Talking Books Are Boon To Blind

"Talking Books" is a little known service for blind or physically handicapped persons who, because of palsy, arthritis, or other reasons, are unable to turn the pages of a book.

Talking Books has been a Library of Congress project since 1934 and is presently available through the Texas State Library. The service is free and all materials are handled by the post office without charge.

At least one person in the Woodville area is taking advantage of the program. He is Cecil Smith, retired business man who has lost his eyesight. He is shown in the accompanying picture with the record player which will be furnished by the library or a person may furnish his own four-speed player.

The Texas State Library furnishes a catalog listing books available on records. The lending period for all books is four weeks but may be extended on request. From the catalog the reader selects a list of titles he would like to read. Suitable substitutes are sent when the reader's requests are not available.

One word: Some of the modern novels may have words which may be objectionable to some readers and they should select titles with this thought in mind.

Voices for recording the books are selected with care. One of the largest recording groups, members of which work without charge, is in Houston. There are 60 "readers" in the group and to date they have taped about 100 books.

Mr. Smith also receives Newsweek Magazine on records (this is not through the library) and he says that any blind person who can use the records is welcome to have them after he has heard them.

To apply for the services a person should obtain a brief statement to certify the handicap, such as a doctor, optometrist, registered nurse or a professional staff member of a hospital. The statement should be sent to Division for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Texas State Library, Drawer DD, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Talking book machines are available by sending a medical statement to State Commission for the Blind, 1809 North Congress, Austin, Texas 78701.

Mr. Smith is enthusiastic about the program which allows a blind or otherwise handicapped person to keep up his reading (although he has received a book or two that had language in it which burned his ears).

One project of the Houston taping group is the Famous Writers course in professional writing and other instructional courses probably will follow.

Mr. Smith believes that other blind and physically handicapped persons would use the service if they knew about it. For that reason he wants to spread the word about it.

Cecil Smith reads book with aid of record.

Minter To Testify On School Financing Before Committee

County Superintendent B. M. Minter has been invited to testify before a regional meeting of the Agricultural Land Assessment Study Committee to be held August 26 at the Ramada Inn in College Station by Senator Wayne Connally, chairman.

The committee, composed of five state senators, five representatives and four public members, was formed to study and make recommendations on the taxation of agricultural lands.

Mr. Minter will present recommendations adopted in June at a meeting in Woodville of a group of school administrators from the East Texas area regarding school financing. Senator Connally asked that Mr. Minter present these recommendations to the committee along with any other ideas he might have concerning taxation of agricultural lands.

The school administrators at the meeting here adopted three alternate recommendations on school financing to avoid what they said will develop into a financial crisis at the local level in the districts of the state.

The recommendation and alternatives are:

1. That the Minimum Foundation Program should be financed fully by the State. By so doing, the state would assure each child, regardless of his residence, an equal share of state funds. The Economic Index and Local Fund Assignments under this system would be abolished. Local district taxes would then be used to provide buildings, equipment, and additions to the Minimum Foundation Program necessary to comply with accreditation standards. Distribution of State and County per capita funds should continue to be a state credit in the distribution of foundation funds. Budget balance districts will continue to receive per capita funds.

2. As a first option to the above: That the present Economic Index be continued, but that the factors of county assessments and scholastic population be eliminated. The new index would be computed by total income only (value added by manufacturing, value of minerals produced, value of agricultural products, and payrolls from retail, wholesale, and service establishments). County values would be used only for making local fund assignments to the respective districts within a county.

3. As a second option to the above: That the State assume full financial responsibility for the cost of the Minimum Foundation Program. Equalize this by taking the total cost of the Foundation Program, divide that amount by the total number of students A.D.A. within the state. This figure would give the cost per child for education in the state. Use this figure, multiplied by the A.D.A. in each school district, as the amount of money each district would expect to receive for operating its school program.

It is the opinion of this group that the next Legislature that will meet in January, 1971, should give serious consideration to the problems of school finance at the local level. The group is aware that the financing of the full Minimum Foundation Program from the state level will result in the need for additional sources of state revenue, and it is the pledge of the group to support the members of the Legislature in the effort to provide the funds that will assure every child in the state an equal opportunity for education, regardless of whether he lives in a rural or urban district, or in a poor or wealthy district.

EAGLES BEGIN TRAINING FOR 1970 SEASON

By GEORGE BOULWARE Sports Editor

A typical hot Monday morning greeted forty stalwart students of the gridiron as they started that well known and most disliked part of training for football.

Two-a-days had begun this was the beginning of hard work for many, the boys, the coaches and the partisan onlookers. It also meant a few grey hairs for the coaches as they pondered with their personnel to field a team that would make the student body of Kirby High School and the people of Woodville proud to call their own.

Typical was the exuberance on the field on the first day. For it is on that day that everyone put forth a concerted effort every day and work hard at doing their best for the team. The difference between winning and losing teams is the one that lives up to that standard of thinking.

Typical was the players that worked hard to get into shape and those that hadn't. These Eagles worked diligently on the agility drills and the fundamentals the coaching staff start on. They work on the basics to kind of brush the players on their "grammar" before the real contact begins. That way the players will be in reasonable shape for the hard practices that become an everyday routine to those that shape themselves.

Many old faces displayed promise of their last year's ability and a little more. Twelve of these are seniors and it is kind of a special thing for them because it is their class and they want to do the best they can. The underclassmen work hard at making the team and everyone shouts encouragement to the others to spur them on to a greater effort on the next try. "Let's work hard" is their motto.

The players looked good for the first day and if that holds up for the remainder of the year, it could spell trouble to foes. A few still have some bad habits that will be ironed out or they will find themselves packing the sidelines during

TRAILER PLANT MOVES TO CITY FROM ARKANSAS

A new manufacturing industry has started operations near Woodville following its move here from Fayetteville, Arkansas. Woodville Manufacturing Company has started production on its line of heavy equipment hauling trailers (for hauling backhoes, etc.) in a 6200 square foot building one mile east of town on the Jasper highway. The company has purchased the old Allen Shirock place and plans to enlarge the size of the building later, according to Chris Hickman, general manager.

In addition to the manufacture of the heavy equipment hauling trailers, the plant will also make special trailers for the poultry industry, hydraulically operated booms for pickups and larger trucks, and winch operated lifts for the recreation industry.

Mr. Hickman said the firm sells strictly through its dealers in seven states from Texas to Illinois. The plant had operated in Fayetteville for four years and moved to Woodville through the efforts of M. F. Alford, director of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, working through the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce.

The plant as it gets into production during the next two months should employ 12 to 15 people, and anticipates the production of the heavy equipment hauling units at about 250 units during the rest of this year.

Mr. Hickman and his wife have three sons, twins 7 and one three years old.

Lloyd Bentsen Comes Here Thursday

Bentsen To Be Here Thursday

Lloyd Bentsen, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, will be in Woodville today (Thursday), while on a campaign swing through East Texas, according to F. M. Archer, his Tyler County campaign manager.

His schedule calls for his arrival in Woodville at 2:35 p.m. at the booster office. He will then visit the courthouse with County Judge Jeff Mooney showing him through the various offices, and at 2:45 he will go to the Woodville Inn for an hour-long coffee where the public is invited to meet him.

Following the coffee, Bentsen will go to the Tyler County Airport where he will board a helicopter to go to the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation. He will be accompanied by Dempsey Hender, chairman of the State Commission for Indian Affairs, and Charles Wilbanks, president of the Big Thicket Association. He will be met at the reservation by Chief Fulton Battise and Walter Broemer, superintendent of the reservation.

He will be shown the adjoining Big Thicket area of the reservation and go on a helicopter inspection tour of the Big Thicket. Bentsen has endorsed the Big Thicket National Park bill introduced by Senator Ralph Yarborough, whom he defeated in the Democratic primary.

Tyler County supporters of Bentsen for Senator are urged to meet him at the coffee at the Woodville Inn. They may come by any time between 2:45 and 3:45 p.m. when he will leave for the airport. Mr. Archer suggested that, however, since Bentsen must maintain his schedule that those coming to the coffee do so during the first 45 minutes.

Before arriving in Woodville Thursday, Bentsen's schedule is for appearances in Hemphill, Newton and the noon meeting of the Jasper Kiwanis Club.

Summer vacation has faded into pleasant memories for many of Tyler County's school-age population as three of the five districts in the county are beginning classwork this week.

Spurger classes began Monday and Warren and Colmesell are holding their first classes today (Thursday). Chester students begin classwork next Monday. Woodville students have another week's classwork before August 31. Chester high students are registering Thursday while Warren students registered Wednesday.

In Woodville, first grade and senior high school pupils will register Friday, August 28. Other elementary pupils and junior high school students will register on the first day of school, August 31. Buses will run August 28 for the first grade and senior high registration.

Pupils who have not been registered or who are entering the Woodville schools for the first time are urged to register prior to the opening of school by calling the principal of the appropriate grade level.

Bennett Hanna is high school principal. J. C. Clark, Jr. is principal of Wheat Junior High School, and L. C. Lowery is principal of Wheat Elementary School (grades 5-8). J. W. Shields is principal of Woodville Elementary School, grades kindergarten through 4.

Deep East Texas Development Council To Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Deep East Texas Development Council will be held August 20 beginning at 10 a.m. at the Holiday Inn in San Augustine, according to Josiah Wheat, president.

The council will consider several proposals that have been submitted to the regional clearinghouse.

County Judge George Middlebrook of Nacogdoches County will make a progress report on the Deep East Texas Comprehensive Law Enforcement Plan. A report from a committee headed by G. E. Rider on the progress of an application to form the Pineywoods Resource Conservation and Development project also is scheduled.

The City of San Augustine will host the meeting and the luncheon at noon.

Fourth Monday Court Is Sated

Judge H. A. Coe will be here Monday for the regular "Fourth Monday" session of 88th District Court in which he hears uncontested divorces, accepts guilty pleas, and other non-jury cases.

The Tyler County grand jury also meets and returns any true bills to the court.

DEAR EDITOR

Please permit me to again take up space to air a complaint over the past. It seems that all the vandals are not on the campus. We have a lot of vandals on campus and they are getting their apprenticeship right here in Woodville.

DEAR EDITOR

There has been extensive vandalism at the Magnolia cemetery, with stones being pushed over and broken and pictures piled out.

DEAR EDITOR

Dear Sir: In creating reading, the Liberty Lobby of C.B. Doll, who is a member of the American Bar Association, has been very helpful in determining the hearing tests are set for Woodville.

Warning!

Only Model 663.82235 in white, sold since last December, 1969, is affected. Check Model Number imprinted on label under blender.

In order to prevent injury to any user who is requesting the return of all blenders with this model number. This blender was sold primarily through the Sears 1970 Spring-Summer catalog. It also was sold through some Sears retail stores. THERE IS NO PROBLEM WITH ANY OTHER COLOR OR MODEL SEARS BLENDER.

We are not certain that any of these sold are unsafe. But an inspection of factory inventory found a small number of these blenders was improperly assembled, creating a potentially dangerous shock hazard under certain conditions.

If you have this model blender, please return it immediately to the nearest Sears store or catalog facility for exchange or refund.

HOMEMAKING HINTS

By MRS. MAURINE J. MOONEY, HD Agent

Your food freezer is the most expensive storage space in your kitchen.

The Federal Trade Commission has recently established standards for the use of the words "easy credit" and "liberal terms" in advertising. The Commission states that when these terms are used, they should mean that a customer can receive credit without having his credit rating checked. If the freezer is used like a bank for just good storage, the cost per pound of food frozen will be high. However, if the freezer is used regularly, like a bank checking account, the cost per pound of food frozen will be much lower.

Letting food go too old in the freezer is particularly wasteful. No matter how low the cost, if food is thrown away, there is no gain.

Make sure you follow the "first in, first out" rule to help keep food loss to a minimum. Your freezer can be a labor-saving device and can save time and effort and in exceptional instances, it may save you money and can help feed your family well. However, if the freezer is used "irregularly," you will find that the food freezer is a very expensive investment.

When you see ads with the tempting words such as "easy credit" and "liberal terms," do you wonder what they mean?

These phrases are appearing in advertising more and more since they are a way of getting around the 1969 Truth-in-Lending Law.

The Truth-in-Lending law requires a merchant or lender to state the number of payments, the cash price and the annual percentage rate. If any credit term is used in advertising, some advertisers don't like to admit that credit isn't easy, so this makes it sound more appealing without telling more.

Over-fried chicken.

1 1/2 to 3 lb. ready-to-cook broiler-fryer, cut-up, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, seasoned flour (see below).

Coat chicken this way: Combine, in paper bag, flour and seasonings (for every 2 lb. of chicken, allow 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon paprika, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper). Add chicken, 2 or 3 pieces at a time, and shake. If there is time, let dry on rack 1/2 hour.

Corn meal or packaged cracker crumbs may be used for the flour. Or, if you prefer, chicken may be dipped into egg beaten with 2 tablespoons water, then coated with flour mixture. Start heating oven to 375 degrees F. Melt butter in shallow roasting pan to oven. Remove pan from oven. Sprinkle the coated chickens in pan in single layer, with skin sides down. Bake 20-25 minutes, basting frequently. Baking for 15 minutes or less; brown and tender; Melt 3 or 4 servings.

Fired of the same old thing week in, week out during the summer?

Try a change -- plan your meals around easy-to-fix, last-minute sandwiches. A sandwich meal can provide just what you've been looking for. No need to skimp on nutrition. 70-grams of protein and many vitamins sandwich-making can assure your family of a well-balanced meal and plenty of variety.

Now is a particularly good time to try different sandwiches because it's August Sandwich Month.

USA's Consumer and Marketing Service reports that what products are plentiful. Plan to use them in your daily meal planning.

Here's an appetizing sandwich recipe:

Grill cheese sandwich, French style. 1/2 slices enriched white bread, butter, 3/4 cup apple sauce, 12 slices (10c. each) Cheddar cheese, 3 eggs, beat 1/2 cup milk, 2 tablespoons onion, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Butter bread, then spread each slice with apple sauce. Cover 6 slices with 2 cheese slices each. Top with remaining bread. Blend the other ingredients together. Dip sandwiches in butter and grill them in butter until golden brown. Makes six sandwiches.

GETTING THE RIGHT AIR CONDITIONING IS 1-2-3 SIMPLE!

1. Get an air conditioning unit that you can rely on

Be sure it is made by an air conditioning company. Carrier, for instance, makes only air conditioning, and has become the most respected name in air conditioning. Carrier's new round condensing unit sets new standards in efficiency and quiet operation, and is typical of Carrier leadership.

2. Get your unit from a trained specialist who will love you after the sale

Our trained crews install your air conditioning right. And we'll be around to help when you need service, even if it is years from now. Your service call will get prompt attention by air conditioning experts.

3. Be sure there'll always be plenty of replacement parts near by

Carrier maintains one of America's largest stocks of parts and equipment right here in the Houston Gulf Coast. Our more recently received factory installation and service training at this modern facility. This after-the-sale "back up" support assures you of total quiet comfort through the years.

Let us make a FREE, no-obligation estimate on replacement air conditioning for your home. And ask us about easy payment plans.

The first bill of contact came on this offensive scrimmage in which the Eagles ran a series of plays. The ball carrier in this picture is Phillip Walker, Walter, a candidate for the All-back position was taken up on this play after taking the hand off from quarterback A. J. Corley. Other players are Jim Sullivan (left) and Robert Greenwood (right).

Robert Greenwood is working on "Hohli ne for Robert is a kick out of anything you do. Robert is the extra point kicker. Corley, incidentally, he made and that he quickly was for or and is also the kicker man."

Recently surveying the scene on the "beverage" side, Play: Jimmy King, All-back Rodney in this Danny's drill is coach, one responsible are center, Barclay, and guard Robert Green, Bill, Chisum. The two were Jim Sullivan, quarterback, answered.

Of course no team is complete unless they have a good quarterback. Woodville has two in Danny King and A. J. Corley. Jimmy is left handed and is a junior. A. J. is right handed and is a senior. Both have one year experience under their belts on varsity squads. Both possess the golden arms of good passers and both are line runners. Most of all both of them are winners.
