THE FAMILY LAWYER

Not every court would be so lenient of a pedestrian's daydream. But it is true that the law does by and large look kindly on the pedestrian.

Pampered Pedestrians... Trudging absentmindedly along the sidewalk, George failed to notice the car backing down a driveway.

However, the court found no negligence on George's part and granted his claim. The judge said: "It is the common experience of trial humanity to become immersed in thought and oblivious to one's surroundings when traveling in a place of known safety."

S/Sgt. Billy Overbey Receives Bronze Star in Vietnam

Army Staff Sergeant Billy W. Overbey, son of Clares E. Overbey, Woodville, recently received the Bronze Star Medal at Ft. Benning, Ga.

He was presented the Bronze Star Medal for distinguished service in connection with military operations against hostile forces in Vietnam.

Sgt. Daniel Bell In Airlift Wing Named Outstanding

Sergeant Daniel R. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom H. Bell, Spurrier, is a member of the 435th Military Airlift Wing at Dover AFB, Del.

Mr. Hickman gave a talk on ecology and conservation. He talked about the conservation of our East Texas forests and the resources used by foresters in controlling the southern pine beetle on the head.

America Still Is... ONE WOMAN'S OPINION

America is faithful in remembering and celebrating the anniversaries of early patriots, but the way the powers-that-be are changing things is apt to get some of us confused.

MEAT-LEFTOVERS—An easy way to use up leftover bits of meat, fish, or chicken is to combine with a thin cream sauce and cooked noodles or rice in a casserole dish.
