is no charge for admis-BE YEARDE SWAR
