Decision Awaited On Tour Center

A result of efforts dating back to 1969 may bear some fruit soon in a decision expected in about 30 days from the National Parks Service in deciding whether or not Woodville will be chosen as the northernmost Big Thicket National Preserve tourist entranceway and Visitor Center.

According to Big Thicket Coordinator and Supervisor Tom Lubbert, stationed in Beaumont in National Parks Services offices, the results of a Big Thicket area survey have been completed and are part of a plan which is currently under review and awaiting approval.

Lubbert did not indicate exactly what recommendations were made on behalf of Woodville's request to locate the facility here but said, "It seems like a logical location to encourage visitor contact." Lubbert said he was afraid of stirring up any "inflation speculation" with the idea of the facility being located in Woodville. He said that might happen in any advance notice of the question were given out "at this time."

Lubbert indicated that nine other communities were in the competing for the facilities location.

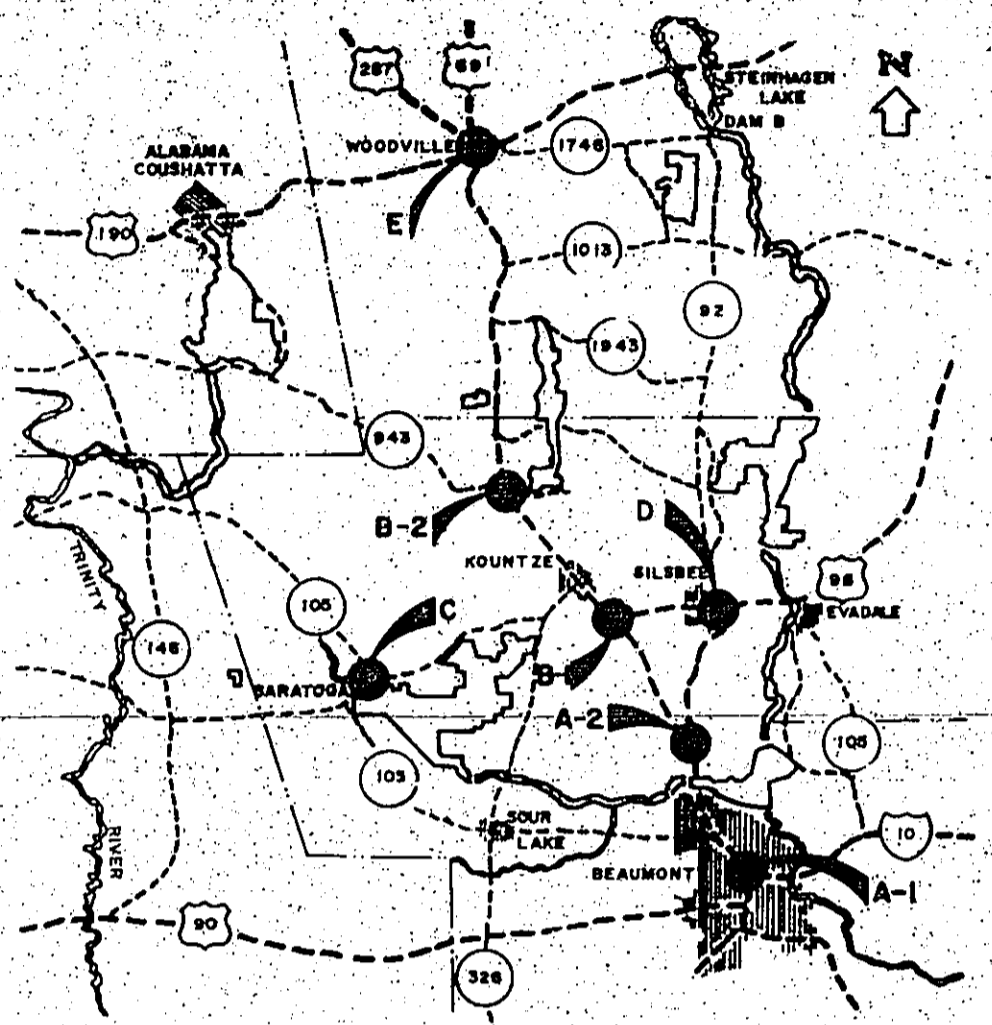

He said the National Parks Service was using its best planning expertise in deciding where to locate the facilities. Lubbert indicated that if Woodville was the Parks Service choice that a team of architects and planners would come in to design the building and recommend a location.

He said that legislative action was first required to authorize the Parks Service to make the purchase. Lubbert indicated that the facility couldn't be completed until at least 1981.

Carl Nichols, president of the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce, and who has actively solicited help from Congressman Charles Wilson for help in locating the District Visitor Center in Woodville says he feels that "Woodville offers the best possible entrypoint for the Northeastern tier of the United States and Canada to come into the Big Thicket National Preserve." Nichols said that he has financial assistance promised to help fund the construction of such a building. "We need it here in Woodville and Tyler County," Nichols has said, indicating also that the Big Thicket National Project preserve would be making a good choice in Woodville too.

Those persons under age 65 who are chronically ill must have written permission from their doctor before they can receive the bivalent vaccine, but can receive the monovalent swine flu shot without such permission, added Dr. Gilchrist.

Housing Rates To Change

Local housing authorities in Woodville and in 17 other East Texas towns will begin posting notices on new rental rate policies in early November that will become effective later in the year.

The new policies are necessary for housing authorities which require operating subsidies. For the purpose of eligibility to receive annual contributions for operation of low-income housing projects (operating subsidies), the total rentals required to be paid in any year by families residing in the dwelling units in projects to which the operating subsidy applies shall not be less than an amount equal to one-fifth (20 percent) of the family income of all such families.

Mrs. Jean Bell, executive director of the Woodville Housing Authority, explained that the new policies will mean slightly higher rents for some tenants.

The new schedule in general will mean an increase to those families with two or three children, and a possible decrease to families with more children.

A single elderly person can expect a slight increase in rent, while a single elderly couple generally can expect a slight decrease in monthly rent.

No rule-of-thumb schedule can be given since all rents are based on income (with social security figured as income).

The new rate schedule will not be effective for all renters at the same time. Most Housing authorities, for instance, reviews rental income on the anniversary date of the date on which the person or family first occupied their unit. Thus the rates are reviewed yearly, except for the elderly where rates are reviewed every two years.

Other housing authorities review rental income the same month for all residents, rather than on individual anniversary dates.

Mrs. Bell says that the new schedule will do little to offset the rapidly rising cost of operation and maintenance for housing authorities.

Higher wage rates for administrative and maintenance personnel, higher cost of equipment and supplies, the rising cost of utilities and other fixed expense are chief

Eagles Nip Warriors, 9-7

WARREN—A third period safety provided the margin of victory for the Kirby Eagles last Friday as they defeated the Warren Warriors 9-7 on a cold, wet evening.

The win raised the Eagles District record to 4-1 and kept them in the running for the District 17-AA title.

The Warriors outplayed the Eagles in the first half making 12 first downs to the Eagles' 9, but were only able to make two first downs in the second half as the Kirby defense stiffened.

The Warriors took the opening kickoff and at their own 22 and were driving when Ricky Hadnot recovered a Warren fumble at the Kirby 33.

The Eagles were forced to punt, but on the Warriors next series Hadnot recovered another fumble, this time at the Warren 27. Fullback Billy Goodman rambled 18 yards to the nine, but an offside several plays later forced the Eagles into a fourth and goal at the six, where a pass fell incomplete and the Warriors took over.

Warren punched the ball out to the 25 at the beginning of the second period, but was forced to punt, giving the Eagles the ball on their own 30. Kirby could not move the ball either and punted back to Warren four plays later.

Behind the running of Rex Burks and Frank Wolf, the Warriors marched down the field to the Eagle 30.

Quarterback Gary Ellis then passed to Rusty to the 17, and finished off the drive with a pass to end Rusty West for the touchdown with 6:59 left in the half. Smith blocked the PAT and Warren led 7-0.

A bit of razzle-dazzle by the Eagles on the kickoff return was nullified by a clipping penalty which forced the Eagles to start from their 13. # Rebels Bop Dogs, 20-0

EVADALE—It was a long night for the Bulldogs last Friday as they lost to the Evadale Rebels 20-0 in what might be classed as the "Mud Bowl".

Neither team was able to score in the first quarter. The Bulldogs reached the Rebel six yard line, but a fumble turned the ball over to the Rebels. The Rebs were never able to move past their own forty yard line the entire quarter as the Bulldogs retained possession almost the entire period.

With about two and one half minutes remaining in the second quarter, a Rebel defender intercepted a Bulldog pass on the fifteen yard line and raced eighty five yards for the game winning touchdown. The PAT was good and the Rebels led 8-0.

The Rebels next touchdown was set up when the

Kirby JV Bombs Warriors 40-0

WOODVILLE—The Kirby JV football team exploded for 26 points in the third quarter to bury the Warren JV 40-0 last Thursday night at Eagle Stadium. The win gave the Eagles the District 17-AA South Zone Championship.

The closest Warriors ever came to the goal line came on their first possession of the game after Sammy Holloway recovered an Eagle fumble at the Kirby 33. Two running plays advanced Warren to the 29, but a third down pass went incomplete and the Eagle's Lonnie Grissom sacked quarterback Clint Hutton for an eleven yard loss on fourth down.

Eagle Coach James Rogers used his freshman team on offense during the first quarter and approximately eight minutes of the second quarter. Their best effort of the evening was a seven-play, 37-yard drive to the Warren five line in the first quarter. This effort was killed by the Warrior's Billy Tucker, who sacked quarterback Frank Hanna on the 13 on fourth down.

Finally, with 2:32 left in the first half, the JV offense was sent in by Coach Rogers after Grissom recovered another Warrior fumble at the Warren 35.

Jessie Thompson ran for four yards to the 31, and a second down penalty added 15 more to the 16. Quarterback Gerald Dill then hit Coach Rogers with a 30 yard punt in the half. The PAT try for two failed, and the Eagles held a slim 6-0 lead at halftime.

The Eagle JV remained at offense through the third period and broke the game wide open.

On the first possession, Dill passed to Buster Moye for 15 yards to the Kirby 49, and then left a beautiful bomb to Moye two plays later for 51 yards and a touchdown. Thompson ran for the PAT and the Eagles led 14-0 with 6:58 in the third period.

Lincoln Upchurch intercepted a Warrior pass at the Kirby 45 on the next series, as it took the Eagles just two plays to put six more on the board. Dill hit his first career pass and the TD. The PAT attempt failed, but the score was 20-0 with 5:08 still left in the third quarter.

The Warriors fared no better the next series as Branch intercepted a Kirby pass at the Warren 22. Three plays later, Dill kept for the final 11 yards with 3:04 left to play in the third quarter. Again the PAT failed and the score was 26-0.

Warren moved from its own 42 to the Kirby 40 on the next series, mainly on the running of Thomas Caine. The Eagle secondary played havoc with the Warriors one more time, however, as Kenneth Bailey stole another pass at the 15.

Kirby JV Bombs Warriors 40-0

WOODVILLE—The Kirby JV football team exploded for 26 points in the third quarter to bury the Warren JV 40-0 last Thursday night at Eagle Stadium. The win gave the Eagles the District 17-AA South Zone Championship.

The closest Warriors ever came to the goal line came on their first possession of the game after Sammy Holloway recovered an Eagle fumble at the Kirby 33. Two running plays advanced Warren to the 29, but a third down pass went incomplete and the Eagle's Lonnie Grissom sacked quarterback Clint Hutton for an eleven yard loss on fourth down.

Eagle Coach James Rogers used his freshman team on offense during the first quarter and approximately eight minutes of the second quarter. Their best effort of the evening was a seven-play, 37-yard drive to the Warren five line in the first quarter. This effort was killed by the Warrior's Billy Tucker, who sacked quarterback Frank Hanna on the 13 on fourth down.

Finally, with 2:32 left in the first half, the JV offense was sent in by Coach Rogers after Grissom recovered another Warrior fumble at the Warren 35.

Wheat Upsets Warren

WOODVILLE—The Wheat 8th grade upset the Warren 8th grade 14-8 last Thursday at Eagle Stadium, sustaining Wheat's chances for a tie for the district championship and delaying Warren's claim to that same title for one more week.

The Warriors dominated the game in the first half. They recovered the opening kickoff at the Eagle 36. However, five plays later, Jimmy Menefee recovered a Warren fumble at the five. Then, Warrior Wade Worley nearly had a safety as he tackled Menefee on the one. The Warriors blocked the Wheat punt which followed and took possession again on the Eagle 12.

Fullback Robert White tried the line three times, but could get no further than the seven. On fourth down, Kevin Brazz intercepted a Warrior pass at the three with 1:57 left in the first period.

Four plays later, Menefee punted from the seven to the 36. Alternating runs by White and fullback Jay Bertrand, Warren moved down to the 22 in four plays. Then White took a screen pass to the 11 and rushed to the six

Jackets Drop Sharks

CHESTER—The Chester Yellowjackets had some trouble with Sabine Pass last Friday before harpooning the District 12-B Sharks 6-0.

The only score of the game came in the second quarter on a 25-yard gallop by speedster Anthony Freeman, cupping a 60-yard drive. The PAT failed but it turned out that the six points was all the Jackets needed to win.

Freeman ended up the evening with approximately 125 yards, rushing out of Chester's total of 201. The Sharks rushed for 143 yards and passed for 40 more for a total of 203 yards for the night.

Standing out on defense for the Jackets was tackle Dwight Cherry who was on 15 tackles for the evening.

Both teams had drives killed deep in the other's territory, and overall it was not the Jackets best night of the season.

By virtue of "Colmesneil's" 20-0 defeat by Evadale, however, Coach Larry Blackerby's Jackets are in sole possession of first place, just one-half game ahead of Colmesneil. The latter team comes to Chester this Friday for a showdown that could determine if the Jackets are to repeat as district champs.

Coach Blackerby said that his young squad would have to work hard to beat the Rebels who are led by Gary Gazzaway, who led the Jackets to the district title last year and has done well with the Rebels this season.

The Rebels run out of the wishbone and are a team that executes well, according to Coach Blackerby. In their first confrontation this year in Evadale, the Jackets beat the Rebels 14-0, injuries have hampered the Rebel attack, but if last Friday's game is any indication, the Jackets will have their hands full this week.

This Friday is Chester's homecoming and the Jackets should be up for the contest which begins at 7:30. Chester is now 5-1 for the season and 4-1 in District 12-B.

Thicket Not Open To Public Hunting

The Big Thicket National Preserve, a new National Park Service area still mostly in private ownership, will not be open to public hunting this year, Tom Lubbert, superintendent of the area announced.

Lubbert said that the small amount of land already purchased by the government to be part of the preserve is in such a patchwork pattern that it is impossible for the hunter to know where federal land ends and private land begins.

The confrontations between hunters and private landowners are becoming serious, Lubbert said.

Lubbert said this only exception to the "no hunting" rule on government land would be on land where the former owner retains hunting privileges. "On certain land, the owner retains a hunting lease that will be honored through the current hunting season," Lubbert said.

Persons wanting to hunt on these lands or on private land within the proposed boundaries of Big Thicket may hunt with the permission of the landowner, Lubbert said.

Texas Forest Service Celebrates 50th Birthday

"You've come a long way, baby!"

Although that expression started as an advertising slogan for cigarettes, it also applies to the Texas Forest Service now in its 51st year of service.

The Texas Forest Service was started in 1915 through the efforts of W. Goodrich Jones and a group he formed called the Texas Forestry Association. They felt there was a need for a state agency to work with the forest resources and the forest landowners of Texas. Their goal was to create a forest fire prevention, or the Department of Forestry.

It was first named, simply "Texas Forestry." The Texas Forestry Department was placed under the Board of Directors of the Agricultural & Mechanical College of Texas, now Texas A & M University. Most of the Department's efforts were in forest fire detection, prevention, and suppression.

Beginning in 1916, six forest patrolmen traveled on horseback and each was responsible for 1 1/2 million acres. Fires were spotted from wooden "cabs" built in the crowns of tall trees on good vantage points. Later, steel towers replaced the tree cabs only to be replaced themselves by aircraft as the primary fire detection method.

The first mechanized fire fighting units consisted of Model A's equipped with a supply of fire fighting tools. Now crawler tractors with fire pumps are hauled on tilt-bed trucks, for rapid travel and early control of fires. The object is to keep fires small by hitting them early. A decrease in the average size of fires from 202 acres in 1925 to 11 acres in 1974 shows the success of this system.

Today the Texas Forest Service employs approximately 250 full-time people with an additional 50 working part-time at the tree nursery near Alto, Texas. The scope of the agency has also grown. It conducts programs in landowner assistance in forestry, pest control, genetic tree improvement, education and assistance to wood using industries. The Service now has five departments including: Fire Control, Forest Management, Forest Products, Forest Environment, and Information and Education.

W. Goodrich Jones would be mighty proud of the growth of the forestry agency he initiated. He might not have said it the same way, but surely he would have said the sentiment: "You've Come a Long Way, Baby!"

'I'm Sorry' Is Overused

COLLEGE STATION—People use the phrase "I'm sorry" countless times daily. It is a magic combination, a cure-all for the guilty, which serves primarily to gloss over what has happened, Debby Johnson, a family life education specialist, says.

"It doesn't really matter that one isn't truly sorry—what matters is that one has apologized for the accident, mistake, misunderstanding, or whatever."

Mrs. Johnson is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Unfortunately, saying 'I'm sorry' won't make a broken heart heal, a missed opportunity recouer, a lie become a truth, or a loved one come back to life. Many of these things could happen based on the frequency with which we use the word, and often insincerely and thoughtlessly—with which we spill off the words."

Teaching young children, I noticed early that many deliberately or not, hurt another person, and when I discussed the incident with them, they simply said they were sorry.

"In most cases, children are 'forced' by their parents and teachers to apologize constantly, saying 'Tell Jimmy you're sorry you tripped him.' Tell your sister you're sorry you broke her toy."

"What if the child isn't sorry? True, children need to be taught right from wrong at an early age, but parents are really teaching two other concepts: first, the child is lying to himself and to the other child; and second, he learns that 'I'm sorry' will correct all wrong and smooth over the misdeed," she specialist said.

But what should parents do when their child hurts someone else or destroys someone else's property?

"It's okay for one mother to apologize to another mother for what her child did with something like 'I am sorry' or 'I broke your truck.' Then privately discuss the situation with the child, find out why he did it and suggest other ways of dealing with anger, frustration."

This phenomenon doesn't end in childhood—it follows right into adulthood. Think of a marriage in which every conflict is followed by "I'm sorry," with no explanation or discussion. Most adults simply are not satisfied with such superficial means of dealing with a problem, she noted.

"Just imagine the reaction if someone made a given adult say 'I'm sorry' when he didn't mean it. So is it really fair to perpetuate interpersonal dishonesty by emphasizing an apology in every situation?"

What this says, in effect is that feelings are our innermost thoughts and "should always be dealt with honestly. It is only when we have a clear understanding of our own feelings that we can ever hope to have a mature relationship with anyone. The therapist who says 'I'm sorry' for healthy emotional development—the meaningful use of apologies seems to teach: mistrust, not trust," she pointed out.

Holidays In Colorado Play

GREELY, COLO.—Joel Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Hudgins, Rt. 2, Box 30, Colmansville, played the role of General Patton in the University of Northern Colorado's production of "The Lady From Maxim" Nov. 28-30.

Hudgins, a sophomore theater major, has acted out in several plays at UNC, including "Mountain High School" and "The Mountain College."

There's More To Fall Than Meets The Eye

By HOWARD PEACOCK

Fall's panorama of leaves turning red, purple, and gold is a signal that their days of work are over. In gaudy glory, they are retiring.

All summer long, the leaves have been working as chemical factories. Taking carbon from the air, mixing it with chemicals and gases delivered from the tree's roots, a leaf transforms these raw materials into food for the tree's growth, health, and reproductive powers. The transformation occurs in green chlorophyll cells which use sunlight in a mysterious way to ignite the process. Scientists call it photosynthesis. It is the basis for all food chains—even man's.

If you've noticed that the air in woods is sweeter to breathe than air in almost any other place, it's because the leaves have been busy removing carbon impurities—scrubbing the air clean, so to speak—and pumping pure oxygen back into the atmosphere.

Cool weather tells the leaves of "hardwood" or deciduous trees that the time is near for shutting down their work. The production of chlorophyll cells stops and the existing green cells are dismantled. Food recently manufactured by the leaves is routed to storage areas in the body of the tree. These stored reserves will be needed in the spring.

By the time of changing color, the "chemical factory" is almost empty. Bits of yellow refractive substances that remain cause a leaf to turn golden. Scarlet, maroon, and purple shades result when an excess of food was manufactured by the leaf. Food that couldn't be transferred to storage turns into varying hues of red and brown.

Upelios, sometimes called black gum, usually begins the color parade in September. Through the months of fall and early winter, scores of species follow: sassafras, sweetgum, dogwood, beech, hickory, some oaks, paw paw, red maple and sugar maple, flame-leaf sumac, and various shrubs and vines, though not necessarily in that order. Poison ivy often offers the most striking colors of all.

There will come a time when Nature will circle each leaf stem with special cells that separate it from the branch. Then against fall's changing skies, the leaf will trace a slanting path of color to the earth, its hard season of work completed, its new role of dissolving into a new cycle of life on the forest floor begun.

Warren Carnival Is Success

WARREN—Can "Lady Blue Dolphin" swim was the question at the Lucky Thirteen C.B. Carnival when she was seated in the dunkin' booth in Warren two weeks ago.

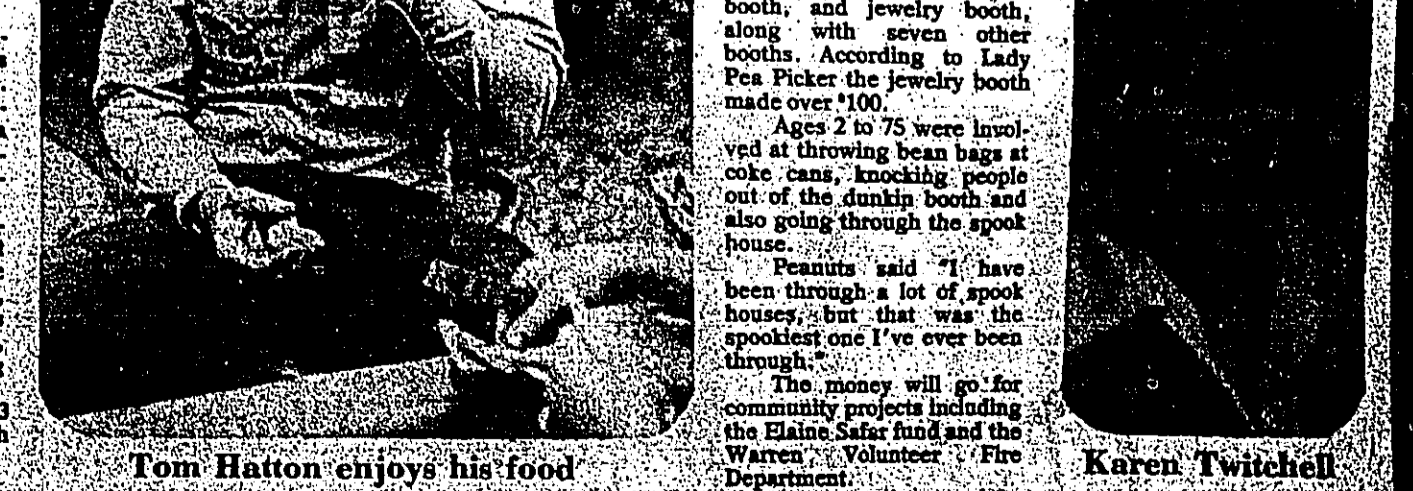

"It was fantastic, we never expected to make over $600," said Lady Pea Picker, Mrs. Tom Hatton, president of the Lucky 13 Club. "We were real proud and the C.B. Club members really enjoyed it. We don't know if we can even wait until next Halloween. We might do it before."

The big attractions were the spook house, dunkin' booth, and jewelry booth, along with seven other booths. According to Lady Pea Picker the jewelry booth made over $100.

Agnes 17-75 were involved at throwing bean bags at coke cans, knocking people out of the dunkin' booth and also going through the spook house.

Peas said "I have been through a lot of spook houses, but that was the spookiest one I've ever been through."

The money will go for community projects including the Blake Lake fund and the Warren Volunteer Fire Department.

Twitchell Is Teacher Of Month

The Future Teachers of America Club of Cypress Fairbanks High School, Houston, a group of approximately 23 student members, has recently honored Miss Karen Twitchell, daughter of Mrs. Dollie Struckhoff of Woodville, of the Cy-Fair faculty as the October Teacher of the Month. The club presented her with a cake, Miss Twitchell, in her eighth year as a teacher at Cy-Fair.

Members of the American History (F.T.A.) teaching team and the sponsor of the eight Cy-Fair Bobcat cheerleaders.

An active member of the United Teaching Profession, and Delta Kappa Gamma Honorary Teachers Society, Miss Twitchell is seldom seen leaving the school campus before 5:30 or 6:00 on regular school days, which end at 2:45 for many other teachers, as she releases the cheerleaders and meets with them to plan weekly strategy for directing school spirit. Her daily schedule in the classroom includes four classes of American History and the team planning session of the teachers of American History. Her personal enthusiasm for her work and her students has made her a Cy-Fair legend in her own young life.

Berries Make Good Jelly

By BELINDA COVINGTON

The pyracantha has a long and famous history of beautifying fall landscapes with its heavy stems of bright red berries. The pyracantha is a well-known and widely-used landscape plant for Texas. Some people like it, others do not. Granted it is thorny, has outrageous growth habits, but in the fall when its branches are laden with a heavy coat of colorful red berries, it would be hard to deny it to a place in the landscape.

One of the myths of the pyracantha is that the berries are poisonous. If you've ever watched the birds feast on a branch of pyracantha berries, perhaps you have wondered if they were indeed poisonous. The fact is, pyracantha berries are entirely edible.

If you have a surplus of pyracantha berries this fall, and would just as soon have the birds did not rob you of all of them, you might enjoy the taste of pyracantha jelly. It is quite tasty; much like apple jelly in appearance and flavor. Try one of these recipes:

PYRACANTHA JELLY
To extract the juice, boil 1/2 pound of berries in 3/4 cup of water for one minute. Strain the juice through clean cloth. To one cup juice add one teaspoon lemon juice and 1/2 package powdered pectin. Bring it to a hard boil, add 3/4 cup sugar and continue rolling boil 1 1/2 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour into hot sterilized jars.

Antique Show Set

BEAUMONT - The Beaumont Heritage Society will sponsor its third annual "Antique Show and Auction" Nov. 12-14 at the Red Carpet Inn in Beaumont. Proceeds will benefit the French Trading Post, a project of the society.

Twenty selected antique dealers from five states have reserved booths for the show and sale, to be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Nov. 12-14. A sponsors party and auction will be held Nov. 12. Featured in this year's show will be jewelry, clocks, posters and paper collectibles, silver exchanges, a china exchange, artifacts, glassware and country and period furniture.

Also included in the show, attended by 3000 people last year, will be an exhibit of museum quality furniture, circa 1750-1850, on loan to the Heritage Society from a number of private collections.

The French Trading Post, built in 1845, is in the continuing process of renovation begun in 1969 under Ralph A. Stripling of San Augustine. It consists of four downstairs rooms used as a parlor and bedrooms, a semi-detached kitchen and dining room, a large upstairs area thought to be the actual trading post, a swept yard and a corral barn.

The Trading Post and Gift Shop are open to the public from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. each day except Monday and Holidays.

AUSTIN - The Texas grocery shopper spent an average of $18.22 on a basket of 20 commonly-purchased items during the month of September, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported today.

The first monthly survey of grocery prices conducted by the Texas Department of Agriculture was based on reports made in 70 markets in 12 cities. White said. The survey was taken on the fourth Tuesday of the month.

The cities surveyed and the average cost of a basket of groceries in each were: Houston, $18.25; Austin, $17.85; Abilene, $18.72; Laredo, $18.20; Tyler, $18.18; Corpus Christi, $18.89; El Paso, $18.07; San Antonio, $18.78; Dallas, $18.22; Fort Worth, $18.20; McAllen, $18.05; and Lubbock, $18.25.

The statewide average price for each of the 20 items was: one gallon one half per cent of low fat milk, $1.22; one gallon whole homogenized milk, $1.02; one dozen large Grade A eggs, $1.78; one ounce package of individually wrapped Kraft American cheese food singles, $1.34; one pound of Fat-free margarine, $1.53.

Also, one pound of red delicious apples, $1.47; 18-ounce box of Kellogg's Corn Flakes, $1.09; one head of lettuce, $1.58; one pound of bulk tomatoes, $1.51; one pound of dry potato flakes, $1.24; one pound of Folger's Electric Peck coffee, $2.00; 49-ounce box of Tide detergent, $1.37; and six-ounce can of frozen orange juice, $1.26.

Fungus Hits Shade Trees

COLLEGE STATION - Two Texas shade trees, the mimosa and the mulberry, are suffering from fungus diseases.

Dr. Wendell Horne, a plant pathologist for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, says the mimosa tree is being removed from the Texas landscape by Fusarium wilt. The fungus organism that causes the disease had its origin on the eastern seaboard and has spread westward in recent years.

The wilt, which also occurs in cotton, peas and watermelons, results from spores that become airborne after lying dormant in the soil. It affects plant vitality and the leaves. The tree later shows symptoms of color loss and drooping and cracks along the bark soon appear, emitting a foul smelling sap.

Two resistant varieties of mimosa trees, Charlotte and Tyrone, are currently being used first to a great extent in Texas, notes Horne. Furthermore, chemical controls for the disease are not profitable at this time. About all homeowners can do is to give the trees good cultural care and to avoid mechanical injury.

The mulberry tree is afflicted with a fungal leaf-spot disease during the autumn months. This shade tree loses its leaves as a result of a windborne fungus that produces the disease, explains Horne.

Fungal leafspot can be controlled by applying two fungicide applications during the year. Since the disease is predominant in the fall, the best application time is before or after a liquid broad spectrum fungicide should be applied to any area of the tree. Application made three weeks later.

The disease does not kill mulberry trees but debilitates them prematurely bringing on a withery appearance, notes Horne.

Farm Bureau Elects Three Directors

WARREN—Three new board of directors were elected at the Tyler County Farm Bureau Convention held in Warren, Oct. 16, 1976. They are Bud Byram, of Colmesneil, Chester Willis of Colmesneil, and Ruth Stanford of Woodville. These men will serve a two year term beginning Nov. 1, 1976.

Members still serving on the board are Milton Durham of Woodville, Marvin Ivy of Hillister, Loy Conner of Chester and Paul Pickard of Warren.

At the first board meeting slated for Nov. 10, at the Tyler County Office, the directors will elect a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and other members of the board. Bud Byram has served as president for the past 11 years, during which the membership has doubled. The 1974 membership was 199 and this year the enrollment has increased to over the 400 mark.

Guests for the occasion were Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Burton, the District Director and his wife from Lufkin, and David Horn and family of Livingston, agency manager for Polk, Tyler and San Jacinto counties. Special music for the evening was provided by Barney and Sharon Bryan, the talent find winners for 1976.

Economic Service Chairman Paul Pickard reported on the change in TASCO dealers to JO-BE Equipment of Woodville and L & J General Store in Spurger. Thornton Hartzler is the other dealer in Tyler County.

Bennie Stanford, Membership chairman, reported on the membership gain from 346 to 406 on Sept. 30, 1976. The year runs until Oct. 31, 1976.

Bud Byram, president, told of the event held by the Farm Bureau this year.
