FM Road Development Approved

The Texas Highway Commission today approved development of 1.6 miles of Farm to Market Roads in Tyler County as part of the 1969 Texas Farm to Market program.

District Engineer F. C. Young of the Texas Highway Department said estimated cost of the work is $28,900.00.

The work will be under the supervision of A. J. Cortez, Supervising Resident Engineer at Woodville.

Work authorized for this county is part of the 827.1 miles of Texas Farm and Market Roads earmarked for development in the new program.

The program lists 214 projects in 138 counties. Estimated total cost is $22 million.

Mileage included in the program totals 237.2 miles of new roads with an estimated cost of $10.3 millions.

The remaining 589.9 miles to be developed at an estimated cost of $11.7 million, was designated previously and is being constructed in stages.

The additional mileage brings the designated Farm and Market Road system in Texas to 29,540 miles. This is equal to 1 1/2 times the combined total of all State-maintained highways in the six New England States.

Plans call for an eventual RM-FM system of 50 thousand miles. Originally conceived to "get the farmer out of the mud," the network has contributed to the economic and social well being of millions of rural Texans.

For example, 127.5 miles or 54 per cent of the new mileage added in the program announced today is on school bus routes. Fifty per cent or 118.3 miles are on rural mail delivery routes.

Not just the rural residents of the State have benefited from the system, however. The Farm to Market system is equally a "Market to Farm" system, serving as the framework for distribution of manufactured goods and supplies moving from commercial and industrial centers throughout Texas.

Roads on the FM system have opened up new scenic vistas and recreational opportunities to everyone. One third of the 6.9 thousand miles included in the 10 Texas Travel Trails are FM Roads.

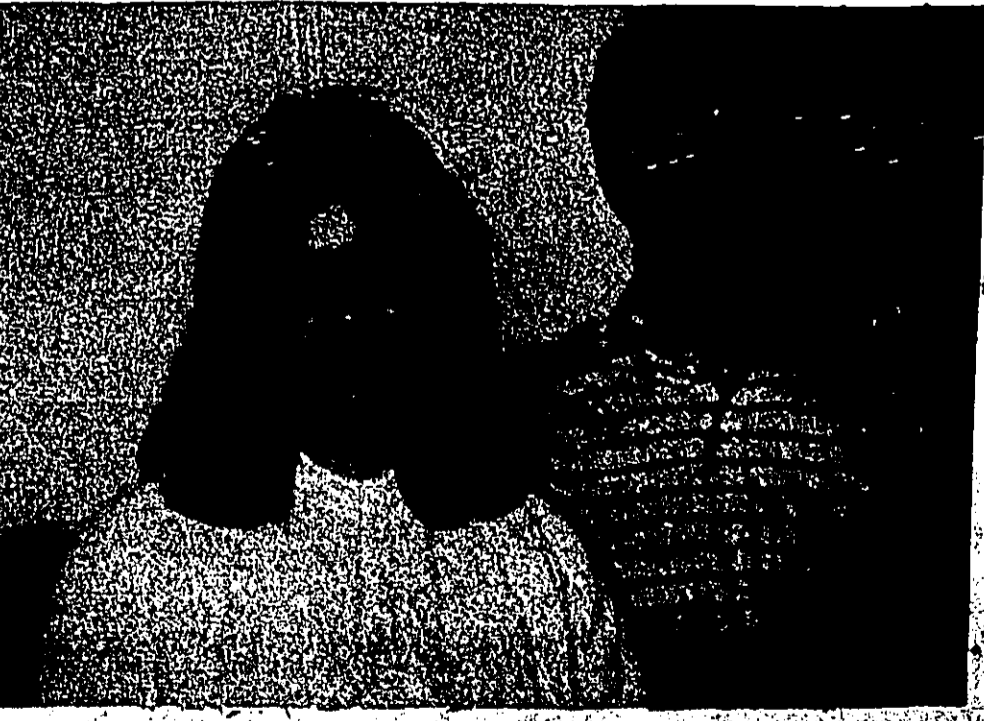

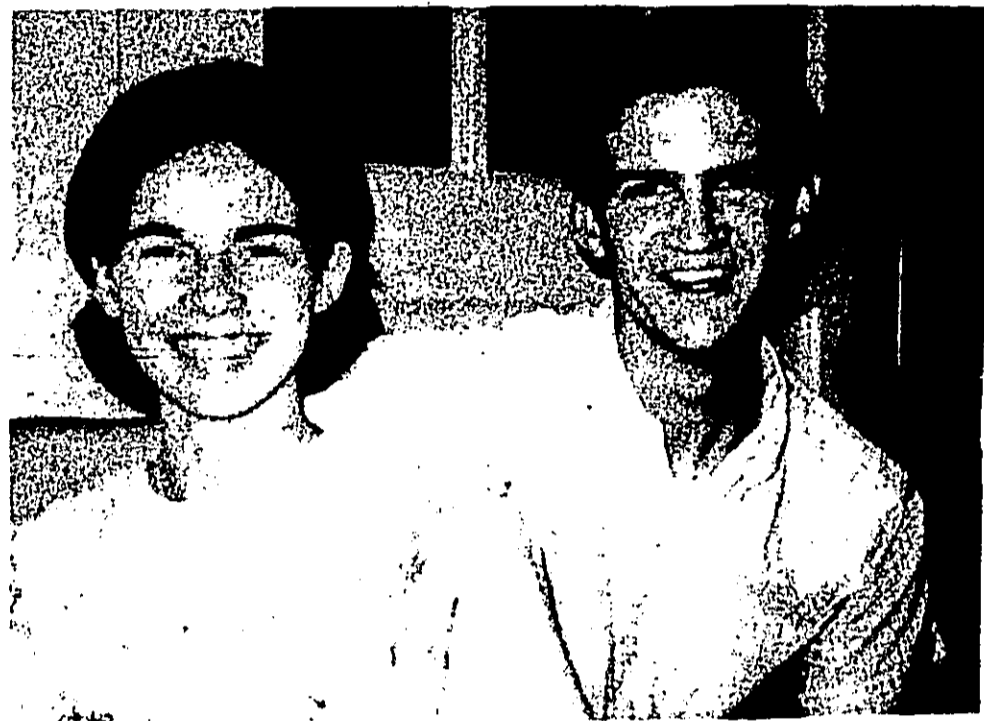

The work in Tyler County is on FM 2992; from 5.2 miles SE of FM 1746, South to FM 1013; approximately 1.6 miles of construction will be involved.

Youth For Christ Rally

Fairview Baptist Church at Town Bluff will host the Youth For Christ rally on December 5th, at 7 P.M. Reverend Bob White, representative of Underground Evangelism, will be the speaker and will show the film, "Christ in Russia Today."

Reverend White, a former career Navy man and pastor in the south, is a full-time evangelist and speaks for Underground Evangelism. He is a world traveler, having preached in every major country of the world, including the Soviet Union and other communist countries.

Underground Evangelism is a literature, gospel broadcasting and missionary outreach to the people of the communist world. The public is invited to attend.

Shivers Library Notes

County readers will be interested in a new book at the Allen Shivers Library. "Aunt Puss: Old Times in East Texas" is written by Emma Wilson Emery. It is a story about her family who lived in Spurger. The book is published by the Texas Folklore Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Opper placed books in the library in memory of Lawrence Smith and R. E. Pennington. Wheat Wheat and Stafford contributed books in memory of Lawrence Smith.

More reading and studying was done in the library during November as readers searched for a variety of books and magazines for papers and programs.

The circulation count for November are those books checked out to be taken home for leisure reading and study and it totaled 2704 books, periodicals, and records.

Spurger has undergone a complete "face-lifting" job, as a result of authorization by the school board to spend $25,000 on school improvement.

All four school buildings have been painted inside; the gym has been remodeled; the auditorium remodeled and paneled; new work books have been purchased for classes; new playground equipment is now in full use; a new radio-intercom has been installed; boiler repairs have been made; a new tax office has been purchased and placed behind the high school building; two new busses have been purchased and put in use, and a new physical education program has been put into effect at the elementary school.

Along with all the new workmanship, comes a lot of new faces, too.

Mr. Earl T. Walden is new superintendent, and he is pictured at left, beaming over the new radio-intercom system. Mr. Walden has invoked a number of new rules and regulations, and is a real "roll up your sleeves and get with it" gentleman.

Mr. H. K. Pitts is new elementary principal, and all you have to do to find out all the hard work and interest he has poured into the school and pupils, is spend a few minutes browsing around the premises.

Other new members of the staff are: Mr. R. Dale Cosby, High School Principal; Mrs. Leola Cosby, English; Mrs. Roberta Pitts, Librarian; Mr. J. Westfall, Coach; Mrs. Sarah Westfall, Remedial Reading; Miss Linda Thomas, Home Economics; Miss Bertha Butler, Business; Mrs. Mary Stiba, Math; Mr. R. Scott Thomas, Fifth Grade; Mrs. Rebecca Montgomery, Secretary; Mr. Charles Trotti, Elementary P. E.; Mr. George Moncrief, Bus Driver; Rev. Charles Perkins, Bus Driver; Mrs. Marjorie Jordan, Tax Assessor-Collector; and Mrs. Edna Earl Castle, Maid.

At Spurger Elementary, the students are on the playground two times each day, once for a "free play" period and once for a physical education class. 100% participation is expected of every child, as it has been found that there is a high degree of correlation between physical and mental dexterity.

This spring, they plan to do landscape work to improve the looks of the front of the buildings, by planting shrubs and trees, and possibly some rose bushes.

The campus master plan calls for an eighty-yard "obstacle course" to be completed sometime next fall. It has been designed and scaled especially for grade levels one through six.

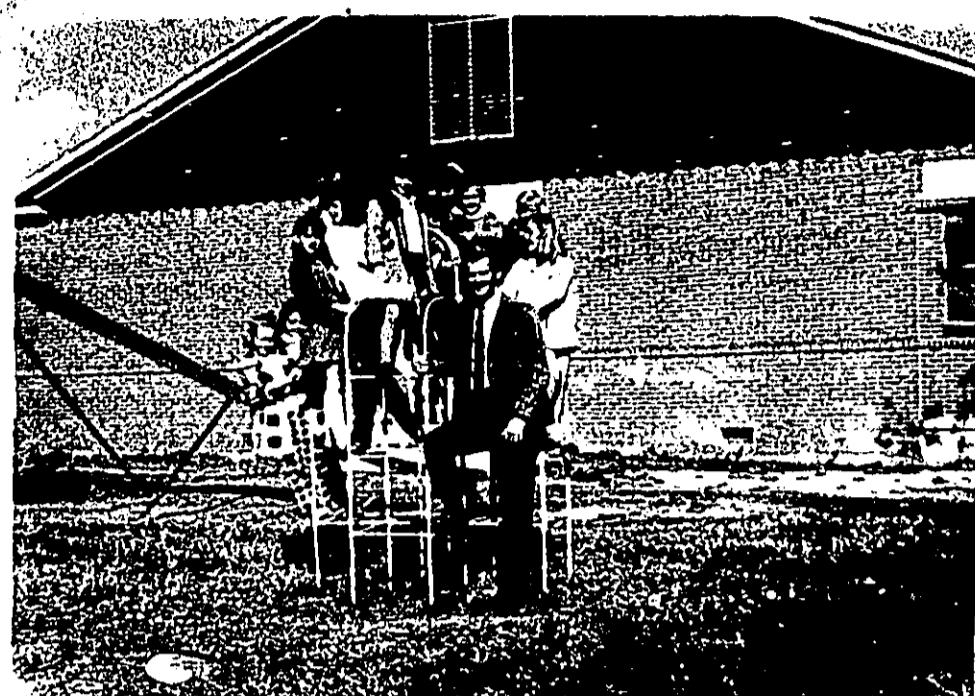

A row of native trees will mark the start and finish of the obstacle course.

It's no wonder those Pirates have such winning ways this year!

Q—Can I take a business deduction for the bottles of whiskey I buy as Christmas gifts for my customers?

A—Yes, business gifts are a deductible expense as long as they do not exceed $25, to any one customer during the year. If gifts total more than $25, only $25 may be deducted. A gift to a customer's wife or child must generally be included with any gift to the customer himself in figuring the $25 limit.

Note that gifts which cost $4 or less are not subject to this limit if your name is clearly and permanently printed on the item and is one of a number of identical items distributed by you. This would cover calendars, pens and similar items.

Q—I've taken a part-time second job. What can I do to stop having Social Security taxes taken out of my pay on both jobs?

A—Each employer is required to withhold Social Security taxes on the first $7,800 of wages paid employees in 1969. However, if more than the maximum of $374.40 is withheld for Social Security taxes because you had two jobs, the excess can be claimed as a credit on your 1969 income tax return.

Procedures for claiming this credit are explained in the instructions you will receive with your tax forms.

Q—Can I deduct my veterinary fees when I figure out my farm income on Schedule F, Form 1040?

A—Yes, veterinary fees as well as medicine for farm livestock are deductible "when you report farm income and expenses."

Veterinary care for personal pets is not deductible.

Q—What types of taxes are involved when IRS closes down a business for failure to pay Federal taxes?

A—Any type of tax may be involved; however, these cases usually involve employees who fail to turn over to the Government the money they have withheld from their employees' wages for income and Social Security taxes.

Drastic steps such as closing a business or levying on wages are taken only as a last resort after the taxpayer has repeatedly failed to make satisfactory arrangements to pay the tax. Congress has authorized IRS to take certain specific actions in such cases in fairness to the other taxpayers who do pay in full and on time.

Q—I have fully supported my grandmother for years. Will we still be able to claim her as a dependent this year even though she is now in a rest home?

A—Yes, you may still claim her, so long as you continue to support her and she meets the other dependency tests. A close relative, your grandmother for example, does not have to be a member of your household to qualify as a dependent.

If your grandmother is in a rest home primarily because of the medical care provided there, the entire cost of her maintenance is considered a medical expense. If personal or family reasons prompted the decision for her to enter the home, only those expenses specifically for medical care will be considered deductible medical expenses.

Q—I won't be working any more this year, so why can't I file my tax return now? I could use the money I'm expecting to get back.

Deposits Exceed Withdrawals

Savings withdrawals exceeded new deposits by $405,000.00 at savings and loan associations in October, a record for the month of October.

Mortgage lending and the savings and loan associations dipped only slightly to $1.6 billion as the association's tapped district home loans banks for more advances. The average mortgage interest charged by all types of lenders rose for the eleventh straight month to a record 8.12 per cent.

1971 National Budget

Budget Director Robert P. Mayo is the cabinet member that President Nixon sees most these days.

They have been going over books and charts in preparation for the fiscal 1971 budget. It will be most revealing to know the course Mr. Nixon intends to pursue during the remainder of his administration. Mr. Mayo, knows more about it than he can discuss. Some of the biggest decisions will not be made until after long-range forecasts have been taken into account.

Almost certainly, the budget will exceed $200 billion. The 192 plus billion in the current budget, add the $8 to $9 billion increases in National debt services, Social Security, medicare, Medicaid, veteran's pensions and it does not take much thought to see that the budget will go over 200 billion and the administration will have to do without a surplus.

Why Do We Call It Grapefruit

There is a very interesting history back of the grapefruit which you enjoy for breakfast.

Have you not wondered sometime why it is called grapefruit? It is much more like an orange or lemon than a grape. The grapefruit does not belong to the grape family, but to the citrus family, which also contains oranges, lemons, limes and others. It's name comes from the fact that it grows in clusters, like grapes.

The fruit is not a native of Florida, as many have supposed, nor is it a cross between an orange and lemon, as others have claimed.

The grapefruit, known as the pomelo, was enjoyed in China at the time of Confucius, who lived 500 years B.C. It was first brought to Florida by a Captain Shaddock. This seafaring man had eaten the fruit in China, and was the first to grow it successfully in America.

A—Existing regulations provide for the filing of an income tax return after the end of the tax year, which, with rare exceptions, is the calendar year for employees. Even though you may not work or receive income during the rest of the year, a tax return is required to be filed on the basis of a full tax year. To avoid delays when you file for your refund, make sure you have a Form W-2 statement of wages paid and taxes withheld attached to your return. Your employer should have given you your W-2 within 30 days after leaving employment.

What's Cookin'?

Many delights for children and grown-ups can be made from this heritage recipe for gingerbread ponies, sleighs, canes and whatever your artistic nature will design.

Gingerbread Dough

- 4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons ginger
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup light molasses
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup milk

In a large bowl, sift flour, sugar, ginger, baking powder, soda and salt. In a small saucepan, heat molasses with butter, just until mixture boils. Stir in milk. Add molasses mixture to flour mixture; stir with wooden spoon until smooth. Wrap in foil or waxed paper. Refrigerate overnight.

Sugar Glue

- 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
- 2 tablespoons egg whites

In a medium bowl, with wooden spoon, gradually beat sugar into egg white; beat until smooth. Keep bowl covered with wet cloth or paper towel, as mixture dries out on standing. Make one batch, make other batches as needed.

With this dough and glue, you are ready to create the most delectable Christmas ornaments and center pieces, and place cards.

Heritage Glazed Coconut Cake

- 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2/3 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon almond extract

Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Set aside. Cream butter until soft; add sugar a little at a time, beating until smooth. Add eggs one at a time, beating hard after each addition. Add milk and flour mixture, alternating them and beginning with flour mixture and ending with flour (this is a success secret in cake baking that many do not know of). Stir in almond extract and pour into an 8" square pan. Bake in 350 degree oven for about 40 minutes, or until cake pulls away from sides of pan. Turn out of pan and spread, while warm, top with glazed coconut.

Glaze

- 6 tablespoons melted butter
- 6 tablespoons brown sugar
- 3 tablespoons cream or evaporated milk
- 1/2 cup grated or flaked coconut

Mix together melted butter, brown sugar, cream and coconut. Spread on top of cake and place about 4 inches from broiling unit for several minutes. Watch carefully for it takes only a few minutes for the glaze to turn the right color.

Party Snacks

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon celery salt
- 1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/2 teaspoon onion salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 cup packaged toasted oat cereal
- 2 cups bite-size shredded wheat
- 2 cups bite-size shredded rice
- 2 cups bite-size toasted corn cereal
- 1 cup very thin pretzel sticks
- 1/2 cup nuts

You may make this mix several weeks ahead. Start heating oven to 250 degrees. In shallow roasting pan, melt butter. Stir in, worcestershire, seasonings, cereals, pretzel sticks and nuts. Toss all together well. Bake until well heated, stirring occasionally. Cool well and store in covered jars until needed. Makes two quarts.

Flowers & Garden

By Ruth Thomas

It is again the time to plant trees and they can be bare-rooted at this time.

Many people are moving to Tyler County and planting fruit trees, and I believe in a few years we will see some nice fruit, because they are taking care of the trees. No longer can we plant anything and leave it to chance. We have to study and learn how to care for trees as well as anything else.

First, let's plant the trees. Select a well-drained place for fruit trees and nearby every other kind. Dig a large enough hole to accommodate the roots. Cut off broken roots. If the soil is sandy, some burnus should be added to help retain water. If the soil is heavy, something like topsoil or perlite should be added to help drainage. DO NOT ADD FERTILIZER when planting. Root stimulator is a definite help, but use it by directions. So many of us get enthusiastic and overdo fertilizing. When you fertilize next year, remember—water HEAVY when fertilizing. Fruit trees and pecans should be given a dormant oil spray two or three times when the leaves have fallen.

It seems that pears do better than any other fruit in this area. There are some pear trees in Tyler County at least fifty or sixty years old and still bearing. The only difficulty with pears is that they have too many fruit each year. If we would remove some of the little pears, the others would get larger and the limbs would not break.

There are many types of pears. Plums run a close second to pears. There are also many varieties of plums, and you can get that ripe from June to August. I have seen some real nice eating varieties grown here last year.

There are several good peach orchards in the county now. Each year companies are coming out with new peaches that bear well in fewer hours of cold weather. I think most of us like to eat peaches, and they, as well as other fruit trees, can be worked into the

Dear Clara:

Make your introductions in a firm voice, repeating the name, if necessary, so that those you have introduced will not be embarrassed by having misunderstood a name. On the other hand, do not hesitate to ask a person you have just met to repeat his name if you did not catch it upon introduction. It is better to ask and get it straight than to struggle along in a vague fashion.

DEAR CLARA: When I am introducing my daughter and daughter-in-law to a friend, it is proper to say, "Meet my daughter, Mary, and my daughter-in-law, Alice," or, "Meet my two daughters?" I have been sharply criticized for using the former introduction.

DEAR CRITICIZED: Your introduction was quite correct. Some people seem afraid of the term "in-law."

DEAR CLARA: I met my son's college roommate at a concert and began to talk about the music. Noticing that he had a young lady with him, I interrupted my sentence, turned to her and introduced myself. My son told me I should have waited for his roommate to introduce me. Was this a breach of etiquette?

DEAR MOM: I think you did the tactful thing. The boy might not have recognized you, or may have forgotten your name, and you saved the situation. Possibly, too, he did not know, or had forgotten, that he should have introduced the girl to you, rather than vice versa. He should have said, "Mrs. Smith, may I present Miss Mason (or Sally Mason)?"

DEAR CLARA: What is the easiest way to remember how introductions should be made?

DEAR WONDERING: Remember that the person of greater age or prominence is mentioned first, and girl names are mentioned first when boys are introduced to them.

DEAR CLARA: How shall I introduce my friends to my parents?

DEAR TEENAGER: Introduce your friends to your parents in this way, "Mother and daddy, this is Ed Brown. Ed, my parents."

landscape plan. Their flowers in the spring are as pretty as most flowering trees.

We also have dwarf fruit trees for those with small yards. Did you see any of the fruit from the Banana trees last year? It is unbelievable that they bear like they do. Let's keep our fruit trees pruned—cut the tops out to keep them 14-16 feet, and you can gather the fruit without any trouble.

GOAL SECURITY

Santa Claus isn't the only one who has seasonal work during the month of December. A lot of young people take advantage of the Christmas vacation from school to do part-time work. When they do, they come in contact not only with the crowds of Christmas shoppers, but with social security, too.

"These holiday jobs may do more than help pay for tuition or new clothes," says L. R. James, Social Security District Manager at Lufkin. "They will also buy important security protection for the students and later for their families."

James points out that young people can get valuable survivors and disability protection with as little as a year and a half of work under social security. As a result, thousands of high school and college students are already insured for both kinds of protection even before they begin their regular working careers.

"Many young people think that social security is only for older folks and has nothing to do with them," James says. "This is far from the truth, and social security should be just as much a part of their financial planning as life insurance, auto insurance, and other means of covering the normal risks of life."

James gives three basic suggestions for young workers to help insure the most protection from their social security:

- (1) Take your social security card with you when you apply for a job and when you report for work.
- (2) Make sure your employer correctly records your name and number from your card.
- (3) Check with social security every three years to make certain your earnings have been correctly reported. It is simple and easy to do and may save trouble later on.

Blind Persons Earning More

Chicago News Service
New York—A record number of blind persons are self-supporting workers in 1969, collected higher hourly wages and earned more annual income than ever before, according to the National Industries for the Blind.

Salaries for the year were $49,200,000, of which 45 percent was business with the Federal Government.

Smith Plans For Neglected Children

State Welfare Commissioner Burton Hackney was appointed chairman, and representative of the Texas Education Agency, State Health Department and Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation will serve.

"For mine eyes have been toward salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of people: a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel." Luke 2:10

The second chapter of Luke opens with a simple and beautiful account concerning the birth of our Christ, in Bethlehem, the city of David, which event was heralded by the angel to the shepherds who were watching over their sheep.

The Prophecy: In compliance with the Messianic law, Child Jesus was brought into the Temple at a specified time and there he was seen by an old man named Simeon. It was a fulfillment of a promise made by God that Simeon should have this privilege, just as he makes many promises to us and we heed them not. The Holy Spirit had made it clear to him that he should not die before the Servant of God. He had kept every promise he has made to us, for he cannot lie. (Heb. 6:18).

If any word of His has not come to pass in our lives, we can be sure it will. His performance in the past is our guarantee for the future. Today, He does not promise exemption from death to any except those who shall live in Him until the coming of the Lord from Heaven.

Simeon's words are a benediction and a proclamation. First of all, he breathes a prayer. Can you do otherwise when you know yourself to be in the presence of your Saviour? Simeon was ready to die, but he did not rush into death. He waited God's time. That is the right preparation for death. He had waited long, but now he was ready. "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!" (Num. 23:10)

Any human being who has seen Christ by faith can depart from this world in peace. The better we know Jesus, the better we begin to marvel at Him and the glorious end for which Christ came into this world could not be gained without suffering.

HOW DO YOU SPELL "BROTHER"?

Becoming a Christian may not change one's ability to spell. Brother would still be spelled b-r-o-t-h-e-r.

Being a Christian, however, should alter definitions. According to the teachings of our Lord, brother could well be defined as "anyone in need." According to Jesus' teachings, we are all sons of the same God and when one hurts or is in need, then all have a responsibility to respond.

No man can know all the hurts of the world. Nor can any group of men, or a single denomination, respond adequately to all these needs. By joining hands in Christian fellowship to serve, men are better able to minister in the name and spirit of Christ.

News From WASHINGTON

EXPLORATION OF THE MOON—Some American scientists believe that the failure of Russia to have a modern computer industry is the reason the Russians have fallen behind the 'United States in exploration of the moon.

MOON TRIPS—I will never cease to be amazed by the feats of American scientists. In 1967 the unmanned Surveyor was launched on the moon and took pictures. This, in itself, is amazing, yet our science and engineering is so advanced that it was possible for Apollo 12 to land on the moon within a few hundred feet of the spot where Surveyor landed. The accomplishment of the impossible is now accepted. I can remember when it was a scientifically accepted fact that the atom could not be split.

LEADERS OF THE ANTIWAR MARCH—The following is quoted from a study report made by the Committee on Internal Security of the House of Representatives: "The leadership of the New Mobilization Committee is top-heavy with Communists and pro-Communists, including members and partisans of both the Communist Party, U.S.A. and most particularly, the Trotskyist Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialist Alliance. Add to this the unqualified endorsement given to both the Vietnam Moratorium and the New Mobilization Committee by the YSA-controlled Student Mobilization Committee, along with the very active participation of both YSA and SMC in the Fall offensive planning around the country, and we can see the all-too-clear pattern that emerges. This is not one of legitimate, amicable protest against presumed injustices in our Vietnam policies. Rather, it is one of blatant Communist manipulation, exploitation and subversion."

DEMONSTRATIONS—The City of Montreal has enacted an ordinance barring public parades or demonstrations which are considered likely to "endanger tranquility, peace or public order." The city Mayor says that public peace has priority over demonstrators. There is opposition to the ordinance in the Canadian Parliament, and it will likely be tested in the Canadian Courts.

FOREIGN AID—The conjuring of new purposes for which to hand out the American taxpayer's money in the form of foreign aid would tax the imagination of the most imaginative. One of the latest awards was to a Yugoslavian university in the amount of $72,123 "to find out why white wine turns brown, and what can be done about it." Now God's green earth can thus be used to advance our national interest? Anyway, who cares why white wine turns brown; it is still potable for those who want it.

1970 FEDERAL SUMMER EMPLOYMENT—Now is the time to apply for employment next summer with the Federal Government. The first examination will be given on January 10, for those who apply by December 5. Two subsequent examinations will be set up, but applications postmarked after February 4, of next year will not be accepted. The details and forms are set out in Civil Service Announcement No. 414. If interested, I will send you one of the Announcements upon request, or they may be available at any high school or college, or at your post office.

VISITING IN WASHINGTON this week was State Senator Charles Wilson of Lufkin.

News From Austin

There has been a great deal of confusion and misstatements in connection with a law passed by the Texas Legislature during its regular session this past winter. That particular law is commonly called "The Family Code." The controversy and these statements came out of an attorney general's opinion rendered by Attorney General Crawford Martin on October 27, 1969, concerning this law which will become effective on January 1, 1970.

The public was misled by the daily newspapers concerning this law when they stated in various news articles that during 16 years of age and girls under 14 years of age may marry, without the consent of their parents, by filing a declaration of that marriage with the county clerk.

The misstatements and misunderstanding by the daily newspapers have come about by this so-called declaration. There was a good reason for setting up this declaration system because before this law was passed, there were no provisions for keeping records in connection with common law marriages. As a matter of fact, there are no legislative statutes which allow common law marriages. The common law marriage was a situation created by the courts before 1900.

The following are some of the things the family code says:

- (1) The code prohibits any type of marriage for boys less than 16 years of age and girls less than 14 years of age. This is not new, but rather a restatement of the law.
- (2) The code requires the consent of the parents for ceremonial marriages for boys 16-19 and girls 14-16.
- (3) The code prescribes a form for "Declaration for Informal Marriage" by which common law marriages may be registered with the county clerk. This is new law and passed for the purpose of record keeping.
- (4) The code does not specify any age requirement for filing the "Declaration for Informal Marriage."

The legislature now-the attorney general opened the door to teenage common law marriages. The legislators just provided for record keeping of marriages which are created under the old common law concept.

School Discipline

The idea that parents in this permissive age object to strict school discipline for their children apparently has been grossly exaggerated.

Chief complaint against the public schools, as expressed through a Gallup organization poll was that students do not receive enough discipline.

Discipline was also cited as the second most important element in judging good schools.

Concern about discipline, it seems, has been accentuated by disorders that began on college campuses and then spread their contaminating influence to other levels.

"If the school officials cannot keep students in line, then the school, in the eyes of the public, is in poor one," said the survey.

It is also the duty of all citizens to exercise his right of free inquiry. The simplest kind of self-love is our love for our country and community. We must watch those whom we put in power, and we intend to listen for the truth, which is not always offered us or whitewashed. We must make it clear that no citizen has no opinion in the field of morals, as wrongs do not leave off where they begin, but keep on begetting more mischief and distrust in the course of time.

It is stated that the present school trustees were morally obligated to honor the actions of board members ten years ago. When these actions and agreements were never written in the minutes, the actions of those men should be challenged, as protest will bring changes in the attitude of those who take favorable opportunity to further their own interests. When challenges are too long delayed, as in this case, there is likely to be a widespread disregard for what is really moral or lawful.

To conform to the laws of moral philosophy, man has the capability to perceive what is right or wrong, and it is very questionable if it is moral to uphold an immoral act imposed upon all taxpayers as a whole.

There was a question that the Berkeley riots were led by revolutionaries, not by idealistic students disaffected with the "establishment." Since June 1968, four major riots have occurred in Berkeley, and eight major bombings or bombings attempts. Police have confiscated nearly 1000 sticks of dynamite, 2000 rifles, shotguns and similar weapons, and a dozen Molotov cocktails.

These facts about the "People's Park" riots should be known to all citizens who are concerned with the education and welfare of our children.

Cattle Moo-Tel Letters to the

Along Highway 10, south of Tucson, Ariz., is a sign that reads "Buckaroo Cattle Brand." It is one of a number of signs across the country for the Buckaroo Cattle Brand, usually bound for California feedlots.

These drivers roll their vans into the courtyard of the Buckaroo and stop at the office of a motorist at an ordinary motel.

Except they are assigned a corral along with a room. They then sign it, saying they found it true and correct. The tax roll was approved by the court, with Mr. Fowler voting against approving it, on account of some errors found. The Court wrote in the minutes to approve it with certain restrictions.

Now, I don't know where that Tax Paying Citizen is going to place the blame. The present Tax Assessor and Collector did not have to accept it, if the problems existed prior to January 1, 1969.

There are a few things I'd like to say in answer to the Tax Paying Citizens' letter in the other paper last week.

First, each Tax Assessor and Collector is responsible for the problems in the tax office during his administration. Each tax year is a separate problem, and each year assessed separately. 1969 tax year was assessed by your present Tax Assessor and Collector. His name is on your statement.

Second, the Tax Assessor and Collector did not have anything to do with raising your taxes, or your hearing the appraisals. It is taken care of by the appraisers.

Third, the Assessor and Collector was furnished with a proof roll to check, to see that all property was on the roll, and also to check for errors. He and his employees are supposed to go through the roll and make the necessary corrections, if any, then another is furnished to check and see if all corrections have been made, before giving the order for the tax statements to be made.

Fourth, his own, except the Assessor and Collector (not even Commissioners' Court) can give an order for the tax statements to be made, because he has to approve the tax roll and sign a sworn oath, which makes him responsible for any error which appears. It is then taken before Commissioners Court, which is sitting as a Board of Equalization, to check and approve. They then sign it, saying they found it true and correct. He and his employees are supposed to go through the roll and make the necessary corrections, if any, then another is furnished to check and see if all corrections have been made, before giving the order for the tax statements to be made.

Fourth, his own, except the Assessor and Collector (not even Commissioners' Court) can give an order for the tax statements to be made, because he has to approve the tax roll and sign a sworn oath, which makes him responsible for any error which appears. It is then taken before Commissioners Court, which is sitting as a Board of Equalization, to check and approve. They then sign it, saying they found it true and correct. The tax roll was approved by the court, with Mr. Fowler voting against approving it, on account of some errors found. The Court wrote in the minutes to approve it with certain restrictions.

Now, I don't know where that Tax Paying Citizen is going to place the blame. The present Tax Assessor and Collector did not have to accept it, if the problems existed prior to January 1, 1969.

There are a few things I'd like to say in answer to the Tax Paying Citizens' letter in the other paper last week.

First, each Tax Assessor and Collector is responsible for the problems in the tax office during his administration. Each tax year is a separate problem, and each year assessed separately. 1969 tax year was assessed by your present Tax Assessor and Collector. His name is on your statement.

Second, the Tax Assessor and Collector did not have anything to do with raising your taxes, or your hearing the appraisals. It is taken care of by the appraisers.

Third, the Assessor and Collector was furnished with a proof roll to check, to see that all property was on the roll, and also to check for errors. He and his employees are supposed to go through the roll and make the necessary corrections, if any, then another is furnished to check and see if all corrections have been made, before giving the order for the tax statements to be made.

Fourth, his own, except the Assessor and Collector (not even Commissioners' Court) can give an order for the tax statements to be made, because he has to approve the tax roll and sign a sworn oath, which makes him responsible for any error which appears. It is then taken before Commissioners Court, which is sitting as a Board of Equalization, to check and approve. They then sign it, saying they found it true and correct. The tax roll was approved by the court, with Mr. Fowler voting against approving it, on account of some errors found. The Court wrote in the minutes to approve it with certain restrictions.

Now, I don't know where that Tax Paying Citizen is going to place the blame. The present Tax Assessor and Collector did not have to accept it, if the problems existed prior to January 1, 1969.

Publisher's Corner

Our common problems will never be solved when people will not accept another man's views and consider themselves above the law.

Those who cannot split a community down the middle and who cannot live in peace with their neighbors, who do not accept another man's views and consider themselves above the law.

Even when the roadblocks of retaliation, coercion and ridicule have been removed, it will take much time to overcome the hostility and distrust towards those who have been forced to do this.

People learn to love and hate in terms of human experiences and these experiences guide our actions and learning. It is hard to trust someone who has repeatedly betrayed his fellowman, and by the same token, it is easy to respect and love those whose word is trustworthy.

Our police, court and school systems are localized, but differ in manner, making it difficult to bring all under a general law. It is impossible to regulate the moral behavior of its members. Problems arise when one group is in the position to enforce its own special values and moral codes into law.
