LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Some residents from Warren and surrounding areas recently spent several days in the hook-pole area.

Let's all give three cheers to these jovial, orderly and well balanced ambassadors from the Warren High School Band.

Respect for chappies, officers and one another made their stay a real delight to us.

Who are we to praise? Having had approximately 70 of them in our "home" for the period of time, this is the conclusion we have reached.

For further information contact Joe Jordan, 429-3647, Spurger, or "Ben Wooley", 684-3075, Warren.

Largest sign ever made was 15 ft. 9 in. long, and 26 3/4 inches in circumference.

So hang in there kids of Warren and keep up the good work.

With appreciation, Jim and Jo Hamal.

Ogden Attends Houston Briefing On New Small Car

The management of Ogden Chevrolet Co. have just returned from Houston where they received first details on the new Chevrolet small car to be introduced late this summer.

Chevrolet expressed enthusiasm for America to have a car like the one currently codenamed XP-887.

"The new little Chevrolet is an exciting and positive answer to the demonstrated need for a small, economical, durable, safe, comfortable and well-equipped car built in America to meet the needs of the future," he said.

Also attending the day long meeting from Ogden Chevrolet Co. was Dean Sloan.

Chevrolet invited the full management team of our dealership to the meeting so we can get a fast start on preparations to give maximum sales, service and parts assistance to every customer the day the little car goes on sale," Cecil Ogden said.

The Chevrolet dealer said the "little car, that does everything well" will come in a full line of four different door models, all with front bucket seats as standard equipment.

Offered will be a four-passenger sedan, a four-passenger hatchback coupe with a fastback roof line, a four-passenger station wagon and a one-passenger panel delivery truck.

Typical of the technological innovations in the new car is its all-new light weight overhead cam engine. The four-cylinder engine has a new provision the cast aluminum cylinder block and has a husky 140 cubic inch displacement.

The Chevrolet dealer said the new car will be available in a maximum of 100 days.

Its light weight contributes to the car's overall stability and ease of handling. Its torque output gives excellent performance both on open highways and in traffic, while allowing exceptional fuel economy.

The engine develops 90 horsepower. There also is a 110 horsepower version.

Market potential for the new car was also discussed at the meeting attended by the Chevrolet dealers management. American interest in the "small car concept" is bigger than anyone would expect, Chevrolet researchers reported.

"The range of potential buyers for greater than characteristically of strictly small car buyers," they told the dealers. "We found interest

Having known Richard (Tom Dick) Mann for 24 years, 22 years, 10 years, and 7 years (total 71 years) we feel we know him better than anyone else in the whole world.

First let us tell you what a grand gentleman he is. He always lets the other person's needs come before his own. He has the utmost respect for his fellow man, regardless of their station in life. He loves people for themselves, and not for the worldly achievements they have accumulated. His life is filled with love, honesty, integrity, and a special dedication in his heart to leave a mark on this old world after he is gone, so future generations can feel in their lives that "our world is a better place to live because Tom Dick Mann passed through."

If only you could see him in his everyday Christian dealings with his family, friends, and strangers alike, as we do, all of this hasn't just started in the heat of politics either. It is just a way of life with him. If he tells you something that isn't exactly right, it is through an honest mistake and not intentional. He has always said, "the only way to keep from getting caught in a lie is to never tell one in the first place." His father taught him this when he was a very young boy.

He stands on his own two feet as a gentleman, and on his own merits, and never on the merits of his fellow man. He is intelligent enough to think for himself, and that is exactly what he does. If he can't say, or do good, he won't say, or do good.

ECHOES FROM E BENEZER

Hello again from the Ebenezer community. And congratulations to you, graduates of 1970. As usual, the graduates were most impressive, so everyone felt that, but there is always a note of sadness along with the joy when one realizes that school and old friends must be left behind, another forward step into the unknown must be taken and only God knows the past experience remain. It's especially sad time for parents. I know because two of mine graduated this year because it means that our children are fast becoming adults. We can only hope and pray that we have taught them well and that they "will not depart from it." Congratulations, graduates, and much success in your future endeavors. We have had success in our

EAGLES NUDGE YANKEES 1-0

Kevin Rainey and David Tolbert locked horns in a pretty fair match last Monday night with Kevin's Eagles coming out on top 1-0 over David's Yankees. Both boys are top notch pitchers and their respective teams are two of the strongest in the league this year. Kevin went the distance for the Eagles giving up two hits while striking out eight and walking three. David went the route for the Yankees giving up one unearned run on two hits while striking out ten and walking three. The winning run and only run scored in the fourth inning when with nobody out Ken Ynfante reached base on a throwing error, went to second on the miscue, A passed ball moved him to third and he scored when Larry Rainey put down a bunt single.

INDIANS BOP RED SOX

In little league action last Monday night, the Indians defeated the Red Sox 11-8. The Red Sox had the lead for the first three innings and were ahead 7-2 before the Indians pushed across nine runs. Four of them were on a grand slam homerun by Ricky Sylestine. A walk, single and a fielder choice setup the slammer by Sylestine. Four walks and a hit batsman garnered two for the Red Sox. A walk and three passed balls got another in the second inning. They got three more in the third on walks and a single. David Malkin was the losing pitcher for the Red Sox.

CITIZENS SWEEP TWO

Citizens State Bank softball opened league play in Jasper last Monday night by taking two wins over Gulf Welding by the scores of 16-2 and 14-4. Both games went five innings and were called because of the ten run rule. In the opening contest, Citizens opened the scoring with nine big runs in the first inning. Everyone batted at least once in that affair. They finished scoring in the second, third and fifth frames to take the win. Citizens lost the shutout in the bottom of the fifth when two errors and baseli scored two runs with those coming with two outs. George Boulware was the winning pitcher. The loser was Pat Duckworth. In the second game, the local boys had to overcome a four run lead to take a 14-4 lead. Butly Hickman started the contest for the Bankers and was promptly shelled for four runs. But there were a few that. Sonny Evans relieved and went the rest of the way. Citizens snapped back in that first-inning and cut the lead to 4-3. It stayed like that until they erupted for 11 runs on 7 hits in the fourth inning. Doubles by Jiggs Evans, Gary Hennigan and Tommy Hensarling highlighted the inning. Sonny Evans, Gary Hennigan, Larry Odom and Bill Tolar each had two hits for the winners. Evans was the winning pitcher for the Bankers.

Home-making News & Views

Rainwater remains rain proof. Read all tags and labels carefully and follow the care instructions given.

Dry cleaning is harder on water repellency than laundering. Repeated dry cleanings may diminish the water repellency of a coat, but it can be renewed by a cleaner for a modest price.

But once the water-repellent finish is renewed, it will be probably necessary to repeat the process with each cleaning. Furnish the cleaner with information on the label attached to a new raincoat.

If a raincoat is marked "wash-water" it can be washed quite safely in a washing machine. Use a gentle washing action and warm water with at least three rinse cycles to remove detergent or soap.

Soaps and detergents are wetting agents, and thus, they cause water to penetrate the fabric which is not desired in a water-repellent raincoat. Spare the coat of a long spin cycle and tumble dry at a medium heat or less, or drip dry.

An easy test to check to see if a coat is still water repellent is to place a drop of water on the fabric. If the drop flattens out, it has wet the surface and the cloth is not water repellent. If it takes on a spherical or round shape, it has not wet the surface and will probably roll off and a coat is still water repellent.

The family shapes and develops social values in the child. He may feel secure and safe as he faces the elements of diversity in society or he may feel frightened and overwhelmed.

To the young person who has been raised in an inflexible environment, confronting rigidity to the belief of the superiority of his own group, anything different will be threatening. Such a young person faces his future with unease, seeking only to repeat and retain what is familiar and avoiding the new. Adolescence is the final opportunity the family has to keep the younger person understand himself in the midst of the diverse elements of the world.
