esent system of Texas roadside parks and rest areas, recently was presented with a plaque from the Texas Highway Department in recognition for his services. The text of the award is as follows:

WHEREAS, the Texas Highway Department long has enjoyed the reputation of paying special attention to roadside esthetics, amenities and the comfort and convenience of the traveling public, and

WHEREAS, Mr. R.E. Wingate of Woodville in 1930, while working as county foreman for the Texas Highway Department in Newton County, developed facilities adjacent to State Highway 87 for the use of travelers and local residents alike; and

WHEREAS, he ploneered the concept which became the inspiration for today's hundreds of safety rest areas for the enjoyment, convenience and safety of the traveling public; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wingate helped establish traditions that evolved into traveler amenities along the state highway system of Texas; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Texas Highway Commission to salute him for his pioneering efforts and outstanding service to his community and the Texas Highway Department,

Retiring County Treasurer Fletcher Boyd was given a party in the county courtroom on Christmas Eve. He was presented with a picture of the Tyler County courthouse taken prior to renovation, an electric razor and a travel kit. Boyd served as county treasurer for 16 years, having no opponent since his first-term in office when he defeated three opponents in the 1958 election. During the party Boyd said, "I would like to express gratitude to the people of Tyler County and the officers with whom I served. I give a lot of credit to my assistants in office, beginning with Mrs. Robbie Goolsby who worked here when I took office; in 1962 I had Mrs. W.D. Parsons and my present assistant, Mrs. Billie Polk.'' Approximately 75 persons attended the retirement reception. Boyd said that he will remain active, taking care of his cattle and visiting with friends and relatives. To the assembled group and to Austin Fuller who will replace him as county treasurer he said, "the duties have increased in this office as they have in other county offices as there are a lot more people living in Tyler County now than when I took office in 1959.

County Judge Tom Dick Mann paid tribute to Boyd by saying, "He is one of the few completely honest men I have ever known.'

Verily, verily, I say unto you He that heareth my work, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but passed from death unto life.

It's a new year and time to make resolutions. We usually make resolutions and we usua-Ily break them within a week. This year we are going to make resolutions for someone else. resolutions that will make a lot of people happy if they are kept and not broken. The people we want to make resolutions for are Allen Sturrock and Paul Thomas. Both men have made an attempt to grow mustaches and both have not been very successful. The resolution we shave off their mustaches in the interest of visual environmental pollution. As an alter- new facility be provided for native, they could grow beards to cover up more of their faces, like Lady Bird Johnson's idea to plant shrubbery in front of wrecking yards to hide the unpleasant sight.

If you want to find your Senator these days, it appears that the last place to look would be the United States Senate. The Wall Street Journal reports that out of a total of 100, 44 Senators failed to vote on vital energy legislation in 1973. Important appropriations bills inverpassed with less thanalf of the Senators voting. The main reason so many Senitors are not around is that thsy are making extra money on speaking tours, with the price of their slivery tongues ranging anywhere from $500 to $2, 500 per appearance. In 1973 some Sensiors earned more than $60,000 exercising their speaking talents.

Legislation has been proposed which would limit the size of speaking fees and the smount that could be earned through this oratorical moonlightign this oratorical modulighting in any one year So far, the legislation has not pushed. To be honest it hardly seems likely that it will. For those of you wishing to see your Sepator, it would be best to wire labeld and let him know you are soming - otherwise he might not be in town.

These keys unlock many problems that exist today with the present Tyler County jail fa-

To build or not to build? Perhaps that is no longer the question, with the people of this county. State inspectors have already said this jail is beyond repair. Sheriff Lewis Craven is awaiting the report these men filed upon their return to Austin. Several years ago the condition of the jail was sternly criticized by inspectors and the building of a new jail was suggested. Today, this problmake is that Allen and Paul—em seems to not be improved but merely delayed. The recommendations are still that a

A walkaround, built on the exterior of three sides of the jail is an exercise area where the prisoners can walk about at will, the door is never locked. Along this area are a few metal benches where prisoners can sit and look outside, along this area are also windows that prisoners have kicked and broken out. The benches are snaggled and bent out of shape. Windows in the walk around have pieces of cardboard over them because glass replacement comes too often. Because of an attempted jail break some of the cell windows have sheets of metal welded over them, blocking out most of the light. Conditions of the jail are deplorable, filth and trashabou-each week but the tenants put it back in the previous state. The four flights of stairs to the top of the jail are poorly lighted; náked-light bulbs hang from the ceiling. The steps are uneven and one flight is especially steep and narrow, the steps here being only 9 in width. Yet there have been few accidents. Women prisoners have the option of having the door opening on the half either open or shut. Shut, they have less venfrom the view of passerbys walking down the hallway. The male prisoners have more pr-officially limited to 2-4 p.m on Thursdays, actually visitations occur at all times during the week. Meals are served to the jail tenants twice each day but family members usually supplement these with food stuffs. Prisoners have access to a communal room where they are allowed to play cards, dominoes or eat their snacks and meals. The littered table in this room is an indication of the lack of appreciation they have for this priviledge...The shower in this room is filled with burnt trash and totally unusable. The ceiling is blackened with smoke. Bottles and opened boxes of food spill over the metal table and floor. The walls are filled with graffiti. Some prisoners fashioned a calendar on the wall and have marked the days of their sentence on this. There have been prisoners serving sentences of as long as a year in the county jail. There is a cell for solitary confinement but it is locked and has not been in use for a long time. Existing facilities are rank with filth in the remaining cells. The area is largely unlit to the cell area. It is unpleasant to those lock-ion may no longer be in the odville for the coming year.

The fail doorway opening into a public corridor is one of the complaints the state inspectors had against the existing facilities.

for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family.

Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God hearing what children from Woodville wanted for Christ-mas, he fourtied gway to the North Pole and tried to fulfiil their wishes. He had to pay several visits to places about to be fully prepared for the ho-Ildays.

In the morning he stopped in at the Child Development Center to visit the little boys and gir-s there having their Christmas party for parents.

In the afternoon he went to the First Baptist Church Child Care Center to visit children there and share their Christmas tree. While punch and cookles were being served to lway, Santa gathered children about his knee. After listening to the requests they had for him, he started handing out gifts the children had brought to school for the party.

en under study during the past months by the board and these reports will be made. Under study were transportation, custodial staff, lunchroom, the school plant and management bids on a weight machine. The closing of the east end of the patto area between the high school and the gym to provide visiting teams a dressing room and weightroom has been authorized.

They have ordered and made application to the State Board of Control for the purchase of a 20-passenger busette. The purchase order and delivery date have been received and the Board must determine whether to pay for the busette.
