Gospel Music News Features Woodville

Two articles concerning Woodville and the Tex-La. Neches Valley Singing Convention appeared in the December issue of Gospel Music News, a monthly publication which goes to subscribers throughout the country.

The first, entitled "Record of Support—A Salute to Woodville, Texas," was written by James A. Black. It reads as follows:

Woodville, Texas, boasts a record of full support of Gospel song in general and the Neches Valley Convention in particular.

Beginning with the Chamber of Commerce and going down through the administrative circles of the Town and County, including some of the largest business concerns in that locality, these people not only put their stamp of approval on the Gospel in Song but take an active part in its promotion, not only by spending of their time, but of their means as well, to further this grand cause.

Bob Bell, at the head of the arrangement Committee of the Neches Valley Convention with the group he leads, spend their "knowhow" in publicizing the great Convention, and Business concerns back up the plan through advertising and donation to the end that the WORLD may know about it. In a word: "Everybody lives, loves and prospers by Gospel Song." We salute Woodville, Texas, and the people of Tyler County.

The second article is by Arthur Watson of Dallas, president of the Tex-La. Neches Valley Singing Convention, and is about the coming convention in Woodville.

Everything is ready for another great Neches Valley Convention January 19, 20, and 21 in Woodville, Texas and we hope you are making plans to be with us for a weekend of great gospel singing.

We begin Friday night with a big concert featuring The Jeffress Family, Crossett, Ark.; Glad Tidings Trio, Jasper, Tex.; Conn Family, Dallas, Tex.; Hagen Family, Leesville, La.; and Woody Woodrome and the Soul Seekers, Nederland, Tex. The concert is free, but an offering will be taken to help defray the expenses.

Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. the Youth Session under the direction of Gary Davis and Jimmy Jeffress is one of the highlights of the convention. Come and support our singers of tomorrow. Then at 6:30 p.m. Saturday evening the convention proper gets under way with some of the best talent in gospel music to attend. Sunday Session begins at 9:30 a.m. We are expecting five music companies to be in attendance. The Woodville Inn is headquarters for the convention and Mr. Bob Bell heads the arrangement committee and if you would like to contact Bob for reservations you may write him: 1506 W. Holly, Woodville, Tex. 75979 or call the Woodville Inn 713-283-3741.

Top Quartets Due To Be At Convention

Several top-gospel quartets from several states will be in Woodville Friday night, January 19, for the Quartet Concert which will begin the 1973 Tex-La. Neches Valley Singing Convention at Kirby High School Auditorium.

Arthur Watson, of Dallas, president of the convention, said that quartets from at least five states have indicated they will be here for the convention which will be held January 19, 20, and 21. Many of them will be singing for the Friday night concert.

Among the quartets which will be at the Quartet Concert are the Jeffress Family of Crossett, Arkansas; The Hagen Family of Leesville, Louisiana; the Conn Family of Dallas, and the Glad Tidings Trio of Jasper. Also Woody Woodrome of Nederland is expected to bring a group of singers.

The concert will begin at 7:00 p.m. Friday, January 19. Only quartets, and special groups will be heard, as is the custom at this popular session. Saturday, January 20, will feature a youth session at 1:30 p.m. and the regular convention featuring special groups, class and congregational singing will begin at 6:30 p.m. The Sunday session will begin at 9 a.m. A business session at which officers will be elected is scheduled at this time. A devotional service will be held at 11:45 a.m. and the singing will continue until late in the afternoon.

Last year the Kirby High School auditorium was filled for most sessions, although cold weather may have cut the attendance at some sessions. An estimated 3500 to 4000 persons attended the convention during the three days.

With good weather this year the local arrangements committee, headed by Bob Bell, expects as many as 5000 persons to attend during the three days. The largest crowds are usually present for the Saturday night session when standing room only is available for late arrivals and city police have their hands full handling traffic and parking around the auditorium.

In addition to the quartets and special groups mentioned above, among others here last year were the Holy Family of Houston; the Wedgeworth Family of Carthage; the Wilkerson Brothers, the Waymakers of Lufkin; the Phelps Family of Evaldale; the Jake Brown Quartet of Fort Worth; the Shaw Family of Baton Rouge; and others.

Old man winter had Texas in an icy grip Wednesday morning as sleet and freezing rain covered most of the state including this area.

Sleet began to fall in Tyler County Tuesday afternoon and by early Tuesday night driving conditions were hazardous. Some fine snow fell early Wednesday. The skies were cloudy and sleet occasionally peppered the area.

Area schools with the exception of Woodville were not open and classes here were expected to be dismissed early depending on the continued sleet and rainfall.

Driving conditions were not expected to improve much until possibly Thursday afternoon. The National Weather Service forecast more sleet or rain Wednesday.

Glad Tidings Trio Will be here again this year

Huey R. Hancock, 30, of T. arkana, has been commissioned a game warden by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and assigned to Tyler County. He will be headquartered in Woodville and should be at his new duty station by January 10. Hancock is a graduate of East Texas State University. He is married to the former Miss Dee Taylor of Hooks and they have two children, Dee Anne, 7, and William Anthony, 4.

The music will appeal to all ages and the whole area is invited to attend, according to Sherri Sturrock and Roy Bennett, publicity chairman for the event.

Garden Club To Honor Ethel O. Hill

The Woodville Garden Club will have a special public Arbor Day program January 18 on the courthouse square honoring Mrs. Ethel Osborn Hill.

The program will begin at 2:00 p.m. with a tree-planting ceremony.

Following the planting of the tree there will be a program and reception at the First Christian Church.

Deadline for girls entering the Future Miss Tyler County Pageant is Monday, January 15.

Girls five through eight and nine through twelve years of age are asked to register with Mrs. Irene Sheffield, Mrs. Ruth Smalley or Mrs. Maggie Pryor.

Sportswear will be worn for appearance on stage. Rehearsal will be at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 1, at Kirby High School auditorium.

The winner of the ninth through 12 year old group will go to the Texas Rice Festival in Winnetka the first weekend in October.

More information is available by calling Mrs. Sheffield at 283-2989, Mrs. Smalley at 837-2337, or Mrs. Pryor at 283-2747.

The Miss Tyler County pageant will celebrate its eighth anniversary this year in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the Miss America Pageant.

The young lady selected as Miss Tyler County may well be in Atlantic City, N.J., for the celebration to mark the third year of the second half-century of the national pageant which through its history has become a national segment of Americana.

Miss Tyler County will win with her honor the eligibility to enter the Miss Texas pageant. The young lady selected as queen of Texas will be one of the 50 state contestants to participate in the Miss America pageant in September.

The Miss Tyler County pageant was formed eight years ago and has continued popularity since. This year it will be held February 3 at Kirby High School Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Wisteria Chapter, American Business Women's Association of Woodville. Mrs. Dee Flowers is serving as president.

Past Miss Tyler County queens have been: Mrs. Judi Pavia Read, 1966; Mrs. Jahn Adams Hall, 1967; Miss Judy Sturrock, 1968; Mrs. Linda Pate Allen, 1969; Mrs. Lois Smith Carr, 1970; Miss Yvette Durham, 1971; and Miss Beth Williamson, 1972.

In 1972, a Little Miss Tyler County girls 5 thru 8 was initiated along with a future Miss Tyler County with girls 9 thru 12, with Charice Martindale being named Little Miss Tyler County.

She was very active in Fairview Baptist Church and was very proud of the growth of the church and its building program while she was a member.

Burglars Hit Pharmacy

Burglars entered Jarrott's Pharmacy early Monday morning prying the door on the front door and made away with about $80 in cash and an undetermined amount of drugs.

The burglars, thought to have been at least two, apparently were frightened from the store. They left by the back door leaving some cash and merchandise behind and scattering drugs along the street as they evidently ran for a car on the parking lot nearby.

The break-in was investigated by Kenneth Thyssen and B.J. Yardenan of the Woodville Police Department.

A Cameron youth was picked up about 9 a.m. Monday as he walked along Magnolia Street by Deputy Sheriff Herman Nolan. Investigation by the sheriff's department disclosed that he was wanted in Liberty County in connection with two burglaries there. Police and the sheriff's department are continuing a joint investigation on the theory that he possibly was involved in the Jarrott burglary.

Retiring Historical Committee Chairman Expresses Thanks

Mrs. Walton Davis, who has served as chairman of the Tyler County Historical Survey Committee for the past two years, this week wrote a letter of appreciation to those who have served and assisted in the program. The letter follows:

"I have enjoyed serving you as your State representative in the capacity of Chairman from Tyler County on the State Historical Survey Committee, and want to express my appreciation to everyone who has given assistance and encouragement during these past two years.

District Clerk, Mrs. Hilda Coats, County Clerk Allen Sturrock and Judge Tom Dick Mann with their employees have been most helpful in records research and it am sure all citizens of the County appreciate their efforts for history preservation and join me in a special "thank you" to them, as well as to Mrs. Maurine Mooney, Home Demonstration Agent, who has served most faithfully as our secretary these past two years.

We have final approval of a historical marker for Mount Hope Masonic Lodge, Number 121. This marker will be delivered to them after their approval of the State's suggested inscription, and their dedication of this marker will be held this year. You will be hearing more on this from them later. Thank you, Mr. J.B. Coffman, for your hard work as my marker chairman. Woodville United Methodist Church will be holding a dedication of a grave marker for an early Methodist Minister, Action Young, sometime this spring. This marker is now in their hands and awaiting dedication. It is my hope that all of you will stand behind the incoming Chairman and Survey Committee and help in preserving our proud heritage.

ECHOES FROM EBENEZER

Descriptive words are very plentiful. The words "echoes" and "from Ebenezer" are used in the correct way. But one of these words can be used in a different way. This is the word "echoes". It should be used to describe a sound that is repeated. It should not be used to describe a person or a thing. The word "from Ebenezer" is used to describe the source of the sound. It should not be used to describe the sound itself.

America Still Is

ONE WOMAN'S OPINION By Mrs. Ethel Osborn Hill. America is still a land of opportunity and freedom. It is a land where everyone has a chance to succeed. It is a land where the American dream is still alive. It is a land where the future is bright and the possibilities are endless.

Democrat all my life, a member of the Methodist Church for 34 years, received into membership when I became ten years of age. I want to say that I have always admired John Kennedy, but if he is elected the Democratic Party was wiser and wiser than the Republicans. MIAMI WAS MORE THAN SUNSHINE

By George Boullware

It was a warm, beautiful day in Miami, Florida, late in the afternoon. The sun was shining brightly, and the air was filled with the sound of music and the laughter of children. It was a special day for the Miami community, as they gathered to celebrate the annual Miami Music Festival. The festival was a celebration of the city's rich musical heritage, and it was a day when everyone came together to enjoy the music and the sun.

The festival was held in a beautiful park, and it was a day when everyone came together to enjoy the music and the sun. The festival was a celebration of the city's rich musical heritage, and it was a day when everyone came together to enjoy the music and the sun.
