Students who have participated in the Texas Reading Club this summer are urged to get in their reading logs by the deadline for certificates, a deadline in the state at Allan Shivers Library. HEALTH TIP from TOM KNIGHT

Can we learn from rabbits? Yes says Prof. Robert T. Bergman. He observed that rabbits high in fat of adipose any kind have produced gallstones in rabbits, and the same disappeared when the animals ate less fat. The fact that rabbits on a low fat diet didn't develop gallstones seems to point a lesson to human beings.

Tax Administration Degree Offered At Angelina College

Beginning with the 1975 fall semester, Angelina College will introduce a new, two-year associate degree program in Tax Administration. Seminars in Tax Administration seminars held at the college indicated a need for formal college courses in Tax Administration. While Tax Administration is usually thought of as applying to city, county or independent school districts, many large industries employ tax specialists as do lending institutions.

This new program is designed for people already working in tax offices, who wish to enter the tax field in general. Real estate and tax specialists are becoming more necessary due to governmental requirements and the large sums of money involved in real estate buildings. Because real estate plays a large role in Tax Administration...

Colmesneil News

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cruse, accompanied by her mother, Valle Worth, spent the past week-end in Dumas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Hartzburg and son, Darrell. While there they joined in the observance of their grandson's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Cruse also had their grandson with them throughout the week while his mother attended a home-making meeting in Dallas.

Sunday was a big day in the Assembly of God Church. A large number of old-timers joined those of this vicinity in a happy day of renewing old acquaintances, feasting and singing. The special feature of the program was good gospel songs brought by the Gospel Lights of Channel 7.

Among those returning for the occasion were Mrs. Simons and certain of Vidor and Rebecca Harper and Randy Durham of Jasper. At least twenty-five members of the Justice family met in a joyous reunion at Lake Texas Sunday. Attendees came from Nacogdoches, Livingston, Beaumont, and other points of East Texas and Louisiana. Vacation Bible School at First Baptist closed Friday night with a good program presented by the children and an open house. 127 were enrolled with 91 in tower grades, 46 teen agers, and 3 professions. Mabel Freeman spent Wednesday in Siblee with her niece, Betty Purkins and family. Her daughter, Marilyn Simpson and her sons of Joplin, Mo. are expected to arrive during the present week and remain with her parents for a visit of several days. Dr. Jewett Entice and his two grand-sons of Bryan joined their sisters, Betty Entice and Ruth Cross in a brief vacation at the Old Folio home over the weekend. Another home-coming which was well attended and greatly enjoyed was that of the family church on Sunday. This old church has a rich history, with its birth in 1861 at the break of the Civil War. The occasion Sunday was in commemoration of its 114th birthday. Among those who came from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Tucker and Gladys Roberts of Beaumont, Louis Marshall of Nederland and Mr. and Mrs. Hobble Conner of Lufkin. This home-coming is followed by a revival with Bro. Jack Butler of Jasper as evangelist and Eldredge Cress of Colmesneil as director of singing. Lottie McVrihan has just returned from a pleasant visit with members of her family. In Falgo she attended the wedding of her grand-son, Ted Knock in a beautiful ceremony staged on a lovely lawn and with about 200 attendees. She also extended her visit to Austin for a week's visit with her daughter, Joanne Nelson.

Entering the Woodville Hospital Sunday was Rex Christy returning from the hospital recently were Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Fowler and Mrs. Jasper Harper were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cressch. The deepest of sympathy is extended from neighbors and friends to Mrs. Charles Hopper and her family in the sudden death of her husband on Saturday evening.
