Credit Cards Are Court Issue

WOODVILLE—The several month-old argument between the Tyler County commissioners and the sheriff's department over gasoline bills surfaced again during Monday's regular meeting of the commissioners.

When the subject of six unpaid gas bills, totalling $51 came up for review by the commissioners, Commissioner Bo Jordan said that it was the county's obligation to pay them no matter if they were used illegally or not. "That's for the courts to decide," said Jordan.

Back on June 18, 1976, the commissioners passed a rule requiring that all gasoline bills on county owned credit cards be signed by the individual charging the service and include the license numbers of the car serviced. Since then, the commissioners have withheld payment of several bills from Sheriff Lewis Craven's office, because they were used to service private vehicles.

Sheriff Craven explained at an earlier meeting that the private vehicles used were essential to stake-out operations.

Sheriff Craven was in court in Kountze Monday, but Sheriff's Deputy Billy Cowart answered questions for the commissioners.

Cowart told the commissioners that the main problem was that the sheriff's department was one car short and so, was forced to use private vehicles. This sparked comments about the sheriff's car which has been parked, unused, outside the courthouse for several months. Cowart said that the car was unsuitable for emergency use, while Commissioner Leon Fowler said that he thought it could be used.

County Attorney Jim Allison told the commissioners that it would be best to go ahead and pay the bills and to set up a guideline for future use of the credit cards. If they are not followed, explained Allison, then they could be taken back, "like taking a toy from a child."

Commissioner Best moved that the county pay the bills and Commissioner H.M. Parks seconded it. The vote went 3-1 in favor with Fowler voting no.

The commissioners then agreed to hold a workshop on the matter this Friday at 9 a.m., along with Sheriff Craven and the Policy Committee to draw up guidelines for the use of credit cards.

At that time, the commissioners will also consider the remaining portion of a bill for work on the county airport.

City Council Fields Sewer Complaints

Woodville City Fathers heard several complaints Monday night at their regular monthly meeting regarding the recent sewer service rate hike enacted which affected October sewer bills and which were tabulated on a water consumption basis.

The move affects some 834 combined industrial and residential sewer customers, who are in turn responsible for creating some 283,000 gallons of sewage per day which the City of Woodville treats for environmental purposes at a sewer treatment facility built in the 1930's.

Total average water usage was figured to be approximately 450 to 500,000 gallons per day said City Manager Walt Davis.

The Council agreed to spend some of the $700,000 in sewer bond funds which were approved several years ago at Monday's meeting when they accepted a low bid of $16,389 from the Cantex Pipe Company, suppliers of clay pipe needed to start the city's sewer project schedule. The council has said they'll begin work in the Cobb Mill Road area then gradually center work in the Chesswood Community and the North Beech Street area.

Davis said the first five years of the bond obligations "are going to be rough" but said further that the council hopes to be able to make some adjustments down from the recent increase, possibly as soon as next year. He said the city was seeing what revenues could be produced this way, commenting "We had to start somewhere."

"Our main interest is to see Woodville grow," said Mayor Terry Watts "we wish more of the public could join us at regular meetings so they would understand what were up against."

For a sewer system that was built in the 1930's City Manager Davis reported "that as much as 48-percent of the city taxes go to pay for a system in which many of the pipes are deteriorating rapidly."

Council members figured conservatively that it would take at least $2,000,000 to clear up all of Woodville's sewer problems and bring the system up to federal and state standards.

The council, after waiting a long period several years ago for grant money to attack the sewer problems decided to, "Make the decision to go ahead and go as far as we could with the bond funds that were available to us."

The city has set the Cobb Mill Road area as number one priority with the Chesswood Community as number two and the North Beech Street area as third on its priority list.

City Manager Davis predicted a two-year completion date "if the weather is good."

One citizen present for the meeting Virginia Ashworth said she "couldn't understand why her sewer rate doubled during a period she was in the hospital for the month of the new rate billing period."

Mrs. Ashworth said "Looks like those of us that have lived here a long time have not been considered in the city growth. We're having to pay the taxes but not getting the services," she added.

Mayor Watts defended the city's position saying "We want to be fair to everyone, we're not trying to make any money, we're trying to give everyone in Woodville better sewer service."

In relating the city sewer problems to other heat and telephone utility rates one person in the audience implied that "Woodville didn't have enough energy to grow."

In that same meeting Monday the council elected to pass an ordinance to post city population signs showing a population of 3,200.

In other action the city accepted a $2,500 bid for a Massey Ferguson backhoe as submitted by the Michel Machinery Corporation of Jasper.

The council authorized the appointment of Joan Liocici to act as a cafe inspection agent for the city in an effort to help maintain good food handling in the city's 16 eating and retail food establishments.

In other business the council heard a talk on the merits of a traffic study proposal offered to the city and presented by Bob Ogden of the Lamar University Traffic Safety Office. Ogden asked the city to sign a resolution which would enable a study to proceed which would evaluate the city's present traffic patterns and other traffic information, which could, Ogden said assist in the growth of the city. Ogden also told the council that the survey would assist city fathers in keeping ahead of accident liability laws which will be put into effect in the 1980's if aren't met with traffic control equipment. Ogden told the group that the survey could lead to grant funding possibilities to help finance some of the traffic improvements which might be pointed up as problems in the survey. Councilman Jim Jinnette initiated the motion to allow the survey to be conducted.

Commissioner's Court

In other business, Monday, the commissioners tabled a proposal on Henry Stafford, concerning county maintenance of roads in the Woodville Hills subdivision on Seneca road. Stafford told the court that the tax revenue from the subdivision was sufficient to pay for the maintenance.

In routine business, the commissioners approved the county extension report, the county treasurer's report and the payment of bills already approved by the county auditor's office.

The commissioners also canvassed the results of the November 2 election with only a few minor changes being made in the original points.

Use Coffee Carefully

COLLEGE STATION—With coffee prices continuing to rise, consumers want to be sure they're using and storing coffee to the best advantage.

Mrs. Sally Coble, a food and nutrition specialist, says:

"Economically-minded coffee drinkers brew only the amount of coffee they will drink right away. This is because coffee is at its peak of flavor immediately after brewing. If it must stand before serving, hold below boiling temperature, because boiling ruins coffee flavor. Never reheat brewed coffee—this breaks down coffee com-

Two officers from the D.P.S., Gary Hennigan and Jim Deal came to talk on the channels as do the non-sidebanders.

In an effort to restrict hate and discontent, sidebanders have normally limited their use to channels infrequently used by AM's (16). All this is courtesy on their part. As sideband becomes more and more popular this channel is becoming heavily congested and SB's will need to use more channels and will require the AM's courtesy as they have shown much courtesy to AM's all these years.

Although technically illegal, the usage of higher frequency channels, above 23 has become so wide spread that I feel it deserves comment. These channels (frequencies) were understood by the experienced to sideband channels just as 16 is understood as a sideband channel. As a sidebander more to these frequencies the SB's are quite limited. Houston will temporarily be lower than 27.325. This frequency 27.325 was for years considered as the most good.

As most of you know, Barry Nadler of the Bmt. F.C.C. office in Houston (to Miami) I talked to Mr. Nadler concerning the closing of the Beaumont office and he assured me that his rumor is just that, a rumor. A very qualified F.C.C. officer from Houston will temporarily be taking his place. He wouldn't give me any names but states

Income Maintenance

With the best of intentions to insure that the working men and women of this country have an adequate source of income after age 65, Congress has enacted a series of laws in the past two decades which in total, have created a hodge-podge of costly inequities.

One of the most glaring examples of overlap in benefit payments is seen when a working couple—one of whom is employed in the private sector and the other is a career federal employee—reaches retirement. Such a couple is entitled to three benefits—a Civil Service retirement pension for one, a primary Social Security benefit for the other, and a secondary Social Security benefit as well.

If both husband and wife were employed in the private sector, each would be entitled only to a primary Social Security benefit.

It is estimated that coordination of Social Security and Civil Service retirement benefits would result in a savings of over $50 million a year.

A recent study by a Task Force of the National Association of Manufacturers comments: "Even a cursory study of the income maintenance system suggests a much longer look is necessary." We heartily agree.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR TYLER COUNTY BOOSTER

We would like to say a special thank you to our County Commissioner Mr. Leon Fowler who built a road for our new church property in Rockland. We are sincerely thankful that he took time to help us get the road built.

Thank you, The Rockland Revival Center, Pastor Rev. Kirby Cowart, Pam Cowart

EDITOR TYLER COUNTY BOOSTER

This is my second letter to your paper concerning Camper's Cove Road and it's maintenance. The residents were very happy when Mr. Jordan sent his men here to work on the road and clear out the ditches etc.

However, before the project was completed the men and machines disappeared and we haven't seen them since. They were due to re-work our driveway and our property (that is the ROW area) due to the work on the property of a man who owns coming here for week ends and that of a permanent resident. The rest of us were left hanging.

Camper's Cove Road is a mess when it rains. People get stuck or slide all over the road and someone is surely to get hurt one of these days. Mr. W.K. Patton, our former posse man, got stuck as did our maid man. Finding Mr. Jordan is like looking for a needle in a haystack.

It looks like just enough work was done to placate the people to a while. Might I remind Mr. Jordan that he and his workers are paid with tax money and we people pay the taxes. Might I also remind him that there are elections where more qualified men can be elected to take the place of those who ignore the needs of citizens?

There are a lot of unhappy people over this situation. We need this road paved and taken out of the hands of those who are not on the sidelines, but in the stands.

Friday I found myself in the role of armchair referee during the Chester-Evadale battle. An Evadale pass bounced off one Rebel and into the hands of another at the Chester one-yard line. Now, as anyone who has seen the Dallas Cowboys play can tell you, that is illegal.

But the referees proceeded to line the ball up at the one and the Rebels scored on the next play which proved to be the winning touchdown.

If the opportunity had presented itself I probably would have told the referee closest to me something about his ancestry. As it turned out however, the first thing I saw was Chester Coach Larry Blackberry telling his men to forget the call. "It was a good call," he told one Yellowjacket before turning back to the task at hand, watching the football game.

Winners and Losers

Well, they didn't win. Evadale had a good team, and it was no disgrace to lose to the Rebels. Seeing how Coach Blackberry accepted the "blow" with grace and good sportsmanship, it is hard to say that that cold field was anything but a winner.

Having watched a good deal of the county's high school football teams in action, it is hard to say that the Rebels are the winners and the Yellowjackets are the losers. The players, those most involved in the sport, seem into it, their determination about the game right to the last whistle. Now, as anyone who has seen the Dallas Cowboys play can tell you, that is illegal.

But the referees proceeded to line the ball up at the one and the Rebels scored on the next play which proved to be the winning touchdown.

If the opportunity had presented itself I probably would have told the referee closest to me something about his ancestry. As it turned out however, the first thing I saw was Chester Coach Larry Blackberry telling his men to forget the call. "It was a good call," he told one Yellowjacket before turning back to the task at hand, watching the football game.

Finally, Washington was blessed with a few sunny, cold and colorful autumn days last week. Though not a spectacular fall in the city this year, each tree tried its best from gods to the deep reds to the yellows and oranges. The original castle dates from 1846 and was designed by John Jencks.

One view of the park is from Independence. Walking the walkways is paved with brownish crushed stone. The botanical delights include stunning floral patterns made of 40,000 green and deep red Jacob's Coat. And there are some numerous other flowers and living flower arrangements.

The design of this garden was inspired by the Philadelphian centennial celebration a hundred years ago. But it is also conceived in the spirit of, and as a setting for, the romantic old castle. The original castle dates from 1846 and was designed by John Jencks.

New Legislation Affects Estates

The new tax legislation that has just become law will have a big effect on farm and ranch families, contends Tom Prater, an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Most of the legislation is effective after Dec. 31, 1976, although gifts are effective as of Sept. 8, and trusts as of April 30.

One item in the legislation that will affect the estate planning and management of Texas farm and ranch families will be the "current use" value of farm and ranch property, and passes to a qualified heir (member of family).

Another important feature is the gift tax credit for paying estate taxes over 10 years before the decedent's death was qualified and used in business in which the decedent or a member of the family materially participated.

The new tax law will also increase the exemption level as far as estate taxes are concerned. The new tax credit for paying estate taxes over 10 years before the decedent's death was qualified and used in business in which the decedent or a member of the family materially participated.

The Bible reads "Happy is that people whose God is the Lord." Psalm 144:15. "Overjoyed shall be happy, for Jesus Christ can be happy God as his Lord. It is so simple that some cannot believe that it could be possible that merely by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ one can be saved and happy."

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might believe on him (John 1:10-12). "Who is God? I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." (1 Timothy 1:5) He does have a HAPPY LIFE!

Wheat Shocks Diboll

DIBOLL-The Wheat 8th grade team finished their 1976 season last Thursday on a winning note as they defeated the Diboll Lintjacks 22-20. The victory was not an easy one as the Eagles had to rally in the last seconds for the tying TD and then make a two-point conversion to win. Diboll took a 6-0 lead in the first period following a touchdown and a missed PAT.

Wheat came back and scored in the second period on a 40-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Brazil to Tony Dill. The PAT failed and the score was tied at 6-6, and that is the way the first half ended. In the third period, fullback Jimmy Messer capped a drive with a five yard run around left end for the second quarter as Warren increased its lead to 12-0. The Bulldogs refused to play dead, however, and managed a touchdown and a PAT in the final period to narrow the score to 12-8. Nevertheless, the Warriors held on to win. White rushed for 95 yards for the afternoon, while the Wildcats Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Stiggs and Robert Burnett caught several key passes each from Corrier. Warren picked up 11 first downs to Corran's six, and gained a total of 226 yards. Everyone is urged to come out to Warrior Stadium to see the district clash with the Wildcats Thursday at 6:30 p.m.

Tied For District Rebels Rob Jackets, 22-16

CHESTER-The Chester Yellowjackets level and tied with the Rebels 22-16 before a homecoming crowd. Combined with Colmesneil's victory over High Island, the loss throws the district race into a three-way tie with only one more week of regular play to go.

Things went wrong from the start for the Jackets as the Rebels recovered a fumble at the Chester 39 on the first play from scrimmage. Thirteen plays later, Oliver Rutledge scored from one yard out with 6:14 still left in the first quarter. The PAT failed and Evadale led 6-0.

The Rebels tried an on-side kick, which succeeded according to the officials, and took over at the Chester 44. Ricky Payne finally got the ball for the Jackets, seven plays later when he sacked the Rebel quarterback for a seven-yard loss on fourth down.

Evadale drove out to its 37, but was halted there when Dwight Cherry dropped the Rebels' Ricky Curry for a two yard loss on third down. The Rebels punted and Chester took possession at its 43. A series of ten rushes by Freeman and Wayne Hubert placed the Jackets on the Rebel 30. Then Freeman lifted a pass to Chuck Hardy to the 16 and picked up 15 yards to the one on the next play around right end.

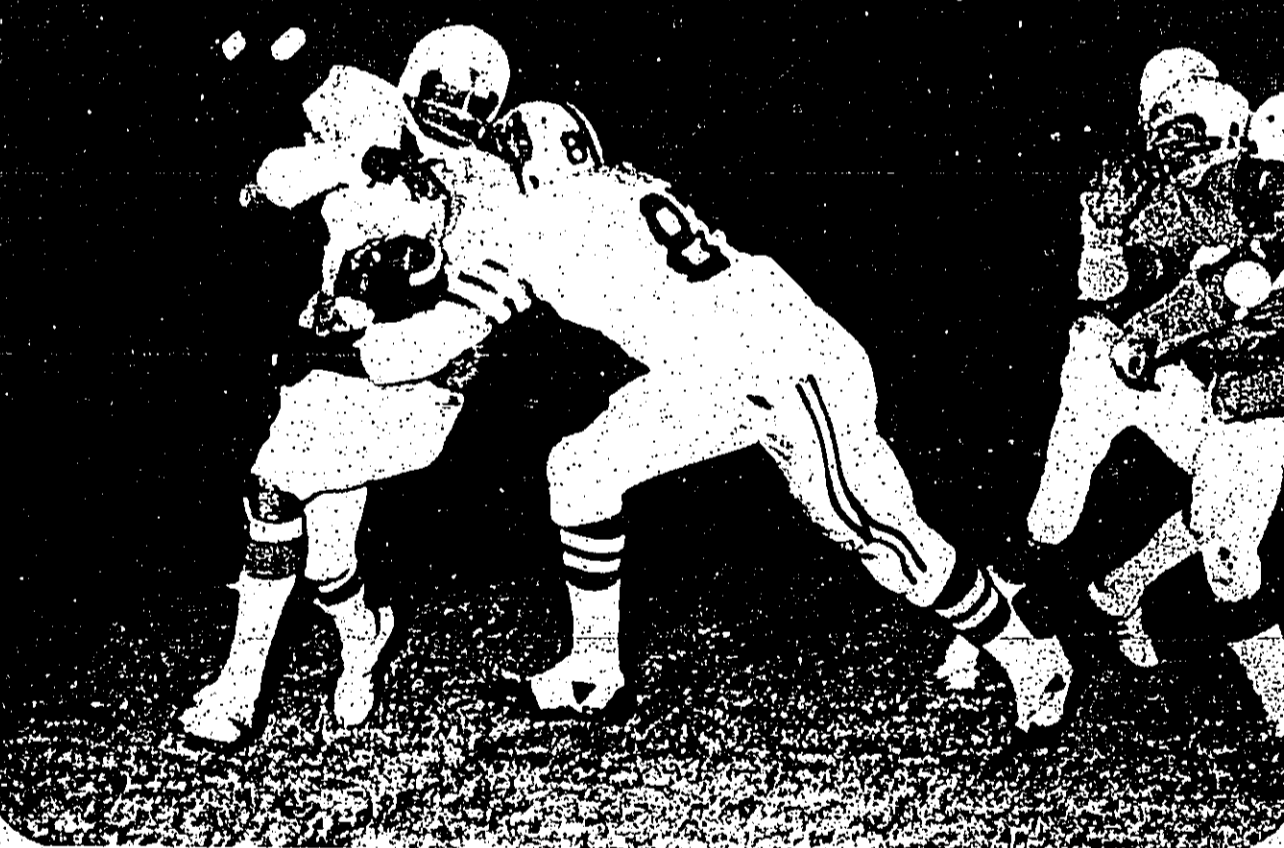

Hubert ran for the final yard and the TD with 1:56 left in the first half. Freeman picked up the PAT and Chester went out in front 8-6. That was the way the score remained until halftime. Evadale's junior quarterback Bryan Chambers stunned the homecoming crowd by taking the second half kickoff and streaking 85 yards down the right sideline.

Farm Bureau Insurance-Livingston
Considering my wife and I have been married only a short time, do we really have a need for life insurance? Yes. The amount and kind depends on your needs, responsibilities and lifestyle. If you are childless, both working with well-paying jobs, you need no insurance. If you have a family with children, a non-working wife and probably a smaller savings account, then life insurance is in terms of income, income to meet medical expenses, to ease the cost of your children's education, income to help support a family. With all these variables, you should discuss your personal circumstances with your agent. He will help advise you as to your needs and the best way to meet them.

THE HARVEST

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." Genesis 8:22

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love to all men and women. It is the only way in which God can save the world. He will bestow His grace and His kingdom which no hold or deed will ever merit. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and the world.

State Share to 90%

Briscoe Asks For More School $

AUSTIN-Governor Dolph Briscoe recommended last week that the State increase its share of the foundation school program to 90%, with the remaining 10% assigned to the districts on the basis of estimates of taxable value.

The Governor's Office, Education Resources, has just completed a 14-month market value study of all school districts in the state. Estimated the State's total taxable wealth as $28 billion in 1976. Briscoe said, "As education costs continue to rise, State support will not keep pace. Even with the increase in funding provided by H.B. 1126 (passed by the last session of the Legislature), State support only covered 75% of the total cost."

TELL 'EM YOU SAW IT IN THE TYLER COUNTY BOOSTER, Thursday, November 11, 1976

Pork Prices Drop

COLLEGE STATION—Low meat prices appear on at least several items in all major meat sections in Texas grocery stores currently—with pork leading price-drop.

These prices, already much lower than last year for several weeks, declined again this week. Gwendolynne Cyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, said:

"Look for specials on loin cuts—chops and roasts. Boston butt roasts (both bone-in and boneless), pork steaks, semi-boneless hams, bacon and sausage," she advised.

Mrs. Cyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

At beef counters, features include chuck cuts, ground beef, steaks for broiling, Boston roll roasts, corned beef and liver.

At poultry counters, turkey specials are offered, and fryer prices remain low.

Fresh vegetable counter my focuses on cauliflower, cabbage, Brussels sprouts, broccoli and collard greens, Mrs. Cyatt said.

Other economical choices include carrots, celery, cucumbers, dry yellow onions, green peppers, rutabagas and squash.

Fresh fruit in best supply at the most economical prices are apples, bananas, oranges, grapes and pears. Cranberries have moderate prices.

Along grocery store aisles some features may appear on canned corn, and tomato products, such as catsup, sauce and stewed tomatoes.

At frozen food sections, look for specials on orange juice.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: Get out the food lists and make up the grocery shopping list. This makes it easier to find feature prices on the kinds and cuts of meat the family prefers.

USE THAT PUMPKIN!

By BELINDA COVINGTON

What in the world can you do with those Halloween and Thanksgiving pumpkins? The answer—Pumpkin! Pumpkins may be canned. Frozen, dried or preserved. Check with my office for the Home Canning Bulletin, B-194, or B-175, Frozen Foods.

Maybe you would like to try one of these recipes that have an unusual new, tasty treat using pumpkins...

PUMPKIN ORANGE JAM
 Pumpkin mellow the orange in this brightly colored jam. It has a deliciously different taste and is easy to prepare that you may decide to make some for holiday gifts.

2 medium sized oranges
 2 cups sugar
 2 cups pumpkin, canned or cooked

Great outer layer of orange peels, remove and discard inner white skin of the orange and then grind the pulp. Combine peel, pulp, and juice with sugar and pumpkin in a saucepan. Bring to a boil and simmer, uncovered, for 30 minutes.

Meanwhile, sterilize 5 half-pint jars, keep hot. Scald lids and ring bands. Pour into hot jars, spoon off any foam and add more fruit to within 1/8 to 1/4 inch from top, depending on recipe. Wipe rims with a clean, damp cloth. Place lids on jars and screw on ring bands as tight as you comfortably can. Let cool on a towel out of a draft; then press lids with your finger. If they stay down, they're sealed. Makes 7 half-pints.

PUMPKIN PICKLES
 2 1/4 cups sugar
 2 1/4 cups cider vinegar
 3 cups water
 3 sticks cinnamon (each about 2 inches long)
 15 whole cloves
 4 pounds pumpkin (about 6 cups)

Mix together the sugar, vinegar, water, cinnamon and cloves in a 5 quart kettle. Cut pumpkin into sections. Scrape out pulp and seeds, and cut off rind. Cut pumpkin meat into 1 inch squares. Add to syrup. Boil gently for 5 minutes. Remove from heat, cover and allow to stand for 1 hour. Return to heat and boil gently, uncovered, for about 1 hour or until pieces are translucent. Turn pieces occasionally. Store in refrigerator of can in 5 half pint jars. Pack boiling hot pickles in hot sterilized jars to within 1/4 inch of top of jar. (1/2 inch of top if pints are used). Wipe top of jar clean with a damp cloth. Seal according to manufacturer's directions. Process for 10 minutes in hot water bath. Store in a cool, dark place.

I'm the only microwave oven with a brain!

My name is Touchmatic Radarange MICROWAVE OVEN made only by Amana
I make microwave cooking even simpler. I'm so easy to operate.
Amana COOKMATIC Power Shift™ puts you in full control of everything you cook.
Pick the operations you want it to perform by touching the numbers and cycle instructions on the smooth, clean face of the control panel. It's that simple. Then push the start button. Solid state reliability.
As you make your selections by touching the control panel, the solid state "brain" records your instructions, remembers, and accurately carries out your cooking program. It's that easy.
Of course, you can interrupt the cooking at any time to season, baste, or whatever. The Touchmatic system remembers exactly when it was and resumes cooking as soon as you press the Start Switch.
Radarange Cooking is fast, clean, cool, and saves energy.
It's simple to operate, simple to use — built with solid state reliability. Of course with 675 watts of cooking power, the Touchmatic Radarange Oven still cooks almost everything in one-fourth the usual time. For example:
a 5 lb. roast takes just 35 minutes;
a hamburger — 60 seconds;
a hot dog — 20 seconds;
Vegetables (from frozen to serving) take 5 or 6 minutes;
a baked potato — 4 minutes.
This Touchmatic Radarange Microwave Oven. Yes, we've made the greatest cooking discovery since fire — even greater. And so simple.

Southland Wins Award

HOUSTON—Southland Paper is one of three U.S. corporations honored by Keep America Beautiful, Inc. for environmental and beautification efforts.

Southland received a third place award in the organization's business and industry category for its efforts in creating and maintaining woodland trails on company lands in East Texas.

The national citation will be presented to Southland at the annual Keep America Beautiful awards banquet December 1 in New York City.

Also honored in the business and industry category were McDonald's Corporation of Oak Brook, Ill., for its "Trees for America" program, first place, and Atlantic Richfield Company of Los Angeles, Cal., for its relocations of service stations.

Lucky 13 CB News

WARREN—The Lucky 13 CB Club met November 6, for their regular monthly meeting. After getting old business out of the way, we naturally went on to new business.

Everyone forgot they were face-to-face and really spoke their opinions.

We were proud to welcome two new families. This brings us up to fifty families or 153 members. We are also proud to have our first honorary member, E.L. (Cotton-bow) Bawls.

The main topic was a basketball game. We are going to play the Warren P.T.A. The games are scheduled for Nov. 20, in the Warren Jr. High Gym. The ladies game starts at 7:00 p.m., with the men's game following.

Admission will be 11 adults and 50¢ students. We urge everyone to come and cheer for us. Believe me, we need all the encouragement we can get.

Since the holidays are nearing, we urge everyone to drive safely. One of the things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving is the automobile. However, too many of us drive too fast and abuse our rights to the highways.

We should also be thankful for Smokeys and black-and-whites. They are out there to help us and protect us from ourselves. Sure, tickets are bad but wrecks are worse.

This Lady Blue Dolphin will be sure to remember that Smokey who caught her pedal-to-the-medal after the CB meeting. Thanks Mr. Bear, you may have saved my life.

In addition to the business and industry awards, KAB makes awards to youth groups, schools, cities, counties, states and other organizations throughout the United States.

Southland previously received two other national awards for environmental efforts from "Environment Magazine." One for anti-pollution efforts at the company's paper mills and the other was for forest environmental work.

In 1985 the U.S. Post Office guaranteed free mail delivery to all cities with a minimum population of 50,000.

Accent On Health

State Sees Benefit Of CBs

When an accident occurs getting emergency medical assistance to the scene rapidly can mean the difference between life and death. That's one reason the Texas Department of Health Resources is interested in that phenomenon of personal communications gadgetry: the Citizens Band radio.

During the past two years, the number of licensed CB radio operators has grown to an estimated 8 million in the United States. According to a spokesman for the TDHR Emergency Medical Services Division, the sheer number of people who have CB radios in their homes as well as in their cars has sparked the interest of public health officials.

Dennise Raines, coordinator of the EMS Division's CB Radio Project, explained, "We started realizing about a year ago the potential that Citizens Band radio would have in guiding emergency medical help to accident scenes more rapidly. Raines said, "We have tried to put together a program to standardize reporting procedures by a motorist-to-law-enforcement agencies as well as emergency medical facilities around the state."

Raines said that the CB project has four objectives, the first of which is to standardize reporting procedures. The second is to promote the use of CB radios to avert impending disasters, or at least to warn the community. "We see this every day," Raines said, "when motorists are reporting hazardous road conditions and weather conditions further down the road." Highway travelers who are given this advance warning may be able to seek shelter from a major storm, or choose a safer and less congested route around a major accident scene.

A third objective, according to Raines, is to encourage the use of CB radio during community-wide emergencies. Volunteers equipped with radios can keep in touch with public safety and emergency personnel, can control traffic and crowds, and in some cases can serve in place of conventional communications systems—such as those which may be out of service during a severe storm, hurricane or other disaster. Amateur radio operators have served in this capacity for many years, but the number of CB radio users is vastly greater than the number of "hams."

Finally, the fourth objective is to educate the public, to try to get them to realize that CB radio can be used for other things than just having fun and evading traffic tickets. "This educational effort is aimed not only at licensed CB operators, but at the general public as well, since in an emergency situation they may need to rely on a CB'er for help."

Raines said he sees the possibility of a statewide network of emergency monitors using CB radios at some future time. "Citizens Band Clubs are getting their people to monitor the FCC-designated emergency channel, which is channel 9," Raines said. "We see other organizations such as REACT and Dallas Community Watch cropping up all over."

REACT is a nationwide organization of local volunteers who monitor the emergency channel and relay messages to the police, fire department, highway patrol, or other emergency services. Although each local REACT "team" operates autonomously, a state REACT Council has been formed in Texas to coordinate the local groups and to promote the further development of the REACT program. Dallas Community Watch, which is affiliated with REACT, was established a number of years ago for similar purposes, with sponsorship by the Dallas police department.

In carrying out the state health agency's CB project,

Raines meets frequently with local CB clubs and REACT groups, as well as civic organizations, PTA's, and any other interested group of citizens, to explain the usefulness of CB radios in emergencies.

He advises all CB operators to seek help by radio in an emergency. In urban areas he said, there is usually someone monitoring channel 9. In rural areas Raines suggested trying various channels until contact is established with a base station (that is, a station in someone's home or office), from which a message can be relayed to the appropriate authorities. In some cases, it may be possible to contact Texas Dept. of Public Safety officers on channel 9, since some of the Highway Patrol officers have their own CB units in their patrol cars.

In the U.S. today a lot of people can rely on more available nursing care. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the number of active registered nurses has almost doubled in the past 25 years.

Temple Receives 'Road Hand' Award

DIBOLL—East Texas Industrialist Arthur Temple Jr. received the Road Hand Award from the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for helping stimulate public interest in the development of transportation facilities in Texas last week. The award was presented at a meeting of the Deep East Texas Development Association here by Dewitt C. Greer, a member of the State Highway Public Transportation Commission.

The "Road Hand" Award was created in 1973 by the department to honor private citizens who have volunteered their time and efforts to assist the cause of good transportation in Texas.
