Woodville Clips Crockett 8-5

It was a pretty shaky afternoon for the Woodville Eagles and left-hander Jimmy King as baseball got underway for 1978. Woodville took an unimpressive 8-5 victory over the Crockett Bulldogs last Tuesday afternoon.

Last year's regional winners looked like barn burners in their half of the first inning. Henry Adams, a freshman leading off in the batting order, did just as a good leadoff hitter should. Got on base, honked, walked. King, blipped a single just to the right of second base, moving Adams to third. Robert Adams, another freshman, sliced a single between first and second base leading them up for Gary Simmons, Simmons, a switch-hitter, hitting right-handed, blooped a double down the right field line. Adams and King scored easily, but Adams hit a beautiful hook single on Crockett's catcher, who had the ball waiting on Robert Adams. Simmons, the pitcher, was thrown out trying to get in the inning.

Jimmy began to have his troubles in the top of the second inning when this one that problems led to four walks in the inning plus a weak single and an error. The score read 3-2 when Jimmy got the last out and headed back to the mound.

Timmons was following King into the fourth frame when Crockett loaded the bases, with two out. Jimmy got the last man to ground for first baseman Tom Watts. Crockett struck again in the fifth, taking the lead on a two-run home run off Jimmy.

But Woodville was quick to regain the lead in the bottom half of the frame. Adams walked again and King parked one, his first of the year. The ball had cleared the fence and Crockett's catcher had to get to home, getting the glove on it and stopping it over the fence. The promptly jumped over the fence and returned the ball and threw it back into the infield where King was waiting in a rundown before the play despite finally taking the ball's home run.

Crockett tied it up in the top of the sixth and double you two runners a double.

The Eagles retaliated with three in the bottom of the sixth. Paul Swell rapped a single. Lance Parker ran for him. Jerry Hasting ripped a single up the middle. Tandy Irwin walked leading the bases. David Adams was hit by a pitch. King singled driving in one and Robert Adams got a run batted in on his third hit of the day. King struck out 19, Jimmy had trouble finding the plate as was exemplified by the walk. Del. head coach Joe Yarbrough stayed with him the entire contest and came out a winner. King and freshman Robert Adams each had three hits in the nine hit. Eagle attack. Crockett only had five on the day.
