Grass clippings, potato peels, onion tops and other vegetable wastes may be made into an easy to prepare and valuable soil conditioner and plant food for garden beds this fall.
An excellent material for use in garden beds is a mixture of grass clippings, potato peels, onion tops and other vegetable wastes. This mixture can be made into a soil conditioner and plant food for garden beds this fall.

JUST A MINUTE

By GEORGE CLARK
... through a Huntington, West Virginia, newspaper. The front page didn't have much to offer. The funny paper really wasn't very funny. But just then a cross word puzzle just happened to catch his eye. He took a stub of a pencil out of his pocket and took his time filling out the puzzle.
... he had won the prize, $500. That's not bad for a guy in his circumstances.

Letters We Love
An out of town salesman talked us into a new siding job for our house. But before we signed, we checked with a local building supply firm and found we were being overcharged plenty. So we had it done locally by workmen we knew and could trust. The bank financing was lower too!

Pope Mill News

Mr. and Mrs. John Grant and family visited relatives in San Antonio, then went through the zoo and the Suncook Garden. Also the Gays and squares were present. They also visited the Capital and the LBJ Library in Austin when they thoroughly enjoyed the time. It was a happy wedding. No crying. We all wish Judy and David all the luck in the world. Their new home is in Beaumont on Royal Street. Luther Scoggins came home from the hospital last Saturday and is doing fine. We are all happy about that.

Is This Your Son?

SPORT

DEAR CHARLOTTE

Our daughter's foot locker is all packed and ready for camp. Along with the inventory of her clothing, I have packed this note inside the trunk for you to whom it may concern. This is a very special little nine year old girl. She is especially special with her father, and he isn't quite so old on this trip to camp. However, if you know a few important things about her, I am convinced she'll be the champion of the year. She likes coffee-milk brought to her bed each morning. That's just a little coffee in a cup of milk with lots of sugar. She doesn't eat breakfast early, but about ten o'clock she likes soft scrambled eggs, bacon (crisp), and toast (cinnamon, please). She doesn't like spinach, carrots, roast beef, ham, cabbage, green peas, sausage, oatmeal, and milk. But she loves ice cream (vanilla), soup (chicken noodle), hot dogs (with mayonnaise), hamburgers (with catsup), French fries, and, quite frankly, anything that she can get her hands on. She has never spent the night away from home except with her grandparents and a few special friends. And she may wake up at three o'clock in the morning with a horrible stomach ache and have to come home. Oh, incidentally, we always leave the bathroom light on for her at night, she doesn't like the dark. And I should tell you she doesn't like bending and thunder, and she always crawls into bed with us on a stormy night. She also kicks her covers, so if you are up at two a.m., please check on her; she might be cold. She doesn't like to brush her teeth or her hair, but if you will patiently remind her about six times each morning, she will cooperate. She doesn't like to go to bed on a summer night, but if you will leave her with just a portion of the 10 o'clock movie, this will solve the bedtime problem, especially if you give her a class of orange juice and cookies after you have kissed her good night three times. If you still remember these few lines and details of our child, I'm sure she will love camp. But if she doesn't, we will appreciate your calling 384-2525, or 384-2626, or 384-2629, or 384-4548, or 271-2249. Any one of these people will be happy to pick her up. P. S. Please don't change her; we like her just the way she is.
