Homemaking Hints

By Mrs. MAURINE MOONEY

UNLINED JACKETS NEED "FINDING TOUCH"
 Today's casual, unlined jacket needs a "finding touch" to make them as attractive as the inside of the outside. To find this "touch," look for a "completed" jacket that has a few extra stitches. These extra stitches are usually in the collar, cuffs, waistband, and hem. They give the jacket a finished look and prevent the fabric from fraying. To make your own jacket look like a "completed" one, add these extra stitches. Use a contrasting thread for the most dramatic effect. For example, use a red thread for the collar and cuffs of a blue jacket. This will give the jacket a professional appearance and make it stand out from the crowd.

...ATTEND CHURCH
The Lord is my shepherd

PBALMB

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD
 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He has laid me down in green pastures and led me beside still waters. He has restored my soul and guided me with his counsel. His hand is with me and His loving care surrounds me. His presence is my strength and His faithfulness is my refuge. He has made a way for me through thorns and briers, and he has brought me out into a wide and open pasture. His goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and He will dwell in the house of His people forever.

...ATTEND CHURCH...
 The church is a spiritual family. It is a place where we can find comfort, support, and guidance. We are called to love one another and to serve the community. Let us strive to be a church that is welcoming, caring, and faithful. Let us be a church that reflects the love and grace of God. Let us be a church that makes a difference in the world. Let us be a church that is a source of hope and inspiration for all who seek it.
